

The Great Wave of Ascension

Beloved and holy and only Child of our Heavenly Father, Child of the one Source, Child of Light divine, I am the one known as Jeshua ben Joseph -- Jesus, you have called me, and other names as well -- and it is in great joy that I come to abide with you this evening in your timing as you have chosen to call me forth. For indeed beloved ones, always I am with you, closer than the breath. But when you choose to turn the focus of your attention unto me and to call me forth there instantly we are as the one in conscious oneness.

Beloved angel, thank you so much.

Thank you.

An evening of great joy. It is as my beloved friend and teacher the one known as Judith has spoken, it is an evening that is special for you have decreed that it will be. You have said that there is a certain excitement, certain radiance, certain expectation of feeling of expectancy and a grand reunion. For all of you have known each other, expressed with each other in what you would see as many, many lifetimes and it is not by accident that you find yourself so gathered again in what feels like extended family for indeed you are part of the family, the heart family, the joy family.

You are part of the wave of ascension that is taking place upon this plane. You have heard it said that there is a new age that you are ushering in. You have heard much talk about ascension. Ones of your brothers and sisters who would use a different terminology have called it something else and yet it is the ascension that the family itself is calling forth and is willing to acknowledge and experience.

There has been much talk as to whether the bodies will ascend, will be taken up and some of you will experience that for you will come into such a state of radiance, such a state of joy, exhilaration that you will not be able to hold the Light particles that you are upon this plane and you will ascend even what you see as the physicality, the body, the cells of the body into another dimension.

Already you have been playing with that. You have called forth your works of science fiction. You have seen it upon your square box and your cinema where there has been the "beam me up, Scotty." Where do you think that idea came from? From you, the holy Child who is upon the threshold, ready to ascend.

Now, do you need to ascend the body in order to come Home? No. That is not what you would see as a prerequisite for coming into the full realization and awareness of the holy Child that you are. What is taking place now upon this plane is a grand ascension, ascending in consciousness, ascending in awareness to the realization and acknowledgement that I and the Father are one.

Those words do not just apply to one Jeshua ben Joseph, one Jesus. They apply to all of you as you would see yourselves to be individuations. You and the Father are one, otherwise you would not be expressing. You would not be life in its process. You would not be consciousness. You would not be awareness. You would not be creativity. You are the Father in expression and there is a great wave that is sweeping the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth. A harvesting, some have called it. A time of harvest where ones who are ready, willing to ascend unto the Father are now finding themselves lifted up in consciousness. Playing with unlimited ideas. Playing with the possibility that, "Perhaps I am more than just the personality, more than just the body, more than just the place of employment, more than just the relationships, the loves, perhaps," and so you have been calling forth for sometime now, the teachings, the books, the workshops that allow you to play with unlimitedness of holiness. The wholeness of who you are.

And there are times that you get so excited about this, you catch a glimpse of it and you say with the impatience of this one, "I want to get on with it. I feel such energy that I want to do it. I want to experience it and I want it now." Have you ever said that?

Yes.

Yes, you have. You have a saying in your world, "Father give me patience and I want it now."

The energy that you are, you are allowing to increase in its vibration of what you bring to this point of focus, this dimension. You are allowing the very energy and Light of the body to increase. The frequency, it can be measured. This is a process that you set in motion in what you would see as lifetimes ago where you made the decision, the turning point, the choice point, to return again to the Father. And in what you have seen as the last one hundred years of your timing, you have brought forth much that has been of inspiration, that has been of the, well you have called it the new age, a new way of thinking and you have begun allowing the Light that you bring to this plane to be increased.

This has grown upon itself exponentially and you have extended this into all areas of your experience especially into the areas of technology and what you term your science, your knowing where you look outside of yourself to prove the knowing that you already know and you call it science. But you have devised technology, ways of measuring the Light that you are, the Light, the life energy of the plants so that yes, the power of prayer where you join in conscious oneness, whether or not there is the belief but there is the intention and the turning of the focus, the power of prayer is augmented where two or more are gathered together in my name. In the nature of oneness.

So as you turn the attention, the focus of attention to prayer, and you allow yourself to expand beyond the single point of focus, there is great power and great energy in that. You are ushering in your part of the wave of ascension that is occurring upon this plane. And even in what you would see as a most recent lifetime as you measure lifetimes, you are facilitating at the turn of the last century, again as you measure your time, you are facilitating what you are now experiencing.

For ones that you would now study you would take a book that has been written in what you see as the turn of the century of this past century, and you read those words, there has been a feeling of familiarity, a feeling of knowing for indeed you brought forth those words and you felt an exhilaration and an acceleration even in that time. You are continuing with this for it is growing upon itself.

The ascension that is of most importance now, is the ascension in consciousness. The ascension that says, "I will come up over all of what I see to be the limiting beliefs and the limiting self-image that I have held of myself of the brothers and sisters, and of what the world is for." If you will receive it, even the brothers and sisters who are not putting it into that language are also in process of ascending. Even the ones that you see in great conflict with other brothers within the same country are in their process of ascension where they are calling forth the events that bring them to a place of choosing to come Home, choosing peace even in the midst of chaos, even in the midst of the bombshells and the gunfire and that peace is most treasured and miraculous.

There are ones even now, of your brothers and sisters in the midst of gunfire who have found much to their surprise and wonderment, that they are the peace deep within them, that they did not believe possible and yet all around them rages the great sounds of warfare. One who would not have believed moments before that they could open the heart and love another one, has seen that other one as themselves in an instant and have extended whatever they had to share with that one, have taken that one under the wing, the arm and have vouchsafed them.

There is much of the ascension that is in process even in what you news would relate and would appear to be tragedy because you have decreed that you will know your oneness, you will know your family. Not just biological family, not just the political family, not just the country, but that you will know your family even beyond the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth, this planet. You will know, you will experience, you have already communion with the angels, with other dimensions as you call them. This will continue for you have said, "I want to know more of my Self" -- with a capital "S".

You will encounter, some of you, interaction with what you would call now your space brothers. Ones who will be seen to come from another space. Already you encounter that from time to time in your place of employment. You say, "There must be in another space." But that is not what I mean here.

You have invited ones who are expressing in what you would see as another place, other galaxies, other dimensions, to come and be part of your experience because you want to come past the habitual first reaction of fear when there is something different. Already you have had the books, the recounting of experiences that have been most fearful of ones who have come and looked very different, but you have said, "I want to know what is at the heart." You have said, "I will play with this idea," and at first you have said, "Well I will hold it off a bit. I will have like third hand report of this. But I want to know. I am interested. I want to hear." And after you have played for awhile with the third hand, fourth hand whatever reports, and you have read the books and you have sat and gone to the quiet place of the heart. You will say, "Well, no, if I and the Father are one, and all of creation is of the Father, which it is, then I welcome more of my Self. I welcome knowing more of my expression."

So as part of the ascension that you are in the midst of, you will see others, yes, coming to be in interaction with you. You will see them upon your computer screens writing you messages. And you will wonder, "Where did that come from?" You will have quite a great dialogue.

You will also play with the first reaction of, "This must be a higher intelligence than I am for they seemed to have come from somewhere else with greater technology that what I know and how can they write upon my computer screen when they must be tapping into it in a way that I don't understand yet?" And there will be the temptation as you have known, which you have known in many other lifetimes, to put them above you and to see them as something grander, to be feared as I have spoken earlier, or to be worshipped which is what you have done in other lifetimes.

For indeed, the ones known as space brothers have come in a lot of other lifetimes as you know lifetimes to be, and you have worshipped them knowing not that they were a brother, a sister the same as you, and that you had invited them to come so that you could get past the idea that there would be the gradation, the levels of wisdom, of worth.

So you will again play with that, some of you. Some of you are already past that, but there will be many of the brothers and sisters who in their first encounter will have to face the issue of fear or the issue of possibility of worship. Not in the traditional sense that you would make a shrine, but in thinking others to be above you.

You call this forth because you want to know ascension. You want to ascend out of the limiting belief of who you have thought yourself to be and what you have thought life to be. You are playing in your cinema, the movies as you call them, you are playing with ideas that go beyond just what you know in your everyday experience and you get excited about these ideas. That is why there has been such a popularity in the last ten years, twenty years of your timing. There have been grand servants of the Father who have brought forth stories to allow the brothers and sisters of what is called the general public, is there an un-general, and in-general? To play with ideas in a non-threatening way. It is aiding the ascension.

For as you allow yourself to abide with what would seem to be a strange idea, after awhile it is not quite so strange and you begin to see more aspects of it in another light, more understanding, more familiarity. So many of you will be experiencing encounters if you so desire, and after the first surprise, allow yourselves to breathe. Yes, to come to that place of centeredness that allows you the choice and then to say, "I will step back from this drama for half a second at least, and I will behold what is going on."

