Jeshua Speaks About: YOUR GOD IS TOO SMALL

MAY 2022

Beloved one, when I first began speaking with you, seemingly so long ago, I told you the Truth of your being. I said to you that you are a great ray of Light. Feel it, know it, immerse yourself in the Truth of your being. Immerse yourself in the place of wholeness, of holiness.

Your words, beloved one, are clues. Your words speak to you of the Allness of your being. You are the wholeness of the holy spirit walking on two feet, sometimes in the wheeled chair, going amongst the brothers and sisters allowing your Light to be seen and to be shared, turning on other ones' lights when you make what is called the funny and they laugh at it: their Light goes up in amplitude; it can be measured. And you can see as you are getting more and more into whatever that is Awakened nature, the Light is higher in intensity.

Allow yourself—I have spoken to you many times of this—to go out and get the funny book, the book that is of the funny stories that have at the end a certain humorous line, and allow the smile to come forth. The energy of you as you get into feeling happy and you open the cells of the body and allow your Light to come into full radiance can be measured. This can be seen, and it definitely can be felt.

So get yourself the little joke book and start your day with a smile. It has often been said to start your day with a pious thought entreating the Father above. Now, the Father is not above; the Father is within and streaming forth from you always. Start the day with something that is upbeat.

Now, yes, I know that maybe the day before when you put the head upon the pillow you had many thoughts that were the heavies, as you call them. And maybe there were problems that you had to solve. But start off the day with something light, humorous, funny. If nothing else, give yourself the tickles.

“Jeshua, that is the most stupid thing I’ve heard anybody say; start off the day by tickling myself? Yes, that would make me laugh, because it would be so stupid.” Yes, that is what life is all about: finding the humor in it, finding the love to share with ones, and having a good break fast, breakfast of whatever allows the body to be happy.

Allow yourself to find the joy in every day. A wise one has said, “Look for the humor.” Feel that you are the radiant one living a life that can be from time to time challenging, but even the challenging times have their humor. And then you get to a point where you

HAPPY MOTHER’S DAY

This month we will be hearing from Mother Mary: She is always present (as there is no separation), but we do not always have the opportunity to hear her in an actual voice (mine). She is always happy to “get out” and speak with us her Love.

In this time of world conflicts and actions coming from seeming non-Love, she will be, once again, the Presence of Love and Hope, which humanity is calling for. You are invited to meet with us on Zoom or at my house in Sequim and experience Her comforting words.

The recent Easter Intensive was a time of renewal and inspiration as Jeshua took us through the experiences of what has become known as Holy Week. We experienced again The Last Supper and the camaraderie with His disciples, the meaning of the Crucifixion, In the Tomb (with a beautiful meditation by the Rev. Kimberly Marooney), and the Arisen Christ on Easter Sunday. Recordings are available on our website, www.oakbridgeuniversity.org. Each day of the Intensive we enjoyed the upbeat music of BA Huffman—thank you, B.A.!

Now we are looking forward to our yearly Advance in July, our annual week of renewal with Jeshua and Family (with at least one session on the mountain at Hurricane Ridge). Stay tuned for more details.

can step outside of the heaviness and look at it and say, "Okay, Jeshua says there has to be humor in everything. I'm looking, I'm looking...oh, I dropped my monocle."

You see, years and years ago—lifetimes ago—that was your aid, being able to see the fine print and know what you were signing. Have any of you ever signed something on the fine print line and then wondered, "Did I really mean to sign that?" Ah, read the fine print. It says that you are a great ray of Light, bringing together in each moment your reality, the Reality of the Light that you are.

Now, beloved one, I have heard much in this day and time about God. You have your ones who stand up and say, "God tells me such and such, and it is written in the holy book," and they read to you from the holy book, which contains some clues of Truth. The words are not all the Truth, but are meant to be as catalyst for your own thinking and your own revelation, where you will say, "Well, that's probably only just part of it. I have a feeling that that is just a teaser." And this is true.

Now, I am not putting down your holy Scriptures. There is much of Truth, much of revelation in your holy writings, but they are not the Allness. The Allness is left to you to find within yourself and to say, "Oh, is that the clue? Oh, my, you mean I'm more than what I ever thought I was? More than what the parents and the coworkers have agreed that I might be? Even more? What more can there be?"

