

Creating The New Dream-3

1995-07-22

Vail, Colorado

Opening meditation by Govinda Miller

Beloved and holy and only Child of our Heavenly Father, Child of the one Source, Child of Light divine, I am the one known as Jeshua ben Joseph – Jesus, you have called me – and it is in great joy that I come to abide with you this evening in your timing as you have chosen to call me forth. Great joy. Great enlightenment. A grand time to be alive is it not? Exciting. Exhilarating. Joyful.

As you have just heard it is more than just what you see as your point of consciousness, this point of consciousness known as the body and the personality. You are more than that. There is more than that afoot. The energy that you are expressing in what you would know as the planet, the planetary influences, the universes, the galaxies.

As we spoke last evening, the miracle that you do is to bring a very specific point of focus to this place in this time and identify it with a form and with a personality. And yet what you are doing is allowing that consciousness to be known and yet to feel as the drop of water feels its own knowingness, its own individuality and yet knows itself to be part of the vast ocean.

Yes, the planetary influences and energies are very much in change, in flux, as you are. For indeed you as the holy Child, the holy Daughter, the holy Son bring forth by your allowance the shift in perceptions, the changes that are then out-pictured in all of the relationships in your everyday life. Even as you bring forth those changes, you allow the changes on what you would call a larger scale as well. For you are the energy of all of the bodies of the planets, of the galaxies.

You are the creative energy that brings it all into its form, into its creation. You have created it. You have brought it forth and it very much is in synch with you. Not always perhaps with the conscious you. There are times that you feel a bit out of synch with what is happening and yet you as the totality that you are, you are very much in synch with all of the energies known as the planets, known as the galaxies and universes.

You are one with all of the energy and you are very much in synch. So you bring forth a language that allows you a road map to know where you are and where you are going. It is beautiful is it not? This is one who has studied many, many times the parts and the relationship of the parts in order to bring forth revelation of the whole and to offer that to the brothers and sisters in what is known as an organized study, a body of philosophy.

And again you have found great excitement in this study and in the revelation and it is not by accident that you find yourself in companionship with this one. For oftentimes you have shared interests, the studies and the revelations. It is not by accident that you have found your paths together once again. Many lifetimes you have been as the playmate who played with the exciting revelation and could not wait to share with the other one what insight has come in the morning of your timing and you run to the other one and you have said, "Guess what I just discovered?" And you do it again.

Almost everyday.

Everyday, indeed. It is beautiful to behold. And what brings you Home beloved ones is that excitement, is the insight, the joy of the insights and the revelations that come with those insights. And know that you are part of the whole and at the same time, you are the whole. You study it. You give forth the road map and at the same time, the revelation is there, "I am the road map. I am that I am."

Now what I have just spoken to these two, is true of all of you. For all of you have the revelations, the insights that come to you momentarily from time to time and they allow the heart to expand. Is that not true?

It uplifts you out of the momentary activities of daily life and allows you to see that you are much more than just what the world would speak unto you, much more than the dictates of the employment.

Yes.

Yes, thank goodness. Indeed.

What brings you Home is the excitement, the exhilaration, the upliftment of energy that comes with the joy of revelations. The joy that you have found beloved one, in the music. For again the music is as a road map. Very much similar to what others would study, other avenues for the music you see is in parts, and in harmonies and it tells you of the whole as you put the parts together. And in that the soul comes alive again. You allow yourself to be uplifted and to touch the place of wholeness.

All of you do that with the various avenues of interest where you find yourself in service unto the brothers and sisters, and all of sudden whatever you are dealing with, all of a sudden there is a bit of an insight that comes, an understanding that is more than just the parts that you have been playing with. All of a sudden it comes together into a whole and there is a feeling of upliftment, there is a feeling that you have just expressed. The feeling of the sigh, the deep breath that says, "Yes. I accept that. I take that within myself, within the whole that I am."

All of you do that from time to time. You experience that in different avenues, different languages, different ways, and yet it is the holy Child allowing herself to come Home again in joy.