Will the space brothers come and save some of you because you are more worthy than some of the other brothers and sisters to be saved? No. No one can save you not even I. If I could have done this all of you now would be in full consciousness of oneness, but no, you have decreed that you will know more experience and more expression within the drama, within the play and that is fine, because I know who you are and I know where you are coming to, and I can almost see how quickly. Almost, because it is still open to your choice. You are the ones who are abiding in time.

I know that you are already Home, but for yet a little while, you will play and that is good. That is what the holy Child does, to play. Will the space brothers come and destroy the Holy Mother? No, this cannot be. Do they come because they are interested to know life upon this plane? Yes. They come by invitation, your invitation as part of the process of ascension and they come because there is a grand reunion of all of the children, as they see themselves to be individuated, a grand reunion of family.

So they come to know what you experience is and you will find creative ways to interact with them. Ways perhaps not of the direct communication of the words, it will be heart to heart and mind to mind. Already you are moving into that with what you would call your delving into ESP and knowing that there is much communication that goes on beyond just the sense of the body. You have experienced that, each and everyone of you. You have as they called, you have picked up a message from one who will not be in your physical presence, one who may be at a great geographical distance from you. You will be thinking of them and all of a sudden your mechanical thing rings and there they are. Or you will receive one of your E-mails from them. Great technology.

So you will be creative, you will find a way to meet, to commune, to know the oneness even though appearances look different, and they will feel a welcome. For indeed, they also deal with some of the habitual fear. Some of them will come wondering what sort of welcome or non-welcome they will receive. They deal with their own images and expectations. But as they feel a welcome from you, heart to heart, then the communication can happen.

It is not by accident that one of the books that writes about an encounter of this kind was labeled "Communion." The message that was relayed in that had a basis in fear, but the title itself conveyed much. That is part of the wave of ascension. Your invitation now, to know more of the totality of Self and how it expresses.

As you have allowed yourselves to open the heart and to know love with the small ones, with the beloved animals, you are already in process of ascension. In a moment when there has been no thought of self -- with the small "s" -- in a moment when you have know communion with another one, you have ascended past the limitation of belief that you have held previously, and you have come into that place of communion and oneness. Each time you choose for peace you allow the oneness to be known. Each time you choose to come to the sacred place of the heart and to abide in silence, you have known ascension.

Ascension need not be something and is not something that is going to be a great event that happens just once, is heralded by your newspapers and on your T.V., and has all of the choirs of angels singing. Ascension happens in every moment that you choose to see things in the light of peace and love.

Every time you say to yourself, "I can see this differently." And you bring the Light of your own inner wisdom to shine upon whatever is happening. It is a great wave of ascension.

Some of you will experience ascending the body into what you would see as another dimension and then you will come back again. Some of you have already experienced ascending into the Spirit and going somewhere else, as you would term it, although there is no where else to go, and then you have come back to this point of focus.

You have done what you call the travel and then instantly as you have realized that perhaps you were traveling somewhere, going somewhere then instantly you find yourself back in this point of focus.

But in that moment that you allowed yourself to release the bounds of who you thought yourself to be, in that moment you have ascended and as you allow yourself to string all of those moments of conscious oneness and you have loosed the boundaries of Self, as you string all of those moments together you will find yourself abiding in ascension. You will find yourself to be unlimited. You will find yourself to be the joy of the holy Son of our Father, and you will know that all is possible to you because you are all, and you will bring that message to the brothers and sisters who are also wanting to know that in conscious awareness. Who are asking you to show them. You are part of the wave that is sweeping the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth right now.

When you choose for peace, when you choose for love, when you choose for beauty, to see beauty in everything, then you are ascending. It does not mean you will stay there as you have experienced.

Do you have to lay down the body in order to know ascension? Some others have said this, it has been a religious belief, a philosophy. No. You have tried that. You have said, "I want out." And by various methods you have deceased the body. You have laid it down thinking that in a moment there would be Heaven, ascension, conscious oneness, bliss and you have found, "Oh, oh, I'm still here. I still have my fears." And you have experienced more of a nightmare in those times because you did not then have the buffer of the process of time before there was instantaneous manifestation of that fear.

What you give to yourself in this point of focus with the belief in time, is a buffer where you can play with an idea, you can play with a fear, the "what if?" Feel all of the dimensions and constrictions of it, and then have the opportunity for choice before you are right in the middle of the muck.

So all of you have laid down the body in other lifetimes, thinking that you could get out of it and while yes, you could know love, unlimited Light, it is always all around you as you. You have found yourself still bound up with the -- it is, is it called blinders on. Good choice of word, the blinders that kept you in the same belief, same consciousness you will call it. And instead of experiencing the Heaven you have experienced the fears of hell.

You have had your religious beliefs, your philosophies that you have participated in that have taught that after you lay down the body you will go, if you have not been deemed good enough, you will go unto a place called hell. And many of you have experienced that. You have bought the belief, bought it dearly, and you have experienced hell, but it does not last forever and you made choice then to say, "I want to do it again. I want to have another take on this." And you came back and you said, "There must be another way to see this," as there is.

Now, you are very much upon the threshold of experiencing ascension out of the limitation of belief and constriction, out of the limitation of self-image. It is a grand time to be experiencing this plane. Even for the ones who know conflict and are in the midst of gunfire. Even for them it is a grand time because they are calling forth exactly what they need to allow them to awaken. And in a moment, in an instant, the ascension happens.

You will play with ideas of the mind, intellectual concepts, they are fun to play with and then as you pause for a certain breath in the midst of the intellectual conquest, the heart speaks true to you and says, "Yes, I know this. I know this at a very deep level." Of course you know it, you are the very one who has called forth the information that you are reading, that you are playing with. That is how powerful and wonderful you are.

You have written some of the books that you study, some of the books that you find inspiration in, in what you would see as ancient wisdom or even as we have spoken earlier of the writings from before the turn of the century. You have written those, you have assisted in writing those and now you come in what you would see to be another lifetime, rediscover them and say, "Wow, this stuff is really great." Of course it is great, because it is part of the process of ascension.

The holy Child is ascending out of the identification with the density of matter to know that you are the Spirit that activates the matter. You are doing this in all areas of experience.

All of you, and the brothers and sisters have chosen areas of expertise, areas of service, areas where you can bring and you do bring the expanded understanding and you add to the upliftment of the consciousness of the whole, otherwise termed the ascension. You add to it.

Everyday in what you see as your technological fields, are great advancements bringing the world as you understand it to be, geographical distance, philosophical difference, closer and closer together. You have spoken of how the world is shrinking. It is a small world. You experience that because you are wanting to know that you are the one, whether you sit right here or across the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth, you are still the one who is expressing and experiencing.

So you now have your technology where instantaneously you can speak with one on your mechanical means halfway around the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth, or you can type in one of your messages and it is sent or you can beam it up and over and you can be in communion that way instantaneously.

Why? Because you want to know that you are beyond time. You want to have it now. You want to be it now. So in everyday of your timing you bring forth more creativity to prove yet from the outside, as it would look to be, and yet you are never separate from your creation, but to prove to yourself that you are bonded one to another in mind, first it is understood, but always in heart.

Your world, yes, even the physical body you transport much more quickly than you used to believe possible. At the turn of your century it took many, many of your days to traverse the face of your country. Now you can do it in a few hours time or even less, to take the physical form and in your consciousness you bring forth the vehicle and the means to move it and you see yourself moving through the clouds as you allow your consciousness to expand right in front of you.

For indeed, you manifest your body, the form in every moment. In every moment you call it forth in newness. That is why there can be instantaneous healing. Because you manifest it new in every moment, and the reality that you experience -- with the small "r" -- is your consciousness going right before you just beyond the tip of the nose through what you believe to be space.

And in a few years of your timing, you will no longer see it necessary to place the form upon another object, vehicle. You will know the consciousness that you are that is just beyond the nose, to be unlimited and you will transport yourself to another place just by thought, what it is called, thought. It is more than thought, it is belief and it is the activation of the vibration of your energy in what you would see now, from this point of focus, to be different than what you do now.

In that time it will seem most natural and no, you will not bump into each other as you go. You will not have to have your air traffic controllers or your Spirit traffic controllers, whatever. Instantly you will think of where you want to be. You will visualize it. You will activate the vibration of energy that you are and you will be there.

Now, as I speak those words, there is a resonance somewhere within you that says, "Yes, that could be possible." Know you that as you have had the alignment to say, "Okay, I can kind of grasp what is being said," as you have had that alignment of resonance you will bring it forth for it is just here, beyond the nose, of the belief and very soon you will walk into it. You will accept it as the truth of your being. Your belief will be, "Yes, I can do that." For indeed you can.

Already you have found yourself to experience somewhere else as you have been in meditation and you have felt yourself to be with another one somewhere else, but you have said, "Well that is just my imagination. It didn't really happen because I know the form is right here." But are you sure? In that moment of being with the other one that you thought was just your imagination, you were not focusing upon the form. Where was the form? Ah ha. Get's you to thinking.