In Truth, beloved one, you are the one who is manifesting the life experience. There have been many lifetimes when you have felt held back. But you are coming to the understanding and the realization—making real in your experience—that you are the maker of that which you experience. If you do not like that which you are experiencing, you can change it. You are never in a place where you cannot make a redo.

We spoke some time ago about healing and how it is always available to you to do the healing of the body. Sometimes it will take longer. Sometimes it can be instantaneous. Those instantaneous times seem like a miracle because it happens so quickly. The others take a bit longer, and perhaps you have a bit of the medical help. It takes a bit longer, but it comes through and you get a new replacement part or you get a certain healing that you do on your own and you say, "I didn't know I could do that."

Well, of course, you can. You are the one from the very instant when the mother and father cells come together and a new life, as you call it, a new form is in the works; you are the one who has, out of the vast universe of Thought—capital "T"—decreed that you are going to manifest and enjoy—be in joy with—that manifestation. No matter how it looks, no matter how it acts, it is wonderful; full of wonder.

How did you do that miracle: to bring the two tiny cells together in a certain explosion of life and then allow it to develop, the same as you do with your film when you are taking a picture and you develop it. This is what you do with your life. You develop it as it goes along. And if you do not like it, you take another picture, called a diet perhaps, exercise, and a certain change in thinking.

You are living your lifetime making decisions as you go along. You think that perhaps you have to follow a certain pattern, that you come with a certain listing of what you can perform, what you can do, and then you get around to changing all that which seems to be already programmed and each day is a new day. That is why each morning you can wake up and claim to yourself, "This is going to be a day of miracles. Everything that I look upon is going to be a miracle." And it will be, because you have decreed.

Now, where does the energy come from to make a new day? Where does the energy come from, the spiritual energy as you are devising and bringing together, developing a spirit body? It comes from the Allness of you, from the God Self of you.

You do it by being, by thanking, by rejoicing, being again in joy—re-joyce—being in that place of saying, "What a miracle I am, even if I cannot move from the prone position." You are a miracle; a living, breathing miracle. Allow yourself to feel the energy of spirit moving through you; yes, with a deep breath. Know that your God, the Christ Self of you, is more than anything you have been taught in this lifetime.

Now, other lifetimes you have known that spirit of you. Other lifetimes, beloved one, you have been the adventurer, the space explorer, the one who lived on a far, far away planet; not even in this circle of planets; not in this galaxy.

"Oh, you've been reading too many science fiction books, Jeshua." Well, yes, and they are fun, but they are also a truth. Why do you get so excited when you watch a certain space odyssey? Because it knocks upon the door of remembrance. This is not the only planet you have ever lived on. This is not the only lifetime you have ever had. I'm sorry if this is going against teachings that you have grown up with, but it is time that you at least had a clue about your Allness—capital "A", because it is spiritual. It is a clue.

This is not the one and only planet. You had kind of a thinking about that, and when you thought about it, you thought, "Well, this is all that I've studied in school. This is all that I've been told. But I really get excited when I watch some of the science fiction stories about a space odyssey somewhere, a space journey, another lifetime where I was Captain Kirk and I knew all of how to steer the ship in between all of the other wonderful stars. Jeshua, did I really do that?"

Yes, you did really do that. "Well, you know, that would take lifetimes; many, many years, and this body... well, I'll be lucky if I get what...70, 80, maybe to 100 years with this body, but you know, if I did that space travel, I'd have to be several hundred years old to get across all of the galaxies." Think you that you could not do that? If you can imagine it, you have done it. Not only if you can imagine you will do it; you have done it.

Ideas that come to you, where did they come from? "Well, I don't know. Maybe somebody gave me a hint, and maybe it seemed like a good story and I got excited about it." It comes out of the vast well of lifetime experiences on other planets. “Oh, really?” Yes. Even in this encapsulated history that you are living, there are hints when you read or experience on your square box the other space travels. Know you how excited you got when you watched Captain Kirk and he was traveling in galaxies between one galaxy and another and all this space travel and what could be? And you say, “Yes, but my lifetime is not that long. I mean, that would have to be lifetimes.” Or the reality of a longer lifetime, right?

When I was teaching my younger brothers and sisters... Yes, I had brothers and sisters. Were they physical? Yes. Were they of the same parents’ DNA? Yes. Every birth is a miracle. So yes, I had a miracle birth, but so did you.

