

The Gospel of the Pioneers of Remembrance

1994-09-25

Silverthorne, Colorado

Beloved and holy and only Child of our Heavenly Father, Child of Light divine. I am the one known as Jeshua ben Joseph and it is great joy that I come to abide with you this evening in your timing as you have chosen to turn the focus of your attention unto me.

For it is as my beloved friend and teacher has said, I am always with you. Lo, I am with you until the end of the age. And we will talk about that later. But always I am with you instantly available for when you pray, as it is called, in your quiet time of meditation and you call upon me, instantly I am with you and you feel my presence.

There is as my beloved friend and teacher has said, nothing special that you need do. You need not spend lifetimes in the monasteries purifying yourself in order to be worthy to speak unto me for indeed, what you are now experiencing is a grand reunion of your family.

For in days of old, as you would call them, we were together in this way. All of you have been together with me gathered as such in groups such as this. Ones known as Essenes, yes. Ones known in my lifetime to come and to share the inner wisdom. To learn from each other and to share what has been revealed.

Not only to listen to my teachings for yes, you did that, but it stirred the discussion and you, because of the revelations from the heart, you shared with your brothers and sisters the inner wisdom as well. There was much discussion. There was much sharing, much lively camaraderie. For the times that we have shared together were not dull, sad, sorrowful times. They were times of grand joy. Times of remembrance as is this evening. For all of you in this room have answered an invitation. An invitation to come and to be with me so that I can be amongst the people.

Thank you, beloved brother, for opening your home and your heart to a gathering such as this and for remembering the joy of the Beloved Father. The joy of the brothers and sisters so gathered and many more. For what you will see coming together in the days to come, as they have been called, are more and more of your family members. More and more remembrance for the holy Child is calling out from the depths of the soul to know, "Who am I?"

Have you ever asked that? Who and I and why am I here? Indeed, all of you have. All of you on your path as you would see this life to be, this lifetime to be, have asked, not only once but several times, "Why am I here?"

The question that is so often asked of me is, "Why am I here? What is my purpose?" All of you have asked that. All of you have wondered. Many of you starting from the time of a very young age upon this plane. Others of you being more focused into the activities of the world have seen a few more years go by before you came unto asking that question. But all of you, all of you have had the stirrings of the heart and the questions that have come up and you have asked, "Why? Why am I here? What am I supposed to do? Surely there is more than just filling each twenty four hours? Nurturing the body. Taking care of the body. Doing what society and the culture would say is important at certain stages of life, raising the families, earning a living. Surely there is more to life than that." And there is.

All of you have asked that and that is why all of you are here this evening for you are remembering. You are coming Home. That is your purpose upon this plane. I have called it coming Home. I have called it the awakening. It is the remembering of who you are, the Light that you are experienced as the Love that you are.

And your purpose is in this lifetime the same as it has been in all other lifetimes as you would see them to be, it is to anchor the Light upon this plane and to know it in conscious awareness. To know that you are the Light and the energy and the Love of the one that I have called the Heavenly Father, our Creator.

You are beloved of the Father. It could not be otherwise for you are Love upon this plane. You are Love incarnate. You are much more than the body that sits upon the sofa or the chair or the floor, and much more than the personality with which you identify in this time.

You are the energy of Light and of Love. You are the energy that collects the molecules of matter to you. Beloved body that allows you to express, you are the energy of consciousness that attracts the molecules of physicality in the design pattern that you choose to express upon this plane. And if you will receive it, you have expressed upon this plane countless times, countless lifetimes of expression.

For you as the holy Child being the one Child of the Creator, has asked before time began, "What can I create?" And with that question and with that thought, you have brought forth all worlds, all adventures, all journeys, as you would see them, all expressions of life upon this plane and all other planes and dimensions, realms, as you would call them. Everything that you can imagine and more.

That is how creative you are and how unlimited you are. And when you lay down the body of this expression you will not cease to be. You have never ceased to be and will never cease to be. You will go on to another form of expression. That is what Light does. That is what Love does. It is ever expanding and ever ongoing. That is why it is spoken of as eternity. Eternity is you.

You are the expression of life, of consciousness in infinite eternity. That is why many of you can sit and in your quiet times you can imagine and it is more than that, you can bring up in remembrance other lifetimes, scenes from other lifetimes. Scenes from what you would see as future lifetimes and yet you have already lived them for time is not linear.

There is a shared belief upon this plane that time is linear. There is a belief in process that allows you to believe that there is a beginning and an unfolding, an evolution it is sometimes called, and a goal. It is the belief in process that gives you time and many of you have spoken that you are impatient for time. For you have a vision and you desire to see that vision and some times, it takes a while before that vision becomes manifest. Is this not true?

Indeed, it is. All of you have expressed impatience from time to time, not to play on a word there, and it is because you know in the depth of your soul that you are beyond and outside of time. You remember instantaneous manifestation. You remember as the creative Child that you are, having a thought and instantly it is there.

But upon this plane there is a belief in process and that gives you time. But in the time to come you will remember as you are now beginning to do. You will remember instantaneous manifestation and you will go outside of time. You will go as what is seen now in your science fiction portrayals, and instantly you will manifest what the vision has been.

It will no longer be necessary that there is a process. That there are certain steps that must be fulfilled. You will go instantly from the vision that is in front of you to the manifestation of that vision. It is the same with the remembrance of what the body is for and how you are the energies, the energy of consciousness that is bringing it together always.

You will be, in the days to come, the shape-shifters as they have been called in science fiction and you will change shape. Instantly as you hold the vision of another shape, another expression for you are the fluidity of Light. You are the fluidity of energy. Energy unbound. That is why you are so fascinated, many of you, with science fiction for what does it do? It takes off the limitations and the boundaries of what "reality" is, and allows you to play with unlimitedness. It allows you to remember who you are.

All of you are the creative holy Child. The one Child of the Creator and you create moment by moment what you experience. You are the ones, if you will receive it, who have called me forth in this evening. My beloved friend and teacher often asks me what I will speak about in the evening and the grand truth of it is, I do not know. I do not know until you come together and you call me forth. You call forth the very words that you are hearing. You call forth the very concepts that you are entertaining and playing with. And you call them forth for but one purpose: the purpose of remembering.

So we go back, as it would be seen in process and in time and we say, which is a truth, that this group so gathered here this evening has been together many many times. You are family. All of you and you have been so gathered many times. And many more of what you would call your heart family are being issued the invitations and will be coming.

Many of them making trek to this physical place to join with you. Many of you making trek unto other geographical locations to reunite in the heart with family members upon this plane. And as you do so, there is a grand awakening that happens for there is a place within the heart that awakens and says, "I know you." The form may change. This form that you now see is not the form you saw in other lifetimes. This is not the form that has been portrayed upon the cross but the heart, beloved one, the heart recognizes its own.

The form that you are now expressing with is much like the form that you expressed with in that day and time.

But you choose, you choose form of expression. You choose them for the joy of expression. You choose them because you want to know your unlimitedness. The physical form is your servant. It is your mirror. It speaks unto you messages of how you view yourself and how you view your world, of what you think your world to be for and what you think the physical process to be for.

The physical body will cry out unto you if there is a constriction within it, it will cry out until it gets your attention. More and more you are learning to be vigilant and sensitive unto the quiet messages of the body so that it does not have to shout at you before it gets your attention.

The physical body is your creation that you are bringing forth in every moment and it is here as your creation to be enjoyed. It is here to be used, to express the consciousness that you are. The inner wisdom that you are allowing to come forth and to express that with your brothers and sisters who have chosen the same form but may have forgotten why they have chosen that form.

Many of your brothers and sisters call out unto me by various different names. They pray unto me in their sorrow and their confusion. They pray unto me and they cry and when I would answer they do not hear for they think me to be afar off, dead, buried, ascended, yes, gone to our beloved Father somewhere afar off. They know not where, but somewhere afar off. Some of them still see me as being upon the cross and think that I cannot hear. Always I hear and always I answer.

But many do not believe that it is possible but they do believe you. For they can see you. You appear to be very much like them. You are expressing with a body. You are going through what you would call your challenges, your learning experiences, whatever you will call them. They see you and they can understand when you speak unto them. You are my mouthpiece as well and you, and you, and you. Everyone of you so gathered here this evening are my mouthpiece unto your brothers and sisters as you will allow yourself to abide in the heart and to speak with love. To allow the inner wisdom which is not separate from you, but allow the inner wisdom to come forth.

All of you have experienced being with one who was in turmoil and in sorrow, suffering. Some with the pain of the body but many with the pain of the emotions and they have called out to you and they have said, "What can I do? Where can I go? Show me. Tell me," and you have wanted to share with them something that would ease the suffering. And you have said to yourself, "I do not know. I do not know what the answer is." But you have allowed yourself in that moment to open the mouth and to start sharing the Love through words with one and you heard yourself speaking words of comfort, words of wisdom, of a grander vision and you have offered unto them hope. You have offered unto them the larger picture.

And when you have finished you have said to yourself, "Where did those words come from? I didn't know that I knew that." You have been my mouthpiece. For I am not separate from you and you are not separate from me.

You have chosen to focus very intensely upon this experience. You have chosen to make this a point of focus in this, what you would call, September of 1994, and you have chosen to focus upon the bodily expression and a personality that you call your own. And yet, you are much more than just what you are focusing upon right now.

When you have allowed yourself, because you opened the heart, when you have allowed yourself to share with another words of comfort, words of wisdom, you have allowed yourself to connect with the whole Mind that you are. You have allowed the shutters that have been so tightly closed upon the mind, yes, and upon the heart, you have allowed them to be open and you have connected with the wholeness that you are.

Some would say, "That is Jeshua ben Joseph." Others would put another name of a master upon that. Other would call it the Christ and it is, for all of you are the Christ. All of you are the Christ remembering. That is what this is all about. This evening, yes, and this lifetime as you would see it is about remembrance.

As you allow yourself unlimitedness, you connect with much more than what is this point of focus. And this point of focus is well and good, but you have also come unto places in this lifetime where you have said, "What is going on now? Either it has to get better or I'm checking out. I don't like this. Is there a place where I can go and I can exchange this? Where is the exchange desk?"

{Laughter}

You have all asked that. You have all come unto that place of asking, "There must be something more," and there is. In that moment you were allowing yourself to connect when you've gotten to the place of being so, so much energy and so angry and so sorrowful and so confused. When finally you had come to a place of exhaustion. You came unto a place of taking a deep breath and connecting with the peace that you are.

