

Jeshua In Expression

1994-05-22

Indeed, beloved and holy and only Child of our Heavenly Father, Child of Light divine, I am the one known as Jeshua ben Joseph, and it is in great joy that I come to abide with you this afternoon in your timing as you have chosen to set aside this time to abide with me.

The name Jeshua ben Joseph is the anglicized version of my name. In the days that you shared with me I was known as Yeshua, written "Y S H W": Yeshua. Jeshua is the anglicized version, which is more accepted in this day and time. And "Jesus," as you have come to know me down through the ages, is the Greek form of Jeshua. This is what has been translated into your Holy Scriptures.

It is indeed a whole new world that is coming about on this plane. Thank you, beloved brother, for sharing that song and for bringing the good news to the attention of your brothers and sisters. {Peter Hylton has just sung the song, "A Whole New World," from the movie "Aladdin".} For what you have witnessed in the last few days of your timing has been the birthing of a whole new world for those of you who have chosen to be here and to allow your hearts to be open.

I thank all of you for hearing the invitation that I have sent out and for choosing to be here in this manner with me. For truly, we are always together. We are always in communion. I am never apart from you, but it is my great joy to come and express in this manner, to be able to speak with you with the words of the mouth, of the tones that you can understand in this way, to give unto you - for those of you who have been asking - to give unto you confirmation in this form that yes, I am alive and well. I am very much with you. I have never gone from you. Lo, I am with you always. We go together as the holy Child that we are forever and always, expressing as the joy that we are, expressing in song, very much in the joy of Who we are as you allow the beautiful tones to come forth.

Beloved one, behold your divine redeemer. Not I, Jeshua ben Joseph. Behold Beverly, as you are known in this lifetime. You are your own divine redeemer. You are your own salvation, and your sins, whatever they would have been, have been forgotten.

And what I speak unto this one {Beverly Dexter} because she has voiced it for all of you is true for all of you. You go forth from this day a newborn Child of our Heavenly Father. All of the past is as if it had never happened. Unless you choose it to bring it forward with you, it is left in the past. And all of what you would have seen as sins, they have truly been forgotten for your Heavenly Father has never known them. It has only been you and the voice of the world who has given them any value in any time. Our Heavenly Father has never seen what would be known as a sin. For there is no such. There have only been choices - choices to experience for the sheer fun of it.

You, beloved ones, are birthing a whole new world. You are bringing forth upon this plane remembrance of Who you are, remembrance of the Light that you are that is forever ongoing. You have allowed your heart and your mind to be open to new possibilities, new images, new ways of looking at things. You have said, "I will come and I will be in a place of non judgment, for truly, I know that I am more than just the body that sits upon the chair and more than the personality with which I identify at this time." And truly, you are.

You are bringing forth upon this plane a whole new world of joy. The people of this beautiful island are looking to you for salvation. They would not, perhaps, put it in those words, but in the depth of their soul they are crying out for hope, for salvation. What you are seeing with the acts, the behavior, is a grand crying out of your brothers and sisters to know Who they are. They are truly searching, the same as you have been. And now you have found and you will share with them what you have found.

This island is a paradise. You have made it a paradise in what you have seen as other lifetimes, times past. You have lived here happily many lifetimes. You have lived and experienced and grown in your unfoldment, and this island is truly Heaven upon Earth as you allow yourself to show the Light that you are and to give forth unto your brothers and sisters the Love that they cry out for.

Many are in confusion. You see this by their choices. They are as little children that choose to fight amongst themselves, not knowing that there are other choices, other ways. You, as my disciples, I charge you to share with them the vision that you hold within yourselves of a whole new world, a world that is holy because it knows itself to be whole, not lacking, not having to fight each other for power, for material goods, for Love, for whatever would be seen of value. There need not be the conflict of one brother taking seemingly from another what he thinks he lacks.

Share with your brothers and sisters that they are the holy Child the same as you. Share with your brothers and sisters that they are the energy of the Heavenly Father the same as you. Share with them that no man/woman needs to take from another for our Heavenly Father instantly supplies all that we need as we turn to Him and as we ask. And it is not that we supplicate a Being outside of ourselves, but we ask in order to come unto a place of clarity within ourselves as to what we are desiring. That is why we ask: to get the clarity. It is not to supplicate, "Please, if I am good enough, will You please give unto me what I am asking." Our Heavenly Father never withholds. He cannot, for we are His divine Children and we are the creative holy Child, the only Child, and all that we would ever need is instantly supplied.

Whenever you would look outside of yourself for fulfillment, be very vigilant and ask yourself, "Where does that idea come from?" What belief are you holding at that moment? For truly it is showing you that you believe yourself not to be holy and that you would have to ask of another, even a God outside of you, to give unto you what you already have.

That is why I have said to be very vigilant, to be aware of every desire, every feeling, and to ask of yourself, "Where does this desire, where does this feeling come from?" Does it come from the place of fear, the place of lack, the voice of the world that would speak that there would be limitation and only a finite amount? Not perhaps enough to go around? Or does it come from the place of Love, the place of your true nature that says, "I am all and as I need it, instantly it will be there for me." For all of you it is instantly there for you.

If you will receive it, you manifest in each moment exactly what you need. Look upon yourselves right now. You are beautifully clothed. You have been fed. You have a roof over your head that would keep from you whatever you would see: the dust of whatever falling upon the head - the dust of Love - the dust of our planet, our Holy Mother, the Earth, and Her gentle rain. And whatever you have had need of has-always been supplied and always will be - even with the bodily needs, until you choose to trade in, as it would be, the body and to go on with another form. Life never ceases. Forms change, yes, but the Life that you are is ever ongoing and ever expressing, and as you have said, beloved one, it is to be expressed in joy for that is your nature.

It is not by accident that you have chosen the name, "The Nature of God," for your class. It was chosen in concert, we will say, with the Mind of God, to explore what is the nature of God. Who is God? And I tell you, if you will receive it, I am looking at God. His holy Child. Each and every one of you.

The nature of God is Love. You have heard that said many times. Love, beloved ones, is expanding, expansion. It can be felt even within what is known as the heart, the area of the physical heart, the heart chakra. For as you behold a beloved object, a beloved mate, a friend, the heart opens and you can feel the very cells of the body expanding in the Light that you are.

That is the nature of God: the expansion. It allows you to know that you are forever ongoing. You are one with our Heavenly Father, for it cannot be otherwise. You are Life and you are Light and you are Love forever expressing, and you are the expansion of the Love, the unlimited Love. Allow yourselves to abide in the Love that you are. Allow yourself to feel the holy Child that you are. Know yourself to be the energy of the universes. You need not ask from anyone their energy in any form. You need not ask from anyone to give you Love. It is only for you to share the Love that you are with them, to allow it to be a never ending flow, a stream of Love that goes forth.