Every physical birth is a miracle, and even more so when there is a birth in spirit where you recognize and claim, “I am the Christ being born anew,” and that, beloved one, can happen anytime, anywhere, any lifetime when you come to the place where you recognize the Truth of your being. And in that moment, with the photography that your science can do now, you would see the effulgence of Light that you are.

When I was talking to my brothers and sisters of the family and wanting to explain the Source of being, I likened it unto a father. Now, in Truth, the Source of your being is not a father/mother/etc. It is an energy of Isness, an energy of miraculous insight, of knowing, revelatory, knowing the seed of energy of Thought that is being birthed oftentimes into physicality, but not always. You are the Thought—capital “T”—for the spirit—of the Source—capital “S”.

Now, to explain to you the Source—capital “S”—is impossible, because you have been so trained to think in physical form that it is a bit difficult to explain the Energy—capital “E”—of Spirit which remakes Itself time after time into different form, into different venue.

There have been intervals of life—call them lifetimes if you want to—where you have been on the spaceship. You have been born on the spaceship. You lived your whole life on the spaceship. And you repeated this many times so that you were the journey person. Many lifetimes you were the Captain Kirk, the commander, because you understood how to move the spaceship, how to direct it where you had been before.

Do you know that there are maps of space extant even in this day that you as the spark of Intelligence right now, right here, have to expand your thinking to acknowledge? There are lifetimes that you have had in space, many lifetimes. That is why when you watch it on your square box, you say, “Oh, wow, that’s exciting. Yes, I can see myself being on the spaceship; sure.” Well, of course, you can. You have devised the spaceship. You have brought it into being. You have taken physicality. Some other lifetimes you did not need the physicality; you went with Thought.

In some ways it was more fun, because there were places and ideas that you could develop, places and ideas which have come through what ones are writing now as fiction, as stories, science fiction they call it. And sometimes they get to be dramatized on your square box or on the big screen, and you say, “Wow, that’s really exciting. You know, when the hero was in that tight place with the other spaceship that was coming to dock on the big spaceship and I didn’t think they were going to make contact and it was going to be lost in outer space forever and ever, oh, I held my breath.” Well, of course, you did. Did you really experience that? Yes; otherwise, it would not come and be within your consciousness even as a story. That is how awesome you are.

Now, when I spoke of the Father I said that message at a day and time when the father was the one responsible for the family unit; the physicality, yes, but also for providing for the family unit, and also the one who put forth the rules of being, how you were going to be in the family.

But the Father God is not only a father. It is much more than that. It is along the lines of your science fiction, and yet more than that. It is the Source of your being in the Allness of spirit which cannot be defined. “Oh, my God, Jeshua, it can’t be this. How am I going to play with it if I can’t define it?”

Well, you just do your best. Why did you build in the aspect of imagination if it was not to play with? You put in certain hints which pop up from time to time. You think, “Hey, play with this one. Where does this one take you?” Imagine if you lived before the Earth experience. “Oh, gosh almighty, you mean I might have had a lifetime on Venus?” Yes, you could have. “A lifetime outside of this solar system?” Sure. “You mean far, far away; a long, long time ago?” Okay, yes. You are starting to get it. I think you are going to get it. Well, did you get it?

You are forever; forever in time and outside of time. “But Jeshua, I don’t like to think about that, because then I feel like I’m lost.” Okay, don’t think about it. Nowhere does it say that you have to. But if you want to, you have the beginnings of some clues with the dramatizations that are exciting.

“Wow, you mean Captain Kirk is real?” Sure, and more. You have a saying in one of your advertisements that, “It is all this, and more.” Definitely. Where do you think these very wise sayings come from? Out of the recesses of the mind, which is more than just the temporary human mind; out of the recesses of memory. All this, and more.

“Wow, that’s more than I can understand, Jeshua.” Yes, and that is why your holy Fathers down through the ages have not given you all the information. They have given you as much as they thought you could handle. Now, in Truth, you can handle much more than what they have given you, but they think that they are the drama writers and this is all you can handle, so therefore you go through certain steps of understanding.

And if you are very good and you know how to recite all of the words, then you will go to heaven. Is heaven up there? “Well, I guess.” Or is heaven down there? “Well, it could be down there, I suppose. Who is to judge?” Aha, the beginning of wisdom. Who is to judge? You are.