All of you have done this. You have gone through times of turmoil where you have railed against what you felt the restrictions to be. There are no restrictions that are outside of you, but you have railed against the restrictions. You have cried out unto God, "Why is this happening?" You have seen others suffering and have not felt them deserving of the suffering. You have cried out and they have cried out to God, "Why? Surely if there is a God in heaven this should not have happened," and you have spent emotion which is energy in motion. And you have spent it and what you have bought with it has finally been a peace.

For you have exhausted yourself and you have stopped for a moment finally to breathe in the golden white Light that you are and in that moment you have allowed yourself to connect with more of your Self. More than just the tiny focus that is now. You have allowed yourself to expand into unlimitedness.

Now all of you are to be commended for the intensity of focus that you do. For indeed it would be seen as a grand miracle by many of your brothers and sisters who are expressing in what you would see as other dimensions, Light beings. Ones look upon you and they see what you are doing and it is a grand miracle unto them that you can stay so focused to always wake up in every morning in, almost every morning, in the same bed and to identify yourself with the same name, the same personality, to remember what the wallpaper looks like in that room. To remember what your favorite mug looks like to have the morning tea. You do it every morning.

And your brothers and sisters of the Light beings look upon what you are doing with great honor and great respect for it takes concentration and focus to keep all of this together moment by moment. And there has been a grand design about this, it has often been said that the forgetting, as it is called, or the fall from grace, has been a sin. That somehow the beloved Child has sinned and has fallen, gone away from the Love of the Heavenly Father. You have never sinned, beloved one, and you are always loved because you are that Love.

The Love of the Heavenly Father knows no restrictions. Knows now limitations. The only limitation that is there is in your acceptance and even this as you have seen in this lifetimes has changed, has it not? It has. It has for all of you.

Even what has been termed the forgetting has been of a design and of a purpose. For you as the creative Child desired to know creation and having created dimensions, realms, universes, experiences, expressions, you desired to know, "What would it feel like to experience my creation?" And with that thought, in an instant you began experiencing the creation.

When we first came upon this plane to experience what it is to live as the energy incarnate, in body, in form, when we first came to experience upon this plane and I include myself in that, for I came and I have come many times. Many incarnations not known by the name of Jeshua or as I prefer, Yeshu`a. I have come many times to express as you have, but when we first came upon this plane we were and still are, Light beings but we knew ourselves to be Light.

Very much to be fluidity of Light. There was a form, yes, that would delineate the Light but it was very fluid and we knew our oneness as the Light energy that we are. But we desired to experience the focus. We desired to experience matter, to be in identification with our creation, with matter and we have done that and done it very well.

We have done it so well that we have become focused upon this, the form, forgetting that we are the energy and the Light that activates all of form.

There is Light, there is energy in what you see as a solid form that is supporting your solid form. All of what you see around you is energy, vibration, different frequency of vibration, yes, for it allows the body to sit upon what you see as another solid object and it does not fall through. But all that you behold around you and more is in vibration, different rates of vibration.

And now, beloved one, if you would like to play with another idea you as you are focusing upon this time and this place, this body, this personality that you identify, you are sitting in this room in a geographical location known as Colorado, yes, in the time of 1994. You are holding a certain vibration of what you call reality. It is reality with a small "r". It is not the Reality with a capital "R", the Reality of your being which is infinite and is the Light and Love that is forever expressing, but it is a reality.

If you will receive it, within this same space as you would see space to be there is past, again as you would see time and process to be, there is past expression right here and future expression right here, happening all at the same time, as you would make a slice of time. So that there is a body sitting upon your lap and you, beloved one, are sitting upon someone else's lap around someone else's campfire.

That is how infinite you are. That is how unlimited you are, and yet the miracle of expression that the ones of your brothers and sisters who are expressing and Light and are beholding what you have the courage to do and to experience, the miracle of expression is that you can focus so intensely that you keep your focus right here in this room in, in what you all have agreed as a collective consciousness, is September 25, right? 1994. At a certain hour even as you would measure the light in the sky and the time of the day.

Do you see how marvelous you are? And yet, all of you as you allow yourself to sit in quietness and to throw off the boundaries of what you believe reality to be and you allow yourself to become the Child that you are and you imagine and you daydream. You can play with and know yourself to be somewhere else. Either in the same time frame in another geographical location or in another time frame far removed as you would see it, from this experience. And you do, you go and you experience other worlds, other dimensions.

For beloved one, how would any of this make sense to you? How would you relate to what is being said if you had not already experienced it?

Yes, thank you.

All of you are Love incarnate. All of you are the expression of the beloved Father upon this plane. All of you are beginning to remember and to speak unto others that perhaps there is another way of looking at life expression. For truly there is all of you and all of the brothers and sisters have experienced everything that you can ever imagine. All of the lifetimes and all of the roles. You have been in relationship with each other in all different roles of family. Each one that you meet you do not meet a stranger. You never behold a stranger. It is your Self.

For this one who stands before you is your Self and each one that you meet you behold your Self in. You never behold a stranger and all of you are family of the Heavenly Father. And all of you so gathered this evening are what I would call the pioneers of the new age.

Now that term has had many connotations. Many interpretations and it is truly not a new age. It is a remembrance in what you would see as an old age and yet one cannot measure it for that would put it into linear time again and it is beyond that. But all of you are the pioneers who are allowing yourself to play with unlimited thought, unlimited expression.

You are saying unto the brothers and sisters, "I have read this book that has this crazy idea in it and you know, I got excited about this idea. What if this idea were true? What if we could live in different dimensions all simultaneous at the same time? What if I am more than I see myself to be? What if I express forever? What if I am the beautiful Child of the Heavenly Father? Always have been and always will be."

Beautiful mustache. I admire the mustaches and the beards. Beloved one, thank you for bringing the beard with you.

You are welcome.

Beautiful manifestation. I digress for a moment here, but have you ever thought of the miracle of creativity of one beautiful strand of hair? And you do it so easily. You do not even think, "Hair, grow." You do not even think what it takes in energy to make hair, to make a strand of hair. All of the molecules that go into making a strand of hair.

Have you ever meditated, contemplated a strand of hair? In your next quiet time allow yourself to sit with the beautiful hair. The miracle of creation, and you do it so easily. You do not even think of how to grow hair, or a mustache. Beautiful. Everyone of you and you do it so easily with the focus. That is a miracle.

But all of you are the pioneers of the remembrance. All of you are the ones who are allowing yourself to come unto a place of playing with unlimitedness. You are saying, "Perhaps. Perhaps it is possible to express more than what society has taught me. Perhaps it is possible to be happy. Perhaps it is possible to be beyond happy. Perhaps it is possible to be the joy of expression, dynamic alive joy that motivates me and my brothers and sisters to express more, to know more."

You allow yourself to play with new ideas. You allow yourself to play with creativity. "How can I make life expression upon this plane more beautiful for my brothers and sisters? Perhaps I can bring together a community where ones can share and express and know their God-Self upon this plane." And you play with those ideas.

In the mind, yes, but they come from the heart, the vision of the heart first. All of you have visions. All of you have dreams. All of you have asked, "What can I facilitate upon this plane that will bring Heaven to Earth?" And you are all in process of doing it. By your willingness to come to such a gathering as this evening, yes. To throw open the mind, the restrictions of what society would teach you could be possible. What could be true. To see with the physical eyes the body of a small woman walking about and allowing an energy, a consciousness to share with you that knocks upon the door of the heart and says, "Come Home."

You allow yourself freedom to experiment, to express. When you come unto a situation, a circumstance, a relationship, you are now asking yourself, "How can I see this differently? How can I see this with new eyes?" All of you are playing with unlimitedness and in that you remember and you come Home. For truly, you are unlimited.

All of you have been with me in the lifetime known as Yeshua. We played, we sang, we discussed, we argued, we drank, we listened to music, we danced. We allowed the expression of the body to be a joy. We allowed ourself to connect with the energy that we are and that is what you are beginning to remember again this evening and these days upon this plane now.

Not to be heavy with a responsibility. Not to be sorrowful and filled with guilt for something you do not even know what it might be, but you have been taught and told that the Child is guilty of something. And yet there has been the still small voice within that has called out and said, "I don't remember being guilty of anything. I think I am my Father's Child," and you are.

All of you as the pioneers of the remembrance are allowing the brothers and sisters who can hear you and who can relate to you, you are allowing them the opportunity to come Home as well. For when they see you in your outrageousness, to choose different ways of looking upon something. To even go in search of a new way of looking at something, and when you have the courage to speak a new idea unto them. Come right out with it and say, "Hey, you know maybe we could think about this in another way. Maybe we could even use the word 'spiritual'," and miracle of miracles, ones will meet you at that place.

For as you put it out fearlessly and you live your truth, you give unto the brothers and sisters opportunity to choose anew for themselves and to express the Truth of their being. For what you would see as eons of time you and the brothers and sisters have gone about heavy of heart, limited of consciousness and remembrance. Even weighed down in the body so that you express only in what you would see as a few years time interval in a lifetime and now what are you doing, beloved brother? The life space as you call in this day and time is expanding. It is being extended.

No longer do you see it necessary to lay down the body at age twenty or thirty or even forty which was not too long ago, an old age. Now, old age is defined as being what? Eighty, ninety? And very soon in your timing old age will mean two hundred. You will remember for many of you have expressed upon this plane a lifetime that spanned two hundred, three hundred, nine hundred years as you count years to be, and yes, they were years as you reckon years to be now and you did this because of the joy of expression.

You were so busy living the life of Love, dynamically alive upon this plane that you did not have time to lay down the body and so you kept on enjoying one project of expression after another until someone pointed out to you that perhaps you had been here like around three hundred years and that was like a twinkling of an eye anyway. But you are allowing yourself now to be in joy and to know that the life expression is one of joy and you are allowing the Light that you are to be radiated even throughout the cells of the body.

So that what will come in the days to come, as you reckon time to be, and it comes quickly now. It is a time of great Light upon this plane. Not because ones such as I come and gift it to this plane. Not because it comes to you outside of yourself, but because you have decreed that you will know the Light that you are and you will live that Light upon this plane.

It is no accident that one of your presidents recently spoke of point of light. He did not know exactly what he was speaking of, but the words were used. You will find and it is already happening, that there will be Light. Light that can be seen with the physical eyes that will be radiated through the very cells of the body. This is happening now.

There are many of you that can see what is termed the aura of Light around one, yes. And it can be measured by your scientists even now in this day and time with what you would see as not to sophisticated technology, it can be measured and this will be seen more and more as you allow yourselves to remember the Light that you are and to come Home.