You are unlimited. Whatever you wish to call forth in this ascension, that aids the ascension, you will call forth for you have decreed that you will come Home. You will know oneness with the Father. Not just as a great idea. "Well there's one Jeshua, Yeshua, who did grand things two thousand years ago, because he was the Son of God and somehow removed from the rest of us peons." No.

I chose to know the energy of Light and Love. I chose to study with others who allowed me to know what they knew. What do you think you are doing now in this room? You say, "Well he had the advantage of studying with masters." What are you doing right now? What do you do in every moment when you call forth the books of inspiration? You study with the masters, right then.

But yes, I chose to know my unlimitedness, I chose to allow the brothers and sisters to see that there is life always and that the form can be laid down, dead, put away in a cave and yet resurrected. For always you are life. You are the energy of the Spirit of life that brings the form into activation.

I had practiced, yes, certain understandings of the vibration of energy. I had not yet practiced the laying down of the body to the point of deceasement of the body and then resurrecting it, but I knew the principle. I had not had occasion until the time of the crucifixion to come through that experience. But I knew it to be possible as now you know it to be possible, and I had studied with other ones who knew how to ascend their body, to materialize it as you would call, in another place. Even if you will receive it, another time, to travel.

I knew how it felt to raise the vibration of the body in oneness with the Father. I practiced the walking on water, yes. Starting out with the puddle. Yes. I knew how to walk through what was seemingly the solid form of a wall and I used that when necessary, to disappear from the visible sight of others when it was expedient. I had practiced that.

But as far as activating the body after there had been some period of time, no I had not done that and there was part of me as there will be part of you that wonders, and I did, a small part.

So the demonstration that was made was made, yes, for the brothers and sisters, but it was also made for me to know that I could do that as well. I knew it, but did I know it. No, not until I did it. It is the same as it is with you when you are coming through an experience. You know that you can drive your vehicle somewhere. You know that you can give a speech. You know that you will find the right word to say at the right time. You know that you can do all kinds of things, and then you allow yourself to do them over and over so that you know you have come through that experience.

The ascension that was witnessed in my day and time was because I knew myself to be one with the Father. I knew myself to be one with unlimited Love. I knew myself to be Light, and I took myself lightly, which is what you are learning to do. I knew the joy that allows you to rise up over all of the limitation of appearances. That is how you ascend. It is to know the joy, the exhilaration of joy, not just happy. Happy is great, but joy is a certain feeling of vibration, vibrational frequency and it allows you to ascend even the particles of the body, the particles of dust.

As you chose for peace seemingly a small choice, sometimes a very difficult choice, for there is part of you that says, "No, I'm not ready to give that up yet. I am going to stay right in there with this thing. I'm not going to choose for peace yet. I knew that that's an option. I'll get around to it. But right now I'm going to really harbor that feeling." That's what you do for awhile. But each time you choose for peace it allows you to come closer to knowing of the joy, the joy that allows then, the ascension in consciousness and even in physical experience.

Each time you choose for Love you are affirming that you are more than just the event that is happening around you. Each time you choose for Love you are allowing communion with the oneness that you are. For in that moment of great Love, you do not see bodies, you do not see the separation that bodies would speak of. You know only a great upliftment of feeling that is expansive. That is what Heaven is. It is that place of expansion. That place that is not tied into the identification of limited belief, limited experience. It is the place -- although it is not a physical place -- it is a state of knowing of the energy of expansion as you have touched in moments of great love. Moments when there was no thought of self, but just an outpouring of the heart without any judgment. A place of great joy.

As you abide in that place of love, that place of oneness, that place that does not recognize self -- with a small "s" -- any differences of self. And then you allow the frequency of that to be uplifted as the choirs of angels you ascend into joy. In a moment of great love when you know no boundaries you will hear the choirs of angels singing. You have opportunity to hear those choirs. Are they apart from you? No. They are your own vibration of Love come into what you would experience as a vibration of energy and they do sing. Yes, they sing most beautifully. Every time you choose for peace there is an angel that sings.

You have had a story about that, that every time, every time there has been a good deed upon this plane an angel can get his wings. Every time you choose for peace, your angel sings for it means that the holy Child is that much nearer to the ascension into conscious oneness. As you listen for the angels, beloved one, they do sing. There is quite a choir. If you will receive it, even in this room this evening. Is it because I have brought them with me? No. Always they are with me, but always they are with you and they are here at your invitation and they sing for you.

Why do you love music so much upon this plane? It reminds you of the oneness that goes beyond this specific point of identification. Why do you find music uplifting? It is because it touches the vibration of you and allow you to expand into that vibration. Why does music soothe the heart of the savage beast? Because there is the chance, the opportunity to connect with the oneness. There is a vibration that is recognized and felt and experienced. And it is not only just what you would see as the animal beast. It can come in human form. It often does.

A great wave of ascension that you very much in process right now. A time of great love. Very similar to what you would see and identify in your history as the time when I walked the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth. For indeed the civilization, the lack of love between brother and brother, and the presence of love between brother and brother, quite literally and figuratively, was much the same as it is now. The love of sister to sister and the lack thereof, and the confusion and the sorrow is very much the same as what you experience now in your world.

There were the conflicts, the wars, the savagery, the separation where ones felt they could inflict all manner of motivation upon others to lay down the body, coming from the belief that what they would inflict upon another one as great motivation would not come and sit upon their doorstep. And in time it came full circle and they found it was right there, at their doorstep. But those times were not different in what you experience now.

This is a time of ascension but not the ascension of one Jesus, the Christ, one Yeshua ben Yoseph -- Yes, said with a "Y". Or Jeshua ben Joseph, whatever comes easier to your tongue.

Not just the ascension of one holy Son of our Father. Now it is the ascension of you as the one that we are coming into that knowledge, acknowledgment or remembrance and activation. Most importance, the activation of the ascension. Choose as often as you are able for Love. Choose for peace even in the midst of conflict. Even in the midst of confusion, rock music, the honking of the horn of your vehicles. Choose for peace. Choose for love, unlimited Love. Allow the heart to open and in that moment listen for the choir of angels, for it will transport you into that space of great joy that allows you to know your ascension.

Why are you here in this evening? Because you have desired to know ascension. You are sincere of heart. You are pure of heart. Yes, you have your issues, but not as many as you used to. Yes, you have your moments of questioning, but not as many as you used to. Yes, you are becoming in love with life, much more than you used to. Yes, you are seeing hope. You are seeing with new vision. It is a great time. This is an evening of ascension and you have called it forth.

Now would be a good time to have a short break, short break, and then we will reconvene and entertain the questions.

So be it.

{Break}

Beloved ones, such a feeling of joy. Such a feeling of happiness when once you taste and experience the joy of knowing that you are the holy Child, and yes, beloved one, there is a mate for you.

{Laughter}

Many of you have looked for a mate, for one that would be the complimentary fulfillment and yet you are whole as you are. You are the male, the female all in the one design pattern whether it be of the male or female plumbing. You are still both the male and female. You have felt the feminine aspects, you have felt the male. There have been times that those of you with the female design pattern have called forth the masculine abilities and attributes and have said, "I will know that part of myself," and the same for those of you who express with the male design pattern right now. You have said, "I will know my feminine side. I will allow the sensitivity to come forth and the beauty to be expressed and acknowledged and honored."

But yes, it is the human way to want to know companionship and so indeed you will have the companionship. It does not necessarily have to be one. There will be one at one time, well it does not have to be one at one time.

I told you.

Sometimes it is more the merrier.

Without guilt?

Indeed without guilt. That is what it is all about for your society yet would say that there needs to be one in a committed relationship, at least committed from heart to heart for the moment, but the body is to be enjoyed. You bring forth the body. Not as a prison, but as something to be enjoyed and to have enjoyment pleasure with.

So in the society that you also have brought forth, you have certain constrictions of morality, I suppose it is called, very much akin to mortality because as you get into the constrictions of morality, where do you find yourself?

I'll drink to that.

Yes. And so you allow experience with other ones, a little bit beyond what society says "should" be, and then you play with guilt as to whether you should feel guilty or not, and even when you are in the midst of deep guilt there is still a still small voice that says, "But perhaps this is not so bad. Perhaps my Father does not judge me. In fact, He does not." Your Father loves you. Your Father is Love as you are.

Momentarily, temporarily you have taken upon yourself some constrictions of belief system, value system, judgments. But as we spoke earlier of the process of ascension, you are allowing that encasement to be shed, to come into the full acknowledgment of the holiness that you have been from before time began and will continue to be even after the purpose of time has been fulfilled.

I would ask you, what is the purpose of time?

To enable us to continue playing a drama in a linear fashion, to pretend that we are having one experience at a time, so to speak.

Yes, at a time so to speak. A very good pun. You call forth the process which defines time because you want to experience expression. All different form of expression, and in this point of belief where there is the belief in duality, good and evil, beginning and end, you measure all of the gradations between one end of the duality and the other end as you see it to be. There is not in Truth, an end. It is all one, but you measure all of the gradations between by a process called time.

