

Prophecies and the New Millennium

1998-05-08

Beloved one, do you feel the love? Have you felt my love in this last moment? The love that infold you. Yes. My love I give unto you freely. Feel yourself alive, radiantly alive in love and begin to remember once again who you are. Not just the personality. Not just the individuality of energy that lives in this world and has to deal with certain problems and tasks. But begin to remember you are the holy child of the Father loved from before time began.

For indeed you are the one who agreed that time should begin. And after the purpose of time has been fulfilled you will remember and you will remain who you have always been, the one beloved child of the Father.

I am the one known as Jeshua ben Joseph -- Jesus, you have called me -- and it is in great joy that I come to abide with you this evening in your timing as you have chosen once again to call me forth.

It is great joy of the love that we have just spoken of for indeed you know the Christ love, you truly have a feeling of the Christ love and you know that you are unconditionally, unlimitedly loved. There is great joy that wells up in the heart. Great joy that cannot be contained. Great joy that you must share with others. It is as the cup that is heaped up, overflowing. You cannot contain the love, the energy and the joy. You must speak with others. You must share with others. You cannot hold it back to yourself. It is as the light of the candle. The candle cannot contain its light. It must give it forth freely. And as you are now remembering who you are and coming alive in that remembrance, you cannot keep the joy and the love of the Father just within yourself. It must be given and shared. Your cup runneth over.

And as you have already experienced as you will give it forth, more is given unto you and it grows. It increases. For as you are willing to give it, more is given unto you, heaped up, and abundant.

Those of you who would pray for abundance, and all of you have prayed for abundance, allow yourself to feel in the flow of love. Allow yourself to feel in the flow of the Father's energy. Know that you are alive because of Him. And then come truly alive, not just to exist but to be truly alive and to express to others the joy of living.

As you will express the joy of living all abundance is given unto you including the golden coins, of course. All of you, you are prosperous even as you sit here before me you are prosperous in this evening. Otherwise you would not be here. All of you within the sound of my voice, you are prosperous for indeed you would not be listening to the sound of my voice if you were not prosperous. You are most richly blessed by the Father. Allow yourself to come truly, truly alive in that remembrance and to live with the joy that the world does not know.

Long enough you have carried the baggage of the world. Long enough you have said, "I will be slave to a very hard master. I will carry all of this baggage." Long enough you have done that. Now you may put it down. You may stretch forth the arms. Wiggle about the back a bit. Get the freedom in the back, yes. Allow the body even to feel free and then allow the soul to know its freedom. Claim the joy of the freedom and live from that center point of joy.

Then you will know true healing. There will be healing of the body that comes forth. The body that serves you so well even though you put all of the baggage and the tension upon it. You say to it, "Carry me this way. I have to go this way." Well after awhile the body is going to speak and it is going to say, "This is not really natural."

So wiggle about a bit. Get a bit of the freedom into the body and as you do that, you will allow the soul to know healing as well. And when you allow the body and the soul to know healing, you will know healing of all of the other issues in your life. Every issue that comes to you will be healed in the joy of living. Allow yourself to claim that. Allow yourself to come alive.

Know you the feeling when you are sharing with another one from the heart, and you get so excited about what you are talking about. So excited in that place that says, "Yes, I know who you are and what we are discussing is really true. This is what really, really matters." Know you that feeling, what really matters? And all else falls by the wayside in that moment. All of the worldly cares, they are forgotten in that moment and you come truly alive. You allow the energy, the vibration of the Christ to then be felt, recognized and given unto the other one with whom you are in conversation.

Well, such a greeting, yes?

Enthusiastic.

Yes. Always enthusiastic for indeed we have spoken in previous time the meaning of your word enthusiastic. It means to be en-theos, to be in God. Be ye enthusiastic. Claim your Godhood. That is what it is all about. That is why you are here. It is to remember and to claim once again your Godhood. To claim, to know, to experience your humanhood, yes, and to go beyond that to your Godhood, to remember the Christ. Not me, as an individual personality, but the Christ of you and that will bring you such treasure the world does not know.