And then, beloved one, if it is so desired you will ascend the Light itself. You will take even the molecules of matter as the Light that they are, then you will ascend them if you so desire.

Now it is not necessary to ascend the body in order to come Home. In fact, if you will receive it, you come Home first in remembrance and then if it is so desired you ascend the body. You come unto that place of realizing, making real in your awareness what is already real. You come to that place of realization of the Light that you are and you allow every cell in the body to be what they call, turned on with the Light that you are. To a place where the Light is not held upon this plane and it ascends. This is what happened with my ascension.

But it is not necessary that you make such a demonstration in order to come Home. For Heaven is not a place afar off. I hate to disappoint some of you who might have wanted to believe that it was a geographical location somewhere in another dimension.

But Heaven is right here where you are. Heaven is the remembrance of the unlimited Allness that you are and you take it with you always wherever you are and it is instantly available. Even more instantly available than what you have upon your grocery shelves in some of your instant food. It is instantly available unto you as you call it forth and you allow yourself to know that you are Love.

Not only in love for all of you have experienced being in love. It is a grand place to abide is it not? But you are Love. Not only loved for that is true. Each and everyone of you is loved, but you are Love which goes beyond even being loved for you are the power and the presence of Love.

And as you allow the shutters of the heart that have been so tightly closed and kept closed for what you would see as lifetimes, as you allow those shutters to open, which you are now doing, and you allow that Love to pour forth unto the brothers and sisters you experience your Love. For as it flows through you it touches you. As it flows through you, you experience who you are.

For many of what you would see as lifetimes, you have kept yourself tightly bottled up because you have not felt it safe to express the life and the Love that you are.

Many of you have not felt it safe to express the Truth that you knew for you tried it in what you would see as expressions of lifetimes and ones of your brothers and sisters asked you to lay down the body. It has been seen that they took the body from you. Sometimes most violently, but in Truth, no one takes the body from you. It is always a choice to lay it down.

Sometimes you will see the motivating factors to be so strong that you do not feel a choice and that has happened in many lifetimes, but it always a choice. So that you have then reinforced some fear about the body and about expression and about expressing your Truth.

But in this lifetimes, beloved ones, you are decreeing that it is safe to express your Truth. You will not be nailed to the cross. You will not be burnt at the stake. You will not be beheaded or thrown to the lions as many of you have been in what you would see as other lifetimes. That will not happen in this lifetime for you are decreeing that there is a safety coming from the power of the holy Child, the Truth of your being, that truly nothing can come nigh your dwelling place as the holy Child that you are and it will not.

Fear has been born from the thought of separation, the thought and identification with matter. Fear comes from the body. The Spirit of you knows no fear. The Spirit of you knows itself to be eternal and forever expressing. Fear comes from the voice of the body that would see itself perhaps to be in pain or at the point of loss. It is the voice of matter. The voice of the body that calls out the fear that is registered.

All of you when you have felt fear, when there has been a thought of fear, what have you felt in the body at the same time? Pain and fear often registered right here. A very physical sensation and as you allowed yourself to abide in that fear a lot of other symptoms would come forth from that. Constrictions all over the body. Tension in the back of the neck. The headaches. What has been termed the psychosomatic blindness, all kinds of constriction. Fear is of the body. The Spirit of you does not feel fear.

So the next time something comes up in front of you that brings a reaction of fear, pause for a moment and ask, "Where does this voice come from? Does it come from the eternality of who I am or does it come from the body, from the temporal?" And you will have your answer.

Then, if you will breathe, to take one deep breath breathing in the holy Light that you are, the golden white Light as it would be seen, it allows you to reconnect with the peace that you are. It is simplicity itself and the world would teach you that there are many rituals that need to be done. Many requirements that have to be fulfilled before you can reconnect with who you are. It has said that you must sit in a certain posture. You must breathe a certain way. You must clear the mind. You must, you must, you must. It is simplicity itself.

One deep breath taken in holiness, taken in the Light and remembrance of that Light restores unto you momentarily the peace that you are.

That is why you have in your world the technique that if there is something that angers you, it has been said unto you to count unto ten before you respond. Do you know why?

To calm down.

Indeed, you do, because hopefully somewhere in that counting to ten you will remember to breathe and in breathing you allow yourself the opportunity to reconnect with the breath that you are. To reconnect with the peace that you are.

That is why it is taught even unto public speakers and ones who would be motivational speakers who have to get up in front of a group of your brothers and sisters, no strangers. It is taught to breathe before you go to speak. It is to allow yourself to become centered, yes, to reconnect with the peace and the power of that peace by the breath. It is simplicity itself.

All of you have been as the teachers in what you would see as many lifetimes, where you devised many methods that you then taught unto your students. Methods of wisdom that if you will do, and you had a list as long as your arm, in the morning a certain way of praying. A certain posture. Certain words. Certain diet, whatever, that then you might reconnect with the peace that you are and with the power of that peace.

And if you were to do it lifetime after lifetime you might come unto a place where you were worthy enough that you could actually speak unto God or that He would look upon you. And all of you have experienced that of not feeling worthy and of buying what the priests would say unto you and you bought it dearly with a price of non-peace in that lifetime. And all of you have been the priests and all of you have been the lowly peasants. Nothing lowly in being a peasant, by the way.

Thank you.

You are welcome.

All of you have experienced infinite designs and expression of life. But you are coming now unto a place of great excitement, a place of remembering who you are and living totally one hundred percent Spirit incarnate, remembering that you are the one who made the choice to come and to express. The miracle of the focus of expression. The miracle of your creation.

All of you are coming unto the place where you will experience momentarily the dynamic quality of life, such as you have experienced when you were white water rafting, sky diving, speaking before a large group that did not crucify you, and you have come away from it feeling whole. Feeling dynamically alive and in the days to come, and they are not far off, you will experience going every moment in every day that way. Remembering that you are life upon this plane and that you have chosen to be here. Not as punishment. Not because you have been banished, but because you have the courage to live life incarnate.

Do you know that the angels honor you for your courage? Do you know that they walk with you as you go through every experience? As you fall down and you get up and they look upon what you are doing and they say it is marvelous how you have the courage to keep on remembering deep within you in spite of all you manifest right in front of you that would seemingly take your focus away from who you are and yet, deep within you there is a knowing and a longing that calls out to come Home.

That longing will be satisfied as you decree it, it will be satisfied. In this lifetime, yes. You are thinking, "Dare I hope?" Indeed you dare hope. You are the holy Child, you are creating moment by moment what you experience. That is how powerful you are. That was the Truth that I came to know in my lifetime known as Jeshua ben Joseph. I came to know that I was more than the body and I came to show it to all of you.

I studied with masters both in my country and abroad. I travelled and I studied with masters in what you would see as India and Tibet, in the monasteries there. I went unto what is known now as Great Britain and I studied with the masters there and I learned from them. I remembered what they remembered and I came unto a place of knowing that I am the energy that activates the body. I am the creator that brings forth my experience in every moment and you beloved one, as you decree that you will come home in this lifetime, not laying down the body in order to go onto a place called heaven.

But that you will come Home in consciousness knowing that it is a joy to live upon this plane. You, beloved one, will experience that and rapidly now. It is yours. Spread that gospel. Know it. Live it, everyone of you and spread that gospel.

For I speak unto all of you so gathered here this evening as the One that you are, you will come Home in this lifetime. You will come unto that place of remembering. You will come unto that place of expressing life, truly dynamic life incarnate. With the body. That is what it means "incarnate, in form," and you beloved ones, will spread that gospel.

The good news that life is not limited to "x" number of years and to earning the golden coins and to keeping the body healthy. The body is your perfect servant and it will be healthy as you know yourself to be whole, to be wholeness itself.

That is the gospel that the pioneers of remembrance you have spread unto the brothers and sisters. For all of your brothers and sisters are calling out, calling out with an intensity and a clarity at this time to know who they are. And if they do not get the answer in gentleness they call out in violence brother against brother and you have seen that in your recent conflicts across the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth.

All of your brothers and sisters are calling out, they are coming right up to you figuratively if not literally, and sayings, "Who am I? Who are you?" They want to know and there is an intensity and an urgency about their asking which is why they are no longer going in quietness and servitude, but they are demanding to know what you are now remembering.

Share the gospel with the brothers and sisters. You who are the pioneers of remembrance, because you have decreed your willingness. You have decreed that you are the adventurer, and you will discover new pathways. You, as the pioneers, share this gospel with your brothers and sisters, for that is what these times are all about. That is why you behold so much of violence and conflict. It is because the brothers and sisters cannot wait any longer.

There is an urgency within their soul as their has been in your to know who they are and if they cannot get the answer gently and easily as you have chosen to do by letting the inner revelation come forth. By searching, yes, in the book and the workshops, listening unto teachers. If they cannot get the answers that way and that has been their truth - with a small "t" - that it has not come easily for them, then they will call out in intensity. They will demand, they will come right up in your face and they will ask to know, they will demand.

Speak with them the gospel, the good news, that there is hope. That they are Light, the same as you, upon this plane. You will find the words to express it. You will find the appropriate words that will speak a language. You will share with them your path and your journey for the will relate to that. They will know that you have fallen down and you have gotten up.

What you have experienced in this lifetime is not just for yourself. It is because you have a way of relating unto others and they unto you so that you may speak a language unto them.

All of you have thought in your times of loneliness that you experienced only what you were going through for yourself. There have been times that you have felt very much in a box, isolated unto yourself and you have thought, "If I can only get through this," and you have. You have come through. You have come unto a greater understanding and a grander vision, but it has been for more than just what you would see as this point of focus, of this personality. It has been so that you can relate unto the brothers and sisters so they can understand you and relate.

All of you have a story to share. All of the brothers and sisters have a story they wish to share. As you are hearing a brother, as you are telling your story, look for the points of relatedness. Do not look for the points of differences for that has been done too many times and when you focus upon the points of differences, what do you see? You see farther and farther the gap of separation and truly, there is no separation. For the ones that you speak to is yourself.

So look always in the speaking to the points of commonality, to the point of oneness. Always look for the points that are shared, where you can relate to what they are saying and where they can relate to what you have experienced and know always that what you have experienced has not been just for you. It has not been for naught, although there have been times when you have felt it.

You, as the whole Mind that you are, have a grand purpose and you are now awakening to the fact that there is much more occurring upon this plane than just what you thought there was even when you walked into this room this evening.

