

Midsummer Celebration In Paradise

1995-06-21

Beloved and holy and only Child of our Heavenly Father, Child of the One Source, Child of Light divine, I am the one known as Jeshua ben Joseph — Jesus you have called me — and it is in great joy that I come to abide with you this evening in your timing as you have chosen to call me forth. Great joy. A time of celebration. Celebration of light, yes on the lightest day of your year in this geographical location. A time of celebration of the Light that you are, that you bring with you into every event and every circumstance, every place that you go.

A time of celebration as the family comes together one more time in a grand reunion. A time of laughter of the heart. A time of laughter that is shared with the brothers and sisters. A time of celebration for indeed you are ushering in what has been called the New Age. A time of celebration of the vibrations of color. A time of celebration of sister to sister, of heart to heart. A time of celebration of the food, a wonderful repast, no? Yes, as it has been said, there are many good cooks in this group. I was speaking to my beloved friend and teacher, the one known as Judith why she did not allow me to savor some of the food, but she did not listen. She said, "Later, Jeshua." And I will hold her to it. We will sample some of the vegetarian brownies.

Indeed, a time of grand celebration and I thank all of you for hearing my invitation and to come to celebrate the Light that you are. Do you know why it is that you are so drawn to the light? That you would light a candle that you would surround yourself with many of the lights? Different kinds of lighting even in your homes. You have the technology now to bring forth all kinds of lighting. Different kinds.

In what you would know as times past you worshipped the sun and you spent much time out of doors in the Light that you are. Now, in what you see as this time, this history, you have said, "I will create light indoors," and so you have brought forth the technology to bring your Light in wherever you see yourself to be. Within the walls of a beautiful home such as this, and beloved one, I thank you for once again opening the door of your home and of your heart to this celebration.

You are very welcome.

You heard my message. Thank you for responding. The vibration of Light that you feel in this room is one of wonder. It is one of celebration. There is a grand vibration of Light in this room even in the structure the form of structure of this home. It is not by accident that you worked in concert with this one in saying that, "Yes, this would be a place that you would like to meet and come together."

The structure of this form allows the vibration of Light that you are to be uninterrupted, to flow in what you see as a circular motion to be without separation and without hindrance for even what you would see as the partitions, you have left it open above which has grand symbolism.

As you sit, the energy that you are, as the Light that you are is forever in motion. The Light that you bring to activate the form is always in motion. It is in what you would see a grand flow, a circular flow that activates every cell of the body and is felt by everyone of your brothers and sisters. The ones that you would see sitting next to you, yes, for indeed your Light very much intermingles with the Light of this one and with this one to your left. And it goes out even further than what you would see this abode to be. It goes out, mingles with the Light of the trees and is felt even as far away as what you would call your North Pole, and the Southern one as well.

For indeed, the Light that you are is not separate from the Light of our Holy Mother, the Earth. She is very much a Light being the same as you and there is coming again a remembrance of that Light. An honoring and a reverence for our Holy Mother and all that lives within Her and upon Her and around Her.

The Light that you are extends upward. Now, this brings you to a grand Truth for as you would see upward you extend it up to what you would see as your heavens. Now your brothers and sisters in what is termed the southern hemisphere are also extending their Light upward which is where?

Down.

Downward to you, yes. Which does a grand encircling of the Light being of our Holy Mother, the Earth. There is no separation and there is no break in the energy of Light. It is all joined as a beautiful sphere, as you hold that within the mind's eye and then as you allow yourself in the unlimitedness of who you are, as you allow that to extend outward to the farthest planets of the universe as you know it to be, your Light extends for there is no boundary and it goes unto the farthest ends, as you would imagine the universe to be, and beyond. It goes unto all of the universes. That is how unlimited you are as the Light that you are.

So you see, you have called forth a time of grand celebration. A time to celebrate the Light that you are symbolized by the lightest day in your timing of your seasons as it is here. A time to remember your Light and a time to remember the unlimitedness of that Light. And as you allow yourself to connect with the remembrance of the totality of the energy of Light, it calls forth a grand celebration.

For no longer would there be anything that could threaten the holy Child who is that Light. There is nothing that will come and threaten your holiness as the wholeness of the Light that you are. Therefore, what does the heart do? It leaps for joy and it celebrates.

This is an evening of grand celebration. A time that you have called forth. You have invited me to be with you to celebrate. Yes, you heard my invitation, but am I separate from you? No. So what you heard was your own invitation as the one that we are, to celebrate here in this geographical location and to celebrate anywhere you find yourself to be.

Many of the brothers and sisters are celebrating this evening the Light. Many different rituals of remembrance. Many different reasons to celebrate and each one is a catalyst for remembrance of the holiness of the Light of the Father upon this plane.

You have agreed that you would bring your Light and anchor it upon this plane in this day and time. You have wondered, you have asked, I have heard your questioning and you are not alone in it for all of the brothers and sisters come through the same questioning of, "Why am I here?" All of you have asked that from time to time, "Why am I here? There must be purpose, there must be reason," and there is.

For you have decreed, you have agreed and you have decreed that you would bring forth the Light of holiness and anchor it upon this plane and that you would allow your Light to shine forth in its brilliance so that the brothers and sisters who have temporarily forgotten their own Light would see your Light, would feel the Love Light in the eyes and would have opportunity to know their own Light.

Now, some go about with the head cast down, with the vision upon all of the conflicts and all of the constriction in the world and do not have the focus to look up. But that is their path at the moment. In fact, they are putting together the very stepping-stones that will bring them to a place where they will choose to see anew. Where they will finally come to the place of saying, "There must be more to life experience than this." And indeed you have been there. You have felt that. You have felt the questioning and you have said, "I will search for something more." And in that decision, in that choice, you lifted the focus of your attention off of all of the conflicts of relation, all of the conflicts of what the world activities would suggest and you have allowed the vision to arise, to look upon the Light of a brother or a sister.

For all of you so gathered here can think of one who has influenced you in what you would know as this lifetime. Who has at a moment, a choice point in your life, been as friend, as way-shower who has perhaps wittingly or unwittingly been the Light for you and you are doing the same for your brothers and sisters.

For there are many upon this plane in this day and time who are searching to know the Light that they are. Who are searching to come Home, and yes, they may choose avenues that do not feel of freedom and of joy and of Light, but they choose those for a very grand reason. It is to give them the structure and the security as you have discerned, until they come to a place of asking for more. At least they are asking. Right? Yes.

As you would look upon a brother or a sister and you would see their choices and their path, rejoice in what they are choosing even if it be conflict. For even the conflict will bring them unto the place of choosing anew. Do not allow yourself to sit in judgment of another one for indeed, you have experienced just what they are choosing in that moment. How else would you relate to it if you had not been there? Indeed you have.

So allow the heart to open and to extend understanding and support unto ones as they ask for it, and most of all, to extend the Light of joy to everyone that you meet. For many times ones will manifest for themselves conflict and will call out in that way in grand intensity, will call out to know Love and they do not think that it is easy to receive it. They do not feel themselves to be worthy of it, and so they will manifest the most conflicting events and situations and what underlies that is a grand call for Love, for they want to know, "Even as I am demonstrating behavior which seems to be of conflict, of negative choice," even as they are exhibiting that behavior they want to know, "Can you love me? Can you love me through this?"

What they are asking to know is the Father's Love, but that seems to be too far removed. The Father seems to be on a cloud somewhere and the telephone number has been forgotten. "How do I reach the Father? Does He even exist? I think I've been sent here, exiled to this place, and forgotten." So they do not believe that the Father could love them or that there could be contact.

But you, they see right in front of them. They see you activating a body such as they identify with and they understand the words of your mouth. And as you allow yourself to love them and to extend a word of support, a word of love, it allows them opportunity to grasp a bit of understanding of their own worthiness.

In the days to come, which you are very much in process of, you will see many calling out to know who they are. Already you are witnessing the polarity more and more of ones calling out to know, "Who am I" and "Why am I here?" and "Is there reason," they ask, "Is there reason to hope? Can there be hope?" And as you share your story with them you share an opportunity for hope.

For you will say, "Yes, I have been there. I have had my moments of doubt, of questioning, of the dark night of the soul and I have done my own questioning and I have called out to the Father and I thought that He did not hear me and yet all the while He was speaking to me. He was the energy that activated and does still this life experience. That all the while I felt myself to be separate." And you will share with ones what was inspirational for you in those moments and it gives unto the brothers and sisters a glimpse of hope, a glimpse of the Light that they are.

You are very much birthing the Light upon this plane. You agreed before what you call this incarnation, this activation of form, you agreed that you would come and anchor your Light upon this plane and that you would at an agreed upon time, begin to remember.

Not because ones outside of you have decreed that this is the time, but because from before time began, you set in motion a plan and in that plan you left a wake up call with your Self.

Now you will see it to be, some identify it with other Light beings with brothers and sisters who perhaps are in a more expanded dimension. I have heard it called that. Other who have not quite forgotten and so they are ringing the bell for you and saying that it is time.

But they are not separate from you as brothers and sisters. You very much are connected as the Light. Light is never separate. You as the grand totality of who you are, are focusing your attention upon this specific time and place and form and personality that you identify with. And that in itself is a grand miracle. For indeed at all times and you are the maker of time, your energy is far reaching as we have just described. Your energy is more powerful and more extensive than what you know the radio waves to be and the television waves to be, and your radar and you satellite dishes, all of those devices, and yet you can bring your attention to this specific chair, to this specific form and personality that you identify yourself as, to the message that is being spoken. It is grand miracle that you do, and you bring your Light and you put it in this pinpoint of experience. All the while you are extending that Light to the farthest universes, but you do not lose your point of focus.

Now, in times of prayer, in times of meditation you allow yourself to expand beyond the identification with just this form and with the personality and you travel. You allow yourself to connect with more of the totality of you and it feels very good. It does not feel constricted. It does not feel limited. Indeed, you are not limited.

And what you have agreed to do is to remember and bring that remembrance to this point of focus and that is very much what is in process of being manifested upon this plane.