But it is to allow you to experience expression, the drama, the grand adventure. To play within it and to come to that instant that is shown in your graphic illustrations with the light bulb, that instant of illumination. Why else do you choose a light bulb? An instant of illumination that says, "I am beyond time. I am." Period. Full stop. I AM, and I am beyond time. But for a while yet, I will play within the dimensions of time. It brings up a very good question, is there time in other dimensions? Yes, some of it measured as you would understand time to be. Some of it measured differently but still seen within the belief system as a process. You are unlimited in your expression here and everywhere else as you would see everywhere else to be. Totally unlimited.

But yes, you will find one to share all of these ideas with, to play with these ideas and to play with the body as well. Yes.

Now in this portion of the evening, such grand joy, this one is a delight. Shall we entertain what is known as the rap session? To play with some ideas.

Groovy.

Yes, some questions. Groovy indeed. You are very much in the groove and outside of it you are the groove and beyond. Some say you are beyond, yes.

{Loud laughter}

Has there been a question that you have been playing with that you want to rap around a bit?

I have a question. I have a friend who in the world, some agencies may be said to be mentally ill, schizophrenic and when you were talking about space brothers, he is often communicating with space brothers. I'm open that he is but he doesn't handle it very well and I get concerned about him getting locked up and I send him love and energy and I spoke to him today. He held my hand when we shook hands but he held my hand for perhaps ten minutes while he was telling me all about what's happening with the space brothers and he is always going to different galaxies and doing this stuff and I get concerned sometimes, and he's had some episodes where he has been put away for awhile.

Yes.

And I don't know. I'm open to some suggestions in dealing with this, and my sense is he's dealing with some reality. It doesn't seem like he's handling this very well. There is too much of choices, what would be useful for me to say or do or to send him love? To see the Christ in him?

Yes, and to hold his hand because it is very anchoring, bringing to this point of focus, it is very anchoring to hold one's hand. To hold the physicality to remind one that this is where the physicality is.

Whenever you would ask of yourself, "Where am I?" Look down and see where the feet are. That will tell you right in that moment, where your point of focus is. But for this one, yes, he is doing what we have described earlier in this evening of the ascension. He is opening himself to other expressions, other dimensions of expression, but there is yet a fine tuning. He desires to bridge, to bring in the other awareness into this dimension, into this point of focus. He is a bit, what you would call, ahead of his time, ahead of this point of focus. He is dealing with energy that is not quite with relevancy yet, to this point of focus and does not know how to fine tune it.

What he is doing is of great service, but yet it is a bit unnerving to many of the brothers and sisters and sometimes to himself, because it is sort of what you would see as the double exposure photograph where it does not quite come into focus and he feels himself to be out of focus. Not in alignment, I suppose you would say. Be with this one in your meditation. See him as coming into the focus of oneness.

Hold this one's hand. Touch the physicality whenever you are with him. It will bring him back to this point of focus more. Although he is still open to receiving many other frequencies. These frequencies are realities, yes, as real as this reality -- with a small "r". He is very much bridging into other dimensions but he is ahead of what this energy right now can accommodate.

All of you have experienced doing that as you would call other lifetimes, there have been lifetimes when you have been thought to be out of it. A bit sometimes in this lifetime. Others have judged you to be a bit different at least.

But there have been other lifetimes where you have not known how to bring the point of focus specifically right here. I have spoken with you other times, how what you do is a grand miracle in bringing in each moment a point of focus of consciousness into this time and space and believing it to be reality. Believing it to be integrated. It is a grand miracle that you do and you do not think anything about it. You wake up in the morning and you take for granted you are going to see the same bedroom, the same wallpaper, the same bed, well, maybe sometimes another bedroom.

{Laughter}

But you take for granted that the reality that you know is going to be there for you, and yet you are calling forth in every moment that reality, and it is a grand miracle. But in other lifetimes you have also played with being open to other expressions of yourself and not being able to integrate it with the point of focus where you put the physicality and so they have put you somewhere away until you would get it together. There you have again a saying in your world, get it together. Or until you decided to lay down the body and try something else. You have all experienced that from time to time.

Allow this one in your time of meditation, in your time of the heart to see him coming together in clarity. Not giving up what he knows to be a truth -- again with a small "t" -- or several truths of expression, but being able to have clarity in the here and now for his own sake and knowing that very soon the collective reality is going to catch up with that where it will not seem so strange and he will not feel that he is always stepping somewhere that is not quite in balance.

I experienced a couple of weeks ago an opportunity to have psychic surgery done on me by a Filipino healer who is very well known. Can you explain to me a little bit more about that, why these healers are supposedly only born into one geographical area where that process all started from and was this something that you also had done in your lifetime?

Yes, it is something that I experienced with some of the masters that I worked with and studied with, yes. The reason that it seems at this point of time to come from one geographical area is because there is an acceptance and a belief that it can be. As they bring that information into another geographical area such as this, they are opening the possibility for many to accept it, to say, "Yes it can be." Again, they are part of the ascension of the unlimitedness.

Did these people, did all of this originate from Lemuria?

You remember that well, yes.

Okay.

It is not by accident that you desired to experience this again for there is a great remembrance within you. And for many of you so gathered in this room and others who will hear this on your mechanical recording. Yes, the psychic surgery is something you have practiced, have known under other labels in other times, but it is something that you have done for you have known yourself to be energy.

You have known yourself to bring forth the form in its vibration and to know how to ascend, just exactly what we were speaking of earlier, the vibration of the body so that you could go into and manipulate and take out if it was necessary, according to that belief system, to balance.

If we are part of the God energy and the DNA cellular memories within us, then we are all able to do that in the room already.

Yes.

What it is, is just a matter of working with our energies and getting ourselves acclimated to be able to do that then?

Yes, and a certain willingness of belief, yes. But as you have experienced it and you speak with others, as they see, they are your videos they are called, of it happening, yes, it sparks a remembrance within them where they say, "Well, perhaps that could be possible."

Within others it brings up a resistance for they have seen a benefit in being in resistance, not in this lifetime, but other lifetime where there was a struggle for the power of the people. And you have all known that and experienced that as well, so that there has been benefit that they have seen to say, "No, that is a non-reality," and to be in resistance.

So for a time, although they are calling it forth right now in this time, in their conscious awareness, for a time there is a resistance and this cannot be and do not tell me about it, because I'm sure it's bad.

Uh huh. Their mind cannot conceive of it.

Yes, and yet at the same moment, they are calling it forth so that they can play with the possibility.

How about, I've had opportunity or I've been able to materialize things and make them disappear and things, knowing right then and there where and when to go and get something, appearing it. Can you tell me, why is it that that comes on, like few and far between time? Why can't we learn how to do that more readily when we wish it?

You will.

With the right intent.

Yes, you will indeed, beloved one. There is still the belief that you are playing with that it is a bit held at arm's length. That yes, there will be the times of enlightenment, there will be the times of great understanding and then there will be the times in between where the voice of the world, where the voice of, "I'm not quite sure this can happen, but I hope it can happen," gets in there. So you are still doing what you would call the shedding of that belief system, but walking into the remembrance. Yes, very much so.

All of you have been asking and wanting to know the unlimitedness of the Christ. Wanting to know that Love, and you have been playing with sometimes of enlightenment, the high points where you have known, "Yes, I am the Child of the Father." You have reached that and then you have said, you have called out to me and you have said, "Jesus, Jeshua, how come I can't feel that everyday in every moment?" Well beloved one, if you have experienced that in this lifetime once, it is guaranteed that you will feel it again and again and again, and the times that you know that will come more closely together.

But there is yet a shedding of a collective belief system that you have agreed you would participate in.

So not until collectively more of a mass of people start to think this way will it then materialize to happen for us?

For you as an individual beloved one, you will find it much more rapidly. For in all times there have been the masters who could live and abide within that space always. Although the general culture perhaps was caught up in the existence of the body and what had to be done just to preserve the form. For you it will come very quickly. You will find yourself abiding in those moments of great enlightenment, miracles yes, and for those of you so collected in this room and others who are hearing these words, also you will be experiencing more and more of the times of enlightenment strung closer together.

It is a great desire of your heart and when the holy Daughter decrees that she will come Home, all of creation rearranges itself so that you may come Home. You have decreed and you have set in motion the very path that brings you to the awakening.

As we walk into this lifetime as I did to this one, with a near obsession, and I used to use that word negatively. I don't anymore because I consider it an obsession that I'm supposed to work with on this line between life and death. I cannot remember a time when I could walk into a funeral home and say, "I've had enough of this. I'm going to be instrumental in having it go away." I mean, I has broadened out now as I've understood more of what "I" means.

I would value a few of your comments as to what some of my previous lifetimes have been like to lead to this? And also if there is something more specific that I need to be focusing on than I am right now to see the demonstrations?