Now, I would speak with you this evening about another great treasure. I would speak with you this evening about your prophecies and about the approaching new millennium. For indeed within the last several decades of your timing there has been a growing awareness of a new energy upon this plane. You have decreed that you will bring forth a new energy upon this plane. And there has been a new awareness of prophecies. You have been prophesying, you have spoken, you have prophesied and others whom you have listened to, others who have written the works that you have read they have been prophesying what will be. And you have listened to these prophecies and sometime ago you had initially heard the prophecies and you said, "Oh my goodness. If all of this happens is it worth being alive?"

For many of the prophecies that have been given to you in the past two decades have been received in a place of fear. They have sounded as though they spoke of doom. And many of you have made your preparations how you would save the body. Know you that those prophecies were given forth in order for you to see how you would receive them.

The prophecies themselves they are of no import. But what is important is the information that you have gained from how you have perceived the prophecies. And initially for most of you, there has been the habitual reception of information that has said, "How is this going to affect me? How is this going to chance my life? What do I have to do when these prophecies come true?"

And by the habitual well-known response upon this plane which is based upon the belief in duality. The virtual residual has been one of fear to come from a place, first of all, of fear. And so the prophecies were received with a certain urgency that you must do something. For indeed there were going to be great changes upon this plane and you'd better be ready for them.

Many of you set about making the new dwelling places. Many of you have set about putting aside many of the foodstuffs, the stores, the blankets, everything in case you would have to go back to previous way of living. Yet all the while there was a still small voice within you that said, "Why must I, if these prophecies be true, be thrust back into an old past?" A primitive past, if you will. "Surely they," -- and you didn't know who they would be -- "but surely they will think of a way that we can use other energy and power so that we don't have to be cast back into primitive ways of living." And you hoped, perhaps that someone brighter, wiser more expert would come up with a salvation to the energy problem that probably was going to happen.

But all the while you did put your foodstuffs and your stores away just in case. And you said, "Well this is not just for me. I am putting away an ample amount so that I may share it with others who are not going to be prepared. I am philanthropic. I will have enough for myself, but I will also have extra to share with others. Surely that is the good way to go, isn't it?" And the ego said to you, "Of course. Prepare for yourself and if you have a bit more for the brother, the sister, then you will get ten points at least in heaven." So that is what you did.

The important part of the message was for you to sit with, as you have done, to sit with your response and your perception of the prophecies and to ask, "Is this true for me?" For indeed you have seen for many of the brothers and sisters that they would receive the information in different ways. Some said, "Oh, that is a bit of balder dash, I can't be bothered with that. I have to watch what is going on in my occupation. I have to watch what is going on in my relationship. I don't have time to think of things such as that." Others said, "Well, I'll allow you to take care of that for me. I don't have time just yet, but you put aside a few more things and if this comes to be true, I will come knocking on your door." And you said, "Well, okay. That is the good thing to do."

But the important thing with all prophecy is to allow yourself first of all to take the deep breath and then to ask, "What is the truth of this for me? And further more, what is the deeper truth?"

For indeed all prophecy is given unto you for a divine purpose. You call forth all prophecies. And if you will receive it, every prophecy that is given forth is received slightly differently by everyone who hears it according to your perception, your need, your understanding, past experience, etc. Every prophecy has truth in it.

Now, is it going to be little truth? For some, for some it will be. But for many more it will be of a deeper meaning, a symbolic meaning. For when it was prophesied that there are going to be great changes upon this plane, indeed, already you have seen great changes happening. There has been within the last decade of your timing, a shift in the collective consciousness of humankind. A willingness to focus upon a greater understanding of why everyone is here and what life is all about. A growing willingness to honor self and to honor the self of others. A growing awareness of what it means to be alive upon this plane. And from that willingness has come many, many changes. You have seen many miracles in your midst.

So when the prophecies were given forth, that there would be great changes upon this plane, cataclysmic changes, already they have begun. And as we have spoken so many times with you, what comes first, the change within then it is seen in the outer. The willingness, it has been growing, it has been subtle, but it is also a force, it is the Christ force that cannot be held back and it is growing and gain momentum because you have decreed that you will know the Christ. You may take the prophecies upon face value and there are some of the brothers and sisters who will experience the prophecies exactly as foretold because the suggestion will be so strong that they will say that this has to be true. And what they accept at a very deep level as suggestion, they will then experience. But again, it is not tragic. It is for the experience of it and for the enlightenment of it.