You are very much bringing into awareness the Light that you are. That is why I have suggested that we speak of Light in this evening. For in the next five years of your timing and if you will receive it, actually less time than that, you will see even with the physical eyes the Light that activates the form. Already there are many of you who can behold the aura around a form. It can be now photographed and measured by your scientists for you have asked for evidence, proof outside of yourself and you have said to your scientists who have volunteered for this work, "Prove it to me, that the body is not all there is. Prove it to me that there is Light that activates the form." And so you brothers and sisters known as the scientists, have gotten busy and developed technology that can measure the aura.

In the next few years of your timing you will behold with the physical eyes the Light that activates every form. The form of brothers and sisters, yes, and the form around the plants, the beautiful plants and the trees. Around the beloved pet. Around all of the animals, and you will see the Light not to be limited just to that form. At first there will be the rubbing of the eyes and you will think, "What am I seeing?" But you will see the Light intermingling and indeed it will feel strange as it does not sometimes when you awaken and at first you do not know where you are and you look out with the eyes and for a half a second or so, you wonder, "Where am I?"

And then you bring that point of focus into the clarity and the identification and you say, "Oh yes, I am in my own bedroom, or someone else's bedroom." More fun perhaps.

{Laughter}

But in the first awakening sometimes there is a fuzziness where the vision allows more of reality to be known and this will be happening even in your waking times. So that the Light of this one will be very much seen as intermingling with everyone else's Light in this room as it does even now. And you will feel the energy of Light. It will be even more than just the beholding of it with the physical eyes. You will feel the energy of Light as you do now. You do feel the energy of brothers and sisters. For as you walk into a room and if the ones so gathered in that room are in a place of heaviness, in a place of thinking about all of the problems of the world and focusing upon the constrictions, their energy is brought into a constriction and you feel that constriction, that heaviness.

On the other hand, when you walk into a room of ones that you have called to be of like mind, ones who are connecting in the heart, you have felt an upliftment of energy. You feel the Light of ones. This will be accentuated. It will be more in your awareness in the days to come.

I have spoken often of being vigilant, to be aware of your own energy level. To be vigilant as to what you are abiding with in your own thoughts, your emotions. Not to judge for judgment will bring you down into more constriction. But to be vigilant as to what you are feeling and to sit with it in neutrality as the researcher and to ask, "What am I feeling? Where does this feeling come from? Is it the truth of my nature? Or is it because of a temporary identification? Is what I am feeling the Love of the Father which is eternal and ever-ongoing? Or is it a momentary suggestion that there could be limitation?"

And then when you have been vigilant and you have ascertained what your energy is, why you are feeling a certain way, then to allow yourself choice. To choose anew, for there is no referee sitting up on cloud nine somewhere who is going to say that you must abide with that feeling, you must do penance until you are worthy to be elevated. There is no grand referee that says you must abide with the feeling of constriction. So you may choose anew in every moment, to choose for joy and for Light.

You are very much birthing the New Age as it has been called upon this plane. You are very much moving into the manifestation of fifth dimension energy upon this plane. It is most necessary that you are vigilant as to what your energy is and what choices you are making.

For our Holy Mother, from Whom you are not separate as the Light that you are, is moving into fifth dimension energy, and those who are in alignment with the energy of Light and Love will find themselves moving easily along with this amplification of energy. This freeing up of energy, for does not Love feel free? It is. It is a freeing, and what is occurring now is a move which you have set into motion before time began, a move into fifth dimension energy upon this plane.

Those who do not move with this energy will find themselves expressing in alignment with the energy they have chosen. But it will not be in the same dimension of experience, the same reality – with a small "r" – that you find yourself experiencing.

Will they be sent to another planet? No. Will they choose to go to another planet? Perhaps, as you have chosen experience and expression on what you know as other planets. They may choose to go unto another planet but they will not need to. They may choose to experience life upon our Holy Mother, the Earth in what they understand and relate to as another dimension with ones of like mind. A place that you know well, all of you. You know third dimensional living. You know constriction. You know polarity. You know conflict. You know duality. You have experienced it until you are quite full. Yes.

You are the ones who are saying, "I am ready now to experience my true nature. To experience life upon our Holy Mother, the Earth and other universes if you so choose in the Light that I am and in the extension of the Love that I am. I choose now to know ease of expression. To know unconditional, unlimited Love where I can be who I am without fear of judgment of others or more to the point, judgment of self." For indeed it matters not what others judge.

In fact, if you will receive it, most of your brothers and sisters do not judge you. They are too busy judging themselves. But you perceive that they might have judgment of you because you have projected your own judgment.

But you are now saying, "I desire to express freely the whole Child that I am, the holy Child. To express Love freely unto others and unto myself with no judgment, no fear of how it will be received, but just to be able to be spontaneous Love, and to bring forth creativity of ideas that are in alignment with that Love."

For indeed, you have experimented as you call it, you have experienced bringing forth all kinds of creation that have been in the alignment of duality so you have brought forth expressions, you have been the animals that you would call the savage beasts in order to know how that feels. To live at a certain end of the polarity, polarity of the duality. To know how it feels to abide in the totality of savagery. Does the Father judge this? No. The Father says — not in words — but the Father says, “It is the Child experiencing, having an adventure.” Sometimes that adventure is a bit of a nightmare and as the human father would watch a small one in the bed in the midst of a nightmare, you wait until they awaken. And usually if the nightmare gets intense enough there is a more rapid awakening.

But you have experienced the continuum of duality because you desired to know how that felt. You have been the ones who wielded grand power. You were the great warrior that no one could quibble with for you have the strongest sword. Yes, and you gathered others around you who bowed down in grand homage to you and said, “I will defend you for you are a great god upon this plane.” They saw you as that for they felt your power, a temporal power, but they felt a power. The same with you, beloved one. You have been the grand god upon this plane. All of you have.

Even those of you now who feel a most gentle nature, you have been the grand warrior. You have wielded power and if someone would even look sort of strangely at you, you have said, “Off with the head.” That was the kind of power that you desired to know. You experienced that power and you came unto the end of that lifetime and you said, “But there is something missing. I have all of this power. I have had all of the brothers and sisters at my feet doing homage. They knew that with a single thought I could demand from them their form, the body. But where has that power gotten me? Here I am as an old woman, an old man and that power cannot hold off death as I see it.”

And you laid down the body in that lifetime very bitter, and instantly recycled for you said, “I will try it again. I will do a bit of the rewriting of the script and I will try it slightly differently.” And you came back and instead of being the king or the ruler or the grand warrior, you came back as the king or the warrior’s most learned adviser, counselor. And you again gave forth the dictates and the decisions, but there were times in that lifetime that you looked just for an instant upon a brother and there was a flicker of compassion, and you said, “Oh, I cannot be. That is weakness.”

And then you came back again and you played the drama again. You are now at a place where you are choosing. You so gathered in this room and many of your brothers and sisters who are in this New Age, in a place of like mind, of wanting to experience and express Love, unconditionally and unlimited. You are in a place now of decreeing that there will be changes upon this plane and they are very much in process.

In the next few years of your timing you will see much of change. You have already felt a grand acceleration of energy symbolized as your experience in time. You have felt many choices. Sometimes choices of where to go in an evening. So many choices, so little time. So many books to read, so little time.

You are bringing this forth because it is the time now that you have decreed, a time of knowing priority, of getting your ducks in order as it is called, and of choosing what is important? And you are all making your choice. If you will receive it, you have already made your choice. That is why you are here so gathered this evening.

You are making the choice, “That for me and my house, I will serve the Lord.” The Lord, your true nature, the Lord of Love and of Light. “I will arise up and come again unto the remembrance of Home." That is why you are calling forth fifth dimensional energy to be most visible, most tangible for indeed you will reach out and touch it. You will feel the energy and manifest upon this plane.

It is a time that requires vigilance for indeed all of your choices come forth from where you are abiding. Allow yourself to be vigilant, to take stock and to choose for Love as you have done many times in the past. That is why you are here this evening.

You have set into motion a grand remembrance of Heaven upon Earth. That is truly what will be manifest. That is what I have termed, I have called fifth dimensional energy upon this plane. It will be Heaven upon our Holy Mother, the Earth.

For you will go with a freedom of expression even as you do now, for indeed the body itself matters not. You have already discerned this many times. You have brought forth this experience in order to know one last time at a very deep level, that the body matters not but the energy that activates it, that is who you are and you have brought it forth one more time as the teacher that you are. To allow others to have opportunity to see that grand truth for themselves. Some have seen. Other have it just a bit off here sort of in the wings waiting, but you have planted many seeds in many of your brothers and sisters.

I thank you beloved brother, for having the courage to do this once again. For indeed this is not the first time that you have done this expression.

Oh, no.

Oh, yes. You have done it as a grand service and many times you have done this. Different forms, different ways, but you have had....

All out.

Yes, yes, but you have done it because of the courage that you are, the heart that you are. But it is true that all of the brothers and sisters have come forth as teachers, as servants one unto another. You have chosen different ways, different avenues of being of service, but each one is as teacher to another one.

All of you have been the great masters of knowledge, the ones who have studied the heavens, who have studied the order of the parts of the heavens in order to know the totality that is grander than the sum of the parts. That is why you have studied the heavens, that is why you have studied the smaller parts, the specifics in order to know the relationship of the parts to the whole and to remember your wholeness as the revelation comes through that, "Wow, the whole is more than the sum of its parts."

You have been one who brought forth that revelation upon this plane and shared it with your disciples, with your students. You also, as you have worked with the little ones. You have beheld the holiness, their wholeness and they have seen yours. You have done this in many lifetimes in different forms. Many times as the one who was seen to be of a holy nature known as the sister, the nun. Not only of that religious order but many others as well. Things that you have forgotten but are being remembered, for there is much of history that is being remembered.

Now, I have been asked, "Is it important that you believe in reincarnation? Is it important that I know all of my lifetimes? Is it important that I identify with having been the worst bastard in expression and is it important that I identify with being the grandest saint upon this plane?"

No, it is not necessary, but it serves as catalyst for remembering the wholeness of who you are. As you remember past lifetimes and as you claim those lifetimes for yourself, they are as the parts that we have just spoken of. And as you claim the parts after awhile you begin to see that you are more than the sum of those parts. You are the Christ, the energy of Light that has activated all of those lifetimes.