You need not ask of anyone to share with you their material possessions, for instantly you manifest what you are. You need not ask of anyone to share with you their energy in any form, for you are energy. You are unlimited Love. Unlimited Light. You are the power, not as the world defines power, but you are the power of the beingness of the holy Child that you are and you need ask from no one any fulfillment. You need only allow it to be expressed. And in that expression do you know what you feel, beloved one? You feel joy.

This is where you live and move and have your being: in the Joy of the Lord, yes. In your own joy, for you are the Lord. Oftentimes, in many lifetimes, mankind/womankind has seen fit to call outside of themselves to a Lord, be it Jeshua, Jesus or other masters as you would name them or the Lord God of Hosts, our Heavenly Father, and your prayers are always answered. Sometimes you do not receive them. You say, "No, Jesus, Jeshua, I want this but I won't take it right now. Keep it for me and in a while, another lifetime or two, I will claim it." You have done this, all of you.

And if you will receive it, this is the lifetime that you have come to claim it, and it is my great joy that you are claiming your divine birthright. For as you abide in joy, you allow me to abide with you in that joy, in the Joy of our Heavenly Father. This is all you need do. You may study, yes. It is a joy to study, to entertain new ideas. It is a joy to express, to express with a physical body. Enjoy those adventures. That is why you are expressing as a physical being, each and every one of you.

All you need do - and it is an invitation - is to express the joy that you are - as you do so well, beloved one. All of you have a unique gift that you share with others. Sometimes you keep it hidden from yourself and you would not see it. It is as you would put the hands before the eyes and not look upon the gift that you share with others. But every one of you has a beautiful gift of understanding, a beautiful gift of compassion, a beautiful gift of what you would call talents and abilities that you share with others and you allow them the choice to be uplifted by what you share with them.

Thank you, beloved one. It is a grand gift that you share with others. And you, also. Many of you go about your life in quietness and you express as the flower expresses. The flower does not ask of itself, "Am I good enough? Am I worthy enough to do my process and to bloom?" The flower just grows and unfolds - as you do - and each one is a unique expression of the Heavenly Father upon this plane. Each one of you is a beautiful flower, blooming in grand radiance - in different colors, in different forms, in different shapes, some with the aroma of the rose, of the lily, some of you with the grand splash of color as you enjoy the adventure of life. But all of you are a beautiful flower unfolding in our Heavenly Father's garden. And this island, this island that you call home, truly is Home for you as you awaken unto the holy Child that you are and that your brothers and sisters are, though many know it not.

Many upon this island, and upon the world as you see it, are asking to know Who they are, and they call out in grand intensity, in acts of violence, as you would see, which show to you how intensely they are searching to know Who they are. Confused, yes, but searching nonetheless.

I would invite you to share your vision with your brothers and sisters, to be outrageous enough to speak unto ones as you see them suffering and to say,

"I have seen a grander vision. I have spoken with our Lord, Jesus Christ" - for this is true. You speak with me momentarily. Or use whatever language would be appropriate to say unto them and to allow them to see with the eyes of the heart. Allow them time to pause and to entertain the possibility that there could be another way of expressing.

Everyone that you see creating acts of disturbance are calling out to know Who they are. They are calling out as the child that they are to have you stop and acknowledge them, to have you hold the vision of Who they are until they can entertain that vision. It is much needed upon this plane. It is happening in all of the countries, as you would see them, upon this plane for it is a time of coming Home, and you have decreed, all of you collectively, that you will come Home either in gentleness and in joy or you will come Home by the events that give you the pause for thought, the pause when finally the brother or sister says, "Enough already. There must be another way." And they may go through lifetimes of suffering, lifetimes of hitting out because they so sorely want to know Who they are.

That is what is happening upon this plane. It is what you have seen as a grand polarity. You have seen this accelerating and you have asked yourself, "What is happening here?" Because there seem to be the ones who are searching to know in spiritual ways, as you would call it, the Truth of their being and there seem to be the others that are in grand disregard for anything that would be called Love or gentleness. And yet, each one is asking the same question. Each one wants to know Who they are and to come Home again.

I would invite you to take into your heart a child, to give unto that child the fullness of your Love - be it your own child, a grandchild as you would see it, or a child that is now what you would term a stranger, but a child that is hurting and looking to know Who it is.

There are places you will be guided. There are places where children are who need someone with a grander vision to share with them the hope and the Truth of their being. If you would but take one other child under your wing, so to speak, to guide that one and to share with that one what you are learning, what the inner wisdom is revealing for you, I will guarantee - it is the Word of God - that you will see your world transformed. And you can do it.

I can do it only through you. The brothers and sisters who are calling out in such intensity to know Who they are would not accept me coming unto them. They would not have the allowance to entertain the idea that there could be a Light being that would speak to them or that another energy could speak through a body such as this. It would be a very strange occurrence that they, in their belief of authority figures, ones who have taught them what is "real" and unreal, that they have been taught that this could not happen and so they would not accept it from me, but they will accept it from you for they can see you.

And they can see that you are flesh and blood and that you speak with them, and they can see that you have gone through experiences in your life. That is why you are here utilizing the molecules of physicality: it is to speak to the lost ones, to speak to my lambs, my sheep, to be the shepherd upon this plane for me. And to do it with joy, not with a heaviness. Not as a mission of "Well, Jeshua ben Joseph, Jesus, said to me that I have to do this." You do not have to do anything. But I invite you to do it because through the sharing of your Love with another you will come Home and they will have the opportunity to choose. They will have the opportunity to know that they have alternatives. There are many of your brothers and sisters and many of the small children now who do not think that they have any alternative. They feel the only way to be is as the parents were and to take from another. It is for you to share that you are all and that they are all. You are the Love and the Light of the Heavenly Father and it is always expressing ever ongoing and unlimited. And whatever you need, you call it forth.

Share with them that surety, for they have lost their hope of even thinking that there could be something that grand. They have even lost their hope in what would be known as a miracle. And yet, miracles occur all the time.

Allow the little ones to become alive again - and it will not take much for they are still at the place of wanting to know. They have what you would call a very thin veil and they are wanting, they are asking. Share with them, and in that joy of sharing you will transform your world, and it will be and is already a whole new world: holy.

I desire to be in contact with every one of you today and, as you can see, there are many of the bodies in this room, and my beloved teacher has been asking me - the one known as Judith has been asking me - "How are you going to do this and fit it all into the time interval allotted?" Well, beloved ones, we will expand time and we will do it.

If you would have a question, you may ask it as I go around and speak with you. It is not necessary that you have a question, for truly, many of the questions have been answered already in the heart. But I would come and I would be in contact with every one of you for it is my joy to come and to express in this manner. So I take every opportunity that is given unto me to express this way for it is joy. If you have a question, it can be asked, but it is not necessary that you have one for know that as I come and I speak with you, you will receive a blessing.