You are as we have spoken in the last evening, very much in process of creating the new dream upon this plane and it is time, is it not?

It is time.

It is time. Not because great masters say that it is time. Not because the road map says that it is time, but because you have decreed that it is time. That you have played with all of the aspects of experience, with physicality, with creation, with form and now you desire to know who you are and to bring that into joyful manifestation. To bring forth the Christ upon this plane and to know it holy. H-O-L-Y, yes and W-H-O-L-L-Y. Wholly. Do you see the beauty of your language?

If you will abide with your language, with the phrases, with the expressions that are used quite casually, if you will abide with some of those phrases they will tell you much more than what seems to be on the surface for there is a deep wisdom of the holy Child and she brings that forth even in language which is easily spoken, casually spoken, and yet as you abide with the language the idioms of the language they reveal much unto you.

Yes, the road map is verifying for you that you are in process on the threshold of the new dream. You are on the threshold. Can you feel the excitement of that? Yes. That is why you are here so gathered, because you know at a very deep level that you are on the threshold of knowing why you are here. What your purpose is, how you may fulfill the purpose for which you agreed to come and be in this expression at this time.

All of you so gathered in the room have asked, I have heard you, you have asked of me. You have said, "Jesus, Yeshua, Jeshua, God, why am I here? What am I supposed to be doing? Truly there is more than the eight to five job. Surely there is more than the weekday activities, more than the relationship of loving a mate, raising the children, seeing the children off on their careers and hoping that they will find happiness. Surely there is more than that." And the gospel is: there is more than that. You have known it. You have felt it, and you desire to manifest it and to experience it.

As we spoke in the last evening, you are bringing forth a new society, a society based on love because you are willing to radiate the Light that you are, to see it in every chakra of the body and to know yourself surrounded by the Light that you are, very dynamic Light in expression. You are willing to grasp a bit of joy in each day. To laugh at self from time to time, to find humor in events that other times have been most heavy and to say, "Perhaps I can see this in another way and I can find a bit of humor in it," and you have laughed at self. And in that moment you have radiated more Light that you are and you will continue to do that because it is addictive. It feels good.

You get addicted to the laughter, to the humor and you will radiate more and more of the Light even through the form of the body. So that no longer will the belief in separation be tenable because you see that you are not separate one from the other.

You will feel the energies of ones around you even as now you feel it subtly, you will feel it much more intensely and you will know that nothing is hidden, nothing is now hidden but there has been a belief in separation that has said that I can judge another, I can hold a thought about another and if I do not voice it or show it upon the face they won't know it. And yet they do know it. They feel a discomforture being in your presence if you are in judgment of them. And this will be known, this will be felt much more visibly and tangibly in the days to come and those days are not far off.

For if you will receive it, in what is seen now as twelve years of your timing you will be abiding in a society very much changed from what you know now. It will be a society that will understand energy, that will understand Light and will know no separation. Yes, there will still be some of the brothers and sisters who will try to abide in separation, will try to hold judgment of others and of self, but the resulting effects will be known immediately and it will be very much as you have tried yourself when you have been hitting the head against the wall. It will be very motivating to stop hitting the head against the wall and to abide in Love and in peace and in joy.

So even the ones who are still at a place of feeling that perhaps they know separation, that they can armor themselves within a box they will very quickly choose anew.

Employment will change its nature as well. Employment will change because it will be given, the service will be given freely because you desire to expand the heart and to express the energy that you are. It will no longer be seen as necessary to have an exchange that will go through again the gradations of separation known as a paycheck, known as the golden coins. But the energy will be freely given because it feels so good to extend that energy and the exchange will be known and felt immediately.

You have heard that your monetary systems are going to undergo change and indeed they will. Some of the brothers and sisters will see this as tragedy and will hold on with grand resistance and will feel that they have lost everything, that they have lost their image of who they are. That they have lost security, they will say, but what it comes down to is: I have lost who I have thought I was. And great that is for the image that they have held has been limited.