So yes, you have been the beautiful princess. You have been the queen of your nation. You have been the priestess in the temple and you have also been the humblest servant of the queen. For you desired to know how it felt to live all of those roles so that you could come unto a place such as this evening and claim the Light of the holiness that you are.

Reincarnation is a tool. Those who do not believe in it do not have to believe in it for indeed their focus of attention in this lifetime, and they say, "This is all I know. This, right here and now, this is it." That point of focus serves them well for they will bring right into their experience exactly what they need to choose anew. So they do not have to believe in reincarnation and all of the other lifetimes. But those who feel an alignment with it, it serves them well as catalyst for remembrance of the totality.

Now, in the days to come as the Light that you are, you will choose to express hear as you see here to be, with form if you so choose or you may decide with the freedom of the holy Child that you are, to express as the Light form, Light body and go flying off to wherever you desire to be in the fastest spaceship which is you, to any dimension that you think of for there will be instant manifestation and instant travel.

I'd like to try a little of that.

Indeed, we knew that and it is great fun.

{Laughter}

You bring forth now your stories of science fiction that allow the limitations of what you feel this time to be, to have. You bring forth the science fiction because you are ready to play with unlimitedness and it feels good to allow the mind to expand.

With your choice to know fifth dimensional energy, the energy of Light and unrestricted Love comes the choice of expression and you may choose to express here on our Holy Mother, the Earth with form, with recognizable form as we described earlier, that is activated by the Light that will be most visible and tangible for it will be another society. For all of the brothers and sisters who so choose to be in that expression will be seeing the Light of everyone. You have that saying in your world in this day and time, to see the Light. Hmm, do you see how wise you are? Even your sayings serve as remembrance.

Or you may choose to express in what you now would identify as another dimension or several dimensions all at the same slice of time as you see that reality to be. Or you may say, "I am beyond time," which indeed you are, and you will experience non-time. Which you do even now from time to time as you play with the concept of time.

Have you ever found yourself to be awakening in bed and you will awaken and you will look at the clock and it says that you have perhaps another fifteen of your minutes before you really have to get up? I have watched all of you. You have this time of when the alarm — such a terrible name — when the alarm will go off and then the time when I really have to get up. And most of you will allow yourselves some interval in between there.

Have you ever found yourself to awaken and you have this time interval and you have said, "Oh, I'll just lie here for a moment and meditate"? And you do. You meditate and you go into another dimension and it feels so good. And you open the eyes and you think, "Oh, my goodness. It must be time." And only two minutes have gone by on the clock and yet you felt like you had traveled years in that meditation, and indeed you did, for you went into another dimension.

Sometimes when you would be leaving home for a meeting or a gathering, and you know that, "I have to hit every one of those green lights just right in order to get there and there has to be a parking space right in front. Otherwise I'm going to be late." And you've said, "Ah," and then you have called out, "Jeshua, make all of the lights green." I have heard you.

{Laughter}

You sure did.

And indeed, I have answered with you, because I am not separate from you. Always I answer the heart's desire. But sometimes you have chosen — we will go off here on a tangent a bit. We will come back. Sometimes you have chosen in order to abide with a feeling of unworthiness. You have chosen to see all of the lights red and perhaps there has been what you term one of those accidents which is not an accident up ahead where all of the cars have to be stopped, and you have said, "Oh, I'm going to be late. I knew I was going to be late. I knew it." Well yes, you knew it, and you have brought it forth and you have said, "Jeshua, am I not worthy? What's wrong with me? I see other brothers and sisters and they manifest all of the green lights and they manifest a parking place right in front." And maybe you didn't quite put it into those words but you said deep within yourself, the internal dialogue, you have said, "What's wrong with me?"

I have heard my beloved friend and teacher say that. "What's wrong with me?" Because she wanted to abide with that feeling for one more time. And then, hopefully, to choose anew. Sometimes more quickly than other times. Other times she has stayed in that space.

But you have played with time and you have played with the green lights and you have manifested time so that you have gotten to a place, a gathering with time to spare. And you have said unto the ones so gathered, "I didn't think I was going to make it. You know, I must have flown here. I'm not quite sure what happened. Maybe there was a time warp." And indeed there was, a time warp. You made the time do a wrinkle, to warp itself.

And you allowed yourself the ease of getting there and you have felt so good about that. Then you have said, "The gods have looked upon me. I must be worthy." Of course you are worthy. You are even worthy of the feeling of unworthiness if you want to play with it for awhile. And all of you do from time to time. But that is okay.

You bring forth the moments of playing with unworthiness in order to have clarity about the choice to feel worthy, to know your own worthiness.

And more and more times now, when that little voice comes up and says, "There must be something wrong with me. Maybe I'm not worthy. I'm not quite good enough. Maybe I didn't study hard enough. Maybe something, maybe I'm just having a bad hair day."

{Laughter}

You are choosing to come out of that space more and more quickly. For you know very well how it feels to abide in the space of a bad hair day. It doesn't take you very long to recognize it. One of those days you get out of bed and it seems like everything goes wrong. You step into the shower with your slippers on or whatever, and you say, "How could I do that?" And then you are saying, "Well, what the heck. Slippers dry. I won't judge myself. Indeed, I wanted to try it."

So you have gotten to a place of saying, "That I bring forth everything I experience because I wanted to try it with no judgment. For the Father does not judge." And you need not either, but you bring forth every experience so that you have opportunity to be vigilant as to where you are abiding in that moment and then to choose. If you don't like the feeling, you choose anew. You say, "Jeshua, let's do something about this?" And we do. I don't do it for you. I do it with you.

For indeed if I could do it for you, all of you would be manifesting Heaven upon earth this moment. You would not have any of the questioning. You would not even have what you see as the process of time, for I do not have time except as I choose to come and abide with you in what you believe to be a time frame.

But you, yet, for a "time", yes a small bit of time, believe in process. So when I speak to you of the days to come I remind you that you are very much in the process. It is not something that has to be awaited. It is not something that all of sudden time is up and it will be here. It is very much in your own process of saying, "I now desire to claim the remembrance of who I am." And in that claiming you bring forth Heaven upon earth. You bring forth fifth dimensional energy in this experience.

Now, will you need to lay down the body in order to come unto the place of experiencing fifth dimension? No. No. Many lifetimes you have thought that the only way to get out of third dimensional experience was to lay down the body and then, "I will go unto Heaven." And sometimes you have experienced Heaven for that has been your belief that when you lay down the body, instantly I would be there to greet you, which indeed, I am, and that the angels would be there to assist you up the golden stairway to the pearly gates and Saint Peter would look in his book and sure enough, your name is there with all the gold stars.

{Laughter}

And you will be admitted into Heaven. You have experienced that, but then you have felt that there was something yet to know. Something yet, to experience and with that questioning, that small subtle question you have chosen experience again with form upon this plane or another type of form somewhere else for the grand adventure of it.

Now you are asking to know experience with form but to experience it awake. To experience it as the Light that you are and to be the Love in grand freedom upon this plane or as we have said, other planes. For indeed, the time that you now believe so strongly in will dissolve.

You will know what you already know deep within you. You will know that you are not limited to this plane or this belief in time. You have felt even in this lifetime, a frustration with time, an impatience for you have a vision. You know Heaven upon Earth and you have wondered, you have asked, you have cried out, "Why is it not here? Why does it take so long?"

You remember instantaneous manifestation. You remember thinking a thought and having it instantaneously manifest. Whatever you were thinking or wherever you were thinking of. That will again be your reality.

But for an adventure, for a time interval you have chosen to experience time. You have chosen to experience vibration in density, yes. That very much is in vibration. All of the matter that that is, the chair that you are sitting upon is very much in vibration. It is energy the same as you, but you because of the miracle of focusing, have decreed that that may be at a slower rate of vibration so that you can place the form on it and you do not slip through.

Now if you were at the same level, rate of vibration as the chair it would be nothing to sustain you. You would slip right through it. It would be an equality. If you desire to know how to walk through a wall, allow yourself the oneness of knowing the vibration of a wall and adjusting your vibration to it and you will walk right through it.

Now, do you relate to that?

Sure.

Yes, you do.

Just don't panic in the middle.

Exactly. And do not panic one fraction of whatever before the wall or you have experience that as well where the nose needs a bandaid. But all of you as we spoke of allowing the vibration of your energy to come into oneness, all of you had a place of relatedness with that. You could understand what was being spoken and you said, "Yes, I remember faintly, but I remember doing that." Of course you remember doing that.

But right now you have chosen to put the focus of your attention upon this belief system and this expression of energy and that in itself is a grand feat, a miracle. And you say, "Well it's so easy. It's just natural. I think I was born in this body and I learned after awhile not to try to walk through a wall." And indeed, it is after awhile because as a small toddler there were times you ran into objects and you didn't know that when you ran up against the coffee table all of a sudden you were going to be knocked backwards because you remember being able to adjust the frequency of your energy to whatever was around you and going as the Light being that you are.

When we — and I include myself in this — when we first came to experience Light, the process upon our Holy Mother, the Earth, we knew the Light that we are and we went very easily as the Light beings, the angels as they are pictured now in your society, we went very easily as Light.

Then there was a desire to know, "What does density feel like?" And over time as we began to believe in process we allowed the Light that we are coalesce into a form that has more density and all of us experienced running into objects, trees and being knocked backward. Sometimes laying down the body because we ran into it with such force forgetting that we had not first adjusted the frequency of the vibration. We all did this.

Now you are coming to a place where you are desiring to know how to adjust frequency of energy. Yep, frequency of energy even as it is received with the form. It will be a grand miracle and you will bring it forth.

When I walked upon the water, how did I do that? I adjusted the frequency of my energy to not be the same as what I would see the water to be. I knew it to be of another frequency, denser. Now water as you know it has a density about it. But not a density that is seen like the chair.

I allowed the frequency of my energy to be disparate, to be different, not equal, disparate from it and I visualized, yes, and I knew that my energy was different from it. Had I practiced this? You bettcha, yes. There were many masters that I studied with in far countries who had their own specialties as you have master now who specialize. And I studied with these masters who shared with me how to raise frequency of vibration, how to walk through seemingly a dense wall, through a mountain. Inside, into the inside of the mountain. How to walk upon water.