Beloved brother, how are you this afternoon?

Fine.

You are indeed fine. You have been a grand joy for many lifetimes. Is there a question that you would ask?

Not at the moment.

Indeed. We commune heart to heart and there is much joy in your soul, much joy that you allow to be released and shared with others as you do the singing. Also, as you share the compassion of your heart with others, there is much joy in that as well. A peaceful joy. A coming Home. I would share with you the Christ Light that you are. Know you always that you are an open channel for the Light and the Love of our Heavenly Father. Allow yourself to feel that as it radiates out to others and know that whatever the concerns have been of this world that they will always be fulfilled for you. It cannot be otherwise. You can rest assured with all of that. Bless you.

And you, beloved one who sings with the voice of the bird. How are you?

Fine.

Indeed, you are. A grand delight. Do you have a question this afternoon?

Well, the one question I could have is in the healing ministry. Do you ever have a chance to heal others in the way you are doing like, let's say today? Have you ever done any healing that way?

Indeed, beloved one, all that is transpiring upon this plane is healing. It is coming unto the place of knowing your wholeness for you and your brothers and sisters, and as the wholeness is recognized and brought into full realization, the body also is healed. It is to behold the Light of everyone. To see them as the blobs of Light that we spoke of the other evening. {Jeshua coughs.}

Pardon me for a moment. The throat is dry. {Jeshua drinks a glass of water.} Sometimes, as you have seen, it is necessary to take care of the body. Is it a coincidence that this came up right now? No, it is not.

{Laughter.}

As you allow yourself to become open to the guidance of the inner wisdom that you are, you will receive messages, as you will call them, information, hunches that will lead you to do certain things that will be wholing of the body and wholing of the Spirit - such as the drinking of the water that was necessary for the throat.

There are outward things that are done, yes, but the importance is to remember the Light and to see everyone as the Light energy that they are. To look first upon what is transpiring in the body, yes, not to deny that. To acknowledge, to see what the brother or sister or the one's self is manifesting and to receive the message of why that is happening, for it comes from a very deeply held belief.

One then goes from that place to beholding the perfection, the perfection of the Light that they are, that you are. Then one has the choice of receiving that image of themselves and allowing the constriction, the disease, to be discarded as one discards the toys that one has outgrown. It is something that has been played with for a time interval until one gets tired of playing with it and then it can be laid down as a toy would be.

But in facilitating healing for one's self or for another, it is to see first, yes, what the message is. To see what is going on there, where the constriction is, and then to allow yourself to know the perfection of that one. To even look with the physical eyes upon that one and to see the Light that they are. This is why we spoke the other evening of beholding the Light blob: to allow you to play with the idea of beholding even with the physical eyes what is termed the aura around the body, to be even able to tune in to the colors of the aura, for truly this is something that you have done in other lifetimes.

You have been one who has been as the healer and you have been able to intuit what was going on with another one, and you have been able to see with the physical eyes, yes, and with the eyes of the heart the little suns, as we have called them, the chakras, the energy vortexes, and to see which one would be closed down and which ones were emitting the Light that they are. You have been able to intuit that and you have been able then to allow that area to come into perfection because you beheld the Light that they are.

You would do this in various means: of laying on of the hands and knowing that the energy that you are can be received by that one if it is their choice, received and activated in the area where it needs some activation. You always can facilitate. You do not do the healing for it is the Father within Who does the healing and it is that one's choice whether they will accept the healing at that time. For truly, they may have desired to experience the treasures of the disease until they get tired of the toy. Bless you, beloved one.

And you, beloved sister, how are you?

Fine.

You are indeed. Would you have a question?

When Jeshua comes in, there seems to be a rush and I can feel that. How does this all come about?

You are very sensitive, beloved one, to the energies and you are one who remembers how to go unto the heart, to the place of stillness, and you perceive that this happens, which truly, it does. It is a remembrance. Always I am with you. Even when you would have the mind focused on the activities of the world, I am very much with you. But as you turn the focus of your attention unto the peace that you are, you allow an expansion of your awareness of the energies that are around you and you become aware of my energy. It is simplicity itself and it is a joy.

You, beloved brother who shares so freely of your love and your joy with others in such a simplicity, how are you?

Wonderful.

You are indeed wonderful. Would you have a question?

Well, whatever happened to Simon Peter and the other disciples? Did they go on to become masters?

Oh, indeed, yes.

Are we familiar with any of them? In other incarnations?

They have had other incarnations, yes. They ascended, as you would see it, ascended the body, yes, but more importantly, ascended their awareness of Who they are. Some in that lifetime. Some came back to finish other aspects of experiencing and yet, it is not a linear time, as we talked about last evening. It is not linear so you would not see, "Well, he had this great experience as Simon Peter, why would he ever have to come back?" No one ever has to come back. It was all part of the grand sphere of experience though it was not seen as, "Well, he had this experience as Simon Peter but then something more." There was something more he desired to experience, yes.

The energy that you would know as Simon Peter is upon this plane again, manifesting as several brothers that you will in time encounter - one that you have already encountered - for you see, again, as you entertain this thought of the sphere, it is not done and finished. But it is always being expressed and he - the same as I - enjoys expressing, enjoys being of service to the brothers and sisters, for we are all one. We all come Home together. That is why I am with you in this way in this manner to say: "Awake. Come Home." I desire you to be with me one hundred percent. That does not mean that you need lay down the body and go and sit at the right Hand of God somewhere. For truly, you are already there.

But I desire you to come Home in consciousness, one hundred percent alive, knowing that you are the Spirit of me, the Spirit of the Christ, the One, having a grand joy expressing in this way upon this plane and honoring every brother and sister as the holy Child that they are as well. You have many grand adventures in store for you. You will enjoy.

You, beloved sister, I bless you. How are you?

I'm great.

Do you have a question this afternoon?

What is incarnation? Does everyone pass through that portal?

No, not everyone chooses to use the molecules of physicality in what you would call as incarnation. There are some who choose to experience as the Light beings that they are and not to choose to utilize the molecules of physicality upon this plane. As we explained last evening with the descent into matter, matter that we have created, we desired, some of us, to know what it feels like to be the activating force of the matter that we have created, and so we have come and over and over for the sheer joy of knowing what it feels like to be incarnate. And what is happening now is the desire of the holy Child to know in full realization that we are the Spirit that activates the carnate and to be incarnate totally as the Spirit we are. But not all choose this expression. Thank you, beloved one, for asking.

And you, beloved sister, it is grand to be able to reach out and touch. How are you?

I'm fine.

Would you have a question?

It is not necessary, for truly the Love of heart to heart is much more than the questions of the mind. I thank you for being the servant of the Heavenly Father and being upon this plane to share with others the simplicity of the smile. Remember the holy Child that you are. It is a joy.