It is not by accident that you walked into this room this evening. It was because you desired to connect. To connect, yes, with the Christ that you are, the peace that you are, the power of that peace. To connect with each other, yes, as the family that you are, but most of all, you connect with the remembrance of who you really really are. To connect with that wholeness, the allness, to come Home.

And beloved ones, I stand just on the other side of that choice to accept the allness and the wholeness of who you are, your acceptance and realization of that. I stand just on the other side of that choice with arms wide open. Not nailed to a cross. Arms wide open to welcome you as the one Self that we are.

I thank you for coming this evening, for answering my invitation. It would be a good time now to take a break, to get up and to walk around, to energize the bodies, to nourish them and then in a few moments of your timing we will reconvene and if there be questions and there are always questions, we will entertain the questions.

So be it.

{Break}

Is it not a joyous time to come together seemingly in separate bodies and yet, as the One that you are? Is it not a joy to reconnect in a reunion, brother unto brother and sister unto sister and to speak from the heart, to speak words of joy with each other? To laugh, to share, to allow the muscles of the face to do their thing in a smile and to allow the eyes to twinkle? That is what the eyes are for, is to twinkle, to remember the Light and to allow it to go forth from you.

Every moment when you allow yourself to be totally alive and you look into the eyes, deeply into the eyes of another, and you allow the Love that you are to be known and to be felt, to twinkle. That is when you connect with who you are. Allow yourself the gift and truly you give it unto yourself even as you would see, giving to another you give it to yourself.

Allow yourself in every day to connect with someone eye to eye and to, yes, hear what they are speaking in the words but to look beyond the words into the soul, into the heart of what they are saying and what they are asking. And say unto them, "I know you. You are the Christ, the same as I. You are also the beloved Child of the one Father upon this plane coming Home, remembering in grand joyousness, remembering who you are."

Yes, beloved brother, I enjoy your hair. I indeed, when I expressed upon this plane had hair that was a might longer than this, heavier than this. Yes, delightful. Each and every one of you. Yes, beautiful one.

As has been suggested by your brother if you enjoy being together as you have enjoyed this evening there is no one putting restrictions upon you not to do it again. Therefore, come, reconnect, be together once a week as you would see it, to relive the joyousness of being together as often as it is possible for some of you have to make a longer trek to get here than others but even those who are at what you would see a distance. Once in a while there will be what you call the special occasions when you will allow yourselves to come together again.

To remember, to remember who you are and to remember the joy of the Beloved Father. For that is all He asks of you, to remember who you are. To, yes, walk this dream but to walk it in wakefulness. To no longer walk the dream of sleep, but to walk this experience in total wakefulness and in the joy of expression.

I see that all of you have put into the beautiful container. Do you know how wonderful you are in manifesting objects of beauty? Thank you, beloved one. Oh, indeed it was not my intent to go collecting. Thank you. Thank you for sharing.

All of you in your visions bring forth objects of beauty. Some of you hold them within what would be known as the mind's eye. Some within the heart. Some of you allow it to become tangible form that can be shared with the brothers and sisters as is this. Others of you allow your gift, the gift of the voice to come forth and to share that gift with the brothers and sisters.

Many of you share visions that you have in words that you share with the brothers and sisters and you share stories one with another. And that, all of those expressions and modes of expressions, are Love offerings. Aptly termed.

Beloved one, thank you for answering my invitation to be here this evening. How are you?

Good.

You are indeed, good. There is such a radiance around the eyes that is allowing all of your brothers and sisters to see and to know who you are. When you look into your mirror in the morrow, allow yourself to connect with the Christ Child that you are. Greet that child in the mirror and say, "Good morning, Holy Child."

All of you, do that in your morning. Tomorrow when you get up or even this evening as you go home before you lay the body upon the bed, as it is called, allow yourselves to look in the mirror and to greet the Holy One that you are. Connect at least once every day with the Christ Child that you are.

Would you have question this evening or a sharing? It is not necessary, but we just offer that opportunity unto ones in case. It is enough that we have communicated in this manner. Always I am available unto you. Any time you would speak unto me, instantly I am closer to you than your own breath. I abide as the heart that you are. Whenever you would have a question, whenever you would have a sharing that you would share with me, and there have been times, know that I hear and that I answer and I go with you into every event and circumstance for we are not separate. We are the One holy Child and I cannot be separate from you.

It has been mankind's way, womankind's way to look upon separateness and to behold the body. There is no separation for you express as the Christ that I am and I express as you. So know that what you do is done in partnership with the One, Jeshua.

You, beloved brother, the one who has claimed a name in this lifetime that you have had many other lifetimes, how are you this evening?

Fine, thank you.

You are indeed. Grand mustache upon the face. Another work of art. Would you have a question or a sharing this evening?

No, I don't.

You do not need to. Whenever a question would come up for you, return quickly unto the place of peace within the heart by breathing. Breathe in and visualize, know the Light that you are and take it deeply within the cells of the body and allow yourself to connect with the peace. There all wisdom abides and will be revealed for truly, nothing can be hidden from the holy Child for you are the one who creates moment by moment and if you create a question, you must create the answer. So be it.

You, beloved one, it is a joy to see you again. How are you this evening?

Wonderful.

Indeed, truly spoken. All of you, if you will receive it, are a wonder. Whenever you would claim and speak that you are wonderful, you speak a Truth. Be very vigilant about the words that you use for they describe your image of yourself and you are truly a wonder. Would you have a question or a sharing this evening?

I guess not.

It is not necessary. You are one who knows that if there is a question, I am available to you and it is not a magic. You need not call even upon me. You may call upon what is known as the higher Self, upon God, the masters, the guides, the angels. They are all aspects as you would see, of the One Self that you are so it is always there, the answer for you, the peace, the joy. Play, beloved one, that is all that remains to be done.

Wow!

Wow, spoken as the true child.

And you, beloved one, beloved angel who gives unto others much love and much peace. Would you have a question or a sharing this evening?

Yes.

What would you ask?

Well I came to this group for a number of reasons, I'm sure, but one of them was that it was connected with "The Course in Miracles," and I personally am not interested in that for myself which may be in error, but where I am living I will be leaving and there are people who have expressed an interest in that. I feel a really valuable. What can I do to help that?

Ah, beloved one, "The Course in Miracles" is a very valuable tool for many in that it speaks a language that is as a catalyst for remembrance. Not everyone will feel in alignment with it. There are many of your brothers and sisters, as you would see, who would not even understand what it begins to speak about. But for many it knocks upon the door of the heart and it allows a structure, a trellis, as you would see, for them to climb, to build upon in order to remember.

There are the work days, the lessons that would be, the course that is outlined that gives one the steps, as you would like to see logical steps in building, that ones can come unto with seemingly no previous experience, and yet there is much experience, and to begin to remember.

For others it is not their path. It need not be for all of you call forth the books, the workshops, the words, the insights that lead you Home and there are many, as you see, even in this room of the beautiful texts that you have brought forth in order to spark the remembrance.

For those who wish to use, utilize "The Course in Miracles," it is a very valuable road map to coming Home. Encourage these ones to follow what is there and to expand upon what is there. For nothing is set in concrete. It is not to say, as has been said many times, that the Holy Bible, your Scriptures are the be all and end all that all Truth is contained within those two covers and that nothing new may be added unto that. That denies the creativity of the holy Child in expression, to say that it is already finished and nothing more can be created or added unto, for you are adding unto it always in your experience and in your expression.

For even greater things than what I had demonstrated in my life, will you do and you continue to do. For you are the expression of life upon this plane and you are creative. So encourage these ones to use the text, the workbook, both in conjunction with each other as a trellis, but to add other things to it as well. And to allow their inner wisdom to come forth, the insights, and to share from the heart of Love.

Not the heart that speaks of differences, not the heart that would see separation and to say that one has more Truth than another for that is not true. But for them to focus on the Truth of the Oneness, on the heart of Love that they are. There will be much healing through this.

But not to do it in a way of effort. It is not a way to come unto this text or any other text and to say that, "I must study this and I must squeeze it dry," as you would do a sponge, "in order to come Home." No, it is as a catalyst for remembrance. That is how it serves, but then to expand upon that in the place of Love, in the consciousness of Love. Each one supporting the other in the grander vision. Not getting caught into what is happening in the appearance in that moment or in what would be the situation at that time. But looking beyond appearance to the Truth, the eternal Truth.

Thank you, beloved one, you do encourage many.

You, beloved brother, it is a joy to see you again and to be able to reach out and touch, as your world says, in this manner. Would you have a question or a sharing in this evening?

My question I've been looking at for years, is what to do in this world? That is what I really what I want to stay here for.

Ah, indeed, then why are you still here?

That's the thing. Because I know if I leave I will have to come back again.

Well, it is not foreordained that you will come back for always there is choice.

The choice or the problem is making money in this world.

And there is nothing wrong with money, for money is you, energy in a tangible form that is exchanged in that form. But always you exchange your energy with another as we are doing just now. It does not go through what you would see as the tangible form of the greenbacks or the golden coins or even the plastic. But always there is exchange of energy one unto another.

Abide with yourself, as you have already done, in peace and ask of the heart, "What would I like to do? What excites the heart?" And then allow all restrictions to be taken off for it is the way of the world to say, "Yes, I would love to do, but."

Things that you don't get paid for that you love to do.

Indeed, it is not always necessary to get paid. I, in my lifetime as Jeshua, did not get paid. I did not have a beloved employer except for the Heavenly Father. I did not have a schedule to keep and yet, I was well taken care of.

Ones gave unto me what was needed in raiment and in food and in a place to lay my head, a blanket to put over the body if it would be a cool night such as tonight. I was always well cared for and there were others who gave of the golden coins unto my disciples to fulfill the need as that flow in that form needed to be. It is the same for you once you will believe that it could be.

You have a beautiful talent to share with others. You have an excitement of the heart to share with others. You have yet to discover it for yourself and to allow it to be in the open, so to speak.

When you come unto a place of clarity as to what you truly desire to do, it will be so contagious that you will share it with others and it will ignite a spark within them that they will then open the doors of their homes, such as this, to you. They will encourage you to come and to share with them for you will have a magic, they think, that they want to know.

There will be a dynamic quality of life about you that they are desiring to know. They are hungry for it, as you are. And when you discover that, which is not afar off, it will be so contagious that ones will give you the shirt off their back so that you will share with them the secret of, "How did you arrive at the place where you are? What do you know that I don't know?" they will say to you and you will share with them.

It is a joy indeed. You have chosen to express upon this plane. Look at the beautiful expression of body that you have chosen for yourself. It is handsome. It is in health. It is fluid. It moves. It expresses. The energy that you are expresses freely as well.