Did I start out with a small puddle on the ground? Yes. Did I jump into the swimming pool? Later. It all came as a process because I agreed that I would believe in process in that lifetime. It all came as a process of remembrance. It all came together as you are doing it now, this process of remembrance, to the place that I have summarized as "I and the Father are one." In other words, I am the energy of the Father. I am not one with something that I see to be afar off from me and I hope that there is a connection. That is still seeing separateness.

But through the process of my experimentation which led me to the remembrance and the revelation, I came to knowing that I and the Father are one. Of course I and the Father are one. I am His energy. It's energy upon this plane and as energy, I can change that, I can adjust it and I practiced and I knew as you know in small measure right now. I knew that I am the creator of what I experience and of what I express. I took this a bit farther along, but that is what you are willing now to do. That is what you are playing with and that is well and good. Play with it for indeed it need not be a heaviness and you will not fail.

That is what I desire to share with you in this evening: you will not fail to express fifth dimensional energy, to know the Light and the Love that you are. You cannot fail. You have left a wake up call in what you would see as aeons of time ago, and yet it but a twinkling of an eye. You left a wake up call of remembrance which is why now the heart calls to you. Why you have desired all of this lifetime to know the Father, to know Love in expression. For deep within you at what you would call the soul's level, you know that you are Love and your grandest desire is to bring forth that Love upon this plane and it will be, yes. So be it. And it will be. You cannot fail.

When there is a feeling of a possibility of failure, whose voice is that that speaks that possibility? The voice of ego, for the Father's voice speaks of Love and of unlimitedness. But from time to time the voice of the ego will say, it will come up right along side of you as an old friend and it will say, "What about? Do you really think that you can do that? Well, maybe some of the wiser ones, you know, the masters, disciples, people who have lived a long time ago or maybe Mother Theresa, Benjamin Creme, maybe someone like that can do it."

That is the voice of the ego and you know what to do with the voice of the ego. Say, "Thank you very much."

And then do it.

And then go ahead, go for it, as they say. Whenever the voice of ego comes up say, "Yes, you are reminding me that I am abiding in a place that says there could be duality, that there could be possibility of limitation." And then say, "I know your voice well companion of many, many lifetimes. Message received. Over and out." And then you choose for unlimitedness.

Fifth dimensional energy will come to be known upon this plane. It has been decreed by me, yes, very much so by me. By other masters? Yes, very much so by other masters. By you? Yes, very much so by you for you are a master and you are not separate from any that you would see to be in other dimensions. You are a master that is why you are here.

So fifth dimensional experience, fifth dimensional energy, Light and Love upon this plane will be, very soon now, a reality. You will bring into remembrance the Reality — with a capital "R" — in expression within reality as you see it for somewhat of a process of time. Within the reality known with a small "r", for there will be yet a belief in process, a bridging. You are very much doing that bridging right now.

But by what you see as twelve years in your timing, fifteen perhaps, but I will suggest unto you twelve years, you will see a society that is based upon Love and that will be Heaven upon Earth.

You are very much the ones who are deciding the time frame of it, but you are also the ones who have said, "I have known duality long enough. Let's get on with it." So as it is seen now, within twelve years of your time, you will know society that is based upon Love and only Love.

The duality of Love and fear will be something that will be understood for indeed you will relate, you will say, "Yes, I have known that feeling," and it will go into your history books as something that has been experienced, but it no longer will need to be the governing force. In fact, it will not be. Love will be the governing force.

We have a long way to go.

Yes and no. There are some who will say that this cannot happen. That is has a long way to go and it's going to take lifetimes. And for them, it will. For others who say, "Because of what I have seen just in the past few years of my timing, I know that all things are possible." For indeed, what you have seen in the last three decades of your timing have been great changes, great shifts in perception. Great shifts in ones asking for and claiming their freedom. Countries, yes, and freedom in relationships even as you would see one to one as relationship.

Much of what you have seen as the women coming forth and saying, "I deserve, I am worthy to know Love and to know relationship which nurtures that Love. I am willing to give forth all of my Love in a relationship that is of Love and a win win exchange." You have seen ones of small groups known as minorities who have felt themselves to be a minority, have identified with that feeling coming forth and saying, "We are worthy of recognition. We are worthy of honor." You see many in your day and time now who speak of honoring diversity, that there is much of value in diversity.

That thought would not have been voiced a few years ago in your timing. That thought as it came up would have been relegated somewhere in the back reaches of the mind because there would have been such grand fear that ones who were of different expression would not have felt themselves worthy enough to say, "Perhaps there is value in diversity. Perhaps there is treasure in what we can bring to the sharing of the whole."

So will this take a long time? For some, yes. They will ask to lay down the body and recycle and have more lifetimes. For others such as you who have the eyes to see and the heart to accept the changes, they will happen very rapidly, because I decree it? Well yes, but not because I make it happen. I stand as your cheerleader. Cheering you on and each time you choose for Light, I feel uplifted.

Each time you choose for a bit more of the constriction I say, "Okay," because I know that brings you one choice closer to choosing for unlimitedness. Every choice serves you well. That is why you do not have to beat yourself up. If you make a choice in one moment for limitation and constriction, do not abide with the fear of heaving to whip yourself for that choice. When you decide that it doesn't feel good choose for Love and get on with it. That is what fifth dimensional energy is, it is getting on with it.

Now would be a good time to get on with a break, to have a break, to refresh the bodies. Perhaps to partake of some more of the good food and then in ten minutes of your timing which I will try to adjust to, we will resume our evening together and we will entertain the questions if there be questions and perhaps find them to be entertaining as well. So be it.

{Break}

Beloved and holy Child of our Father, can you feel the Love that is in this room? Yes. And it is not I that have brought this. It is you who by your willingness have said that you will experience right now, right here what we have been discussing this evening, that you would experience and know Love in its fullness.

Fifth dimensional energy, very much in expression upon this plane. Have you touched it? Yes, many times. You have brought it forth momentarily when the heart was open, when the shutters of the heart have been allowed to open wide and there has not been thought of judgment or of what will happen? But there has been such a feeling of an onrush of Love that you in that moment have accelerated your own vibration of energy and you have brought forth fifth dimensional energy in expression right then.

So it is not something that you have to wait until you get all of the pieces in place in order to know fifth dimensional energy, the Light and the Love. Already you are doing that moment to moment. Fourth dimensional? You have asked, "Why did I skip from third to fifth?" Fourth dimensional energy you know very well as you allow yourself to pray, to meditate, to come unto the silence that still place within the heart and to feel yourself expanded. That is fourth dimensional. It goes beyond what you would see this point of focus, this narrow point of focus to be.

So already many of you abide in fourth dimensional energy. More and more you are allowing yourselves the blessing of abiding in fourth dimensional peace and Love. And as you bring that forth in more unlimitedness in visible expression, you bring fifth dimensional energy very much into expression and experience.

But it is not something that is foreign to this plane or you. It is something that you already know, something that you already do from time to time.

Beloved one, it is something that you have brought forth this evening as you have allowed the ones, the brothers and sisters who are as family to you for indeed they are heart family, to come together, to share the energy of food and to share the energy of Love. It has been an evening of celebration has it not?

Right. Much.

It has been an evening of grand joy for me. Would you have a question in this evening? It is not necessary but if you desire you may.

At this point I don't have a question right now.

You are Light and Love upon this plane. There are times, yes, that you have the questions about expression within the world's terms and where should I go? What should I do? Am I doing enough? Yes, indeed, you are doing enough. But you are very much the Light and Love of the Father upon this plane and you have chosen with grand courage to come and be the Child in expression. Allow that Child to have fun for she deserves to know who she is. We will play together.

I'll hold you to it.

Easy to do.

Beloved brother, do you have a question this evening?

Besides the ones you have already answered? Yeah, would you go around that way?

It is most possible.

I feel complete in this moment, thank you.

And indeed, you are complete and I thank you for expressing in those words. Indeed you are complete. You are one who is on a grand adventure and this time you have said, "I will bring it all together. I will remember everything and I will integrate it to the place where I know that the whole is more than the sum of its parts." And grand joy there is in that. Grand revelation.

You are one who has decreed that you will know even in this lifetime, you will know fifth dimensional energy of Heaven upon Earth, and it is my grand pleasure to say to you, that as you do that, it allows my energy to be known more fully upon this plane. My energy as one Jeshua ben Joseph, no. That may happen. That is a side line, but my energy as the Christ to be known and experienced and expressed which is your energy as well. Thank you.

Beloved brother, should I go the other way or should I speak with you?

No, I'm satisfied.

Indeed. How are you this evening?

I'm great.

You are indeed great. This is a grand mustache that you wear.

Sophisticated.

Yes. It suits you well.

Well thank you.

What would you ask in this evening?

I ask for a Truth.

Yes. You are that Truth. Already the Truth of your being is coming into expression in fullness. You are one who has played again with conflicts, the questions, doubts, the questionings, the reading of books, the workshops, the searching. But you are one who has said, "I will search the highways and byways for all of the remembrances and I will put that all together into a grand whole," which is you, "and I will express upon this plane in joy and in fullness." That is why you are here this evening. You have chosen to bring it into conscious awareness of why you are here. Not only here in this room but why you are here in this experience, this dimension.

You have said that you will bring Heaven into manifestation, that you will live it fully as the Child of the Father than you are. That yes, you will play with the concepts of the mind for this is something that you have done in many lifetimes. You have been the learned scholar many times and you have written the classics that others have studied. Now you come and you read others, others books and they excite you. A remembrance within that says, "Yes, this is a truth. This fits in to the jigsaw puzzle here. This piece fits in there." After awhile it is a grand vision of Heaven upon Earth.

The Truth of your being is very much coming into manifestation because you have decreed that you want to know it in its fullness. It is a time of celebration, a time of grand party.

Yeah, a grand....

Yes, why not? Have fun with it. Go with the bare feet as you do. Go in great spontaneity of energy. Allow yourself in every morning to feel an acceleration of energy. Get up and wiggle the body about. Feel the energy that you are in a looseness, a flexibility of it and then say, "Where would the holy Child like to go today?" And off you go.

To the beach.

Very good. I will join you. A certain flow of energy at the beach, is there not?

Lots of it.