Beloved vibrant one, how are you?

I'm fine, thank you.

You are indeed. You are a joy to behold.

Oh, wonderful. Thank you.

Would you have a question?

No, I don't.

It is not necessary. You honor me by the vibrancy of your being. Remember Who you are in every moment. Be very vibrant in all expression, as you are right now with the beautiful expression of the raiment. You are a joy.

And you, beautiful one, how are you?

Just wonderful.

You are indeed. Would you have a question?

No.

No, but I will give unto you a blessing. And it is not that I can gift unto you something that you do not already have, for as the holy Child, you are whole and unlimited and you already have it. But I would gift unto you the remembrance of the joy of Love. Express it in every moment. Allow the heart to be wide open - as it is - and to have the smile upon the face, as you do now. It is truly beautiful.

And you, beloved one who is the servant of the Heavenly Father in more ways than you know, how are you?

I'm fine.

You are indeed. Do you have a question? No. You are already your own answer. You are a joy upon this plane. Thank you.

And you, beloved one. Thank you for accepting my invitation to be with us, to be with me today in this timing. Therefore, I would not miss the opportunity of holding your hand, to be in conscious, tangible expression with you this way - hand to hand and knee to knee, indeed. How are you, beloved one?

Pretty good, thanks.

You are indeed. You are a delight, as well. Would you have a question?

No, nothing at this moment.

You need not have a question, for all of your answers are in the heart. You know very well that I am always with you and we commune often, and it is a joy. Continue to remember Who you are and share that with the little ones.

I will.

Thank you.

And you, beloved sister, how are you?

I'm wonderful.

You are wonderful. What would you ask? Do you have a question?

Yes, I do.

What would you ask?

Knowing that I was healed, why did I still experience the symptoms and why did I still need to go to the doctor?

Ah, beloved one, there are many reasons for this. There is a belief in process, as we talked about earlier, a belief in time, in process, that says that certain things will happen in a certain order although, as you know and you have discerned, healing is instant. It happens with the allowance of it.

You, beloved one, have much to share with others, and when you go unto what is termed the doctor's office, you do not go just for the physical reason of taking the body there. But there is much that you share with the one known as the doctor, for he has called you forth to share with him the Light that you are and you are his teacher - whether you would know it or not. It is not the way of the world to look upon medical things and to say that you go as his teacher. The doctor would be seen as the expert in the field and you would be seen to go to ask of him something.

But, beloved one, there are no coincidences. Everything is in its own order of unfoldment, and you were called forth by the very one for he desired to know Who he is. He desired to experience your Light and what you could share with him even in the process of healing.

So whenever any of you are called to go unto what would be known as a medical establishment, whenever you have what would be seen as a physical problem, do not look upon it as a failure. Do not say unto yourself, "Well, if I were worthy enough or if I knew enough or if I believed enough, I wouldn't have to make trek unto my medical doctor."

There are many levels of what goes on, and many times what happens on a physical level is but the reason, seemingly, the outward reason that gets you to the place where the two of you can meet for another level of meaning. The foot is your grand servant. It would give of itself. It would sacrifice itself to be cut open so that the two of you could be there in communion with each other. There is much that you gave unto the one known as the doctor by your very presence of being there with him and there will be such, as you go back to him.

Thank you.

Very, very many levels of meaning. What you see on a physical level is often just the passport, as you would see, for going. It is not the underlying reason.

You, beloved one, how are you?

Fine, thank you.

You are indeed. You are a delight. You are such a Child of God. What would you ask today?

I don't have any question.

You are such a joy. Do you know that there is the Light of Love that sparkles in your eye? When you behold yourself in the mirror, the next time you come to a mirror, look deeply into the eyes that smile back at you and joke with yourself as the Child that you are. Say, "Hi, holy Child" - for that is Who you are - and then share that with the little ones. Allow them to know the joy of expression. Thank you.

And you, beloved sister with the beautiful colors, how are you today?

Very well, thank you.

You are indeed. Would you have a question?

I don't.

It is not necessary. You are blessed by our Father - not by me, but by our Father, as the Life that you are. Go forth from this day and express with a grand freedom the holiness that you are, for you are Loved with an everlasting Love, beloved one, and you are never apart from that Love. You carry it with you always in your heart.

{Hugging.}

Thank you.

Thank yourself, beloved one, for truly when you leave this room today, you leave as a new person. So be it.

And you, beloved one, how are you?

Very good.

You are indeed. There is such a radiance about you. Would you have a question?

No, I don't.

No, it is not necessary. You are such a beautiful Child of our Heavenly Father. Play with me. Everyday, call upon me, and take me with you everywhere you go and I will play with you. For that is truly all that the holy Child needs to do, is to play, to remember that I and the Father are one and the Father is of pure Love and pure Joy and He plays a lot.

You, beloved one - ah, such a smile. How are you?

Great.

You are great. Would you have a question today?

No.

No, it is not necessary. You are living your answers. You have questioned, yes. In this lifetime you have searched, you have read, you have questioned, you have gone to the workshops, and you have gone to the other teachers and you have asked, "Please share with me your inner knowledge." And now you are at the place, beloved one, where you have much inner wisdom that you are sharing with others. It is truly a blessing. Thank you.

And you, beloved one, gentleness of nature, how are you? Would you have a question today?

Just to abide in the Christ consciousness.

Indeed, you abide always in the Christ consciousness that you are and that is the joy of your being. Thank you, beloved one.

You, beloved one, how are you?

Very well. Full of grace.

You are full of grace, indeed. Would you have a question today?

No, but I am saying thanks to the ascended masters for speaking through you in such clarion tones. We have been blessed.

Thank you, beloved one. It is truly a blessing to come and to share in this manner. There will be more.

And you, beloved servant of our Heavenly Father, you with the smile upon the face and the joy in the heart, how are you? Would you have a question?

No, I thank you.

Indeed, I give unto you my thanks for being the servant, for always being willing to do whatever needed to be done and to do it with a cheerful heart. You are a blessing to your brothers and sisters.

And you, beloved servant of the Heavenly Father who has been as such in many lifetimes, how are you?

Just wonderful. I'm thanking God for His Truth.

Indeed, there is much joy in what you would see as... it is not so much your work, but your calling. There is much joy. You share with others your happiness of what you have found as the Truth, and it means much to the ones that you share with. You have given, over the years, much of inspiration, many opportunities for choice that they have taken either at that time or they have put it away in a box and pulled it out later. There have been many lives that you have influenced. Would you have a question today?

I think you know the questions and the answers.

Indeed, beloved one, you know the questions and the answers. You have all answers. You are truly blessed. Thank you.

And you, beloved one, how are you today?

I thank God that I am here today.

And I thank God you are here today. It is a pleasure and a joy to abide with you. Thank you for coming.

God sent you here.

Thank you for calling me forth.