Your monetary systems, yes, will undergo great change because they will no longer be necessary the way they are established right now. The foundation upon which your monetary system is now based is in a process of great change and you need not fear. You need not go out and hide somewhere in the ground the great metallic substances that will be useful later. Because who you are is much more valuable than any metallic substance that you could secrete away somewhere for future use.

Yes, there will still be use for metallic substances, but they will be used in devising means of serving brothers and sisters in what you will call the technological development, mechanical, and in structures. But they will not be used as a mean of value in exchange for energy. Love, Light energy will be seen to be of most value. And it will be seen that each one owns equally the energy. For you are that energy and there is no lack of it.

So yes, your monetary systems will be undergoing change to the place where you will no longer need the separation that, I will do a certain activity for you in exchange for the piece of paper or the golden coins, the plastic, the I.O.U's, whatever. You will not need that intermediary. It will be an instant exchange and it will be done because you want to do it. Because it feels so good to be in the flow of energy. Most addictive as we have just spoken, because you desire to expend the energy in helping others.

The forms of education are already undergoing great change. This you will see in just a few years of your timing making a major turn where every small one who is birthed into physicality will be honored as the Light energy that that one is. Already you are in process, albeit, at the beginning of this process, but there are many of you who honor and see value in the little ones and feel that there is no little one upon this plane that is unwanted.

Now many of the brothers and sisters find themselves birthing, mainly the sisters... {Loud laughter} ...birthing the small ones and sometimes not wanting to be encumbered with the little ones. Part of the process of creating the new dream will be for ones such as you to honor each little one and to speak to that one in words, yes, and in actions that you see value in that little one and you take a little one, or more than one, under the wing. You adopt them not with legal papers, that is not necessary, but you adopt that one into your heart and say, "Come and be companion with me upon the journey. We will see what we can share." For the little ones have much to share.

And it will quickly come to the place where every small one is seen to be of value. Is seen to be a master walking upon this plane which they are now, which you are now, and which they will be in the days to come. So that your educational processes will be greatly altered for they will be based in love and in worth, seeing the value of each point of Light that is expressing upon this plane.

There will no longer be a question of keeping them all in discipline, in rule and saying this is the course of study that must be done. But it will be much more of an honoring and what the little one can share with you and what you can share with the small one, because of where you have journeyed along your path.

Again, it comes back to energy. You are creating what you have dreamed of. You are creating a new society, a new way of expressing upon this plane. You will see innovations in your health fields. Yes, already you see innovations and there will be more of those where the whole of energy will be valued. Not just what you see as a part of the form of the body. Not to just treat the momentary symptom, but there will be a tuning in to the energy of the form of the body.

As we spoke last evening being able to see the energies in the various chakras, the major ones, yes, and all of the other points of energy upon the form and being able to balance, to uplift, energize points of constriction that will bring about the wholeness of the body.

Already you are in process of bringing forth technology that will assist you in doing this. For there is a great belief now in technology. Later it will be seen that the energy of one form is all the technology that is needed and will be extended unto another one through the chakras.

The little suns?

The little suns, yes, as you remember. Yes.

But already you are bringing forth the means to balance energy in the body through vibration, through sound as it is heard as vibration and through color which is vibration in another form. Through the sound of the body itself in what is known as toning, singing, toning, balancing using the very vibration of the form, of the voice to bring about the wholeness and the balancing in all o the chakras of the body.

There is much that you will be playing with. Much of the substances where there is belief that the Light energy of the substances can facilitate a balancing of the form itself. To remind the body in certain areas of the Light that it is. That is the purpose of various substances known as nutrition and supplemental substances. Is to bring Light into various parts of the body to say to that part, not because there is a special magic about that substance, but because you are energizing it with your consciousness, to say to that part of the body, "Remember how it feels to be Light?" It is a bit as you get in there and you suggest to a part of the body through a substance that carries with it Light. You remind the cells in that part of the body of the Light that they are and it is not the substance itself that is magic. It is you, your consciousness, your energy of Light that is directed through the use of that substance that brings about the reminder to the various parts of the body to turn their lights on again.