Lots of it. Very much as you know yourself to be one with the ebb and tide. That is who you are as the flow of the water that comes upon the beach and then you look upon the tiniest grain of sand and you behold your Self in that tiny grain. And then, you behold your Self as the whole of the beach and as the whole of the ocean. It is a beautiful place to abide for you bring forth much of symbolism that is there as catalyst to remember the unlimitedness of the holy Child.

So romp in the water. Allow the grains of sand to go through the toes and revel in the creativeness of the holy Child, for that is why it is there. You bring it forth to enjoy it.

I will. Thank you.

Beloved one, who shares much with me, would you have a question in this evening?

Just one. I know that all of us shall be teachers and I know that I shall be one of them. And my question is: will I be helping you in the future of teaching?

Yes. It is a desire of your heart to help me as you have said, bring forth the Christ upon this plane. And the desire of a heart always manifests. There is a grand work that we do even now. For as you allow yourself to express the Love to the friends, to the beloved pets, to the animals, to the trees, to the stars all of creation is uplifted. Even now as you see yourself not to be quite with the credentials perhaps of a teacher, you are a teacher already and you have been in many, many lifetimes.

It is something that you have chosen in many times as a way of service, to bring forth the heart upon this plane so that you will know the Love in expression and others will have opportunity to know the Love that they are. It is a grand work that we do already. For you see, it does not await a future time or training as it would be. For the Love that you are, the Love that I am is very much unlimited, very much a simple process. It is very real, and it does not need grand rituals, grand study, even the diplomas and certification.

You will get some of the paperwork that the world perhaps will ask, but that is all it is. It is a bit that just opens a door, a door that you go through anyway. Already you are the teacher and I thank you for that.

Beloved brother, how are you this evening?

Very good.

You are indeed, very good. You are excellent. What would you ask in this evening?

At this time I can't think of any questions.

Very good. You are one who has studied many, many lifetimes you have had the questions and have gone about finding the answers, all of the answers. This time you have said, "I will abide with the heart. I will abide with the knowingness that I am. I am the answer that I seek." For indeed you are. You bring forth every answer as you ask the question for you are your own answer, and you have come unto a place in this lifetime where you have said, "I know that I am and who I am is all." Grand place to abide.

Then you go out and your romp upon the beach with your brother for there is nothing else that must be done.

It sounds good to me.

Beloved Child of our Father, how are you this evening?

I'm okay.

You are indeed okay. There is such a radiance about you. What would you ask in this evening?

I don't have any questions right now.

Indeed, you need not. Go with a simplicity of the heart. Go with the spontaneity of each moment for indeed that is where the Truth of your being abides. Not to have to plan everything out. That is the world that would say that you must plan, prepare. Why? That is the voice of the ego that says that you must be prepared against attack. There is no attack upon the holy Child. Go in Love and in simplicity and know that you have already set in process what you truly desire.

You desire to see human love, human relationship yes, that is very much manifest. But beyond that you desire to know the Love that we spoke of this evening, the unconditional, unlimited Love of our Father. That is who you are. There is nothing that will keep you from expressing that and from knowing it in its fullness.

Thank you.

Thank you, for you are the one who has the courage to come and have this specific point of focus upon this plane. I do it from time to time. I let my beloved friend and teacher take care of the form in between and I go off and I have fun.

{Laughter}

Beloved sister, how are you?

Just fine.

Would you have a question this evening?

Well the last time we met I was preparing to retire now I'm only a few days away from retirement and I need to know some good advice on how to follow my heart's desire of service?

Yes, indeed you already know. You have set into process the next steps that you will see after what you call as retirement. You already have options, you already have the ideas of the heart that are coming forth. Allow yourself to be in ease with these, to trust, I believe it is called trust that these will manifest for indeed it is not by accident that you have desired to do exactly what you are doing and it is not by accident that all of a sudden you saw that it was possible to do the retiring which only means that you are going to put retreads on the wheels and off you go again in another direction.

The work that you are about to do, you have already begun. You will continue. It will evolve. It will develop. It will be more of a joy to you, but you will find yourself doing what is a joy to you with many of the brothers and sisters being companion unto many of those in a heart to heart relationship. Providing for them what they need in that moment as inspiration, because you have been there.

All of what you have experienced in this lifetime, you have put into a grand kit that you carry with you and as you have occasion to pull out a certain tool, a certain experience, a remembrance, a relatedness and you pull it out when the time is appropriate to share with another one and you say to that one, "I have been there and this is what has helped me. I have been able to look beyond just that specific event or relationship. I know that all I have done in this lifetime has been for a grand purpose," and it has for you have put all of that into the tool kit that you carry with you.

For your own remembrance, yes, and for the sharing with others. You are rich in treasure of experience that now you have come unto a place of freedom known as retirement, you can go about as the journeyman that you are with your tool kit and you can allow others to be inspired by what you have to share with them. Inspired by their own true spirit that uplifts them out of the muck and mire of their own seeming constriction, their own seeming events at that moment.

You will find many attracted to you who desire to know what you are now laying claim to, remembrance. You will find many coming to you because you have an image that is understood, an image of wisdom, an image of angelic tones who will speak, ones will speak to you and want to know of the heart for they are sore of heart and are searching and they will come to you and they will hear my words through you. They will be your words. They will hear my words, the Christ words, for they think when they pray to me they think that I am afar off and that I do not have time to answer their prayers. And you will allow yourself to speak unto them words of wisdom, simple words. Not grandiose ones for indeed that would go over the head. But simple ones of relatedness and they will hear the words of the Christ that will allow them to come up higher.

It will not be difficult for you to do. It again is not something that you need plan for, but you will find ideas, inspiration, guidance coming to you in your mornings as you awaken and you will know, you will ask of the Father when you first awaken, you will ask of me. Indeed I am not separate from you. "Where shall we go this day? Whom shall we serve?" Let us have fun doing this and we will. It will be easy.

Nothing that you have ever done has been randomly chosen. Everything that you have done has had grand purpose and it will continue. The difference is you will begin to see as you are now, the thread of meaning, of purpose and it will become even more clear to you in the days to come.

You will be bringing forth in the simplicity of what you would call your one life. You will be bringing forth fifth dimensional energy, Heaven upon Earth.

Thank you.

Thank you.

Often times, often times it has been felt that what can one life do? Often times you and the brothers and sisters have felt boxed in by your own belief, your own image and you have felt separate and you have asked, "What is the value of my one life? What can I do?" I would share with you, beloved ones, what did my one life do? And your's is no different. I do not mean by that that you have to be crucified, dead and buried.

{Laughter}

You may crucify the limiting image, yes, allow it to be dead and then resurrect your true being but you do not have to hang upon a cross.

Beloved brother, how are you?

Just great.

You are indeed great. There is such a radiance about you. What would you ask?

I would exchange with you, first acknowledge to just thank you in person for being around since the last time, being so close.

Yes, it has been because of your willingness. Do you know that you threw open wide the door that you had opened a crack before that? It had been one of those sort of creaking doors. You pushed it a bit and it creaked and you pushed it a bit and it creaked some more. And the last time that we met in this fashion you allowed the door to be flung wide open. So yes indeed, you have known my presence very much. It has been my grand joy to be acknowledged by you.

Okay, and I'd like your acknowledgment of something so simple, but so profound for me and that is to reclaim my body.

Yes.

And in a way that it can be shared with everyone.

Yes. Indeed the form that you activate is — there is a word in your day and time — it is youthing. Youthing, going back to youth. I am not lisping.

Yes.

You are youthing, becoming younger. As masters we remember how to express in the prime of life, to allow the body itself to be in its full expression known as the prime of life. When we choose a body, a form to come back and express upon this plane which we do from time to time. When we have free choice we choose to come back in the prime, very dynamic robust form, athletic you would call it, suntanned a bit. One that enjoys life.

There are other times that we choose a form that would be appropriate for what we desire to do in that moment. Sometimes I will appear unto one as an aged grandparent, a grandfather for that one will look upon me and will understand the words from a grandfather that he would not accept from this athletic — what you call these?

Beach bum.

Yes, beach bum, very good. Yes, I like that term. But indeed the body, you are resurrecting. You are allowing it to come into its prime of expression. This is part of what we have talked about this evening described this evening as the fifth dimensional energy. Where you know that you have choice as to how the body will express.

Even the constriction in various parts of the body, the diseases and the dysfunctions will dissolve for you and for the brothers and sisters as fifth dimensional energy is claimed and experienced.

That's nice.

It is indeed, nice. It is the only way to go as the true holy Child, yes. And that is what you have desired to know in fullness, the freedom of expression of Light and Love, yes, but a freedom that is in physicality as well. For you do not need to deny the body in order to know the Light and Love you are. In fact, as you deny the body you are denying the activity of the Spirit that activates it.

It's becoming more apparent.

Yes. Allow yourself to have fun in each moment. That is what allows the youthing.

Beloved brother, I am pleased to see you here this evening.

Thank you.

How are you?

Fine.

You are indeed, what would you ask?

Maybe a question on right livelihood if you have some advice on that?

Well, beloved one, there is advice and there is advice. Indeed, already you know where you would desire to serve. For indeed the avenue of coming Home is the avenue of service. But it is not limited. In other words, service does not have to be what is narrowly defined as a service profession. But everything that you do as it is rightly looked upon is seen and understood to be of service.

Therefore, you are not limited by something that would be of more value than another. In other words, you do not have to choose a profession that is valued as your world system values things and to say that you must be a doctor, whatever, that would be held to be of value.

Indeed, the street sweeper who sings and has joy in his heart serves the Father more fully than the physician who is caught up in the money of how to run the hospital.

Allow yourself to go within the heart and to ask, "What brings me joy? What do I find in this lifetime to be the talents and abilities that I have to offer the brothers and sisters, and where would I like to use those talent and abilities? Where can my creativity come forth?" For you are grand creativity. You have been in many lifetimes the inventor, the one who looked at something and said, "Others would see a brick wall," and you have said, "No, that is not a brick wall. There is a way. There is something to do here. We can go up and over, around it." They said, "No way."

You said, "Heck, we can tunnel under it." And then you've done that. You are very creative. But what is important now as right livelihood is to allow yourself the freedom to choose what you want to do. Sit with options. Allow yourself far out options as they would be in front of you upon a table. Put in some that are really almost past believability and then to sit with each option and to see which one has the most light around it for you? Which one excites the heart? And narrow it down a bit.