You, beloved brother who wears the symbol of your Light upon your finger {a large diamond ring}, how are you this afternoon?

Fantastic.

Fantastic. I like that answer. Of course. What would you ask? I would like to have more energy for my tremendous work load.

Ah, beloved one, you are the energy of the universe, yes. There are times that you would feel a constriction and a depletion of energy, but as you allow yourself to abide in the heart, in that place of peace and stillness, and connect with the flow of the energy which you are, you will feel yourself instantly replenished.

At times of feeling in low energy, go and sit by flowing water - either by what you would see as a fountain or as a stream or if nothing else, sit by the water faucet, the tap, as you call it - I don't know why my beloved teacher has that name - and sit by the tap or stand in the shower. Allow the water to flow. Sit with the growing plants in quietness and behold the beauty of that plant in its process, and allow yourself to relax the eyes to the point where you can see the Light of that life in that process growing, and know yourself to be one with that Light, for you would not behold it if you were not already the Light yourself.

Sit and breathe deeply of the Light that you behold around that plant and that you behold yourself to be, and instantly you will feel a calmness and you will feel an in flooding of energy. It is not necessary as the world would speak unto you that you take certain substances outside of yourself, such as the beverages that will give you the extra energy. You are all energy. As you allow yourself to abide in stillness, you allow the constriction that cuts off the flow, you allow that constriction to be released and the flow resumes. You are all energy and you will have fun with it.

Thank you.

Thank you.

And you, beloved sister, how are you? Would you have a question today?

I think all my questions have been answered.

Indeed, all questions come with their own answers, for if it did not have an answer it would not be the question. So whenever you would sit and have a question, take it unto the place of the heart and it will reveal the answer. Thank you.

You, beloved sunshine, here with the radiance of the setting sun, how are you?

Good.

Terrific. Would you have a question today? No. Know, beloved one, that it is my grand joy to be with you again in this form, for we have shared other lifetimes together. We have shared the joy of living upon this plane in other lifetimes. We share it now. Remember the holy Child that you are. Call upon me, yes, but as you call upon me, remember Who you are.

And you, beloved one, thank you for hearing my invitation and being here today. How are you?

Wonderful.

You are indeed wonderful. In your next time of meditation, your next quiet time, take that word "wonderful" and abide with it and see the miracle that you are. Contemplate "wonderful."

Wonderful.

Do you have a question this afternoon?

Could I get your blessing of perfect health?

Indeed, beloved one, I will give unto you my blessing for perfect health, but know you that I cannot gift to you anything that you do not already have, for you and I are one and you already have all. It is a matter of allowing the wholing to take place for you are already holy. You are already the whole Child of our Heavenly Father. Go in peace. That is the key. Go in peace and in faith, knowing that you are already as your Father created you to be - which is a grand Truth. It is not a Truth that I give unto you, for it is not within my power to give it to you but it is a grand Truth of your being. You are perfect and the healing that you would see of the body and of the affairs will be manifest. So be it.

Such a joy. How are you, beloved one?

Beautiful.

You are beautiful. What would you ask today?

I don't want to ask a question. I want to give thanks for your presence here.

Indeed, beloved brother, and I thank you for your presence and I thank you for hearing my invitation to come and to be with you in this manner and to share the joy of expression. Thank you. We will talk more.

As we do, beloved sister. We talk often. How are you?

Beautiful.

You are beautiful, yes. Would you have a question today?

The work that I do, is it of the manner of the things I should be doing?

Indeed, beloved one, you have done throughout what you would see as this lifetime what you should be doing, and you are continuing in your work to share with others the vision that you know and the Truth that you know. It is a work that is holy, for it is allowing others to come unto their place of wholeness, of recognizing the holy Child that they are. Everything that you do is divinely guided. Come often - as you do - unto the place of the Heart where we speak together and then go forth, as you do. I am telling you nothing new today for you already know this. Then go forth in great joy as the guidance is given unto you. And it is not guidance that comes from without you. It is the inner wisdom that guides you.

Yes, beloved one, you are doing exactly what you should be doing. And the bottom line to that is, beloved one, you are coming Home.

You, beautiful one with the beautiful smile, how are you?

Very well.

You are very well. Would you have a question today?

No, I don't. I just would like more Love.

Yes, indeed. This is truly a desire of the heart. It is not by accident that you find yourself in this group with the slogan, as it would be, of "More Love," for this is what you are already expressing. Thank you, beloved one, for doing that, for that is your way Home and it is also the way Home for your brothers and sisters. Thank you for having the courage to live your Truth.

You, beloved brother who has seen what would be many years upon this plane, not only in this lifetime but many lifetimes, how are you?

I'm wonderful and beautiful.

You are so beautiful. Indeed, you are. Would you have a question today?

For good health and strength and energy and prosperity.

Yes, and you have these already. You have the energy and the health of body and the prosperousness of all abundance of expression, for you are truly the holy Child upon this plane and there is nothing withheld from you. Go in joy and in triumphant, dynamic living, as you have been doing. Claim it all, beloved one, for you have seen and you have done everything, and it is your grand joy now to claim it. Bless you.

Thank you. I love you.

I love you as well. We abide in the aliveness of the joy that we are, is this not true?

It is true. It is true, yes.

And you, beloved one, how are you?

Wonderful.

Would you have a question today? It is not necessary. Know that you are a beloved Child of our Heavenly Father. Know that always you go with the joy in the heart and the Love in the heart, and you can allow that to be shared freely with others. I would bless you with the Christ Light and with the Christ Love, and as I have blessed you with that, go you therefore and share it with others. Bless them with their Light and their Love. Thank you.

Beloved sister, how are you?

I'm fine.

You are indeed. Would you have a question today?

No, just to give thanks that I have been part of this.

Indeed, and I thank you for being part of it, for it would not have been such a pleasure for me to come and just talk to myself.

{Laughter.}

You, beloved sister, how are you?

Pretty fine.

You are indeed fine. You are radiant. You are allowing the joy of the heart to bubble up and to spill over, and it is a joy. Would you have a question today?

No.

Know that you are the joy of the Heavenly Father as well. Thank you.

You, beloved one, how are you?

I'm just great.

You are indeed great. Would you have a question today?

No. I'm just giving thanks for God's blessings.

Indeed, that is the only way to go when you are on your way Home: to give thanks every moment for the blessings that you see and to behold more and more of them, for you are truly the holy Child who is calling them forth. And as you see them and you appreciate them, you come into your own awareness of the unlimitedness that you are. It is a blessing. Thank you.

And you, beloved one, how are you?

I feel exhilaration.

Exhilarated, exactly. You are turned on and alive, yes. Would you have a question?

No.

No, it is not necessary. Share with others the exhilaration of living. For as we have spoken earlier, there are many of the brothers and sisters who have given up hope that there could be any exhilaration in life and yet, it is the Truth of your being and their being. Bless you, beloved one.