Yes. For as you have suspected, previous lifetimes you have been the great priest. You have been the father of the religious order whose word was law within that circle and you have pronounced, because it was given to you, you have pronounced that death was final and that there would be judgment upon that time. And many have come to you in the circle of the society, the ones that were known as the peasants. You looked upon them as the Father's Children yes, but not very wise ones.

And there were many that you passed judgment upon, and when they laid down the body you were given unto saying the rest of the family, that if they did not give the golden coins that one would be sent to a place of purification. You chose other words.

I can imagine what they might have been.

Yes, and you preached that word with great force and great power, worldly power for you were into knowing what power is. Worldly power. You wanted to know the power of beingness, but you tried out the worldly power first, and you tried it on many different ways with subtleties of interpretation many different times, as all of you have.

But you also found in one peak lifetime experience that this power over other people and their belief, their happiness did not bring you joy, did not bring you to fulfillment that you had hoped for, and you suspected deep within yourself that perhaps the laying down of the body and the judgment thereof of what would be after that was not all there was to life, and you prayed, sincere of heart to the Father and you said, "I want to know for I am not happy, Father. This has not brought me even though all of my religious organization and teaching and philosophy has taught me that this is true. It has not brought me happiness and fulfillment." And in that lifetime you did not know the ease, the happiness, the joy but you started the process and you came again and you experienced life in its simplicity of watching the seasons, of watching the flower, the tree in its process of life coming forth, ripening and then seemingly dying in the wintertime and coming forth in the spring.

And because you were a simple peasant not with all the trappings of the father, and the priest, you were able to see with clear eyes. You have brought that wisdom, that remembrance with you into this lifetime. You have seen that it does not take one who is schooled in all of the philosophies to know fulfillment. It is the simplicity of knowing the oneness with the life process that brings you to that place of joy.

So now when you see the form that is laid down, you know that it is just the dust of our Holy Mother, the Earth that has been activated for a time period by a Spirit, a living energy and that energy is still around that form if it desires to be, and is not lost. Has not gone anywhere. It is not a time of great mourning as we spoke the other evening. You may take the limited "u" out of the word "mourning" and see the revelation in the word "morning" when the light begins to dawn. That is what has happened for you and that is the message that you desire to spread to others. To let them know that it is a time of great celebration.

For often now, ones are in a state of willingness to release the very close identification with body and personality when they lay down the body. It is an opportunity that in time all come to understand, but more and more of the brothers and sisters are now willing to experience in the Light of their own. You have heard it spoken of the tunnel of Light. That Light is your own Light. You go to the awareness of your own Light that is already present with you as you right now.

And there is one that you have known quite intimately that has laid down the body in most recent memory who desires celebration of his new found freedom. He desires for you to make celebration, to know that he is not limited to the identification with the body which was a bit of a constriction and a sorrow to him from time to time. He has now found freedom in the love that he is and in the Light that he went to in his own conscious recognition. And he desires for you to give a birthday party, a true birthday party as a celebration, and to honor life. Not the laying down of body but to honor life and the ongoingness of.

Is that an instrumental celebration in project of which we have spoken before?

Yes, very much so.

I thought so. I think it's kind of necessary.

{Comments from the group}

He is what you would call, swift.

{Laughter}

Yes.

It feels like that.

Yes, and you will extend this to others of the brothers and sisters. You will do it as a service to others who are also desiring to know that the laying down of the body does not need to, in fact, will not be seen in a few years of your timing, to be a time of mourning and of loss. It is a time of change, yes, where the communication must adapt itself and must expand, but there is nothing that is lost. In fact, there is a great expansion that is gained in that it is remembered. It is a time of celebration. It is a time when the angels sing.

What does one do when one receives through the inner voice, a date and you get the date, but you can't plug anything into that date? I keep getting October 3rd.

You'll wait.

Not much choice, huh?

And you play with it. You play with possibilities, you daydream and you see what comes. When you get close to the time, the energy will have built itself to a place where there will be clarity but do not worry about it.

All of you have received a date that you have seen almost in a neon sign, in the Light, and you have wondered, "What is that all about?" And the date has come and you have said, "Okay, it is here," and the day has gone and you have said, "What was that all about?"

It is a holy day for indeed everyday is holy as you choose to make it holy. The date that has been given to you is a holy day. It is a day of specialness in that it will be a remembrance. Everyday is special, not to the exclusion of others, but that date, yes. It is not something that you need look upon with foreboding as it would be some traumatic event or something that has to be prepared for. It is not that at all.

It is as you would choose a date to remember your holiness. After awhile you will remember everyday so that you will know that October 1st, 2nd, 3rd, December 4th, special days. Of course they are, for it is the day that the Lord hath called forth, brought forth, you as the Lord, to celebrate. That is what it is all about.

But you do not have to worry that that is going to be a day when the space brothers come and invade.

{Laughter}

Or that the time of darkness, the twelve days of darkness as it has been talked about, is going to begin. No. Or a day when there is going to be a grand upheaval in this geographical location where you do not know our Holy Mother shaking too much as your brothers on the Western side of the country seem to know. It is not going to be that at all.

Sally mentioned something that I thought a lot about and it is this idea of critical mass and the idea appears in the book, "Celestine Prophecy," as thinking expands, and more and more people think and realize that somehow the whole of humanity is nicely thrown over the edge. I don't mean that in a negative sense.

Exactly. You have made the leap of faith.

Yes.

Into knowing, yes.

As the uranium reaction finally produces the explosion so the human consciousness produces a similar but wonderful explosion.

Yes. Yes, and that is exactly the wave of ascension that is happening. Yes. A time of celebration. It will be a time of celebration for yourself as well for you may lay down any feeling that have been harbored as to what you could have done, should have done, might have done "if." It was meant to be this way for there are great blessing in it. That is why there is the need for celebration.

It will continue. In other words, the celebration will not end. It will not be something that you just do in this week and then, oh well, it is finished. It is something that you will feel on other days and other years as well, for there will be much of revelation that comes forward from this, much of sharing.

It is something that you have agreed to do. You, as the one that you are, but seemingly there were several bodies here and you have agreed to do it. And a lot of you who have been friends have agreed to do. You said that you will come through this as your demonstration, your knowing. Right here, not just up here where it sounds good and I read it in a book. Right here, yes. The one known as Christopher is very much the Light bearer. He knows himself to be Light and he knows you to be the Light and he is very much with you and wants that to be brought forth in radiance. Will you invite me?

Yes.

Ah, very good. I enjoy a party.

Thursday evening.

Yes. Very good. I will be there. Will you have the food as it is called?

Yes. Yes. For sure.

Will there be some of the wine?

Sure.

Some of the red wine. Robust. Yes, I will be there.

I thought about wine, too.

We will get into the spirit of things.

{Laughter}

It will be the holy wine, beloved one.

I hesitate to ask this, but I'm going to anyway because you often said, "Ask away."

Oh, yes.

As we talk about I am an impatient soul with time as we know it, I'm not very good with time as my friends know it.

You are excellent with time.

Well thank you.

Not our time.

As we have talked about, as you discussed the other night, projects versus problems or problems and projects. The project in which I'm looking at and working on, what in my frame work of linear time are we talking about here? I'm not asking for a date, I'm asking for two years, five years, ten years.

October 3rd.

You have already decreed the date, have you not?

Yes. I don't have a year around it.

Begin it now.

Oh, it's already begun.

Yes. Put the activation into it. You have already started the networking.

Yes. Oh yes.

You have talked to ones. You know that the possibility, the potential is there. Also there is an invitation for it. Ones would call it a need. I will call it an invitation. Yes, for there are brothers and sisters who are inviting this into their experience.

Some I have a feeling that I don't even know.

You do not know yet, but you will.

Yes.

It will spread. You will be amazed for what you will start in this location will spread to other countries as you know political boundaries to be, and will go because the time, as you call it, that you love to play with, the time is right. It will be an idea whose time has come and it will be picked up by many.

That's exactly what it feels like. Exactly what it feels like.

Strange, and wonderful. Yes.

Just as if my heart was speaking out.

Strange how that works, yes. There is but one heart, yes. But as the idea has come to you it has been knocking upon the door of your mind and your heart. Allow yourself to put it into activation. It has already done what you would call the incubation period.

It think that's done, yes.

Yes, the gestation. It is ready to be birthed. Yes.

You said something that really helped me tonight, about your own resurrection. Was that, there was some little bit of doubt as to whether it could actually happen and I keep wondering, do I need to expunge every little crumb of doubt before I can see manifestation?

If you wait for that beloved one, you will find yourself into another lifetime, and another.

Yes. I'm not going to wait another lifetime.

Indeed, get you very busy just working on the faith that you have and you will see that faith grow to the place where there will not be any room, any space for doubt.

Well now I can feel what I would call, the mightiness in it. Early on in my life I've told some of my friends this, my older sister died very young and every Easter when I would come home, I was just a little boy and I would come home from Easter dinner and I would say, "She's going to be back here today. I know she is going to be back here." And the funniest thing was, even as a child, the fact that I did not see her in the flesh did not disprove it. All I would say is, "Next year."