Allow yourself in imagination, to see yourself as ninety years old in this lifetime. Can you imagine yourself as being ninety?

The physical body being ninety? Yes.

Yes, for indeed as you have well spoken, the Spirit of you is ageless. And if the one in this lifetime would then speak unto you as you see yourself to be now at this age, as it is called, what would the one who is counting ninety say unto this one? You do not need to answer, but allow yourself to abide with that.

Allow yourself to be the grandfather unto yourself and look at the life expression as it would be, in the intervening years and say, "What would I like to do? Have accomplished? Have expressed by the time when I get to be what is called the age ninety? Would I like to discover new lands?" Either geographical lands or ones within the mind and heart. "Would I like to travel unto a place known as Brazil and go down the grand river? Would I like to travel unto the pyramids? Would I like to travel to outer space? What would I like to do?"

Just allow yourself as the grandfather to speak unto you as you see yourself now, and see what you would like to do in the intervening years and play with it. And when the voice of ego comes up and says, "Yes, but," say, "Well, I'm just playing with it. Let's see, if I were truly unlimited what would I do?" And then go for it for there is no one who restricts you, beloved one, except as you would put the restrictions on yourself.

You have been here countless lifetimes. You have expressed as the very rich one who was given the tribute from other lands. So many golden coins that you employed servants to count them for you and by the end of what you would see as that lifetime, your servants were still counting the golden coin and you still laid down the body.

So it is not necessary to amass a great wealth of coins. You've done that. You have also expressed as the one who went about with no coins at all in a lifetime and yet, counted the wealth of friends, of health, of joy, of the miracle of life in its process. You have experience all of that. So call upon those experiences, those remembrances and go for it, as your world says, and know that as you go for it, I go for it with you and I am totally unlimited.

Beloved brother, one who sparkles in the depths of the eyes. How are you this evening?

I am well.

You are indeed well. What would you ask or share this evening?

I would have maybe two questions. One would be tonight I've heard you speak about the Light that we are that we are awakening to. I feel that in this world there is much that has density that keeps the Light from filtering through and what you might share with us is to help allow more Light to flow through that we can do what we are here in this world?

It has been, as we have spoken, the focus upon the matter, the density and you have done that very well. All of us have done that very well, but what is occurring right now and it is not just beginning now but is well in process, is the remembrance of the Light that activates all of matter.

It is to see in every encounter the Light of the one who stands in front of you. Even to allow yourself to the point of the physical eyes of allowing them to soften and to not quite focus so intently as you have practice and taught them to do. For truly all of us as we started out as infants upon this plan have had to teach ourselves to focus the eyes. Allow yourself now to unfocus the eyes, lightly, and to see the Light around everyone and every object. To see the Light around every growing thing. Every tree, every flower, every animal that expresses in life form upon this plane. To abide in the heart in stillness and to behold the Light of every life expression. To call that momentarily into your awareness and to speak that unto others as often as the occasion permits. To say, "I feel lighter in heart when I am with you."

You find yourself using in every sentence or every other sentence a word of enlightenment. Yes, quite with the words to remind others. They will not know what you are doing, at what you would see as a conscious level, but it will register. And as you allow your focus to be upon the Light, it increases. That is what is occurring now, beloved one. What more would you ask?

Speaking of the returning, coming Home or the ascension. Could you speak to that, share with us what is happening now in that respect and how we would help contribute to it?

Ah, indeed, this question goes hand in glove with the previous one. You are remembering. There are many of your brothers and sisters who are beginning to remember, for you all have come unto a place of saying, "I have suffered enough. I have felt enough constriction. I have felt enough of the confusion of the world. I have listened to the voice of the world long enough. Surely, there must be another way. There must be more." And that that decree, seen as a question and yet as a decree, all of creation rearranges itself in order to allow you to know the Homecoming.

It is well in process for as you sit here in this gathering this evening you would not be here if there were not already in intent upon your part to come Home. It comes rapidly now.

For you as you have felt, there is an acceleration upon this plane even in what you would see as the most mundane of matters as the activities and the options that are offered unto you in each day as to where you would go. There are many choices of where to go, who to be with. So many that you have often said, "There is not enough time." Sure, you are the maker of time. But it is to show you the acceleration. You have felt an acceleration even within the body, within the vibration within the body. It is speeding up. The Light that you are is radiating through more and more. You are becoming, not because of magic, but you are becoming lighter as you focus upon that Light and you are coming Home as the Light that you are.

Ascension, yes, is quite possible. As you play with the possibility and you abide with that it becomes a probability and as you play with the probability it manifests as a reality. It does not need to be a reality within your experience that you ascend the body itself, for you may lay down the body and find yourself ascending as the Light that you are. This is what often happens and the body is no longer necessary for it has served its purpose. But if you so decree, you may ascend the body itself with you. Many have done so. Many that are not even recorded in what you would see as the short recorded history that you have upon this plane.

But it is well in process, beloved one, and the Homecoming is happening.

Thank you.

Thank you, for you are the one who is making it possible.

Beloved one, who shares from the heart with others, how are you?

I'm great.

You are indeed, great, and so is the mustache. What would you share or ask this evening?

Oh, I have a couple of questions.

Indeed.

The cross. Is that time and space crossing and then we come through the cross and was your example of the fact that you didn't have to go back out through the cross. That is what a graduation might be, one of my heroes.

Indeed, beloved one, and you are one of my heroes. The symbolism of the cross is many and varied. It is as infinite as the holy Child Itself. You will read into it much symbolism. Others will speak unto you the symbolism that speaks unto their heart. Yes, it is a joining of what you would see as our Holy Mother, the Earth with the Heaven in the vertical and it is the time and space, the crossroads of that.

It is also a crossing out of this experience in its limited form. It is showing that one can be in an experience of physicality and yet, rise above it. Not only rise above it in what you would see as the awareness, but to physically rise above it, to ascend. Yes, there are many who would see me yet upon the cross who have that symbolism that I am still there dying for their sins. I have never died for anyone's sins. I am very much alive and well, thank you. And I cannot die for anyone's sins.

First of all: there are no sins. There have been choices. There have been experiences. There has been a creativity of the creative holy Child but there have never been sins. There have been choices. That is all, and there is no one including our Heavenly Father Who judges us for the choices that we make.

What is seen as tragic is seen only within the terms of time upon this plane and judged to be tragic because there seems to be a delay. That is the only tragedy about it and that is the only so-called sin, is that it delays, perhaps, the awareness. And yet, what is time? It exists not in Reality.

The holy Child is asleep in the Kingdom of the Heavenly Father, always has been and always will remind in the Kingdom awake, hopefully. For if you will receive it, beloved one, you are awake at this moment. You are Home at this moment. There is, yes, the focus upon this point of time and expression. But you as the holy Child that you are, is awake and is in the Kingdom.

You can never be apart from the Kingdom for you are the Kingdom and you carry it with you as you always and it is not crucified upon the cross. It is you as you allow yourself to connect in the heart, that place of peace and stillness, with the presence of Light and Love that you are.

You, beloved one, have been through the experience of the crucifixion. You have allowed the very body itself to be nailed to the cross. You have experience what that feels like. You can, as they say, relate.

All of you so gathered in this room have been crucified. You relate to that experience. You know how it feels to stretch forth the hand and to have the nail, the large spike pounded into it. I am not speaking words to any of you that do not relate, for all of you in your experience of the journey have allowed the body to be crucified.

But the crucifixion that is now occurring, is one of allowing the limited belief, the limited image of who you are to be crucified, dead and buried and what you resurrect from that is the knowledge of the wholeness of the holy Child. The Allness and the ever-ongoingness of life expression. That is what is ascending. That is what is being remembered and that we truly celebrate.

Now, would you have another question?

The Last Supper when you took the blood and the wine and the bread, the body, were you referring to yourself as in Mother Earth?

Yes, beloved one, and I commend you for having the eyes of the heart to see that and to discern that. For truly there is a oneness with the holy Child and the Holy Mother, our Earth, this expression upon this plane and the wine is the expression of the Holy Mother. The energy given to you through the elixir of the grape, yes.

The communion is truly knowing your oneness with all life expression upon this plane. The life of the grape as it gives itself for you. The Light of that elixir as you know yourself to be in communion with that Light. That is truly what communion is all about.

The break likewise, as the life process of the wheat made into tangible form of the bread and the communion is knowing the oneness with that life process and taking that oneness, yes, into the body knowing through that your oneness of the Light and the life that you are ingesting, yes, in the body. In symbolic form and in tangible form the Oneness of all life expression.

So there was much more in what was known as the Last Supper and in the symbolism than just what has been recorded and passed down through your Scriptures, and much more than what your religious organizations have made it to be.

They have taken it and narrowed it to a point where ones must be so restricted that they almost do not remember and yet you beloved one, have had the eyes of the heart to discern. Thank you.

Make every meal, everyone of you, make every meal a communion with your Holy Mother, the Earth and the life in form of what you are ingesting for you take the Light of what you have in front of you and you ingest in the body. You are taking into you your own Light. Make every meal a communion. Pause before every meal and remember your holiness. Not holiness as the church would speak of it, but your wholeness as the complete, lacking for nothing, Child that you are.

Thank you. You allow me to wax eloquent.

Beloved brother, how are you this evening?

Fine, thank you.

You are welcome. What would you ask this evening?

First question: I don't think I have a specific question right at this moment.

You need not. The communion that we share being able to reach out and to touch and to share physically the energy of Light that we are, that is all that is needed, for it is truly a joy to feel in completion in this circle, the oneness that we are.

Know always that I go with you, sitting upon one shoulder, the other shoulder, speaking in your ear, closer than your very breath. I am you, and I have fun in expression with you. Remember that the next time you laugh. You are laughing for two but it is the One. Almost as a Zen koan, right?

Beloved beautiful one, how are you this evening.

Good.

You are indeed. I wish to thank you, beloved one, for the service that you have given unto me in many lifetimes and in the lifetime that I was known as Jeshua ben Joseph, Yeshua, you called me and you honored me with your service and with your love.

Many lifetimes you have done this. You were sorrowful when you saw the body being crucified and being laid down. You felt a loss that I was taken from you. Your heart leapt for joy when you saw me return to you and you have carried that message throughout many lifetimes. You have served me in many lifetimes and you serve again. I thank you, beloved one.

Go with joy in your heart for as you have seen, I am very much alive and well, as you are. Would you have a question or a sharing this evening?