{Laughter}

It is as you would send a Western Union telegram and you say, "Hey, remember, you are Light. Let your light so shine." So you will see many changes in the next few years of your timing because you are calling it forth even as you have called forth this gathering of loved ones in this retreat as my beloved friend and teacher has called it. And yet I would suggest that it is an advance.

{Laughter & comments}

It is not so much a retreat, but you are allowing yourselves to advance to another level. Yes.

We spoke last evening of a work that all of you will be participating in either in most direct fashion or in more of an indirect fashion. It is a work that all of you hold dear to your heart. It is the establishment of what you will call a healing center, a place where ones can come and remember the wholeness that they are.

There will be healing of the body, yes, upon their way to remembrance of the wholeness that activates the form. It will be a place of great joy for joy is healing. It will be a place where small ones are honored and valued. It will be a place that is inclusive of all of the visions that you hold. It will not be exclusive. It will include all of the various avenues that you have found to be exciting, expanding. All of the avenues that you have found that have allowed your heart to open and expand. It will not be exclusive as to any methodologies, any philosophies, any studies, any persons. It will be inclusive because it will be the whole of the holy Child.

This is something that you desire to bring forth. This is not my idea as I would give it to you. But it is your idea. It is something that you have dreamed, something that you have desired. And as you have found great upliftment in this area in the last two days of your timing, I would suggest unto you, but it is a mere suggestion for you are the masters upon this plane. I would suggest that you establish a place very near to here in the mountains, in the beauty, in the energy of the mountains that you can feel. Near flowing water. If there is not the flowing water at that location then to devise a means to bring it forth in what are known as your fountains, your streams that you can make.

It need not be exactly in this location, but somewhere near here that you feel in alignment with. A place of beauty. A place where you are one with our Holy Mother, the Earth. Where you can feel the vibrations, the healing vibration somewhere between here and your big city.

Now last evening as we passed around the pad of paper and had you sign as to your various areas of expertise, your professions, what you have experience in, and what you find joy in, there were several of you, there are several of you who are experienced in the construction in bringing forth the structures. Which ones of you have experience in building?

{Several raise their hands.}

There you go. Which ones of you have experience in finding, it is termed sight location, sight development in finding a sight for a building, a center to be?

{Hands are raised.}

Yes. Which ones of you are good at networking?

{Hands are raised.}

Yes, of gathering support for a dream. Which ones of you are interested and have abilities in healing, various forms of healing?

{Hands are raised.}

Yes. Very much so. Which ones of you have areas of beauty, artistic creation that you bring forth?

{Hands are raised.}

Yes. Which ones of you are interested in the joy of singing, of sound, of music?

{Hands are raised.}

Yes. There will be not because I decree it, but because you desire it, there will be the establishment of a temple. We will call it a temple. A place of holiness. Not a place of religion. Not a place of great "shoulds", and judgements of worth. But a temple of holiness, of sacredness. A place where one will walk into it and one will feel the vibration of unconditional Love, unlimited Light. That is the basic, bottom line of healing. All of the methodologies, all of the avenues that you bring forth will come from that, but healing itself comes from the remembrance of oneness, remembrance of holiness, the remembrance of sacredness which you are.

Remembrance of the oneness with vibration. That is why you feel the healing properties of what you term nature, of our Holy Mother, because you allow yourself a moment or so of time to be at one with the healing properties of the vibration that you are.

Amongst yourselves you will come up with a plan, a service that will speak a language unto your world, unto the brothers and sisters. We have spoken of a temple and it will be. You will remember the first and foremost aspect. You will remember that the structures, all of the structures that will be built are there for your remembrance of who you are. You will remember the sacredness of life expression upon this plane.

But in the process of speaking a language unto the brothers and sisters, there will be a service or services that you will offer to the brothers and sisters. A point of focus that will be understood, that will speak a language, that will fill a need, perceived need.