Then get you very busy in seeing how you can bring that about through your networking, of talking to ones. Of saying, "You know, this is what I'd really love to do. I come alive, in doing such and such." That is what is important, the coming alive. For the golden coins, beloved one, will come to you no matter what you are doing. So why have to struggle in something that does not bring you joy? They will come, the golden coins. Always you will be in the flow of the golden coins. Sometimes more, sometimes hmm, not quite so much. But that is okay. What is important is to do what serves your heart, what brings forth the joy of living.

For indeed, you have done everything, every roll upon this plane. You have been in every profession you can think of. You are already complete. In other words, if you had to serve an apprenticeship, and you did not, but if you had to you've already done that.

Now you are free as the master to choose what you want to do and where you want to do it. And if it means upheaval of change, breathe and then go for it. Do you know why you breathe? It brings you unto the center of the heart where you connect with the Spirit that you are. The inspiration of the breath.

That is why it is the first thing that you do when seemingly the form is birthed as an independent form. You breathe. In this plane of expression the breath is your connection with Home. So whenever you would have decisions to make allow yourself to breathe first. Go unto the place of peace of the heart and then quite neutrally, in other words, without judgment of value, ask, "What would I like to do? What allows my heart to come alive?" And then go for it. Even if it means making changes.

For indeed, in years to come and not very many of them, you are going to see much change upon this plane, because you have decreed that you are ready for change. Have fun with it.

If you will receive it, you are going to witness a grand change in the next twelve years of your timing as we have spoken, and it need not be exactly twelve. It could be eleven. It could be thirteen, whatever. But you are going to see so many changes that what you know now as reality – with the small "r" – will no longer be your experience. So as you sit with choice now, allow yourself to choose in that moment what excites the heart and keep it open for change for all of society, all of the professions, all of the avenues are going to undergo change. You are going to find yourselves much more as the independent entrepreneur as it is called, allowing your creative abilities and talents to come forth in exchange for what others have to share with you.

You will not need the medium of currency known as the golden coins or the paper or the plastic in a society of Love. You are going to see changes in this area. So to chase after the golden coins is putting your focus in the wrong arena because that is going to change, that arena is going to undergo change. There is going to be much more of an exchange of energy which the golden coins symbolize, are already, yes in the tangible form, but it is going to be seen much more directly of what you desire to share with me and what I have to offer you.

Part of what we spoke of as the Light energy that will be most visible and will be felt tangibly. There will be an exchange of Love where one will come and they will be so hurting that they will exchange for you the food, the sustenance of the body for the Love, the healing Love that you have within.

You sit now and you say, "Who would pay me for my Love? Who would give me a beautiful carpet for my Love for such a simple thing as my Love? I give it freely hoping that perhaps somebody will value it." That is where you are now.

But you will find that there will be a brother or a sister coming through their own releasement of constriction of image who will come and want to have your healing Love so much they will value that so much, that they will say to you, "I have a piece of beautiful, tangible form that I will give to you. It has been in my family for many years. I treasure this. If you will hold me in your arms for a time interval and allow the healing of stabilization of my energy to know that I am that Love, I will give you all of the treasures that I have in tangible form."

So you say now, "Well heavens, that certain is a different kind of society. Where can I go now where I will say to you, 'I will give you Love. Will you give me...?'" And your brother or sister not yet having made that shift in perception will look upon you and say, "Huh?"

You will see many changes rapidly in all arenas. This must be so to bring forth the society based on Love. So make your choices Love governed and allow an openness for choice in the next day or so if something new comes along and indeed it will. It will come along.

Many of your young people are feeling an unrest because they know that there is change that is occurring and they do not understand yet, where this feeling comes from or how it is going to be out-pictured. Many of your young ones feel at a place of being lost.

They say, "Why should I prepare for a profession that is no longer going to be the same when I graduate from whatever as it is now?" And they feel a certain lostness because they know deep within themselves. They are tuned in to the energy that is changing. They know that the professions that you know now are undergoing major change.

Some will choose various professions because they have an alignment with that area, that avenue of service and they know although it has not been perhaps brought into conscious awareness, they know that they are the ones who will usher in the changes in that profession.

But many of the young ones, the ones who are known as the teenagers and the young ones in their twenties, are feeling the energy of change and do not know where it is leading and there is a feeling of wondering, "Is it of value to train myself in a certain way?"

Yes, it is for momentarily they must make change, they must make choice and then leave it open to change. So if young ones come to you are in a state of confusion, share with them what we have just now discussed. Tell them to hold the vision of Love upon this plane and to choose always for Love and then to be open for change.

That is the one thing that you will count upon. You have always counted upon. It is your salvation, change. In other words, the holy Child would not come Home without change.

That's beautiful.

Beloved one, thank you for being patient while I delivered that last paragraph. How are you?

I am fine.

Yes, what would you ask in this evening?

Thank you for the invitation to be here this evening.

Thank you for receiving.

And as you know the way has been long. But I think the end may be in view.

Indeed, it is and it is a grand and glorious end as you would call, which is a birthing. Yes, it is something that you have awaited many, many lifetimes. You have held it within your heart and you have nurtured the vision that is coming to be manifest upon this plane.

Many lifetimes you have been the voice that others have not understood. You have spoken of the vision, and when they did not understand you held it close in your heart and you kept it alive as a flame of the vision. Now, it is coming to be manifest in its fullness upon this plane because you have had the courage to keep it alive. Thank you.

That was the Light, the brand new day that I heard this morning?

Yes, very much so. You are a Light bearer. Many lifetimes you have chosen a name that had within it the symbolization of Light. You have often been Christina, Christopher or you have chosen that as a surname where you have been the son or daughter of Christopher. Always in lifetimes even when you haven't chosen that as a name that has been outward, you have known it within your heart and you have kept the Christ flame alive.

My son is Christopher.

Indeed.

Beloved one, how are you?

Great.

You are indeed, great, what would you ask this evening?

Hard to say. So much has happened since I saw you last, so much clearing and making way for the healing.

Yes.

One of the things that interested me was this fourth and fifth dimension, because various reading had different, you know mentioned fourth and some fifth and I was very please to hear you address that, and I never heard you address that specifically on time of things to come. This is a new thing, isn't it?

It is indeed, because you and the brothers and sisters are now asking to have it be brought forth in specificity. You have held within your heart the vision. You have known that you wanted to bring forth Heaven upon Earth. Now you are asking yourself, "Okay, let's have all of the cards out on the table. Let's see what all these cards are and we will turn them over and we will see their faces." No longer will there just be the cards as you have known them to be in fourth dimension, for indeed you have known in fourth dimension that there were cards on the table and that these cards were Light.

Now you are saying, "Okay, let's have them over. I want to know, I want to know all about them, I have the courage now to know."

And I know I'm worthy to receive.

Yes.

I gave up an old vow of poverty and a bunch of things recently.

Indeed, yes.

I may have been some priest at some time.

Indeed, very often.

So I don't have to be poor in either money or spirit.

No way. No way. In order to bring forth Heaven upon Earth, you do not have to deny the beauty of abundance, opulence. There is no sin in opulence. In fact just the reverse is true. There is a belief in separation, a belief in unworthiness when one would say that you cannot have opulence, beauty, treasure about you. Allow yourself to revel in it because you are the creator that brings forth that opulence. It is all yours. Thank you.

Beloved brother, it is such a joy to be with you.

It's good to be here.

Indeed it is, yes.

I have no questions, just to voice thanks and the amazement of our Oneness and yet the diversity of expression that we have, and beauty.

And having the eyes to behold that beauty.

Right.

Yes. If you will receive it beloved one, you have done some major shiftings since the last time that we spoke this way. There was yet a bit of heaviness that you held to you in the last time we spoke this way that has now been released. You are going much lighter in the heart, yes, and in the form and this will continue. You will feel yourself much, much lighter.

Yeah, I feel the light sometimes... like the whole body is, it is Light for I'm remembering that. I remember that, I can feel it.

Indeed.

I am not my body.

You are a grand teacher. Thank you.

Beloved one, hello. How are you?

Well, I am depressed because the way I want my life to be is not the way that it turns out to be. I want to be healthy. I'm sickly. I want to be energetic. I'm fatigued. I want to take a class that's cancelled. Everything that I feel like I want to do always seems thwarted. I feel like I'm probably doing this to myself and that's depressing. So I should talk to you about that.

That is the voice of ego that is allowing you to judge yourself. You are bringing up a lot of the experiences of thwarting in order to sit with and come to a place of clarity about which voice you are hearing. Not in judgment.

In other words, when you ascertain where that voice is coming from, you do not have to beat yourself up and say, "Oh, no I've been listening to the voice of ego again. I'm listening to the voice of the world again." You do not have to beat yourself up, but you are, yes, as you have discerned, bringing forth these experiences so that you may sit with them and have clarity about which voice it is.

When you feel frustration allow yourself to acknowledge it. There is nothing wrong in frustration. It is a grand servant. Acknowledge it and then say, "How would it feel to be unlimited, to be beyond what this feeling is suggesting to me?" Then play, in your mind's eye, with the sunshine Child that you are. Feeling most free doing what you want to do.

For indeed, there is but a small percentage of you that is limited to the identification with this form and this experience. The Truth of your being is you are that sunshine Child skipping in the meadow and if you want to align yourself in any moment with that Child who is unlimited, you may do so. In fact it will spill over the more you practice being that sunshine Child in the meadow, will spill over into this reality.

You will not need to analyze. You will have a feeling of, "I wonder where that came from? I don't know. There's no outside reason but for some reason I feel happy." And you will wonder. You will say, "This feels a bit different." You will remember that Child. As you play with the sunshine Child that you are, visualize her in your mind, because she is the Truth of your being. Give her a name. Ask her what she would like to be called? Give her a name. Walk with her. She very much wants to play. She very much wants your companionship to play, to experience. Find many, many moments in the day to play with that Child for she is the Reality of you. This is not the reality of you. This is where you have said you will put your point of focus for a temporary time. But she is the Reality of you and she is most free. Get to know her. Bring her into this experience. You will feel a lightening up, a freeing up even of energy in the body.