Everything that comes within your understanding, your knowing, your awareness, you name it, you give it a certain attribute, you say that it has certain qualities; this is.... And then your holy Fathers, who said that they knew best, said, “Well, that’s all there is. It’s written in this holy book, and nothing outside of this holy book is true, but everything inside of this holy book is true, so you had better learn your catechism; you’d better learn all of the holy words; you have to learn who is your big teacher, and you have to worship the Christ.”

Now, what is the Christ? Then you get into all of the explanations, the tomes of writing that have explained the Holy One. And then because there are so many writings about it, you had to ask the learned ones to please come forth and explain what is really true. Which book is really true? Which version of the book is really true?

“Oh, my God.” Yes, that is Who you have to go to: the God within you. You, beloved one, are not limited by any definition. Because once you have a definition, it has set itself into a certain encapsulated form; but you are that, and more.

Take as much as feels peaceful, feels right, feels exciting. “Well, okay, maybe I can play with the idea that I came here on a spaceship a long time ago; far, far away. Okay, I can go that far. That’s okay. Hmm, it certainly does change how I feel about every day, because if I have that much history behind me, that means that when the boss gets upset with me and says I am just a picky little person, maybe I’m more than that.” The beginning of wisdom. Yes, you are more than that.

Your God is not contained in any definition, because It, the power of the God Self which cannot be contained, is forever changing, forever a current, if you want to liken it to your electricity, a current of spiritual possibility.

“I don’t think I can handle that, Jeshua. That’s too much. I think I’ll just stay with what I’ve been told.” Okay, it does not matter. You are going to live the true Spirit that you are, that you are living, in any case by whatever definition someone else wants to give you. You are still going to be the wondrous Holy Spirit that you are, forever expressing, forever enjoying, forever being past the understanding of time and form.

“Oh, well, that’s kind of fun. You mean I’m much more than I’ve been told that I am?” Oh, yes, but do not let it bother your little mind. Breathe into the mind the holy spirit of All that you are, have been, can be, will be, forever the spirit of Love going forth.

Why do I say Love? Know you the feeling of love? When you are in the feeling of love, there is an expansion, an energy of expansion which is tapping into your true nature. And if you are forever expanding... “Uh, how far can I expand, Jeshua?” It does not have limits. “Oh, well, then I’m going to feel...lost?” No, you are going to feel expansive. You are going to know the Christ nature of you. And the God of your being cannot be defined, cannot be encapsulated, cannot even be put into the greatest cloud of knowing, because the God of your being is forever remaking Itself.

You do not have to worry your little self about it, just be happy, because there is an energy of Love which loves you, and you have meaning and value in the Allness of God.

Contemplate. Breathe. Be.

So be it.

EXPERIENCE OF KATIE DENNHARDT OF CHILLIWACK, B.C., CANADA

On our last visit of Diving Deeper with Jeshua, we were asked to let you know how Jeshua affects our daily lives or how the daily messages we receive in the email affect us. The message of 4/5/2022 regarding the mirrored ball that has many facets has an undeniable impact on me personally. As we know, the words we hear or read may not be the same as for others, as we each receive that which is meant exactly for us in each moment; however, could there have been any more perfect words for me than in this daily message?

"Know you the beautiful mirrored ball that sometimes you have in your dance halls? Great mirrored ball that has the facets. The disco ball has many, many facets that reflect the light, and beautiful they are. You are as a most beautiful disco ball. But the light is not a reflected light. The light comes from within. In one lifetime you see yourself to be one of those facets, and the brothers and sisters are as the other facets all around. You are One." Jeshua

I had been blessed with a silver disco ball recently from a homeless couple, as I had always told this story almost identical to Jeshua's words, and to have the Disco ball only amplified this amazing message. It hangs on my balcony sending the spectrum of dancing glistening fractals both inside my living area as well as for all to see upon my balcony.

I have a picture of Jeshua that hangs above my computer where I look into his eyes as I read my daily message every night before I go to bed. The nightly message is my sleeping aid at the same time, and having both together gives me a peaceful night's sleep. I felt the overwhelming desire to write to you to let you know that with all these beautiful signs being shown to me on this day, Jeshua has chosen something within my material living space to get his message to me that he sees me as I AM and is truly with me here and now.

Here is the story of the "Dance Hall Disco Ball" as given to me:

As the disco ball spun within the darkened dance hall, mesmerizing people with its mystery of light, fractals came loose over time and dropped away. Each fractal went on to experiences depending on where they landed, with each happening being so different and never two the same. Some had wonderful times with brightness and laughter wherever they ended up, while other fractals were thrown into dark cold drawers only to be left and forgotten.