And you, beloved one with the flowers upon the dress and the joy in the heart, how are you?

Wonderful.

You are indeed. Would you have a question today?

I just thank you for loving me.

Indeed, I do, beloved one, and I thank you for your Love. It is where we live together: in the Love of the heart. That is where you truly come alive and recognize the holy Child that you are, and I have great Love for you. Thank you.

And you, also with the flowers, look upon that. How are you, beloved one?

Wonderful.

Indeed. What would you ask?

Just that I love you.

I love you. It is a grand Love that we share and we have shared in many lifetimes. You have often put the focus of your attention upon what would be known as spiritual matters in many lifetimes, and it has brought you much peace and much joy. Again, you are doing that, and again you are expressing much peace and much joy. Share this with others who need to know it, as you already have. Thank you.

And you, beloved songbird who sings with such a power of your beingness, how are you?

I'm great.

You are indeed great. It is a joy to be in your presence. Would you ask anything today?

Yes, I'd just like to know, how does one get rid of fear completely?

Ah, beloved one, how does one get rid of fear completely? It is by abiding in the heart in each moment. And as the fear would come up - even the small traces of fear - to abide with it first to see where it comes from, to see what false belief it comes from, and then to replace that belief with the Truth of your being, as the holy Child that you are. What will aid this is in breathing in the golden white Light that you are. You know very well the breathing. You know how to master the breathing and to use it as your servant. Use it any time a fear would come up. Use the breath. It is as your friend throughout all of this.

For it is the body that calls out in fear. It is not the Spirit. It is the body that has seen itself to be in a place of threat, a place of destruction, in all of the life experiences, all of the histories we will call them, the lifetimes, and it is the body that cries out to, "Save me," that there might be something that would be threatening.

As you allow yourself to breathe in the golden white Light that you are, it restores you again unto the place of the heart, the place of Spirit where you truly live. That allows you the opportunity then to look with new eyes upon whatever would be coming up in front of you and you have choice at that moment, for you can get right back into the worry or the fear - that is your choice - and to play with it as a dog would with a bone, and there is nothing wrong in that except that it does not feel too good.

As you would want to be in the place of peace, of love, remember to use the breath as your servant and to come unto the place of the heart, and know that you are the holy Child, the Spirit that activates the body, the Spirit that activates the physical matter, and that you can never be threatened. You never will be threatened as the Spirit that you are. You are ever-ongoing. You may change the body as you would change a dress, and you have done this in many lifetimes. You have laid it down and you have raised up another one for the fun of expressing. So know you that whatever is coming up for you, transpiring, that it also will pass and that you are the grand master expressing upon this plane. For indeed, this is a Truth of your being: you are a grand master expressing upon this plane. There are times when you need to remind yourself of it, by the breath, by returning again unto the place of the heart. And as it would be in peeling the onion - onion skin by onion skin - you come unto the place of not having another skin to peel. Either this kind of skin or the onion skin. You come unto the place of knowing in its wholeness the holy Child that you are. Thank you, beloved one.

And you, delightful one, how are you?

Wonderful.

You are indeed wonderful. Would you have a question today?

No. I have no question, but I am just saying it is wonderful what you did. I have experienced what you have shared and I thank you.

And I thank you, beloved one, for opening the heart and taking in all of the grand Love that you are and allowing that to be poured forth in the grand smile - both of the lips, yes, and of the eyes. Thank you, beloved one.

And you, beloved flower who is unfolding - it is not accident that you have chosen this name in this lifetime - how are you, beloved one?

Strong in the Lord.

Indeed you are. You are strong in your own strength as the Lord God that you are. What would you ask today?

Many questions, but you know so I won't ask them.

And we commune often in the heart. For as we have said earlier, there is no question that comes without its own answer. Otherwise, it would not be a question. Therefore, as you abide in the heart, in that place of perfect stillness, all is revealed unto you as you desire it. For it is a grand Truth that we do not always desire the answers that we seek. We do not always want them right at that time. We want to keep on searching for awhile for it gives us a sense of activity, a sense of aliveness, and yet it is much more alive to come unto the place of the answer and then just live it. You have all of your answers and you are a grand delight. Thank you, beloved one.

And you, beloved one with the sunshine around the neck, how are you?

I'm good. Thank you.

Indeed you are. Would you have a question today?

I give thanks to God.

Yes, that is all that need be. And I pay unto you honor for the being that you are, for the grand expression of the holy Child upon this plane, and for having the courage to go forth in joy and in openness of heart to share that with others. Thank you, beloved one.

And you, the beautiful poet who expresses in words the inner wisdom of the heart, how are you, beloved one? Wonderful, thank you.

You are indeed wonderful. Isn't life a joy?

It is, too.

Yes. You have come through what you would see as the times of questionings and the times of doubt, and you have said, "Okay, already. Let's get on with the joy."

Right.

Yes. Would you have a question today?

No, I'm so appreciative of being here, and I just want us to continue to grow together - for me, my soul and my loved ones wherever they are.

Indeed, and all of the world, beloved one. All of the beings expressing upon our planet, our Holy Mother, the Earth, are your loved ones, as you have discerned.

Yes.

Thank you, beloved one. This will continue to grow and to unfold into more joy, more Love, as you have said upon the shirts, yes, into more Love day by day. For you have so decreed and so it is.

Beloved one, how are you today?

Wonderful.

You are indeed wonderful. You are a joy to behold. Would you have a question today?

No, just to say it's good to see Jesus coming through a woman.

Ah, indeed, indeed.

The Second Coming of the Christ.

And the Second Coming, beloved one, yes, it is very much upon this plane. But the Second Coming is your own coming. It is the coming Home of the holy Child, Who you are. That is the Second Coming. It is not something that needs to be awaited, as Jeshua ben Joseph coming down from the clouds in a grand chariot or whatever. It is the holy Child awakening and coming Home - which you are doing.

But indeed, I was very pleased when my ancient teacher – she does not like me to call her ancient; she says it makes her sound too old – my beloved teacher agreed to allow me to come through in this way, although she has had her moments of doubts and questioning and her moments where she would run out the back door sometimes and say, "Why? Why me? Can we really do this together?" and "What is happening?" But it is my grand joy to come through in this way and to allow many of our brothers and sisters to question how a male personage known as Jeshua ben Joseph can express through the body of a small woman. She does not like me to say that either, but I say it from time to time.

{Smiles.}

Thank you, beloved one. More joy to you as well.

And you, beloved one, how are you today?

Wonderful.

You are indeed wonderful. Would you have a question or will we speak later?

We will.