There is a lot of talk about Earth changes.

Oh, yes.

What's going on?

Ah, beloved one, it is as the daughter of God decrees. It is as the son decrees. In other words there will be those who will, yes, bring about the calamities upon the earth plane for it will take that to bring them to a place of willingness to choose anew. There will be those who will experience the earthquakes, the volcanoes, the Holy Mother, Earth shifting under their feet and the chariots that they drive in being engulfed in the pavements of the roads.

There are those who will decree that the changes can come gently. That the changes can come from the heart of Love and that always there is the oneness with our Holy Mother, for indeed, you are one with the Holy Mother, the Earth for you bring together your body with Her willingness, the dust of the earth, the molecules of matter given freely by our Holy Mother and as you allow yourself to abide in oneness and listen to the vibrations of our Holy Mother, it will come gently.

Always there have been changes upon this plane. The continents as you would see them, have shifted and have changed. More often than not it has been a gentle gradual change but sometimes there have been the upheaval because the holy Child has decreed that there would be the upheavals, because the holy Child has said, "I desire to know what it's going to feel like if the earth is going to move under me for the excitement of it." Nothing more and nothing less.

The holy Child is indestructible. The body, yes, goes through changes and is laid down. It matters not. I have shown that. You have experienced that. You have laid down the body countless times in every way you can imagine. Sometimes in a violent way, very quickly. Sometimes in a gradual way of suffering. Other times in a very gentle way of allowing the Spirit that you are to ascend unto the Great Spirit in the sky, as you would see it. Depending on your belief in that time.

So you need not fear for the body. For always you can resurrect a new one. The body is not important. What is important is to remember the Light that you are, the energy, the ongoingness of the expression of the holy Child that you are.

You will have guidance if the ones around you are calling forth the upheavals. You will have guidance, spontaneous, to go somewhere else and they may enjoy the excitement of whatever they are decreeing if it be an upheaval, but you will not be there.

And if you are there, it is because you have decreed you will be there in order to know your indestructibility. Do you see? Nothing to fear.

You've been through it all many times before. It is the body that would call out and would say, "Save me." It is the body that calls out and says, "What if the volcano spews forth? What if?" and that is there the fear comes from. But you, beloved one, you have lived always. You have lived through what you would see as many earth changes. This is nothing new. So this time, spread the gospel to the brothers and sisters that it is as they decree. If they will listen in gentleness to the oneness, if they will know that in their heart always they will go on the path that is smooth before them.

If it takes more of the banging on the head, then they will have the banging on the head until they pause and choose anew. Does that answer your question?

Uh huh.

Thank you. Ah, the flowing robes. It was the same in my day and time.

How are you, beloved one?

Good.

Indeed, you are. What would you ask this evening?

Why are you being channeled through Judi? Why can we all be antennas or have we lost that reception?

Indeed, beloved brother, you are an antenna. And you do receive....

I just don't understand.

You understand but there is yet the voice of the ego that says it must come in a certain way in order to be understandable. In the days to come you will allow yourself more latitude, you will play with, "Well perhaps it can be true even though it comes in a strange way." You are already allowing yourself that by being here this evening.

I come through the one known as Judith utilizing the body of a small woman in order to allow you to use the eyes of the heart to discern Truth. For truly the eyes of the body would speak that this is not Yeshua. This is not a man. This is not how you would remember me. This is not how I have been portrayed.

So the eyes of the body would look upon me and say, upon this form and say, "This cannot be Truth." And yet the eyes of the heart say, "This is Truth. There is the energy of Love that I recognize and that I know." You, beloved one, are very much the energy of Love. You do speak with a oneness and in the days to come you will share more and more with the brothers and sisters, the gospel of the fact that there is no separation, that I am with you always.

I have spoken and it has been recorded in your Scriptures, "Lo, I am with you always even unto the end of the age." And the age is now coming to a close.

The age is the age of the belief in separation. The belief that one Yeshua, one Christ upon this earth was crucified, dead and buried and arose on the third day. Has ascended unto our Beloved Father, in Heaven somewhere afar off, and that there is separation. You have even seen this in the religious organization where the "ordinary" person cannot speak unto me, but must go through the priests. That there must be an intermediary.

You, beloved one, is one who has rebelled and rejected that in many lifetimes and you have said, "No, I can speak unto Yeshua. I pray unto him. I heard him. I know he is with me always." And I am with you, lo, unto the end of the age of the belief in separation and the end of that age comes quickly now.

Trust your heart, beloved one. The eyes of the body, the senses of the body would speak to you of separation, but the eyes of the heart know oneness. So be it.

You, beloved one, who has opened your home and your heart, has made me most welcome. How are you this evening?

Fine, thank you.

You are, indeed. Would you have a question or a sharing?

I often wondered if there is something I should be doing?

Ah, indeed. Definitely there is something you should be doing. But it is not something with effort. It is something that comes easily. It is to express the joy of the holy Child for that is who you are and that is who the brothers and sisters are.

It is to remember the spontaneity of the Child who knows that she is taken care of. The Child who awoke in every morning and could not wait to get out of bed to see what that day would bring. To run out into the sunshine and to greet the angel of sun. To reach up with your very arms and to take in the rays of sun into the heart, to play with the dew that was upon the grass and to thank the Holy Mother for the angel of water that was there for your bare feet. That was there in the flowing water of the stream to nourish your soul and body.

Yes, it is to remember that joy of the holy Child. That is all. To surround yourself with beauty as you have done. To play with the objects of beauty in the growing form such as the beautiful flowers that you provide. To allow your heart to open in the beauty, as it does, and to share that with the brothers and sisters and to allow them to know that there is a gospel upon this plane right now.

It is not a gospel that happened afar off. It is right now in this moment. So play, beloved one, allow that to be your gospel. You will have fun with it.

You, beloved brother, the one who goes by the name of "Boot." What a great name. How are you this evening?

I'm "Boo-ti-full"

You are "boo-ti-full". Indeed, well expressed. What would you ask this evening?

Well it's personal so maybe tomorrow I could have a session with you and talk to you then?

It would be my pleasure, of course.

To talk to you then?

It is a date. I enjoy making a date.

Beloved beautiful one, one who has been and still is an angel upon this plane. How are you this evening?

I am doing pretty good, thank you.

You are doing pretty good. Even more than pretty good, you are indeed pretty and you are good and you are perfect. What would you ask this evening?

I have a lot of questions. Too many questions. Sometimes I have trouble controlling feelings of anger. I have inherited kind of a short temper.

You did not inherit it, beloved one, but go on.

Okay. I want to throw this out there because maybe this is my only chance to do it. Sometimes when I get really mad, it is like energy fields.

Yes.

Something happened. Is this destructive? Sometimes I feel like I'm really doing something bad but it is nothing I can control, and if you have good Light then how can you bring about some kind of bad energy and learn to control it?

Ah, indeed. It is not a matter of controlling it. It is a matter of remembering the Light that you are and this is dawning more and more for you.

You, beloved one, and all of the other brothers and sisters as you would see them, have experienced frustration that has come out in anger. It has often felt that the anger would engulf you and take you over and this has been the feeling in many lifetimes. That is has indeed, come unto the place where you chose to lay down the body because you felt yourself engulfed in an uncontrollable, as you have called it, anger.

It is the holy Child desiring to come Home again, and yet feeling separated from the Heavenly Father. It comes from the very first moment of asking, "What can I create?" and having asked that question instantly creating and then coming to experience the creations, and having then, with the focus so intensely upon the creation that there has been a forgetting and a feeling that you were far from the kingdom of peace and the kingdom of Love.

With this has come feelings of guilt, unexplainable feelings of guilt reinforced, seemingly outside of yourself by ones who would say unto you that you were not worthy. It has not been outside of you for you have manifested that and you have said this unto others. But it has been a feeling of guilt, "For if I am no longer in the Kingdom, if I have come so far and I have experienced all of these things, and I have, I must be far from my Father for I call out to Him and He does not hear me. I suffer and he does not hear me. And if He loved me He would answer. I must be outside of the Kingdom. And to be outside of the Kingdom I must have done something horrible. I don't remember what it was, but I must have done something really bad."

This is how the Child has reasoned, and yet, beloved one, the Heavenly Father always looks upon the Child with Love knowing that Child of be dreaming, thinking herself to be far from the Kingdom. Thinking herself to be upon grand adventures and to have journeyed far from the Kingdom.

He looks upon His Child and He sees her dreaming, sometimes gentle dreams. Many times nightmares, as they would be called, dreams of violence. Dreams where she does not know and cannot yet connect with the Love that she is. And in that place of feeling separate she calls out and thinks that she is not heard and in frustration there is anger. Anger comes from the fear of being outside of the Love, having been cast out of the Kingdom.

And yet, beloved one, that is but a dream. It is not your reality. It also comes from the frustration of the process known as time. For there is deep within you a remembrance that you are the holy Child and that you instantly manifest whatever the vision is and there is a frustration, "For I want it now." And there is an anger that sometimes comes with that frustration.

And yet, beloved one, it is dissolving. It is not that you must attack it with will. It is not that you must control it for indeed as you would give unto it the energy of trying to control it that is putting upon it more focus and what you focus upon grows. Focus upon the Light. Focus upon the Love that you are. Remember the Love.

Look upon every growing expressing expression of life and see yourself in it. Behold the flower in its process and behold the beauty of that process. Allow yourself to know that you express as that flower does. You are unfolding in the beauty that is you.

Does the flower get angry because one petal does not open as fast as it would perhaps think and judge it should? No, the flower does not judge itself. It just unfolds. Do not fear the anger. It will not engulf you. It has been your companion through many lifetimes that is why you speak of inheriting it, but it is not inherited.

It is a companion that has come with you throughout what you would see as many lifetimes, but it comes as a messenger. It comes to show you the other side, the past the appearance of what it is. It says, "Abide with me through this anger to see the peace that is on the other side of that anger. For truly the anger will not engulf you. You can allow yourself to be most angry and when that energy is spent, you will experience the peace that you are.

There were times in my expression as Yeshua, early on that I felt anger. It came from the place of not knowing who I was. A place of not knowing the unlimited Love that we are. It came from a limited view of who I was and who the brothers and sisters are and what the world was for.

As you allow yourself to abide in the expansion of Light visualize everyone in expansion of Light. Even see the molecules of their body as expanded and the space between it filled with Light. Look upon the beloved pet, the animals, the flowers and behold each molecule of their expression as expanded and see the Light in that, in the space between the molecules.