Now, do not approach freeing up the energy in the body and saying, "Okay, this is what I will do." But it is what you will call a side benefit, fringe, fringe benefit it comes. Play with that Child. She is not limited or hampered by a body. She is not limited or hampered by any of the activities of the world or any of the decisions, any of the thwarting, any of the classes. If a class is canceled then say to the Child, "Dog gone, I wonder why that happened again? What shall we do in this time?"

"We can do something else," she'll say to you and she'll say, "Let's do..." and she will come up with an idea of something. A book. Another place to go. To sit by flowing water. To do whatever feels good in that moment and that is all it need be. And then as you are feeling good in that moment to know that is the voice of your Father, the voice of Love speaking through that sunshine Child that you are. It will transform even what you experience in this reality.

You are the Child that I love to play with but she wants to be known again by you. She wants to play. She plays yes, by herself. She wants to play with you. So turn the focus of your attention unto her. Lavish attention upon her and you will see healing because you will feel free in those moments with her and it will transform even what you find this reality to be.

She is beautiful as you are beautiful. Do you feel beautiful in this life?

Sometimes.

Yes, for you are. Allow yourself to connect with that sunshine because it is beautiful and that is who you are. Many of your friends see the sunshine that you are. You are valued and I love you.

Beloved one, how are you?

Fine.

You are fine. What would you ask in this evening?

I have a specific question. I have chosen to journey with my granddaughter through her enlightenment and my enlightenment together. However, her mother feels that what we are doing as of the devil and this is very wrong and she is very much against this. For the time being I have custody of her, but she will be coming back and I wonder if I should in this particular lifetime under the laws of this land whether I should seek legalized custody or whether I should, whether we can work sufficiently with her to enlighten her to the point where it wouldn't be necessary for this?

Yes, as you have discerned, to go through a legal process puts up barriers of separation. It says in effect that there is not a way of communicate. There is, as you know, communion which goes beyond communication. Allow yourself to be at peace with how this unfolds for the one known as the granddaughter has a great Light that she knows very well. It will not be extinguished. There is much that she will share with the mother but it need not be done in a forceful way.

In other words, she will not come on with a, like a bulldozer, but gently just by being who she is. She will love the mother. The mother is very much asking for love. To know her own love and the Love of the Father that she does not feel can be hers.

Through the Love of her daughter she will feel Love. Through the willingness of you, she will feel Love. This is truly the bottom line of what needs to be and will be communicated. What has begun as a process with the granddaughter will continue. The flame will not be extinguished. You need not worry. Allow yourself to enfold the one known as the daughter, both of you, in grand Love.

That we are trying to do.

It will bring about...

I'm trying, really I do.

Well said, it will bring about the transformation that you desire to see. Now, does this mean that you will change her thinking? No. You will allow her opportunity to see Love and how it feels and how to make choice for Love. If she does not feel worthy to be in that place, that is okay, for indeed the Father does not judge. The Father does not judge any lifetime whether she comes to that place of remembering Love in this lifetime or another lifetime, it matters not to Him for He does not acknowledge lifetimes, does not acknowledge the time.

So you do not have to worry yourself that. Stand in Love with this one no matter what the behavior and to say with a smile on the face, "You know, I love you." To look, even to look for uniqueness of expression, beauty that this one has and to appreciate the beauty of this one. The beauty that this one does not see for herself. She does not feel worthy of value.

That is not because of behavior of yours. It is what a belief she has brought into this lifetime that she desires to release so she is manifesting all kinds of events for herself. Hardships, hard ways of going so that she has opportunity to finally come to that place of saying, "Hey, I am the Prodigal Daughter. I will arise up and return unto my Father's house for at least there the pigs, the swine, the servants had better to eat." And she will arise up.

Look for the beauty. Praise every piece of beauty as she expresses it for indeed there are expressions. And as you praise those expressions they will grow. You will not need to fight it. You only need to love it. It is not the first time that you have been together.

No, I know that.

Indeed. And it is not the first time that you have been the one known as the mother either. You have often been as sisters where you have shared much. You have often been the older sister who shared with her. Many times you have done that. There has been much that you have shared.

It is so in this lifetime for she desires to put it all together. That is why she goes about experiencing things that you say, "Well, I don't see why she has to do that. Doesn't she know where that avenue is going to lead?" Well, she wants to experience it one more time in order to bring it into a grand integration, conscious integration of being able to say, "I know how that feels now. I am full up, satisfied, complete with that experience." And there is no judgment. The Father does not judge, of course.

So you do not have to be in a place of conflict with yourself. You may be in a place of peace. All is in order. You know how to do that well.

You beloved one, you would come and you would have me speak with you again.

{A young girl moved from one side of the room to the other.}

You are a delight of the Father. You are one of the ones that I spoke of when I said, suffer the little children to come unto me, and I did not mean suffer in a way of pain. I meant allow, let them come unto me of such is the Kingdom of Heaven. One who will feel the freedom to sit here, to sit there, to sit here. Does not have to do the "shoulds". Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven. Great.

Beloved one, how are you in this evening?

Good.

You are indeed, would you have a question in this evening?

Well, I'd like for you to tell me what you feel I should know?

Indeed beloved one, you are remembering what you should know. You are remembering the Love of the heart. You are remembering that you are here upon this plane in order to experience all, to be the grand iconoclast that breaks down all of the images of what should be. You are the one who has said, "Oh, I'm going to try something different." This is not the first lifetime you have done that.

You are coming to bringing it all together, to know the joy of everything and to bring your Light to shine upon all of the adventures, all of the experiences. You are one that has often been the adventurer. You are often the one who has gone in the forefront and you have said, "I will go and try this out." And others have said, "Oh, don't do that. Be in fear. Don't try that you know it's going to do X, Y, and Z." And you have said, "Oh come on. It will be fun." And you have tried it. Sometimes it has been fun. Sometimes it has been more of a challenge, but you have done it because you desired to experience creativity in order to come Home again. To come unto the place of saying, "Now I remember that I am all." That is what you should know. You should know exactly what you are allowing yourself to bring forth in conscious awareness. To allow yourself to know the ease of joy and simplicity, not judgment and to know that you are Love.

All that your Father asks of you is to shower forth His Love upon this plane. To appreciate the beauty of every moment and every brother and sister who comes before you. To allow His Love to be known upon this plane. That is what you agreed to do, believe it or not.

You said, "I will bring His Light unlimited and His Love unlimited to this plane and I will shower it upon my brothers and sisters. And I will have a bit of fun in the process."

You are doing very well, beloved one, for you are bringing forth exactly what you desire to be as catalyst for remembrance of the One that you are, of the Love that you are. All that has been in your past has been for a grand purpose. It has been to bring you right here where you now say, "I desire to bring it all together and to know the whole." It has been for a grand purpose of experience, for the adventure of it.

It, as the past comes with you only as you choose to bring it into the next moment. It does not have power over you. You have the power over it. So you can choose to bring from the past what you have learned, remembered, what serves you well, and the rest of it, it is as water that has already gone over the dam. It is finished except as you would want to keep it with you.

So you do not need to bring any of the judgments of the past with you. You are free in every moment. Bring with you the good that you have learned from it. Allow yourself to know that you are most wealthy because of experiences and that is the blessing, that is the good part of it. Bring that with you, for you will find many of the brothers and sisters who still abide in a place that is not happy. Who want to get out of that place and they will come to you and because you have experienced where they are, you will be able to share with them words of wisdom. Pearls that are beyond price for them. They would pay anything to know how to get out of that place of unhappiness.

And you, out of the vast treasure of experience will be able to share with them relatedness, insight, the turning point for you that has brought you up out of that place.

So what you have done in what you would see as past, has great value. It allows you to relate to the brothers and sisters and more importantly, for them to relate to you. For again, as they call unto me, and they do, to save them, they do not believe it possible for me to speak to them and I do. But you, they can understand. You can speak my words to them and they will understand.

What you have done in the past has great value. Build upon the goodness of those experiences. Let the rest of it that would be of judgment be as the water that has gone over the dam for indeed you do not have to carry it with you one more minute. It is too heavy. Carry only the lightness with you.

You are a great ray of Light in this world, because you have had the courage to make choices that others would not make. To experience experiences that others would not choose to make. You now have the opportunity to be a great Light for them, for ones who are wanting to know. Wanting to know first of all, "How does it feel to be in a place like that and how to get out of it?" And you will have much to share with them.

Oh, yes I do.

Yes, you do. All that you have done has been by purpose. Not to judge, not to say that it has been wrong. Your Father does not judge it as being wrong and you do not either as the one Self that you are. The higher Self you would call it. You have done it for the grand purpose of coming Home, for the grand purpose of saying, "I know what it feels like to be in pain, and I can help others because I have been there. But I also know what Love feels like. And you know, more and more I am going to choose to abide in Love. I am going to see others around me who want to share Love with me."

And as you open yourself to that Love, guess what? It grows, and you will see Love upon faces of ones you would call strangers. Why? Because you are now in a place of saying, "I will accept that into my reality. I will see Love where I look. I will see friendship," and you will see more and more of it. What happens then? You find yourself giving forth more and more of it as well.

For your world and your brothers and sisters are sorely calling out now, crying out to know Love. They also acknowledge at a very deep place within them that this a time of choice for the expression and experience upon this plane is moving into the fifth dimensional energy that we have discussed this evening that will bring forth Heaven upon Earth and they know at a very deep level that it is time for choice.

They may not know that consciously, they may not stop their activities long enough to take stock but there is an unrest that everyone feels because it is the time of change. And many of the brothers and sisters are responding to this unrest in pain, wanting to know how they can be saved? They will not be saved by anyone outside of themselves, but they will be inspired by others who have gifts to share with them. By ones who have said, "Yes, I have been there. But you know, I've seen a grander vision and it feels better to be where I am now. Come. Come with me. This is how you do it." And some will come with you and others will say, "No, I have to abide here longer. I am not worthy of making that change."

So they will abide there for awhile until they make their choice. That is not your responsibility. You don't have to worry about it, but you do give to them the opportunity. That is all your responsibility is.

So what you have done in the past, grand one, serves you and serves the brothers and sisters well. You have already, if you will receive it, reached a turning point. You have already made a decision deep within you and you have turned a corner and I celebrate that with you.