You have had prophecy that has been given to you by my Mother (Mary). Prophecies that have outlined what would be happening in each year as you are approaching the new millennium. And by and large you then, have brought forth the truth of those prophecies.

Now, did my Mother give forth the prophecies because She has an inside track as to what your future is going to hold? Or did she give to you because you were calling it forth, certain probabilities as they were seen in that time when it was given forth, and then you as the creative holy Child have gone on to make real -- with a small "r" -- those prophecies? Yes. You have made real the prophecies to varying degrees because you wanted to know how it would feel if those prophecies did come true -- again with a small "t". And again it is not tragic.

Many, many shifts going on upon this plane as you approach what seems to be a most momentous time. Many shifts for all of you in your personal lives. Many issues that you are dealing with, many questions that come up; life and death questions that come up. For indeed every issue that comes before you contains the possibility and the opportunity for the death of small ego, for the death of that forgetfulness of who you truly are.

So every issue is a life and death issue. And as you will choose for life in every issue, you allow the death of the limited understanding which you have held previously. All of you are facing changes. All of you are facing the possibility of great changes.

And the truth of you, the Christ Self of you welcomes the changes for you know that this is the time now to get on with it, to remember and to come Home. The small self of you, the ego will say, "No, I don't want to do that. It is not safe. What will happen? What will happen to the body? What will happen to all of my savings? What will happen to a relationship which I have seen to be my mainstay? What will happen?" That is a question of the ego.

But the true Self of you, the Christ Self of you welcomes the changes. Feels a certain excitement and wants to get on with the good stuff and it is time. That is why you have chosen to be incarnate at this time.

It is not accident that you chose a certain birthdate. It is no accident that you have been activating the body unto this time. You have agreed that you will usher in the new millennium. You have agreed that you will usher in a time of remembrance. You have agreed that you will feel once again the excitement and the joy of living as you have done in times past.

For this is not something that is new to you. All of you who are feeling the stirrings of the soul, the stirrings that suggest remembrance of something greater than small self. You have ushered in the new age, a new millennium, a new time many lifetimes. You have been the masters who have said, "I will come once again and I will live in joy. I will live in dynamic energy of the Christ once again. I will add my energy to what is happening upon that plane at that time in order that the leap in consciousness be made."

You have done this other times as well and it is not by accident that you find yourself incarnate at this time. It is not by accident that you feel certain issues and certain challenges. It is not by accident that you feel a bit squeezed at times. Ready to burst the encasement of the armor of the shell around you. It is not by accident that you feel an excitement that you cannot quite explain. You would want to share it with another one and you cannot quite find the words for it. But you can feel it deep within you for you know that the changes are happening.

All around you small self will look upon the events of the world and will say, "It is very tragic." Will point out to you everything that is wrong and seemingly going "wronger". Small self will do that. And yet you at a very deep level within the heart, you know optimism, you know hope, even in the face of greatest loss the hope abides and you know that hope will see you Home.

In truth, hope comes from Home, and that place of heart, that place of remembrance of the Christ. Hope is a great gift that the Christ Child gives to herself/himself. As you will nurture the hope it grows. That is what is needed upon this plane now in this time of the prophecies, in this time of changes. It is to hold on to the hope, the optimism and to listen to the still small voice that speaks always within. It will guide you.

The world is a noisy place but as you will allow yourself the deep breath, your connection to the inspiration of spirit then the still small voice can be heard and it will guide you Home.

You have in your timing now what is it? A year and a half, a little more than that, until you will celebrate a most momentous turning of the calendar. A time of a new millennium and you have said, "Surely, this will be a new time. Surely, there is great symbolism in being alive when a new millennium comes. A new reckoning in our timing."

Now I ask you, is there anything magic as you will go from the year as you call it 1999 unto the year 2000? Is there anything magic about that? No.

But in our minds its like a new start.

Yes. The answer to that question is no and yes. For you will bring the magic to it as you have just spoken. Already you are imbuing your vision of what the year 2000 will be. Already you are imbuing it with a certain magic and it will be a time of magic because you will be expecting to see miracles. You will be expecting to see some magic.

You have been given by your prophecies certain years that are going to be most wondrous years. There have been prophecies that the year 2000 would be a most wondrous year, and it will be. There have been the prophecies that have said that the year 2012 will be a great turning point and it will be. And you have prophecies that have said to you that the year 2020 will be a most wondrous time to be alive and it will be.