Beloved one, you are in touch with one who has expertise in formulation with clarity as to service and programs, how to write up a specific program that will speak a language. I would ask of you that you be in contact with this one and with all of the members of this group in formulating a language of a program that can be put forth to the brothers and sisters, to gain yet, while there is yet the need, the perceived need for the golden coins, a way of gaining monetary support.

In other words, from you, you as the gestalt that you are in this room, this gathering, how would you like to serve the brothers and sisters? How do you see your vision in manifestation, in a language that speaks to the brothers and sisters in a way that they can understand?

What we have spoken of and what you know deep within your heart is the temple. The temple of oneness. The temple where you as you set foot within that temple, you remember all of who you are and you come Home.

For others of the brothers and sisters, they will see a fulfillment of a need, a healing need, an ache of the soul. In other words, all of you as the gestalt that you are. In other words, more than just the individual as you see yourself to be, the individual energy sitting upon the chairs, the gestalt that you are come together in agreement as to what you want to design and manifest in a language that the brothers and sisters can understand, that will fulfill a need.

A healing center, yes, that will encompass and you will list certain things that it will encompass, a place where ones can come and be healed. Where they have tried everything else and nothing has worked. Where they have found themselves to be sore of heart and they can come and be accepted and loved. A place where they can find beauty. A place where they can be honored for who they are. A place that will offer to the small ones who are not yet valued, a place where they can find that they are valued and are of worth.

For I will share with you that what you are embarking upon will find favor in the eyes of one that is known now to you as your vice-president and his wife, his mate. There is a work that you desire to do and it is a most worthy work, but it will not be a work of effort. It will be work of joy for you are allowing your heart now to express the vision of the heart. And what you are bringing forth is not done in isolation just by what you see as the points of individuality here, but it is done with the help and the concerted energy of other masters, as you would call them, other Light beings who are very much with you right now, right here. So you do not do this work alone.

Allow yourselves to be courageous enough, outrageous enough to find a place of beauty. It need not be a huge amount of space, and to begin to put a structure upon that location and to do it with love, with honor, with reverence for all of life expression in joy. Each and every one of you are most involved in this whether you will be in this location or not. It matters not, for you will be doing what is known as the networking. You will be contacting ones who have the golden coins, who are willing to put those golden coins into a cause that is most helpful, that fulfills a sacred need.

What is required of you is to find the language that speaks to the brothers and sisters. For indeed the brothers and sisters are ready now for a place of healing, a place that reminds them that they are loved of the Father and that they are welcomed Home. They will not understand those words but they will understand your welcome. They will understand your hope, your joy, your laughter, your love and in time they will understand that they are loved of the Father because they are the holy Child as well.

Allow yourselves to be unlimited in your thinking. Do not look upon appearance, that it cannot be much. Do not say, "Well, this is what I have in my pockets. I don't know how far I can go with that." What you have in your pocket is not what is going to build the temple. What you have in your consciousness, in your heart, in the energy of the vision that you hold, that will build the temple.

You have a vision of community. Others of you in here, how many of you have held a vision of community?

{Many raise their hands.}

Yes. Indeed, a community of Love. The temple will attract the community of like-minded, of Love. But the temple is not to be seen in this time. It does not speak a language to the brothers and sisters just to erect a temple. That does not speak a language yet. But what you offer in that temple will fill a perceived need for a duration of time.

There are many of your brothers and sisters who have the golden coins who will be most happy to invest in bringing about wholeness upon this plane. A decrease in what you have called your crime. A decrease in what is known as disease. A decrease in what is known as the unhappy relationships and the emotional upsets.

You will do with each other what is known as the communication, the networking with each other. You have yet before you depart from this place, a time interval to speak to each other, to get clarity about the vision and what it will encompass, and it is exciting for it is inclusive not exclusive.