And indeed, there was a certain sense of you that knew she was there even though the physical form was not seen with the eyes.

Exactly, and I knew I would get to the place where physical form would be manifested.

Yes, and indeed this is true. That is still coming.

Right, I know....

With the eyes, the physical eyes, yes.

But it's interesting how early in your life an idea....

It is as a remembrance.

Even as a little child. You know that.

Of course. Yes. You know your oneness with the life energy, then you put a focus of attention upon the activities of the world, going to school, learning how to get along with the peers, learning to be attractive to the opposite sex, learning how to make a living, rather than live your making. I do love that way your world would say, to live your making instead of to make a living, yes. And you get caught up in a focus of attention that say, "I must do this and that at a certain time. There are deadlines and schedules," and you still remember when you pause for half a moment, you still remember the Love of the Father. You still know that the form is not all there is.

Yes, it is to be enjoyed, but it is not all that there is. You are the Spirit that activates the form. That is one of the things that Christopher wants everyone to know, that he is very much the Spirit, alive and well, and activating a form of his own. Not the same form that you see right here, but a form that is very definite. He has a delineation that he identifies himself with, a Light body you would call it, that is very much his form as he recognizes another dimension.

It is a form that interacts with other energy. I do not know how to put this. I would say that no sex, but it is not sex. The interchange of energy upon another plane where there is not the judgment with it. It is known only for the exhilaration of the energy coming together and being augmented. He is most happy.

A very odd thing happened and I think everyone in here who was in on this will know, when all of this was going on all of my friends said to me, "You look wonderful. You look bright and radiant," and I couldn't figure that out because there were a number of very seemingly awful things going on, and I still don't know why that was the case.

It is because of what you have just spoken previously, the Child of you, the holy Child of you knows that life is radiance, that life is ongoing, that life is the Truth in expression. The Truth with a capital "T", Beloved Elder, in expression, and so therefore, even though the events around you and the activities seemed to be of constriction and mourning and sorrow, you were allowing the radiance of Truth to shine forth.

But that has stress on the physical form because one part of you feels as if you should be showing and acting as a mourner, and the other part says, "But I don't feel like I'm mourning entirely."

Indeed.

You know it's that attempted exit from duality and letting myself go fully into the joy of all of this. And the realization at the time of the project which Christopher and I had decided long before we were both here, we would embark on because of, or in conjunction with this event, who's reality gets more concrete to me everyday of my life.

Yes, it is a collective contract as you would understand a contract to be.

Well many people have said, this is part of your mourning process. And I've said, "No, it isn't." This and the mourning process are two parallel things. The mourning and the coping on the physical level are occurring, and yet something else goes on of which I am a part of and which I know I will see demonstration.

Yes, very much so.

And I don't feel quite as crazy when I say that anymore.

Not quite.

Not quite.

Oh, look at the progress. Very much in process. But as you have spoken of the conflict that brings about the stress, that is why the body will send you a message of being tired, for in Truth the body need never be tired.

It is the conflict that goes on within and the resultant desire to abide in peace that allows you to identify that as being tired. In other words, I want to take myself off to bed for a certain length of time. Not in activity, beloved one, but in repose. I want to take myself off to bed for awhile and to abide in peace. That is really what it is all about.

The body itself needs only a minimal amount of sleep. It does not need your eight hours as society talks to you and then you get into thinking, "Well, I only have time for six or five hours of sleep. Oh my goodness, I'm going to feel tired tomorrow." So what do you do, you feel tired the next day.

In Truth you only need to abide with the Father in meditation, in peace, not even in what you would call the sleep, to allow the body to recharge itself. Yes.

Ever since I was a child I wanted to know who I am and what my life's purpose is.

Yes.

What is it?

Ah, beloved one, you have asked the universal question, who am I? Why am I here, and what am I supposed to be doing? You are your Father's Child. You are a great ray of Light activating the form, having an experience and choosing to come into the remembrance of the allness that you are. You are holy, which means, whole, perfect, not incomplete, but whole from before time began, and your purpose is to awaken to that holiness. To come in a moment's time which you will, to the place where you say, "I am already that which my Father has created. I am already His perfect Child and I need to do nothing more. Therefore I will rejoice and be glad. There will be an awakening and great laughter, for you will find that all of what you have done has been just for the enjoyment of it, even the great dramas that you have brought forth.

It has been to see your grand creativity, because you as the Child of the one Creator, are creative. It is your nature. It is the essence of you to be creative. So therefore, you have thought to create and you have marvelously. You have brought forth world upon world, adventure upon adventure, and you have thought yourself to be afar off from the Father, that if perhaps you did enough of the good deeds and if you were in the approved religious organization, that perhaps He would take you back. You have never gone from Him except in your belief that you were having the adventure of separation.

So your purpose, beloved one, is to know Love, to know that you are that Love and extend that to the brothers and sisters for indeed, as you extend the unconditional Love of the Father, no strings attached, you experience that for yourself. It is in the giving that you are blessed. A grand Truth in that.

It matters not what you would see as the profession that you choose. What matters is the Spirit, the wholeness of Spirit that you bring to it. For one who would be called upon to be the lowly sweeper of the street, one who would be called upon to collect the rubbish, if he does it in a spirit of gladness and wholeness, he is already Home.

You will follow ideas that allow your heart to open. You will follow interests that feel enlightening. You have much of what you would term guidance, much of the inner wisdom that will suggest that you go here and talk with ones, and that you go somewhere else and put the arm around a brother who is in confusion or suffering and you will speak to that one words of hope, words of vision. You will share with that one because you can relate and because that one looks upon you and sees a form that he can understand and a language spoken that he can understand. He will know that you are speaking from the heart of Truth. You have been there. You have experienced it.

When he cries unto me or prays unto me, he does not hear my answer even though I answer, because he does not believe it possible. Many of the brothers and sisters, if they believe in one personality known as Yeshua, and there are many of the brothers and sisters that that means nothing to, as they call upon me they see me still upon the cross, or ascended unto the Father far off somewhere and when I suggest to the heart of them, that they abide in peace and that they are loved always with an everlasting Love, they do not believe that for they do not think they can hear me.

But you, they can hear. That is your purpose, to awaken to the great Love that you are and to speak that however it is appropriate to the brothers and sisters. You are in your process of ascension, of coming out of the limitation of belief of who you are and what the brothers and sisters are. Coming to a place of connecting once again with the remembrance of the holiness of you in great ideas. Grand mustache. I used to have one myself.

{Laughter}

And now beloved one, there is one who travels with me always that would speak with you in this evening. One who has been invited to be here in this manner. Always I travel with her. It cannot be otherwise, for I enjoy her company. I will make jokes about it, as to how it feels always to travel with one's mother.

{Laughter}

But indeed, it is great Love, and she would not speak with you for again there is great Love in this room and she would share that with you.

Mother Mary:

Gentle one, blessed one, Child of the most High, I am the one known as Mary, Mother of Christ and so are you. For you are birthing the Christ within your own remembrance right here, right now as the Love that you are walking incarnate as He did upon this plane. You are the beauty of the Father brought into form and beautiful it is. It is exquisite. The choice of how you bring forth form, the coloration of vibration. It is a miracle. The Light of Love from the eyes. It is the sunshine of the Father, and it is a great service that you bring to the brothers and sisters in simplicity of being. In being at peace in the heart and allowing others to know the presence of peace. For many of the brothers and sisters that you associate with are desiring to know the deep peace of the Father and as you will stand in their presence and be that peace, you give unto them the opportunity to remember and to know that they are loved of the Father for always, always the Father loves His Child. It has been spoken to you that you are the sunshine of the Father, and this is a grand Truth. Remember that always.

Beloved daughter, one whom I have known well. You bring the vibration of Love to this plane. You serve the Father and one Self that we are, selflessly in love and in beauty. Many has been the time that you have searched your heart and asked of the Father to speak through you either in word or in song. Many have been touched by your song, and you have brought His Love into tangible form for others to feel and to remember.

I want to do that.

Yes. And indeed that is what you are doing. Allow yourself to feel touched by that, for you are blessed among women. You have felt that. You have known that, and even more than the birthing of the physical children, you are blessed among women because you have brought forth the Christ in your remembrance and others as well. You have said to others in various ways, "Behold the Christ." Blessed art thou.

Thank you.

Beloved daughter, who is most dynamic in her joy. You bring the vibration of the joy of the Father into laughter, into what others can relate to and feel an upliftment of the heart. It is very healing for when others allow themselves through your facilitation to touch that place for a moment or so, of releasement of doubt and constriction and worry and heaviness, they come Home to the Father in that moment. It is a great gift that you give unto brothers and sisters. You allow them to know the joy that has been spoken of in this evening, the joy of ascension in the simplicity of laughter. For that is how one comes Home to the Father, in becoming as the little Child knowing the simplicity of pure joy and laughter.