We will indeed. You are wearing the Light of Who you are upon your chest. Do you know why you choose to wear certain ornaments? It is to remind you of the Light that you are. Every time you choose a piece of adornment such as jewelry – even in what you would see as the eyeglasses upon the face, something that you would see as necessary – you remind yourself of the Light that you are, for it picks up the Light and it reflects it back to you to remind you of Who you are. Do you see how wonderful you are?

Yes, indeed, the heart, the Heart that you are. A large heart. We will speak later, beloved one.

And you, beloved one, the one known as Avis, the beautiful bird in flight, in her flight back Home to the wholeness that you are, how are you today? Just wonderful.

Indeed you are. Would you have a question today?

I have three.

Ah ha! An abundance.

Yes, abundance.

Yes. What would you ask?

Did I hear you call Judith your teacher?

Indeed, you did. The one known as Judith in this lifetime was Judith in the lifetime that we shared, she and I, upon this plane. I as Jeshua ben Joseph. She was Judith, the head of the Essenes at that time, the Essene community that lived at Mount Carmel. I, as a young lad, went to live at Mount Carmel to study with the masters and the teachers there, and she was my teacher. She saw me as a young lad growing up, for I came there at the age of six and I studied there until the age of twelve.

She saw me as a young lad growing up. She disciplined me at times; rather, she reminded me at times of how to interact with my brothers and sisters, how to be sensitive to their needs and their wants as well, and she sent me many times to sit by flowing water, reminding me to search within. She was my teacher.

So not Iscariot at all then? I was wondering if it was Judas Iscariot?

No, no. Judas is another personage, one of the disciples.

Number two: why did you curse the fig tree? What reason did you have to do that?

Yes, indeed. That has been a misrepresentation. It was to show that everything has its own season and that it is not to come with expectancy that a certain thing will be there when it is not in its own season. It was to make a point, but I did not curse it in the way that one would throw out what would be termed negative vibes at it. No, I did not do that.

I thought so.

You see, beloved one, you have much discernment in the heart. You can trust the discernment in the heart. There are many passages that have been recorded in your ancient Scriptures that have not been recorded accurately. And you, all of you, can sit with your ancient Scriptures and you can go within and ask yourself, "Is this the Truth? Is this what Jesus or Jeshua has said? Is this the Truth?" And you will come unto your own knowing.

It is not for you to take all of the words in your ancient Scripture and to hold them as being the Truth, the Word of God. It is the Word of God as man has interpreted it, but it is not the Truth with a capital "T".

Good. Number three.

Number three, yes.

What is your intention of having me do the class that we are doing now? Why me?

Why you?

Uh huh.

Why not you?

Well, yes, but you know. What is your reason?

Ah, beloved one, for many reasons. It was to come into the fullness of sharing joy with others. It was to ignite that spark of joy within your brothers and sisters, that spark that is very much alive and well in this room, the spark that you have fanned, that you have nurtured, that you have encouraged - encouraged, coming from the heart: "coeur", the word, heart. You have encouraged that in others, and as you have done that with and for others, you have known joy yourself.

It was an opportunity that was offered unto you. You did not need to say "yes" to it. But you did, beloved one, and it was as a blessing unto yourself for you have enjoyed it, have you not?

Sure.

Indeed, you have. It has been a gift that you have given unto yourself by saying, "yes" to what was the guidance, and as such you have been a grand example unto your brothers and sisters, for sometimes there will be offered to all of you opportunities to serve and you have looked upon them and you have said, "Well, that might mean I would have to do some preparation. I might have to be there every week. Do I really want to do that? What will this entail?" And you have said, "Well, not quite yet, Jeshua. I'll do it next year."

But when you have allowed yourself to say "yes" to life, what happens? You find yourself in joy. That is why. We do it together, as the joy that we are. It is not the first time that we have worked together.

Thank you.

Thank you.

And you, beloved sister, it is my grand joy to hold your hands once again. How are you?

I'm happy to be here.

Indeed, I am happy you are here. It is my grand joy to come and be with you. Would you have a question today?

I want to ask a special blessing for spiritual healing of the mind, body and soul for myself, my daughter, and mother and father. Is that too much?

No, it is never too much, beloved one. As the holy Child that you are you can ask for and receive everything. As you have asked for the spiritual healing of mind, body and soul of you and your loved ones, so be it. And know that that will spread out and it will touch all of your brothers and sisters upon this island and upon this planet, our Holy Mother, the Earth. For it is a desire of your heart and so be it.

You, beloved one, how are you?

Beautiful.

You are beautiful. Indeed, there is a radiance about you. What would you ask? Nothing? Indeed. It is not necessary, for you have it all. Go and let your Light shine.

You, beloved one who is embarking upon a newness of life, how are you?

Great.

You are indeed great. What would you ask today?

Just continue your blessing on the country....

Yes, indeed. It is so, and you are one of the very ones who will bless and will allow others to know the blessing that they are upon this island. Thank you.

And you, beloved one, do you know that I love you with a grand Love?

Yes.

How are you today?

Very well.

You are indeed very well. It is a joy to meet you this way, again. Would you have a question?

No.

No, it is not necessary. But know that I love you with a depth of Love that you can only begin to imagine. Play with that idea day by day and know that you are the beautiful Child of our Heavenly Father, the same as I am.

Everything that you have ever believed about me is true of you. Try that on as you would try on a new jacket. See how it fits. Play with it, for you are the Christ expressing upon this plane. You have chosen to be here at this time and it is a grand thing to have chosen. I am with you.

You, beloved one, how are you?

Wonderful.

You are indeed wonderful. What would you ask today?

I am very happy to be here.

Yes, and I am very happy you are here.

I say to you, "Namaskar."

Namaskar, indeed. And it is not the first time that we have shared that greeting. Know that I go with you, also, every moment of your day. It cannot be otherwise for we are never separate.

Beloved one with the beautiful fingers, how are you today?

Wonderful.

You are wonderful. Would you have a question?

No, but I'm glad that you are here.

I am glad that you are here and I'm glad that you answered my invitation so that we could meet again in this manner to be able to speak face to face and share eye to eye the Love that we are.

Remember in each moment of your day Who you are. You are the Child of our Heavenly Father, the only Child, the Child of Light divine. You are Love upon this plane. Go in a grand freedom and express that Love, for there is no one, no one who can keep you from doing that.

You, beloved one, how are you?

Great.

You are truly great. Look at that smile. Would you have a question today? No. It is not necessary, for there is so much joy in the eyes and in the heart. Let your Light shine for it is sorely needed upon this plane at this time, for there are many who are questioning and they are looking to you though you know it not. They watch you. Be the joy that you are. Allow them to see that they can also live life in joy, that it need not be a heaviness. This is a grand gift that you give unto them, and in giving that gift unto them, you get to enjoy it yourself. Thank you.

You, beloved one, how are you?

Happy and excited. So glad to be in His presence.

Indeed, it is my grand joy to be in your presence in this manner. Would you have a question today?

No.