You will find a way to see all of it in oneness, in wholeness. To see all of the methodologies, all of the different philosophies as leading Home. This project — we will call it a project — is your ticket Home. That is why you are here in this gathering. That is why you hold deep within your heart a vision and you desire to see it manifest upon this plane. It is because in bringing that into manifestation you will know your own wholeness, your own holiness. It is your ticket and that is why you are desirous of getting on with it.

You will find much support for this idea. The monetary support that seems to be so important is here in this room. Not here as we have just said in the pockets, but it is here in this room because of the energy that you are. There is no separation. Even between what you would see yourself and one who has the bankroll stashed away somewhere. One who deals in the great figures of money more than what you have allowed yourselves to play with so far. So far.

Got it.

You will play with the great numbers, but they will not matter to you for you will know that where they come from there is more. For your Father is not limited. That is the secret which is not hidden.

{Pause}

Are you with me or are you in a state of shock?

{Laughter & comments}

Yes.

I have been with other like-minded groups. There have been conversations like this that I have heard before. There has been speculation about where and when. To my personal knowledge this is the first time I've heard concrete suggestions and that's exciting, because there are how many hundreds and maybe thousands of people that would like to join this idea and bring along their talents and perhaps their golden coins as well.

Indeed. You have just touched the important factor here. There are many of the brothers and sisters who desire to join with a movement that is in movement. There has been much that has been spoken of in groups such as this of a vision, an idea, "Wouldn't that be great? I'd love to see that happen." The difference is you have come together in this gathering because you know a purpose, because you are ready to make the commitment — the "C" word — and to do it. You have a saying in your world now. You see it on your bumper stickers, yes, "Just do it." You do not have to wait until you have everything in place for if you will receive it, you already have it all in place. It is just a matter of now bringing it into manifestation and trusting, knowing that it is here.

That is why you have called forth the workshop that you have just participated in. It was to allow you to know, much to your surprise that you are much more than just what is perhaps an inch or so beyond the nose. You have been most surprised in this day of how you could go beyond the image of who you thought yourself to be and tap into the one Mind. You will do this in the days to come in bringing forth the vision. It is not by accident that you called forth the workshop that has given you a trellis, some of the tools to work with that allow you to expand beyond who you have thought yourself to be.

Whenever you have a question as to how this is going to become manifest, you now have the tools to go to that space of expanded Mind, the one Mind and to ask of yourself, symbolized by your helpers, by your guides, whatever you want to call them, but to ask of yourself, "Where do I go from here? Who do I call?" And you will have an idea.

Someone perhaps, you have known years ago, way in the past and all of a sudden they come to mind.

You are reading my mind again.

Strange how that works.

Strange, yes.

When there is but one Mind it is most easy to do. You are as they say, an open book. So are all of your other brothers and sisters.

Now you tell me.

Yes.

People come to mind that I have known earlier in this lifetime. However, the bonds of communication if not severed are very weak.

But not broken.

I hope not.

Indeed, they are not.

Good. You know of whom I speak?

I do indeed. And you will speak with this one heart to heart first. You will call that one to mind and to heart and have a communion, a conversation you will call it, but a communion with this one in oneness, and you will speak of the vision of wholeness upon this plane, holiness, and you will receive the words, the language. You will understand guidance of how to speak to this one who desires to be of service. All of the brothers and sisters desire to be of service. They want to know their worth, and the way worth is understood at first is through service, is through being able to see, "Well I did such and such, therefore, I must be worth something. And if I do even more, I am worth even more."

All of the brothers and sisters want to be of service. What you will be finding, what will be your task, perhaps we will call it that at first, is to find the language that speaks to them in a way that they feel they can be of service.

Some of the brothers and sisters that you will contact will have many of the golden coins to put into a project such as this. Others of the brothers and sisters you will contact may not have much of the golden coins but they will want to be part of what they see to be a great awakening, a great holiness. You will find the right words to speak. But they will want to be part of this. Why? Because they will catch your enthusiasm.

What is at the bottom line of this is a coming Home, is the remembrance of oneness. That starts first with you. It is part of a process that goes hand in glove. In other words, you do not have to sit for a thousand years or so until you are most worthy and they then come out and say, "I have the answer."