This brings us to the most important point of tonight's message; who decides what you reality is going to be? Yes, you decide. You as the individuated energy known as personality, as individual yes, you decide what your reality is going to be, but more than that, you as the awakening Christ determine what you reality is going to be. Even the reality with the small "r". You are the one who determines all of the pieces of the jigsaw puzzle and you are the one who determines what order you are going to use to put them together in this beautiful wondrous jigsaw puzzle vision.

Others, they will give you the prophecies. Others will give you suggestions. Others already in the last two, three decades of your timing have suggested many possibilities and you have had to look upon those possibilities and ask, "Which of those possibilities are going to be probabilities? And which of those probabilities are going to become realities?" And you individually have selected certain ones of them and incorporated them into your experience in the last decade and you will carry forth a certain avenue, a certain thread of probabilities. That is what they are, probability. Which means at any moment you can change those probabilities.

In other words, if you have a certain thread of probabilities that you have been working with, does this mean that your destiny is cast in stone? No. You are dealing with probabilities and ones who do the prophecies, they will look upon probabilities and they will say, "Probably this is what is going to happen." But you as great God that you are, you are free in any moment to change those probabilities and to select another one.

There is a certain collective agreement that is working with probabilities in a certain formation which is not set in concrete but has a certain formation to it. Much as you would see the river which flows. There is a collective agreement as to probabilities as to what will become reality with a small "r".

But again, you as the individual, the individual awakening Christ which you are, as you choose a new probability you influence however subtly you believe that influence to be, you influence the course of the river. So it is not set in concrete. It is not set in stone.

Now what is important for you to grasp here in the excitement and the joy of that freedom and to set about planning, designing, choosing the probabilities that you want to see in your reality as you live upon this plane. The reality with a small "r" -- knowing that you draw that reality from the one Reality -- with a capital "R" -- the one Reality of Isness with the Father.

That is why I spoke in the beginning greeting of this evening, to claim the joy of living. Claim that gift which is yours freely, to know that you can indeed must, structure the probabilities which will become your reality. In every moment you choose the probability which you then say will become reality for you. Now having grasped that, what follows is a great sense of freedom, is it not? You are free to choose to make your own prophecy and to make it come true. You are the free to live in joy. In the probability that says, "I am the beloved of the Father. Already I have carried long enough the baggage of the past. I am complete with that. Now I will choose that which allows me to feel alive.

Dream you your dreams, please. Come alive in those dreams. Do not just live one day the same after another. To say that someone else is decreeing what my life is going to be. As long as you draw breath into the body you have the freedom and the power to say how you are going to live this life.

Choose you that which allows you to feel alive. The Father has never said unto his holy Child that you must live a life of drudgery, heaviness. The Father has never wished for you sorrow, confusion, chaos even. The Father knows only love for His holy Child. Allows you to experience your adventure yes, however you will structure that adventure. But the Father does not see and does not decree for you the heaviness that you have built into the world.

You are free now to restructure even the world. That is what is meant by transforming the world. It means to restructure your world, your reality. How do you do that? Ah, good question. First of all, what comes first? I have this so many times. What comes first. The deep breath, exactly. The pause of the deep breath. Before you will do anything remember to breathe. So often you go rushing into whatever you feel needs to be done holding the breath. Well very soon you run out of the energy don't you? Very soon you feel that you are up against the brick and wall and where do I go from here? Allow yourself to breathe first of all.

Then sit you down with a piece of paper and a pen, a pencil, a stylus, a wax tablet. Write in something perhaps a bit more lasting than the sand. You can write in the sand if you want to. But allow yourself to begin to have clarity about how you envision your reality. What you want it to look like. What you want it to feel like. Start with that first. Start with a broad view. Paint a broad picture first of all. Then begin to list what will be specific to bring about that feeling, that vision. What will you like to have as probabilities? What excites you? What makes you really feel alive? It is a question.

Sharing all of this with others.

Yes, sharing all of this with others. Coming alive in this is what I have found that really makes me feel alive. What have you found? Let us share. We will bounce this back and forth with each other. Come share the bread, the wine and the ideas. Allow the nourishment of the body yes, that is important for you are activating a body and allow the nourishment of the soul as you will bat back and forth the ideas of the Christ.