When you allow others to see the lighter side, to laugh at themselves, to laugh at a situation, then you bring them opportunity to abide in the Light of the one holy Child, and to release in that moment the burden that has been carried.

Yes, they may turn around at the end of the evening or the time and pick up the burden again because they think they have to, but for a moment of so, they have felt themselves lighter in Spirit because of the laughter.

You are the Light of the Father upon this plane. You are one of His angels for the work that you do allows the heart of each one to know that angelic presence of upliftment, and you thought you were just making comedy.

Angelic comedy.

Angelic, of course. Beyond just the constriction of the world, yes.

Can I ask you something?

Yes.

I as a mother, there is a soul around me and I want to bring her to me, and I'm having doubts in my faith I think.

As to whether this could happen?

I've always wanted it and now with just by way of something, about a child in China, my daughter might be over there and maybe I should get her before Christmas. Could you hurry that along for me please?

{Laughter}

Just send it to Pittsburgh Angelic Angel. Okay.

What you have asked for beloved one, will come to be known and rapidly for you have desired it, and not only you but the other one as well, for nothing is ever done in isolation. For as you have extended the welcoming of the heart, the other one has also been calling to you. Indeed, this will come to be known in this plane, this dimension, this experience soon.

Not because I can do a time warp for you, but because you are calling it forth as the holy Mother of the Christ that you are. You have much love as you have known and discerned, much love to give, to share. There will not be just the one, there will be more than one. Make room.

Oh, my God.

{Laughter}

Do you have any idea how many? Do I have to clean both bedrooms?

It would be wise.

Nick!

Hire someone else. Someone else told me to look for twins.

Yes. Yes, there will be more than one. Although there may be only one at a time. But you have a heart that is as big as the universe and beyond. There is much love.

It gets broke a lot though.

Heart, no, it is most resilient.

Oh, okay.

A few snopy bandaids as they are called.

{Laughter}

It is resilient. It this heart going to find someone to play with in the physical plane, too?

Yes.

Okay, good.

Yes. There is a great desire for companionship as was spoken earlier, and as there is a great desire it will be fulfilled, but not in the limitation, not in the way that it has been seen in historical way of what relationship is. There will be many that you will know companionship with in holy companionship, and the love will be greater than you now can imagine.

Okay.

You will go for that.

Sure.

I would.

Beloved heart, how are you in this evening?

Fine.

You are fine. You are also one that is blessed upon this plane for you have felt the love, the unconditional expansive Love of the heart many times and you have allowed it to radiate forth from you. It has been a great blessing has it not? Know that you do the work of the Father always as you are again the Light upon this plane. Follow the heart, beloved one. Play, with others, with the heart of others and the body, that is okay. But play.

Beloved holy Son, one who is loved greatly, who has known the love and the lack of love, the doubt, the self-questioning and yet, knows deep within the soul, the heart of you that you are the one Child of the Father who is loved greatly. You are fulfilling the purpose that you have asked for as you seek, ye shall find. As you ask, it will be given unto you. For as you open in the asking, as you invite you are the great magnet that draws to you that which you desire to know. There can be nothing that will stand in that way of that. Allow yourself to be at peace even with the searching. You are loved greatly.

Beautiful one who brings the radiance of the Father to this plane, and other planes as well, for this is not all that you do. You are very active, as you would see it, on other planes, other realms as well, places that you connect with in a moment of repose, when you are asleep, as it is called. Would you have a question in this evening?

It is not necessary for indeed the heart knows. The mind will play. The mind will read the books. The mind will send you on a treasure hunt, and indeed it is, a treasure hunt for you are hunting for the treasure that is within which you carry with you always. And after the mind has played then the heart tells you true. Enjoy. Be the Love of the Father and extend it to yourself first of all, then you will see it radiating out from you as the light of the candle goes forth and dispels all of the darkness before it.

Beloved one who enjoys playing upon this plane, both with the mind, the intellectual concepts, the activities where you bring the inspiration into tangible form, and the play that involves the physicality of the body, the form. You bring all of the wisdom and the Light of the Father into expression when you allow your heart to open, when you allow the seeds of that inspiration to be cast freely, given unto the brothers and sisters. Is there something that you would ask in this evening?

I guess I'm feeling some of the pain I see so much here, but the racial conflict in the world, and what I could do...?

Yes, it is to know that the plan of unfoldment, unfolds perfectly. It is not a plan of the Father for indeed the Father would not set a certain time of process, but the holy Child itself, has decreed that there will be an unfoldment and even the racial conflict is part of that unfoldment and that plan, because it allows the brothers and sisters to come to a place where there is choice made, that says, "I must see this in a new way. I can see this anew, and I will choose for peace."

It mirrors in what you would see as the outer activities, what is going on within each individual as an individual is seen to be, holy Child, for there is conflict within each one of the brothers and sisters, within you, within the others so gathered in this room, moments of doubt, moments of warring within the self. The Self that knows the unlimit-edness of Spirit and the other self that says, "But how does that fit into the world of activities? How do I make that fit?" Well, you don't. You bring the Kingdom of peace that you are into the world, yes, but you cannot bring the world into the Kingdom. It is the other way around.

There is conflict within each brother and sister and it is out-pictured then on what you see as a larger scale of energy in conflict between races, philosophies, coun-tries. But it goes back to the individuated energy of the holy Child, for as each one be-comes at peace with who he is, or who she is, as the holy Child and knows Love once again, then that peace will be extended unto others and will be seen and radiated across the face of our Holy Mother. It will transform the world.

Allow yourself as you are doing, to hold a vision of love that encircles all of our Holy Mother, the Earth and beyond. Allow yourself to know peace with what you are doing, for indeed, you never make a wrong choice, never. You never make a mistake, for every choice is used by the one that I have called the Grand Weaver, the Holy Spirit. Every choice is used to bring the holy Child back to wakefulness. For the Holy Spirit will use ever thread of every choice and weave it into a beautiful tapestry that the holy Child will look upon and will see the whole vision.

So you never make a wrong choice. You may be at peace with yourself and with others, and as you feel that peace within yourself there will be no denying it to the world. Then you will see the transformation in the world that you so much desire.

Thank you.

Thank you.

Beloved daughter, thank you for doing that. It is grand to be able to hold the hands, the body again. Would you embrace?

Oh, yes. {Hugging}

Thank you for once again having the courage to come, to walk this plane as you have done many, many times and to bring the angelic Love into form so that the broth-ers and sisters can behold it. So that they can see mirrored in your eyes, the Love that they are. They will see, they will perceive a gentleness of Spirit and they will say that that is just you, but they could not behold it if it were not already themselves, within them. So as you have the courage to be gentleness in a world that yet knows harsh-ness, you allow others to call that forth within them.

You are the sister to all. You have identified as the sister of one and this is true, but you are the sister of all and you give forth the sisterly love, the support, the nurturance.

I like that a lot too.

And indeed, that which you give you cannot help but receive, for it goes forth in one grand circle. In the circle of oneness that you are and will be experienced again. That is why ones who find themselves in conflict see nothing but conflict in their world. Others who have the courage to choose for gentleness and peace will experience that in their world. This is a message that you live and that you teach to others by that living. Not because you have a box that you stand on, but because you are willing to live it and others see that it is possible to live a life of gentleness, of service. Even amidst all of the activities. You are pure of heart. Remember that.

Okay.

Beloved son.

It is good to see you.

It is great to behold you in this manner again, to see the radiance in the eyes, the Light in the eyes, to know that you are coming to the place of feeling good about that Light and letting it shine forth freely, for you are greatly loved. Would you have a question?

Just struggling a little bit with direction right now between moving on or staying still, staying in this area or going to another geographical place.

You will do both.

Same question.

You will do both yes, for indeed it is not to exclusion of what you know here. You are expanding as have been spoken in this evening, part of the ascension process. You are expanding. You are saying, "I want to be, I feel a calling to be somewhere else, but I also know this to be Home," and indeed it is. But you will take your Home wherever you go for you are Home. Many meanings of that, of course. But yes, you have felt a calling to know another geographical location. There are ones who are calling you in that place. So you will go and establish a connection there, but you will not give up what you have already here, as far as the circle of friends. You will find many of them coming with you either very shortly after, or perhaps at the same time.

The holy Child is wanting to know how unlimited he is, or she is, and therefore, you are allowing yourself to be gypsy once again, to feel the freedom that says, "I can go anywhere and bring forth what is necessary to nurture the body." For always you will be provided for. Allow yourself to feel free in the heart, for there are ones who are calling to you. The time is not quite yet, but allow yourself to feel at peace with that for you will know.

Okay.

There is much of the networking, it is called, but much of the connection of oneness that you are responding to. Yes. They have invited and you are answering their invitation, but it will not be that you have to choose one over the other.

Good.

You are totally unlimited as the other son, who has been so close to you, as that one has rediscovered and remembered.

Thank you. {Hugging}

Hello.

Hello again, beloved son. Such a joy to be in one's presence in this way, to play again, yes. What would you ask?