{Laughter}

It very much is a process that goes hand in glove for as you do, as you speak, more is given to you as you allow it to flow through you more is given to you. So in other words, you do not have to take yourself off unto a cave somewhere. You have already done that, many lifetimes.

Now because of the bridge person that you are you want to bring the remembrance of the whole Spirit that you are into this expression, right here, right now in physicality upon this dimension, in this dimension upon our Holy Mother.

So you will be enthusiastic. Some of you most outwardly as personality suits you. Some in this room you have seen to be most enthusiastic.

{Laughter}

And another one. Others of you are enthusiastic in a more quiet way, but the enthusiasm is contagious, and enthusiasm is who you are. Enthusiasm is your nature. Entheos: to be in God. Enthusiasm. For when you abide in enthusiasm you are abiding as the God that you are. Another word for it is joy.

Do not limit what can be done according to past history. Do not allow the voice of historical perspective to limit this new dream. In other words, do not listen to the voice of the world or the past experience that says, "Well, I couldn't do it before. I'd sure like to but I don't think it will happen this time." If you abide with that voice, of course it won't happen.

Allow historical perspective to be crucified, dead and buried.

{Laughter & comments}

It has served you well in that it has brought you to this point, but you no longer need it. You are ready to go forward, to advance, not to retreat.

Allow yourselves to choose among yourselves two of you who will be coordinators, that is the word, leaders of it although all of you will be participating on an equal basis. But two who will be willing to head up the networking, the overall networking, to facilitate, and allow yourselves to be in contact with the one who will be ones, it will not be just one singular, who will be in this location.

For those of you who find yourselves abiding already in this location, it is not by accident that you find yourself here. You have been as the forerunner, the adventurer who has set out ahead of the tribe and you have come to the land first.

I have a sight. Forty miles from here at the bottom of Mount Elbert which is the highest mountain in Colorado and there is a beautiful valley, warm valley that faces the south. Beautiful vista of all of these fourteen thousand foot peaks with three streams going through it and it is for sale. It is available.

Do you see how easy it is?

How much is it?

It is just twelve hundred acres.

What are they asking for it?

Surrounded by forest land, it maybe two miles away from a couple of lakes called Twin Lakes. Again it is a very beautiful and very warm valley even though it is fairly high. Again it's available, perhaps we can buy. Maybe we can get the land very inexpensively or get the landowners to co-operate and be part of it then it won't cost anything.

I have a system of how we can raise money for the town. All we need is the land and the people and we can build the town. Tomorrow I'll bring some plans and you can go....

{Group enthusiastically yelling and commenting.}

Do you see how easy it is when the holy Child remembers that she/he is one? It is not by accident that you have called yourselves unto this place. It is a vision that all of you have been holding within your heart. I have been only the mouthpiece, the catalyst, the facilitator to bring forth what you have already known. I did not come here with an agenda to give to you. I come as your servant. I come to voice what you are calling forth. It is most wonderful.

Those of you who have certain interests in areas, areas of healing, in all the broad understanding of healing, allow yourselves in the next two months of your timing to investigate, to research, to study, to go to your universities, to read up on everything that has been written about that subject and to speak to the experts in the field, the university professors, the ones in the medical professions, the ones who are in the area that you are interested in. Allow yourself to become very knowledgeable in terms of language with the brothers and sisters. In other words, do your homework in your areas of interest so that you can speak with the brothers and sisters on an equal basis.

Do not go unto the brothers and sisters who see themselves to be knowledgeable in areas, do not go to them as the beggar, as the one who would go hat in hand and say, "Please give me something for what I want to do." Go to the brothers and sisters as an equal. Do your homework about the areas where you desire to serve, so that when you speak with the ones in that profession, when you ask of them their support you will be able to speak from a place of evenness.