Thank you.

Beloved one, how are you?

Fine.

You are indeed fine, what would you ask in this evening?

I would ask that we didn't have to wait twelve years because I pray every-day for your return.

Indeed, and you....

I'm getting a little impatient.

Ha, and you are one who has known impatience, yes. But you are also one that brings forth fifth dimensional energy a lot of the time upon this plane and I use that word advisedly, a lot of the time. You bring forth that energy and you live in it so that others may see what it looks like and what it feels like.

So for you beloved one, you will not have to wait and you do not have to wait twelve years in the timing. You are already collecting unto you what would be known to you as a circle of friends, a community of like minded ones who want to live from Love. So you will not have to wait twelve years. It will be spread across the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth in more general terms in that timing, but you already, you are surrounded by that energy.

I know that.

Yes.

Thank you.

And it is a grand gift that you give to others by wanting to bring that forth, by having the courage to do that as you have done many, many years already.

Beloved servant of the Heavenly Father, how are you?

Really good.

You are really good. More and more of the radiance of you is shining forth. There is an ease of the heart that is becoming well known to you and most visible to others. What would you ask in this evening?

I really don't have any specific questions tonight, but I do have some later.

Oh yes, you will think of some later. In fact you already have a list and we will speak in more detail, more depth with that. Not a heavy depth, the depth of the heart. Yes.

Thank you for being the Light upon this plane and for allowing yourself to claim the worthiness of shining forth the Father's Love for indeed in this lifetime you have also come the path of feeling unworthy, of having image of yourself that would be less than perfect and you have allowed those constrictions to be dissolved and released. You will find in the days to come that there will be more and more of happiness.

Great.

Yes. I'll go for that.

Beloved one, how are you in this evening?

Very good.

Beloved angel who is again a Light upon this earth, what would you ask?

I have kind of a big question and I've been toying with asking it here one to one but I'm feeling moved to ask it here. Recently I feel I made a big shift of understanding that there is no master plan and that I'm here to follow my heart and that was a major shift for me. I'm still in a little confusion, I guess, about allowance and surrender in that process, because I felt I was allowing and surrendering to a master plan. And now it's my heart and I'm still a little confused about making that shift.

The heart beloved one, is the master plan. The master plan is one of awakening and coming Home, bringing forth Heaven upon Earth. Now the details of that are open to your choice. It is as we said to another one earlier this evening, to go with what excites the heart. To not force one's self into what should be because perhaps others are making that choice. That is their path. That is what excites their heart, but to go with the excitement, the joy of your own heart. That is allowing the master plan to be known and manifest upon this plane. That is surrendering to the master plan.

Not trying to force a size eight foot into a size three shoe, or even to try to put a size eight foot into a size twelve shoe that doesn't fit either. But to allow your Self, that is what allowance is, to allow your Self to know that you are the master plan in action and to surrender all of the limiting thoughts to the grander vision.

Yes, as you have discerned, you have made a grand shift in perception. You have allowed that revelation that says, "There is no referee up in a cloud somewhere. No great God afar off that would judge me to be spiritual or non-spiritual as I make a choice or do not make a choice." There is no place upon the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth that is more spiritual than another. Every square inch is sacred land as you bring your holiness in conscious awareness to that place.

So if you desire to bring your holiness in conscious remembrance to a place where there is flowing water and lush greenery, then that is where to go. If another place calls to your heart then that is where to go. Or for the brothers and sisters, if that is what allows the opening of their heart that is their path and yes, as you have discerned, you will do much of the visiting from one place, many places for indeed already the heart family is setting up communities, points of Light across the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth. Some are more in manifest form. Others are still in the vision stage, but they will come very rapidly to be manifest upon this our Holy Mother, and you will make trek as the networker that you are from many of the communities of Light and the same with the brothers and sisters.

For you will be "proving" to yourselves that there is no separation and that you need not feel separate from one community or another for you will find ease of travel even before you go as the time traveler or as the Light traveler and that indeed will happen. But even before that you will find an ease of taking the form as you know it now, between different points of Light, communities. You are not limited to one you see, your loyalties does not have to be in one place.

I already feel that.

Yes, and it is going to expand. You will find yourself visiting many, many communities in this what you know as your country and in other countries as well. It will unfold because you have a desire to be a connecting link, as it would be, of Love. And so you will travel.

My heart sings just hearing that.

Yes, you are most free to make that decision. But you will find that there will be certain ones that you feel more at home in and one certain one you have already touched upon. Times of great joy.

Thank you.

It was the same for me in my lifetime. I found places that allowed my heart to sing in my native country as it would be known and in my travels. For I was not limited just to a place known as Jerusalem or a place known as Nazareth. I travelled far and wide to study with the masters and I found myself to be at home anywhere I went for I took home with me.

But you will find in your initial stages that there are certain places that allow the heart to come more alive and I say initial stages because you will find later as the Light that you are and the expression of Love that you are that you will find yourself in resonance even with places now that do not seem quite to speak to you and that is all right because there is a certain timing of all of this.

But you will find that you will be at home no matter where you allow your form to alight, to be that Light. You will find yourself at home in many different places that seem now as a bit strange, but they will not be strange. You will know home wherever you are.

But allow in these moments, these next few years in your timing, allow the heart to come alive. That is the key the secret which is not hidden. That is the key that allows the full bloom of Heaven upon Earth every moment. To play with that sunshine Child that you are. She is very much alive and well. Very vibrant and she wants to know you. She wants you to know her. There is much of fun in this for you, much of joy and it will be a key for you that will unlock all of the other doors that seemingly are closed.

You have asked that they be closed because you have desired to focus upon the opening of the Light that you are, the master key. If all of the doors were seemingly opened easily for you, you would not stop and pause and take stock. You would just go through the doors blithely, asleep.

Because you have the courage you have said, "I will see some of these doors as closed right now, because there is a bigger issue to deal with." It is not a heavy issue. It is the issue of finding the master key that unlocks all of the doors and the master key is the sunshine Child.

As you allow yourself to know her, to know yourself truly, but to know her first as she feels somewhat separate from you, you will find that she and the joy that you feel, unlock many of the doors that have seemingly been kind of closed.

Is that the same thing as the inner child?

Yes, partly. That is an avenue to approach yes, but she is more than just what is known by those terms of the inner child. She is who you truly are as the Love and the Light of the Father, but you will approach her through some of the techniques known as the inner child work and then just visualizing her in your mind.

Even if you would go and find a photograph of yourself in this lifetime as a small one and speak to that one, hold her within your heart and dialogue with that one. It will bring forth much of revelation, not heavy, not heavy judgment of stuff. You do not need to have that for you indeed, you are not guilty of anything.

But just to allow her to dialogue with you, to share her secrets with you. It will be fun to do and there will be much of treasure that will come out of this. For yourself, yes, it will be the master key that unlocks all of the doors that you wish to have opened and it will also be a gift that you will give unto some of the brothers and sisters for you will keep a journal that will become a gift unto others who are also seeking to know how to make that connection with the whole Child, the holy Child, the sunshine Child. But do not feel it as a heavy responsibility.

Keeping a journey just sounds horrible to me.

{Laughter}

I felt that with you. That is why I said allow yourself as something comes forth that is of happiness, just to write one sentence. A couple of words. A phrase. That is all that is necessary. It is not necessary to write reams and reams and pages and to go into depth of why's and whatever, just to write what you see as the salient point of a revelation that came to you. Something like, "You know today I looked upon a sunflower and I realize how much light there is in every petal of the sunflower." There you go. That's all you need.

I can handle something like that.

Yes. "I looked upon an ant and I saw the life process embodied in that ant and I realized the wealth of life expression in beholding my brother, the ant." No big deal. You don't have to go into a whole paragraph about the anatomy of an ant and how they whatever. You don't have to do that. But just whatever feels good to you.

When you look upon a beloved brother and you notice, "Huh, you know that beard, there is a lot of light in that beard," and you just write that down. "Today I beheld the light in my brother's beard." Brings you Home. Do you see how light the laughter feels?

Yes.

Yes, it is easy. Laughter brings the holy Child back Home again. Suffering keeps the holy Child stuck. Fifth dimensional energy is very much unstuck. Fifth dimensional energy is who you are. The Light that is unbounded, unlimited. The energy of the heart when it leaps for joy, when you are surrounded by home even upon this plane, that is fifth dimensional energy and that is what you are bringing forth in this process in the days to come.

You have decided, you have decreed that you want to know who you are. That you want to know it most experientially. That is why you have come into this expression with seeming density. You have desired to know, "What does it feel like to be God in density of vibration?" That is why you have done it. Not to feel guilt to say, "I've forgotten who I am. Woe is me and to have to do lifetimes of penance in order to be worthy to be receive back into the Father's Love." No, you said as the adventurous creative holy Child, you said as a question, I said it myself. "How would it feel to be God in density of vibration?" And you have focused by your own choice upon physicality, upon density with a miracle of focusing so that you can know density. A coalescence of form known as density. Certain vibration. How does it feel like to be God expressing in a world of vibration which is at a certain level? We will not even put a value term upon that vibration. It is not lower or higher. It is vibration of a certain rate.

How does it feel to be God in expression? That is the question that we ask. That is why you have brought your focus of attention so specifically and intensely to this point of focus, this lifetime, this form, this personality that you identify with so that you can know how it feels to be God in expression right here.

And now you are saying, "Okay, I've experienced duality. I've experienced density. I want to know now how does it feel to be fifth dimensional God in expression?" And so on you go and it is a grand celebration of the Light that you are.

I thank you for sharing this evening with me. For being willing to celebrate the Light that we are, to allow all of the concerns of the world to be temporarily set aside and to play with the beauty of Light in all of its different forms. To behold the love-light in another one's eyes, the exchange the hugs with the friends, to enjoy the Light that comes through in the food that was taken as nourishment in the body and to enjoy the Light and the Love so provided by this one, your sister. Provided so freely and I thank you beloved one. Often we worked together. You know this.

And unto this one, allow the Light that you are to be seen before men and women. We will not be chauvinistic, so that they may know the Light of the Father and may glorify that Light by being the expression of that Light upon this plane.

So be it.