For as one will share with another the revelations of the Christ, know you what happens? There is an aliveness that is caught. It is contagious and you begin to feel and perhaps, perhaps there is something worth living for. Perhaps there something beyond this small self. Perhaps I am part of something larger. Perhaps there is a divine reason that I am here, and there is. And you begin to come alive in the Christ energy.

Now how you want to do whatever the specific is that allows you to come alive, that is for you to choose. But know that you are free to choose. It is not someone as a grand referee up there somewhere that you can't really see and you can't really get in touch with who is structuring all of the movements of your life and says you may go this far but no farther. There is no great referee up in the sky somewhere that has it all planned out for you. You are the one, you as the sense of individuality, yes, that is where it starts first, but more than that, you as the Christ Self, you are structuring the probabilities and the realities and what is the great, great goal in all of this? Is to come alive in the remembrance of the Christ Self, which is you. But you start first of all, with the individual self as you know it. In truth you can't start anywhere else. You have to start with what you know with this point of reference called the individual called you. You have to start there.

Then as you will ask for wisdom, as you will ask for enlightenment, for revelation, for inspiration it will come, it will be gifted to you for indeed nothing can be held back from the Christ Child. The inspiration will come to you and you will know yourself to be greater than just the individual. And as you get a taste of that, it is quite heady. It will go to your head. And more than that it will go to your heart and you will come alive again. Alive as the Christ once again upon this plane.

For always the Christ has been alive upon this plane but it has been put in the background, a bit forgotten if you will. As you said I want to play with a certain toy. I want to see what it would feel like to be burdened, to be the slave to certain senses, to be the slave to limited understanding. And so you have played with the playthings which you have made and you have put into the background or put upon the shelf somewhere the remembrance and now is the time you are calling it forth. You are saying, "I will take it down from the shelf now. I will begin to remember the unlimitedness of the Christ. I will listen to other's prophecy yes, because others in truth are not separate from me." And every prophecy that you hear, that you read you have called forth. None of the prophecies thrust upon you, in truth, unwillingly. In other words, you have called them forth. But not to have to deal with them from a place of fear.

You have come through that. I have watched you. You have sat with the prophecies that have spoken of great changes, great cataclysmic changes upon this plane, great changes in the topography of our Holy Mother, the Earth and you have dealt with your feelings of fear, of preservation of the body to the place where you have said, "If I have to live this way in such fear. It is not worth it." And you have chosen anew. In that moment of saying, "I give up. It is too heavy to carry. I will not deal with such doom." In that moment you made a choice for enlightenment. Yes.

You have done that. You have said, "Enough already. I do not desire to live the next few years fearing that there will be great calamity. I do not desire even to live the next day in that energy. Therefore, I will choose anew." And you have.

You have come a long ways in releasing habitual perception. That has been the purpose of the prophecies. And the purpose of the prophecies has been for you to allow yourself to look deeper. To see first of all, initial reaction then to ask for deeper meaning. The deeper meaning is always one of divinity, always one of joy, always one of love. The deeper meaning and you have chosen, you have asked to see anew.

Therefore, that is what this evening is all about. For you are the workers. You are the ones who have said, "I will come and I will assume the cloak of humanhood one more time. I will go about the worldly activities seemingly the same as the brothers and sisters. I will remember how it feels to be in a place of the belief in duality, but I will also listen to the still small voice within me. I will also speak my truth to the brothers and sisters." Now this does not mean that you have to get out the soap box and stand upon a certain platform and thump the holy Bible and say, "The truth is all within here. Or I have the truth. If you will listen to me and buy five of my tapes you have instant enlightenment."

The truth is what you live and the brothers and sisters they will understand the truth that you live far more easily than the truth which you try to give them in the words, to force them to understand. That only sets up a certain barrier. But the truth which you live that they can see.

So you have said, "I will don the cloak of humanhood one more time." You will live amongst the brothers and sisters who are awakening also and you will remember to varying degrees who you are and why you are here and you will speak of the excitement of being alive and the excitement of the coming times.

Now you may speak of the excitement of the coming times of the new millennium if you desire. It is symbolic and we will come back to that in just a moment. But you may speak of the coming time and the excitement of the next moment. For who knows - the Christ Child knows what the next revelation is going to be in the next moment. That is a coming time, is it not? The next moment? And there is great excitement in that next moment. So the coming times they do not have to be afar off.