In the next two months of your timing get you very busy in doing your own studying in whatever area you find to be of interest and you will all have different areas. Some with overlapping interests but allow yourself to be most professional as is understood in the language of the world, most professional in your study and in your speaking with the brothers and sisters. Do your homework. If you have an area that interests you as an area of healing and you have questions about it, do your homework. Do the research. Read everything that has been written about it. Pick the brains of the ones who are in the field. Get to know everything there is about that area that you are interested in.

Begin to speak unto others of the vision that you have and the probability, no, the possibility, the probability and the reality that this is now established. In other words, do not go unto ones and say, "There are a few friends of mine and we have this idea and we thought it would be nice," and so forth. But say to them, "This is what we are going to do." That is why you, beloved brother, will be busy in writing up a proposal, I think it is called, that will encompass in clarity the direction of what you are bringing forth.

There are others of you who can assist in this. Who are good in the writing. You know who you are and you can network with each other.

Beloved Elder, the list that has been made, you will make copies of those and you will send them out in what is known as your mail to everyone so gathered here. Everyone so gathered and that includes you beloved brother who has just now joined us.

Everyone of you has ability that is of most value to give to this project, this undertaking. It is already in process of becoming a reality that reminds you of your Reality – with a capital "R". Every one of you is valuable. Every one of you is important and necessary as is each link in the chain whether you know it yet or not. You are not here by accident.

Most beautiful smile, beloved one. To come the energy of that smile will be worth many golden coins.

{Laughter}

And some of you think that because there is nothing in the pocket perhaps you are not worth very much. The energy that you are that is worth more than all of the golden coins that you could ever manifest, and yet at this point in time the golden coins speak a language that allows the flow of manifestation.

I would ask you now in closing to join me out on the balcony and to be at one with the energy of the flowing water. Come with me now. Come.

{Group leaves for the balcony overlooking Gore Creek.}

The way you get over the waterfall is to be as water.

As water. To know the energy that you are, yes.

Such a special bond about water.

And do you know why, beloved one?

I was looking at that water this morning and I was thinking, this water was with me in my childhood.

Yes. You are the water. You are the energy of that water. That is why I bring you out now to feel the energy of the flowing water and the energy of the water that comes upon the head. You are one with your creations. You are the energy that you see, that you feel, that you hear. That is you. You bring it all into manifestation as the creators that you are.

Therefore, bringing forth the vision of the heart, that will manifest as well, easily, as you manifest the energy. Know yourself to be one with the energy of the water. Yes, to feel the dynamic energy. It is not static. It is not dull, flat. It is very much in motion as you are. It speaks to you here in the heart. It speaks to all of you.

Allow yourself to bring forth the beauty of dynamic energy upon this plane. That is what creates the new dream. That is why you are here. That is your purpose. That is why you have come. Not only to this geographical location but why you have come into this expression known as this lifetime. It is grand is it not?

It is. It is very grand.

Yes.

{Laughter & comments}

It is the holy Child.

As you have gifted yourself the last few days of joy and of beauty upon this plane, allow yourself to gift yourself and the brothers and sisters the manifestation of the healing area that brings about the remembrance of the holy Child. You will see it come about easily. Already it is in process. Do not allow yourself to be caught in impediments. Do not listen to the voice of the world or the historical perspective. Be you in the future, in the new dream. That is why you have gifted yourself this surroundings of this beautiful place in the last few days. It is to know upliftment, it is to know the possibilities, the possibilities are unlimited for indeed you are unlimited and each and every-one of you has a part to play in this.

Now in the remaining time of this evening, allow yourselves to be together in the room, in communion with each other sharing the excitement of the new dream, of how you will bring it into manifestation. Speak with one another of the talents and abilities that you have, of what you can bring to this new dream and do not limit what you can do.

For indeed you are the holy Child upon this plane and this is the new dream. A dream that comes to bring Heaven upon earth and that passes quickly into the awakening. Know always that you are loved with an everlasting Love for you are that Love and you can never be without it. The work that you do, you do not alone. Even in concert with brothers and sisters you are not alone, and beyond that, you work with all of the Light of the One.

So be it.