When it came time that the disco ball seemingly lost its luster of light and needed to be returned to its original creation of Oneness, all fractals were again returned to their divine placement. With each came diverse adventures to treat the identically mirrored reflections, to experiences offered by each counter fractal. The beautiful disco ball, after holding space, gained the stories of its reason for existing to experience all there is by the fractals it was made up of, melding again into the Oneness they always were.

The Moral to the story: I AM YOU, YOU ARE ME, JUST WITH DIFFERENT GIFTS TO SEE!

JESHUA Q&A

MULTI-FACETED REALITY

I have read that at the time I am expressing this physical body I am also expressing on many, many different levels. And I have been told that I have a spirit guide who is perhaps named something. I also am expressing in some dimension as perhaps someone else's spirit guide, so they could be going to someone and getting a painting and the painting shows up to be me, and the person says, "Yes, you have a spirit guide and her name is Joyce."

Yes, how wonderful. This is very true. Full of wonder, yes. That is happening, for as you would be focusing upon this reality—small "r"—and identifying as a certain personality and moving with a certain body and having certain activities, and you call upon what seems to be something beyond yourself and you identify that as a spirit guide, an angel, a guardian angel, whatever name you want to call it, you are also serving in that capacity for many others in what you identify in this point of focus as being other dimensions.

You are very busy and you are unlimited. But you have practiced so well the specific point of focus that it is quite a miracle what you do that you keep it so focused that you do not have a certain jumble of all of the dimensions and all of the experiences going on at the same time.

Now, there are some of the brothers and sisters who are a bit more unfocused with it, and you collectively as brothers and sisters have agreed that you will have very specific focus. You judge the other brothers and sisters to be a bit far out, weird, strange; they do not fit in, they are having problems, whatever.

But know you that in their experience of you, you are doing the same thing somewhere else and you are being looked upon by brothers and sisters of what you call other dimensions and they are saying, "That one is far out." Well, they say that of you now, anyway. You are not limited and you are not separate.

Jeshua, if this is really going on now, then there really isn't such a thing as reincarnation?

That is true.

Are there multi-incarnations or is there...?

In Truth, there is but one: one holy Child, one adventure, and one part of the adventure identifies itself as incarnating, and within that one part that says there will be the experience of incarnation, there are yet levels of incarnation called reincarnation. Do you see how complex it gets? But in Truth, there is but one.

And that's really what Seth was touching on in his teaching?

Yes. And when you get tired of thinking about all of it, go back to the vibrations of the tone and just be at peace.

UNICORNS?

Where the heck are the unicorns?

Ah, this is for you to tell me. This moment they are just beyond the fingertips, just beyond what you call reality, and yet they stand on the threshold of this reality waiting to be seen again in manifest form. You have known them well. You have called them forth. You have played with them. You have been the activating force of the unicorn form many, many times. You know the playful nature. You know the wisdom.

Even in time that is called Biblical they existed, were believed in, were written about. The focus has changed in what you would see as the last two centuries by divine design, because there was a certain desire to know density, to know specificity, so things more of a light nature, more playful nature were put on the shelf, so to speak.

They are very much here on the island of Maui. They are very much just beyond the corner of the eye. You can almost see them, and sometimes you do see them. Sometimes you say there is a shape, and you will say to others, "See?" And they can, almost. Keep believing. Keep calling them forth, because they are part of the atonement. They are part of bringing back into your awareness all of the aspects of the expression of the holy Child. For you are not separate from them. It is an aspect of Self, and you know them well.

But are they true?

They are as true as what you see your personality, your individuality to be. They are within the adventure. They are True—capital "T"—as the creative energy that you are. They are from the same one Source.

Then when?

That is for you to tell me. I see them. I play with them. I speak with them. I know them. I know other forms that you have yet to remember. But I will say to you that it is going to be very soon for you, because it is a very strong desire.

Much of you already goes in a playful nature. You have a duality which is most common with all of the brothers and sisters, that you know the spirit of you, you know the playfulness of you, and yet you also know the calling of the world to have a certain seriousness and a responsibility to the world. And you do well in trying to bridge the two of them. You do not like doing that. You would rather be done with the bridging and with the duality, because in Truth you remember there is only Oneness and there is no necessity for bridging. But there is yet within this point of focus a belief that there is necessity for bridging.

Keep believing. It is very soon.