As you allow yourself to focus on that expansion you come unto a place of knowing your oneness. Knowing that you need not fear the fear. You need not fear the anger.

Bless you.

Beloved brother, it is a joy to meet with you again in this fashion. How are you this evening?

Oh, I'm just doing great.

Just great, indeed. What would you ask or what would you share?

Oh, two questions.

Two seems to be a favorite number this evening.

The second one is....

Oh, we are starting with the second, okay.

I spent the last couple of years trying to come up with a career that does not involve being a slave anymore which is the most recent name is like general kinesiology, teaching people how to beat the limitations as far as goal attainment. I guess would be the name.

Indeed, to look beyond what they feel their limitations, yes.

Is this a career you suppose, or is this a hobby and making money doing something else? I haven't any clues.

There might be a few floating around. Let's see if we can catch one or two out of the ethers here, yes.

It is as the son decrees. It can be as a hobby or it can be what you see as a career. And careers can change as you have seen also. You will find this and have already found this to be a valuable tool for others to remember the unlimitedness of their wholeness. It is also serving as a catalyst for you to remember your wholeness. For what you teach others you learn yourself.

So you will see this as an avenue that brings joy to your heart and money to the pocket. You will also see yourself putting other tools in the tool kit for you will have an interest, have already had, an interest in other methodologies, as they would be called, that you will become a facilitator in, an expert in, as the world would call, and you will find yourself so caught up in the exhilaration of sharing all of this with others that it will be your vocation.

For your true vocation, beloved one, is to remember who you are. Your true vocation is to come Home and in doing so you do not come alone for what you share with others you share with yourself. The remembrance that you remember uplifts all of your brothers and sisters for there is no separation. As this beloved one over here allows herself to dissolve into the Love that she is no longer fearing the anger, she allows other brothers and sisters who would also be experiencing the very same thing to come up higher.

It is as you would see the spider web and you take on point on that spider web and you lift it up, what happens to the rest of the spider web? It is lifted up. There is no separation. The body would speak unto you that there is separation, that there is a certain one known as John who sits upon this chair and there is another one there and there. But the energy that you are flows freely and intermingles with this one and the one that is seen behind you and the one that would be seen in the town next door and also in the next galaxy. That is as far as you extend. It is unlimited. How far you extend not as far. We will get this language correct yet.

For you, beloved one, it is to follow the heart's desire. You have in many lifetimes never been one to put yourself into a box as far as expressing. You have tried out many different ways of serving the brothers and sisters, of serving the Brotherhood. You have often been the traveling salesman. The traveling healer, the ones who has gone and shared your Light with many others in a caravan. You have been the adventurer.

It is the same in this lifetime. You are very much an adventurer. You are discovering new ways and as you do, new ways of healing, new ways of thinking, new ways of looking upon things, new ways of coming alive, new ways of healing the body and then healing the soul and you share this with others. That is all that matters.

Come truly alive in the heart's desire. That is all that matters and then you come Home. Do what is fun for you. The money will follow. It is always there. You are the one who is the creator and the manifester. You have even manifested poverty.

Yeah.

So you would know what that feels like. You have manifested great wealth so that you would know what that feels like. Now you are at a place of saying, "Well, I want enough of the flow that will take care of things, but I wish to know the joy of the heart." Go for it. It is where you abide.

What else would you ask?

The last several months up until a couple of weeks ago somebody has been leaving blank messages on my answering machine. Without embarrassing anybody, mentioning any names, do you think this person will ever come around and become a person with fairly normal relations with people?

Indeed. There is much communication as you have already discerned, heart to heart. This one is reaching out in a certain fashion to communicate but that is not important. What is important is the communication of the heart. You are one who understands the communication of the heart, who can look beyond appearances. You are also one who manifests for yourself the, what has been known in other times as the "tabula rosa", the tablet that has been erased and is blank and upon which you may write. You do this again. It is a blank message upon which you may write.

Fill it in as you would decree. Speak unto this one from your heart for there is much communication. You are never separate. Hold the higher vision of the Truth of your being and the being of all others that you would see to be seemingly separate. Hold that vision always and write upon the tablet, the Truth of the Love that you are. So be it.

Good. Thank you.

Beloved brother, how are you this evening?

Our Heavenly Father said after everything He created, "That's good," so I am good.

Indeed, you are good and you decree such in every moment of your day, do you not?

Yes.

And if you forget for half a moment you remind yourself. What would you ask this evening?

Moses, when he was before the bush that appeared to be burning on the mountain, asked a question. The answer which was I AM THAT I AM, and another translation is, "I will be what I will be."

This is true.

What is the significance of that?

It is who you are. It is the holy Child in wholeness forever expressing, forever experiencing, forever ongoing. It cannot be defined, for in definition it is limited. I AM is forever ongoing as the Isness that it is, that you are. It is not limited by definition. For to speak that I am such and such, would be to limit and to exclude and the holy Child as the one Child of the Heavenly Father knows no limitation.

Yes, I am in the present tense for I am always expressing. Yes, I will be as it is seen upon this plane in the process of time, as it is seen to be a future. Of course you will express for you express always. I am that I am. I am all. I know no definition. No delineation for that would limit it. It is Infiniteness Itself.

The burning bush, beloved one, has been the symbol of the inner revelation of the Light. That is why even now you have in what are called your comic strips where the light bulb comes on. It is the inner revelation of the Light that you are coming forth.

You are that you are. Always will be and always have been and it is good. It could not be otherwise. Even to call it good would be to put a judgment on it and to imply a polarity that there could be something not good. It is the Isness.

Does this answer your question, beloved one?

I have another.

Indeed, you may.

I have been taught that you came here to fulfill the Old Testament, and as the lady said earlier, this may be the only chance I get to ask this. In Proverbs it says, "Wine is a mocker. Strong drink is raging. Whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise."

Indeed.

And you were sent here to fulfill the Old Testament. So the wine that you turned from the water and used as the sacrament of communion, was it alcoholic or nonalcoholic?

Ah, beloved one, a fantastically beautiful question. Even the wine that you would imbibe in the day and time will be as the son decrees. For some, because of the belief system, it will be most intoxicating and will affect the body, will affect even what would be seen as the consciousness.

You are the one who decrees what is. What you are manifesting and creating. You may drink of the wine that another would find most intoxicating and you will find yourself to be one with the Light of the elixir and it will have no effect upon you.

There has been what you would see as a memory, well reinforced and well repeated in many lifetimes where the belief was strong that what you took of an outer substance would have an effect upon the body.

Therefore, it has effect upon the body as you so decree. Yet, in this lifetime as you are coming unto the place of remembrance that you are the Light that activates all of matter, including the elixir of the grape. You will find that the Light is not affected by what is ingested. It will be nourished by the Light of the Oneness but it will not be intoxicated.

So that the wine that I ingested was not intoxicating to the point of altering my consciousness for I am that I am, the consciousness. I could drink the most strong drink and know myself to be one with that vibration of Light for I am that Light and it would go right through the Light that I am as the one great ray of Light and did not affect the body in an adverse way.

Many evenings I was high with the Spirit, but it was not the spirit of the drink or of the wine. It was high in the joy of remembrance of the unlimitedness that I am. It will be so for you and as been already.

You need not fear the elixir of the grape. It has no hold over you. It is not necessary that you set yourself a test for this as an effort of will or an effort of how much I understand Truth, for there are many of your brothers and sisters who set themselves tests to see, "How much do I understand here?" It is not necessary that it be done that way.

But as you allow the process of unfoldment and remembrance, which you are well in process of doing, you will come to see that the elixir of grape is a no thing as far as having power over the Light that you are and you will drink of the elixir of grape the same as you drink of the flowing water of our Holy Mother for there is no difference. And it will come easily for you for you will know your unlimited power.

Not the power as the world would speak of power, but the power of your beingness of the whole Child. Your wholeness, and it will be a grand time of remembrance. Does this answer your question?

I think I'd like to set a date and discuss it further.

Well then, beloved one, we may do that. We may.

Beloved beautiful angel, how are you this evening?

Good, thank you.

The Light that you are radiates as a halo about you. What would you ask this evening?

Well, I have two questions this evening and I'll try to make them quick.

Well we have all of eternity.

Alright. I don't want to take away from others. Last Christmas evening I was summoned unto a meeting that I had been desiring for months. Can you tell me about that and were you there?

Of course. You very much felt my presence. I was there. I go with you always. It is not by accident that you answer invitations to go unto certain meetings, that you have a certain knowingness before hand that this will be something important. You do not know exactly what important is but there is a guidance within you that says, "I think maybe I'd better go. There is something special about this," and indeed, there is something special. It is your remembrance.

Each time you allow yourself to connect with more of yourself you come Home in that instant. It does not mean that you abide and remain in that space always, for you will bring the focus of attention back to the world often times, but you will remember the specialness of that occasion. You will remember the oneness and the exultation of the soul, how it felt exalted and unlimited, and you knew that there was something holy in that and indeed, there was and this will happen again for you over and over.

It is my promise unto you and yet I cannot gift unto you something that you would not receive and call forth yourself. But yes, beloved one, this will happen more and more for you. For you will abide in holiness.

Great. And secondly, I have a strong sense of purpose since an early age and I'm on the advent of creating that. I've been given information, of course, from a source known unto you.

Yes, of course known.

Absolutely. And there is a connection of using technology to reveal the truth about the crucifixion and the finality to the hologram. Does that mean....?

Indeed, beloved one, and it is a grand excitement for what you are bringing forth now in your experience in technology, as it would be called, is allowing you and the brothers and sisters to see in most tangible form - although the hologram does not all exactly tangible - to prove unto yourself reality. The reality with a small "r" as the dream, as the adventure, the creation of the holy Child and then that acts as a catalyst for remember of the Reality - with a capital "R".

Yes, beloved one this will happen because you and many others are calling it forth to experience. You will see right in front of your very eyes out in the middle of the room what you would call the hologram and the reenactment of what has been known as the crucifixion. It will be there before your very eyes. You will see it as a portrayal that you now see in a very flat surface of your television set, but you will see it in the reality - with the small "r" - right in front of your eyes so that you can relive and remember, yes.

So it's to have the experience as an aid in remembrance then?

Yes.

So the crucifixion did in fact, happen?

Indeed.

But it helps explain that time does not pass, the present and the future?

Indeed. For what you will be doing when we speak here of a future time, when we say will be doing, is bringing something that seemingly happened in the past into the now which is where it truly abides. For even now as we speak of an event that you would call as being long ago, where is it now as we speak of it? It is right here right now, indeed.