When you speak of the excitement of the coming times, you may be speaking of the next moment of revelation and you may call it forth because you are waiting for that excitement. You are expecting it. You know it's going to happen and you feel right there with it with the excitement of it.

But you have set as a certain collective belief the symbolism of a new millennium and the value, the worth as symbolism, you have set it and said it is going to be most important. And there is an expectancy, growing expectancy that will be looking for new changes as the new millennium begins.

Now, is it going to begin on the first day of your month of January, you call it, in the year 2,000? Or is it going to start on perhaps the last day of the year 1999? Or will you wait until a certain wondrous day at perhaps mid-summer of the year 2,000?

Could that be the end of time?

Indeed it could be the end of time. Yes. And for some it will be. In this evening I say to you, this evening can be the end of time. Would you like that?

I think it would be okay.

Yes. Yes, I honor you and I applaud you for what you have just said, "I think it would be okay." For small self, ego self has not revealed that to you but the Christ of you has revealed that to you. "I think it would be okay."

I'd be happy right here.

Yes. We shall decree the end of time this evening. Yes. You do not have to carry the burden of time any farther. You may live in the present one moment, one moment, one moment, and time, let it be the taskmaster unto others but not to you. The end of time does that not feel good?

It feels really good.

Yes, as a great burden has been lifted.

How can we even imagine it though? We, with the consciousness that we have right now, how can we imagine what the end of time is?

That is exactly how you do it. You imagine it first of all and you choose each moment to live in the imagination of how would it feel to live outside of time? How would it feel live in the now moment and not to worry about what is going to happen on the morrow? Feels good doesn't it? Yes, you just took a deep breath. It feels very good.

Imagination, it is a grand gift that the holy Child has place within this reality to be used to break through the limited understanding and the limited remembrance. So it begins as we were saying earlier as you will put together your probabilities and your realities, you start with imagination. You start with imagining how would it feel to live in a place where I see everyone in love? No matter what their face may look like even if they are scowling at me. Maybe the words are coming out that sound really, really bad, great intense energy. And I look at them and I just smile with an ease of love. How would it feel to live in that space of great love? And you imagine it. How does it feel to live in that space of knowing that I am loved no matter what I do or what I don't do? No matter whether I get up at a certain time, whether I read the right books, whether I eat the right food, whether I comb the hair a certain way, whatever, the freedom. No matter how would it feel to live in great self-love? To know that you are the most wonderful creation of the Father, and you are just as you are. Imagine that feeling. Live in that space and then what comes, what comes is a certain sense that you must share it with others.

For indeed the smile comes on the face, the love light comes in the eyes and it has to be shared because you cannot keep it within. No way can you keep it within. Imagine your probabilities. Try them on for size. See how those probabilities feel. How you want to structure the reality of what you see the new millennium to be.

And as we have already spoken, you don't have to wait for the new millennium. You can do it here and now in this now moment. But for many of you, you will want to attach a certain significance to the year, the special year as you call it, that is coming.

So play with you probabilities, play with what you want to see it to be. Take off all of the limitations and restrictions. When the ego speaks to you and says, "But I don't have enough money to do that." Say, "Well, maybe I don't need money. Maybe it will happen another way. I'm going to put it here in my probabilities anyway and I'm going to play with how it feels to be unlimited."

Do you want to experience more of the brothers and sisters love? Do you want to experience more of the beauty of our Holy Mother, the Earth? Do you want to know what others half way around the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth, what they are feeling, how they are living? Yes. Do you want to go there perhaps? Do you want to invite them to come and share your dwelling place for a time?

All of that is quite possible. In fact I would exhort you, I would say to you, take off the limitation of saying, "I do not have the golden coins to make trek unto certain places." And go.

For indeed, what you will decree that you will do, the needs that need to be supplied for that, that will come. Whatever you need you will make the miracles, seemingly, that allow you to experience what you have decreed. I would suggest to you that you allow the expansion of what you have felt your world to be, what you have felt your experience could be in this lifetime. If you desire to build the most beautiful temple unto the one God and to place it somewhere and I know this is a vision that has been held by some of you. Put that within your probabilities. Put that as a specific and then see how, how you as the Christ Child will then bring about what it needed to make that manifest.