No. You are the sunshine of our Heavenly Father. It is very evident. Allow that to radiate upon this plane. Allow yourself to go as the Child that you are. Find yourself skipping from time to time. Know you skipping? How to skip?

Yes, as a child.

Yes, as a child. Try it. It will bring back remembrances even within the cells of the body. Bless you.

Beloved Child, how are you?

I am fine, thank you.

You are indeed fine. You are radiant. Would you have a question today?

I would just like to give thanks for the opportunity here. It is wonderful.

It is indeed wonderful. It is the Love that you are and that I am connecting in this manner, being felt even within the cells of the body, being able to radiate out to everyone in this room, and it is a joy. Thank you.

And you, beloved beautiful one, how are you?

Glory in His consciousness.

Yes. It is truly a joy to be in this consciousness, is it not?

Yes, it is.

Would you have a question today?

Just speak the word that I be healed and blessed.

Indeed, so be it. You are healed in mind and body and soul and all of the affairs that you see in your life, for you are the holy Child. You are whole, complete and perfect, created before time was. And when the purpose of time has been fulfilled, you will find yourself ever ongoing and ever expressing as the divine Light that you are. That divine Light even now heals the physical body. So be it. It is yours.

And you, beloved brother who enjoys life, how are you?

I'm cold, but I'm feeling good.

Perhaps cold hands but a warm heart, yes? What would you ask today?

Well, I enjoyed "Jesus and Mastership". It has inspired me. And this is one question: how is Miriam?

Miriam is alive and well, and she is sharing with me.

She is here.

She is here as well.

I wish she was up front.

She is not what you would see as utilizing the molecules of physicality, but she is very much here as the spirit of joy and the spirit of Love that she and I share together. And yes, there is what you would see as individualized expression which we know ourselves to be, part of the ocean of Love that we are. We call forth from time to time our individuality of expression, as I would call forth my beingness as Jeshua and she calls forth her beingness as Miriam, and we share in the expression of the divine Love, one to one. That is possible, yes. It is not only just upon this plane where there is the expression of Love.

Enjoy your adventures, beloved one. Honor each one of your brothers and sisters as the holy Child that they are. Look to no other one to fulfill you. Understand that what you feel with another one is your own aliveness, your own Spirit being turned on, as it would be. It is not that they do this for you as a magic. But you allow yourself in their presence to come alive, and that is what joy is all about. But do not look to another one in order to have that given to you, for it is not necessary or even possible that it be given to you.

You are already the energy of Love yourself and all you need do in order to experience that Love is to pour it forth, to enjoy it. Enjoy each encounter as the holy encounter that it is, seeking from the other one nothing - for you need nothing from them - but give unto that one the wholeness of your vision, the wholeness of your joy and then it is holy. Thank you, beloved one.

And you, beloved one, how are you this evening?

Joyful.

You are joyful. That is most fitting for this time of this gathering, is it not? Would you have a question?

Yes. How do I know who I was in a past life? How do I know if I'm doing what God wants me to do on this planet? Do you understand?

Indeed. How do you know who you have been in past lives? You will know, beloved one, as you breathe, yes, and you come unto that place of stillness within the heart, and you abide in that place of peace and you ask, "Who have I been?" And you will see pictures, movies, as it would be, a scene of something, and it will come to you because you have been in that scene. You have been that person. Or you will read a book and you will feel an alignment with one of the characters in that book. You have been that person.

Anyone that comes to mind such as that and you identify with, you claim it for yourself. Do not say, "Oh, no, I could not have been, because that person is elevated," you would say. Do not deny what comes to you, for you have experienced all. You have been the queen. You have been the king - for you have expressed in the male body as well. You have been the grand warrior and you have been the servant. You have been all.

So abide with it. Play with it in the heart, and there will be remembrances that will come back for you. Claim those for they are yours to claim.

How do you know if what you are doing is what God would ask you to do? You will know by the joy that it brings you. Allow the Love that you are to be poured forth freely. Express the joy that you are in every moment. That is all that our Heavenly Father asks us to do upon this plane: to share the Love and compassion with others who may be in confusion or in sorrow, to share with them the grander vision.

It matters not what you would see as the employment or where you go day by day. That is not what is important, for you have done all of the different kinds of employment, as you would see it. You have experienced all of that in all of the other lifetimes.

What is important is to share the joy. No matter if it be as the most humble street sweeper or if it be as the most elevated priest, minister, government official, diplomat, anyone that you would see, a teacher. It matters not. What matters is the quality of Love that is given forth, and you are doing that very well, beloved one. Thank you.

It has been my grand joy to be able to go around and to touch each one of you. You see, I have desired this for what you would see as many lifetimes: to be again in communication this way with you and to say unto you, "You are beautiful" as the expression that you are. You have chosen to be here at this time to express in matter and to come one hundred percent incarnate, knowing that you are the Spirit that activates the body - and beautiful it is.

It is the joy of your being, and it has been my grand joy to be here this day to be able to reach out and touch, to play with you, to say, "Yes, holy Child, you are coming Home. You are Home with me moment by moment." That is what it is all about. It is not something that you have to search for and make yourself pure for. It is just something that you express, that you choose to express.

You have a saying in your world, and it is much to the point. It says, "Just do it." That is all you have to do: just do it. Just be Who you are. And as you allow the holy Child that you are to come forth, as you allow the vision of yourself to be known as unlimited - which you are - to know yourself as the brother/sister of Jeshua ben Joseph, for you are - and more than the brother/sister; you are me. For we are one as the holy Child that we are. One from the same Father, the same Creator.

As you allow that to be shared upon this plane with your brothers and sisters who so greatly are calling out to know that, you are indeed the joy to the world. Again, beloved one, it is not by accident that you chose that for your banner overhead in this time. As you allow yourself to know the joy that you are, you transform your world. That is what this time is all about.

I thank you for sharing your time with me. I do not have time except as I come and express with you in this manner, but you in this plane where there is a belief in process, you value your time - as it should be - and I thank you for sharing with me your valuable time. I thank you for sharing your Love and your expression with me in this afternoon of your timing and for having the patience to allow me to interact with every one of you.

Do you see what grand Love you have extended unto each and every one of your Self? One Self? Yes. You have a grand Love. It has been a grand reunion that has occurred here in this room and it does not end with this afternoon. For know you that the seeds that have been planted, the seeds that you have allowed to take hold within your heart, will continue to grow and to come unto fruition with the help of ones such as you, yes, who have said, "Yes," and all of you who are saying "Yes" to this vision, the vision of a new world upon this plane.

I love you with an everlasting Love, for you are that Love. Go with the peace that is in your heart, and when the voice of the world would call out unto you, remember to stop, to pause and to come Home again to that place of peace within the heart, for that is Who you are. And remember to play with the joy of the holy Child, for that expresses your true nature.

So be it.