It will bring to, right in front of the face for brothers and sisters, the reality of the fact that time itself is not linear.

That's the Truth.

Exactly, that all time is now. There is the belief in process upon this plane that creates for you, time and yet, time is as you would see, a sphere. All time contained within this sphere and even the boundaries of the sphere itself are fuzzed. It is not delineated for it is the creative holy Child who is creating time and it is not fixed. It is not bound by limitation. It expands and forever goes as the experience of the holy Child.

But within that sphere the point of what you would see as the crucifixion. Say it is at this point and the point where you are now focusing as 1994, say that is up here at this point. It is connected. Seems to be linear. There is another point in time as you remember it, it seems to be linear. This point in time known as 1994 is connected to all other infinite points seen as time, within the sphere which is ever expanding. So time itself is experienced as being linear for there is seen to be a point here and a point here and yet, it is the Allness of the sphere that is infinite.

That is what you will be bringing in front of the brothers and sisters so that they can see they are not limited to one point of experience. Indeed, it is exciting.

This is what I have spoke of earlier where the ones known as your brothers in Light look upon what you are calling forth and call it such a miracle. The miracle of technology that you call forth, seemingly outside of yourself to prove to yourself what you already know for you are the one who is calling it forth. Beautiful.

Beloved, Thomas, how are you this evening?

I am great.

You are great.

How are you?

I am excellent, thank you.

All right. That's good.

What would you ask this evening?

I don't have a thing to ask.

Very good. You are a beloved one and you are remembering who you are. You allow that to shine forth in every moment and to be shared with the brothers and sisters. It is simplicity itself. You do not need to go unto the grand colleges and universities and to get decrees in how to express God, for you are doing that every moment.

You have gone unto all of the universities, as you would see them, all of the monasteries. You have studied, you have been the monk in the monasteries. You have been the scribe who wrote the manuscripts and copied the manuscripts. You have been the grand master who had the disciples around the feet and taught them. You are remembering now all of that and you are sharing that with ones in grand simplicity.

It does not say that it needs to be of rigor and of certain ways that the world would require, but it is shared heart to heart in each moment. With a joke, with a story, with a laugh. Thank you, beloved one.

You are welcome.

Beloved one, who is as joy and Light upon this plane. How are you this evening?

Fine, thank you.

Indeed, what would you ask this evening?

I would like a blessing.

Indeed, it is yours. Whatever you would ask for and hold within the heart is yours. You are Light upon the way. Your way is illumined in every step. Allow yourself to know that and to trust it and to go with joy for you are that joy upon this plane.

You have been a searcher and a seeker in how you would define yourself, and yet you are most of all, a finder for you have found yourself. You have searched many many lifetimes to know. You have searched the Scriptures. You have searched the heavens. You have asked of the wise ones, you have been the wise one.

In this lifetime you are decreeing now, "I am the finder and I have found what I have been searching for and it is I." The blessing is yours, beloved one, because you are the blessing. Thank you. Indeed, the remembrance.

Beloved Elder, how are you this evening?

Oh, I haven't talked to you in years.

Ha, surely it has not been that long.

It's all relevant.

Relative, and relevant as well.

Right.

Would you have a question or a sharing?

Not really. I enjoy everyone else's questions because those are the questions I would have asked.

Indeed, there is but one Mind and you have seen it at play this evening and other evenings as well, for the one seemingly separate of the brothers and sisters are asking your questions for you are calling them forth. There is no separation, but I thank you, beloved one, for being willing to take all of the mechanical devices and know how to hook them up and to run them so that my beloved teacher is free to go around and trip over the flowing robes.

Beloved angel, how are you?

Energized.

Indeed, for you are energy itself. Every very much expressing and you have felt in this evening even since you have come in the door of this abode, you have felt a release and a freedom. You will go forth from this place in this evening no longer the same as when you walked into this room for you have allowed a shift in perception. There was a hope, a subtle hope within you and that hope is true. It is being realized. It is your gift unto yourself and you may take it and you may build your gospel on it.

What would you ask this evening?

Most of my questions have been answered.

Strange how that happens, yes.

I am involved in two different kinds of work that are really fulfilling and gifted and feeling a third thing that I am supposed to be doing but have no idea what that is.

Ah, in the fullness of time, beloved one, it will unfold for you. But yes, there is a third way of service that is knocking at the door of your heart and it is related to what you have been doing, so it will not be seen as something new, dramatic, whatever but it will unfold easily for you and it will be of much beauty and much joy for you yourself will be and are already, exhibiting much beauty and much joy.

All that you do upon this plane is healing for you are remembering your wholeness and you are allowing others to know their wholeness so there will be various methods and arenas, avenues as you would call them, yes, of sharing that. But it not something that you need trouble yourself over for you are the guidance that you seek. It is not far from you. It is within. Thank you, beloved one.

It is truly exciting. You will enjoy it.

Beloved "Boo-ti-full One." Beloved brother who smiles with all of the energy of the sun. S U N and S O N. How are you this evening?

Good.

Indeed. Would you have a question or a sharing?

I welcome you always in my heart.

Indeed, and that is where we abide as one.

No questions right now.

It is the peace, the oneness. The peace that you are descends upon you as a healing balm and is registered in every cell of your body. And that peace goes out from you as a healing balm upon everyone who is in your presence. It is a grand service that you do for the Heavenly Father, thank you.

Beloved one, beloved delightful Child. Not as you would see as the small one upon this plane, but the Child - with a capital "C". How are you this evening?

Wonderful.

Indeed, you are. Is it not a joy to be able to speak this way?

Indeed it is.

What would you ask this evening? Do you have a question?

I guess like others I wonder what my service is to be.

Ah, beloved one.

I have an injury in my right wrist and I was trying to decide what is the best route to take, the medical route I should take?

Ah, beloved one, the two questions are related. For your purpose is to know your wholeness. Your purpose is to know that you are healing and you will bring about various methods as a researcher would. Not because one method would be better than another, but because you enjoy researching and talking with ones.

As you allow yourself to go into what you would call the medical route, you bring your Light to the one who is very much focused upon the medical, as they are called, means. You will be expanding their consciousness about what is possible, because you will also be using other methods of healing as well.

You are very much one who goes about planting seeds. Very quietly, just by being who you are. You plant seeds of possibilities. You will share with others what you have discovered and what you are discovering, because there is a newness of life about you. You are very much the Child, the beautiful holy Child upon this plane and you allow that to be expressed in simplicity.

Yes, there are the questions that you have. The doubts that come up from time to time and you play with them. That is what to do, play with them. They are no more important than as toys that you would play with. You may entertain them, you may play with them. When it is time for them to go you allow them to go as you would a guest that is in your home. You allow them to go.

But you are simplicity itself, beloved one. Everywhere you go you shower upon others the Light of your presence. It is not by accident that you have called forth this reason, to go and be amongst other ones of your brothers and sisters. It is nothing negative and it is nothing to be judged. It is not by accident. It is all by divine plan that you are calling forth as the divine one that you are.

For there will be many that you will speak with and you will share with them other doors, opportunities, methods, possibilities. Doors where they didn't know there were doors. They may not walk through that door but at least you will show them there is a door and they will play with it and at some point in time they will come unto that door and they will go through it. There is much that you do upon this plane that you do not even know.

Can you tell me?

You can tell me, beloved one. There is much that you do upon this plane just by the smile upon the face as you have just done. Much in the innocence of the laughter, the courage of speaking unto ones such as I. You know that there are many of your brothers and sisters who would not have the courage to come and to be in an evening such as this. Look at the courage you have. The oneness of heart and of mind. There is much that you do as you go about just by the Light that you are.

You speak unto the brothers and sisters who call unto me and yet when I answer them they do not hear me. You are my telephone and it is easy to do. Thank you, beloved one. Truly it is a joy.

I abide in joy always. When I come and I greet you and I say that I abide in joy because it is the Truth of my being and the Truth of your being as you are now accepting and taking in. You are saying, "I want to know more and I will take it all in." Indeed, and it suits you very well. It looks good on you. There is a lightness about you.

All of you abide in joy. That is the other side of the anger. That is the message of the anger. It is saying, "Speak with me. Abide with me. Talk with me. Dialogue with me. Let me express, yes, but dialogue with me and I will share with you treasures that you have not yet seen." Not negative treasures that would be of evil. There is not evil, there is fear, yes, but there is not evil and it will not devastate you. It will share with you its message. Dialogue with it as a friend and it will share with you what is the bottom line and when you see the bottom line then you will come unto joy for the bottom line that the fear would be speaking unto you is no biggie.

It comes first, in the appearance of something big. It looms as something that would be bigger than you and yet it is not for you are the creator of that emotion and it is not bigger than you. It will show you the source of the anger. There will be many of them. There will be many so called reasons that will come up for anger. Abide with each one in turn as a friend, as a messenger, as a companion for indeed, it has been your companion many times but it will not hurt you.

And when you abide with it and listen to its message, when you have allowed it to play out its message you will come unto the place of joy for you will see that all of the anger, all of the specifics of the "reasons," go back to the very same reason and you will see that reason to be a falsity, an untruth. For the Truth of your being is the power of the peace that you are and the power of that peace can never be assailed. It is always there.

Know always that I go with you into every anger and I cannot be vanquished. Neither can you.

It has been my grand joy to come and to abide with you in this manner this evening, to be able to reach out and touch, to play with the questions, to entertain them and to see, yes, how entertaining each question can be. And to behold the beauty of the creations that you bring forth upon this plane.

Allow yourself to abide with the beauty of the process of life, the process of life as it is exhibited in the flower, the process of life as it is exhibited in this beautiful one. I love to mess up the hair, and in this beautiful one. In each and every one of you.

Behold the miracle of expression that you are. Behold your unlimitedness. Go forth as the pioneers of remembrance that you are. Be steadfast in the Truth that you are remembering. Motivate others, yes, allow them to come truly alive for that is the Truth of their being. They need not go about feeling that they are so weighted down.

You see this even in the expressions upon the face. You see this even in the bodies, the way ones will walk with a heaviness. Feeling that they have the weight of the world upon their shoulders and they do, but the weight of the world can be dissolved in an instant as you accept the gospel of who you are and you go forth in the joy of the holy Child.

That is your gospel. That is what you are remembering as the pioneers of remembrance that you are. I thank you for your time for it is a gift that you have given unto me in this evening. I thank you for your Love that we are and I honor you for the courage of expression that you bring forth so easily upon this plane.

Be in joy, holy ones, for you are that joy.

So be it.