Build the most beautiful temple unto the one God and then remember that your life, that is the greatest temple that you are building. Your remembrance and the way you are living that remembrance, it is the greatest temple unto the one God.

But if you desire to be surrounded by what you see as the beauties, the treasures of our Holy Mother, the Earth there is nothing wrong in that. If you desire to bring forth a physical structure that will house within it the treasures, who says that can't be? Small ego, the voice of others perhaps. Not the voice of the Christ Child. The Christ Child knows it is unlimited.

If you desire to build the most wonderful gathering place where ones will come to know, to share, to revel in the joy of being then get you busy building it. What is to hold you back? In truth already you have begun building it. For there is the desire within the heart and there are the ideas within the mind. Already you have begun the process. It will happen as you decree.

Whatever allows you to come truly alive that is what to go for. For the Father desires that you awaken. The Father does not say that you have to do it in a specific fashion. The Father does not say that you have to go to the Presbyterian Church for five years and you have to put $500 dollars in the offering every week and that you have to give alms to the poor, and that you have to read x amount of holy books and that you have to listen to certain tapes. The Father doesn't say any of that. Maybe some of the brothers and sisters would say some of that to you. But the Father does not.

The Father only asks with great, great patience for He is outside of time, that you awaken in the joy of knowing the Christ Self. The Father, the one Source, the Is-ness of your Being from before time began, knows you to be unlimited energy. Dynamic radiant energy which has been characterized as light, but even that defines what cannot be defined. The Father knows you as great, dynamic, expansive Being and desires only that. In some point in time, as you will decree it, you fully realize it and pop yourself out of time.

One of the ways in which you can do this is by playing with the structuring of probabilities and realities that excite you. That is why we speak of it in this evening. It is an avenue. A very good one, it is a fun one.

You were not thrust here in order to learn, to suffer, to pay back anything. You chose to come to this reality one more time to activate a body, free choice, and now you are choosing that that reality not be heavy.

Allow yourself in the structuring, divisioning of the probabilities the call forth others who also desire to live in that energy, that space of love and joy of being. For indeed that will augment and increase your remembrance and your awareness.

Now you do not have to have others in order to do this. You have come Home in enlightenment several lifetimes by being in a cave all by yourself, by being upon the mountaintop where others said that no body could survive and yet you have and you knew the light and the warmth of the Christ light and you nourished the body with the Christ light. And you have come Home all on your own, as it were.

But in this day and time there is a voice that is calling to you. It is the voice of the brothers and sisters, the awakening voice. So as you remember the enlightenment that you know so well, allow it to be spoken to others to encourage them. To ignite a spark within them and seek you out now in what feels to you the beginning of this acceleration of the Christ energy. Already it has begun, but it is accelerating. Allow yourself to seek out others who also want to live in that space of dynamic Christ energy, and it will be fun. As we have said, it is not something you have to do but it is something you have agreed to do.

Even amidst the activities of the world, especially amidst the activities of the world, allow yourself time, outside of time, to nurture and remember the peace within. Go often to the place of silence within. Even though the world be chattering about you, return often to the place of silence within.

Breathe deeply of the golden white light and remember your connection in that sacred place, that place of silence of the heart and then speak from the place of love, the place of silence, the place of joy and you will find that your cup runneth over. It will be so full that others will need to drink from it. They will be attracted to it and they will be nourished by it, and you will bring forth the most wondrous of times which shall be a present time. A gift, if you will.

Begin now to vision what you will bring forth in the new millennium. Go within to that place of silence within the heart. Right now take a deep breath and allow yourself to feel what you want to carry with you into the new millennium. Visualize how it will feel. Visualize what it will look like. How others will look. Visualize the welcoming for indeed you are the ones who will extend welcome and you are the ones who will receive a welcome.

Go deep within that feeling of visualization, that feeling that knows great unlimited peace, unlimited love, expansive, excitement. For surely what you will manifest comes out of that excitement. How does it feel to know the Christ alive in the new millennium? What will the Christ be doing? You can have it. You can have it all.

Play. Play with being unlimited. Claim your Christhood. Claim your divine birthright of unlimited creativity which is always been yours. Now turn it to the probabilities and reality that you desire for the power is yours. It is time.

So be it.