I'm going to plug into Marylou's question over here and say that for a long time the urge to be physical father has been very strong in my heart and I felt child calling to me, but perhaps not child in the sense of one so little. I guess in my mind's eye I see someone a little bit older coming into my life.

Yes, very much so.

For whom the role of father will be fulfilled.

Yes.

Yes.

And again more than one. But one to begin with. One that you will take under your wing. One who is already searching and wants to know you as father again. There will be a reconnection, you will remember. It will be a slightly different form, but there will be a heart that remembers you and you will remember that one.

Close time wise?

Within a year of your timing, is that close?

That's close. That's very close.

Is that too close?

No, that's not too close. That's good.

Okay, we would not want to crowd you.

I could say closer than that.

Yes.

It's almost as if I could almost say the name but yet it's not on my tongue.

Almost.

Very close.

Yes. It is a name that you have know before. It is a name that will be familiar to you.

In this lifetime?

Well yes, in this lifetime, but you will remember it from another lifetime. For as you have had the desire, as you are opening to the possibility that relationship can be different than how society has defined it. In other words, to be father to another one, this one is also calling out to you. This one is already in form, already here, has come through many experiences.

Uh huh, I thought so.

And will share those experiences with you, some of them in confusion for there has not been understanding. But you, together, will journey to the place of understanding for there is much that this one will share with you and you with him.

Wonderful. It's exciting.

There will be more than one. You are not limited.

Again, I would touch you again.

Can I hug you this time?

Yes, of course. {Hugging}

Thank you for remembering. It is most important for there has been an issue with you of questioning, questioning worth, and you are beautiful.

And you, beloved one, you have had such patience. You are very good with time. You are loved greatly. I am so happy to see you in this way, this manner. To be able to look through these eyes and to behold the love-light in your eyes. The aliveness of the Father brought into manifestation visibly upon this plane.

This is not the first time.

This is not the first time.

That we physically held each other.

No.

As a little child I always thought about seeing you in another time and another place. I always felt very close to you.

Yes, I have appeared to you and not just the way your church would define it, for you knew that there was more than just what the church would teach.

We have known the love of mother and daughter, we have known the love of sisters. There has been much love expressed in lifetimes, different ones. For indeed, the lifetime that is so famous for me, was the not the only lifetime. I am not limited to just one lifetime. That is what is in this point of focus. This is as my beloved Son calls the point of focus right now, what is recorded in your Scriptures but that is not the only lifetime we have had together.

Thank you.

Thank you.

I feel you all the time.

And I, you. I thank you for receiving that and knowing that to be true.

Beloved angel.

Blessings to you.

The one who provides, heaven, a haven for others to find here on earth. Beloved daughter of the Father, servant unto all. You are greatly honored.

Thank you.

By me, and by all of the other angels, hierarchy of angels that work with you. For indeed they sing through you. They heal with you. It is not that you allow, it is not just that you allow the presence of the angels to work through you, it is very much an augmentation of joining of energies that you remember so well.

Yes.

It is what you have done in the lifetime that we shared together.

I understand. I recognize it.

I know, and again you have said, "That I will temporarily put on the shelf, my full remembrance of everything I have ever been and done and I will come to serve the brothers and sisters in this way."

Yes. How much longer will it be on the shelf?

{Laughter}

You may claim that on October 3rd. In the morning when you awaken, claim that with great dynamic power and it will be yours.

I will. I feel like things are accelerating rapidly for me.

Very much so.

Very, very much so. I do have one question, could you explain about the individual who has come into my life recently in March, his name is David, Dave.

Yes, this one you have worked with, played with many, many times. One who has facilitated healing and who has asked for healing many times. It is not by accident that you have found each other again, for there is much that you will share with the brothers and sisters and with each other, because of the association. This one comes from the angelic realm as well.

I know. I just know everyone had been trying to get us to meet one another and it's as if it keeps on pushing and pushing and pushing in that direction. Hmm, it's very fascinating.

There will be as you would see, the two flames of two candles coming together. It will grow and augment and more than just the two separate flames as they would be seen. There will be an augmentation of energy, of light, of remembrance.

Does he acknowledge this and know this already, too?

He knows it very deep within himself although it is not verbalized.

Will it be verbalized?

It will, yes.

Okay. Oh thank you for being here. Thank you for honoring us and I have a request, if you could send prayers to all the people involved that I work with on so many levels. People who are going into the hospital. The young girl I spoke to you earlier, for healing to come into their lives and also that I can be used as a greater vehicle to do more.

And indeed, as you have asked.

Rapidly.

Yes, rapidly, as you have asked, so be it. It will be.

Thank you.

And as for the one who is facing the healing tomorrow, the facilitation of healing, it will be a healing on many, many levels for this one has much fear attendant upon the appearance. She is coming to know that she is the one holy Child that is the angel again in form. She will come through this with the knowing and the love, surety of that Love that will then out-picture in the appearance. This one is greatly loved of the Father and she is not alone through this. Even as you have witnessed the physical forms, the ones being with her, there are many of the angelic realm with her.

Yes. Thank you very much. {Hugging}

I could feel that over here.

{Laughter}

Yes.

Thank you.

Hello.

Hello, great joy.

You bet. You are so beautiful to see in this way.

And you also, beloved one. There is a great radiance that you are, that you bring to this plane and more and more you are allowing that to be known and felt. There were years....

How about a radiance of another plane?

That will be happening as well.

Soon?

There is such a question of time this evening.

Oh yes. Well.

As you decree, yes it will be soon.

That's why your Son tells me otherwise. We have a difference of opinion here.

It is all relative and it will be a relative. But yes, there is such a freedom of radiance and joy that you are now allowing to come through you. There have been years where there was the confusion and the blockage, the holding off of knowing that joy. Now you are saying, "Let me have it all," and it is yours, beloved one. And you will share it, yes, with the other ones, the small ones.

Small ones of mind. Small ones of others, too, I know.

As well, yes. But of yours as well.

It is good to know. I have a question. There has been and I don't know whether this is accurate information or not, but is there an actual December 24th being your birthday or the 25th or is there a different birthday of when you gave birth a long time ago?

And yet it was not that long ago.

I've been having quite a few memories.

Yes. The reality that I remember, it was late summer when we made trek. It was not what you would see as the date of December 25th. It was late, as you call it, August for it was still in the summer, late summer time.

So how was it that it came to be celebrated then at Christmas?

Well you have called it the Christ Mass. It was the fathers, the religious fathers who felt themselves to be all powerful, who wanted to incorporate it at that time to take over some other celebrations, pagan, as they were judged to be, celebrations, and to allow the Christ to be known at that time. It was a handy time. The time of darkness in this hemisphere. A time of darkness as far as the longest day, shortest day, to remember the light and so it was seen appropriate to have a celebration.

So it was decreed. It was an arbitrary decree, but it matters not. What is important is to celebrate the birth of the Christ everyday, to bring forth that birthing in joy every morning as you awaken. Truly awaken.

And I do when I get that grin on my face.

You do.

It seems to be so plastered to me so much of the time.

And indeed, you are birthing the Christ when you remember that, for you bring forth the joy. So celebrate the Christ Mass at December 25th, August 25th, July, June, April, October.

Good.

Yes.

I think I can just as easily ask you this question if I could of Jeshua. He and I spoke about something that I've been remembering and about a particular person, and would this person be a live with?

Yes.

Ah, cool.

There is grand wisdom within you. A grand discernment, yes. Allow yourself to trust what comes forth from within. For indeed you are the one that invites it to come into your consciousness. You may trust it. Go with it, as they say in your world.

Have I come in contact with those particular children in other forms now in this lifetime?

Yes.

Hmm. Oh, now the mind is reeling. Thank you.

You are as a great detective, you are putting the pieces together to solve the mystery. You are doing this on one level and on a greater level as well.

My love to you.

And to you, for you indeed are the Mother of Christ. You are birthing the remembrance of Christ right here, right now, and it is beautiful. Yes, thank you.

A very special evening, has it not been?

Yes. Indeed.

Great, great Love. I would see that this is a great thing to join the hands, the love to allow it to vibrate. To join here beloved one. We will feel the oneness of the vibration of Love in one great circle.

{Group forms a circle}

It is fine. It is fine for it pulsates, it is felt in a great flow of energy.

Breathe in the golden white Light that you are. Take it dynamically into the heart. See it filling the lungs and going to every part of the body, every cell in great radiance. Even to the fingertips and to the toes.

Feel it energizing even the hair upon the scalp. Allow yourself to see the Light that you are extending as a great fountain of Light from the crown. Know that it goes out and encompasses all of our Holy Mother and beyond, for you are not separate from any of the expressions of life anywhere.

You are the Father's holy Child in expression, brought into a specific point of focus that is now beginning to remember the totality of that one holiness. Go forth in great peace, in radiance, in Love. Allow that to be felt, experienced and shared for you are loved as you are that Love.

So be it.
