Jeshua Speaks: You Are a Synapse in the Mind of God

JULY 2022

Beloved one, long enough have you dwelt in the darkness, long enough you have cried out to me and said, "Where are you? Where am I? What are we doing?" because you have felt My presence, and you have looked high and low, to find me. And all the time, beloved one, I have been right with you, within you, at the right side, at the left side, behind you, and in front of you. Always, Beloved one, we go as one. Allow yourself to feel at ease. Allow yourself to allow the body to breathe. A deep breath, a deep, relaxing breath, for in that space of peace, we know the presence of One, the presence of the divine holy Child, Mother/Father/God, All That Is. No separation -- but One.

I would speak with you now about the Mind of God. There has been much said and written about the Mind of God in various tomes of books of history which you have studied, and ones have said, "God is ..." and then there is a long definition depending on how the person who was writing it, how they felt together or separate. And you have said, "God must be worshipped somehow. There must be an overseeing Presence Which brought all of this together." "I certainly don't know how to bring all of this together," you say, "so it must be a God outside of me that I can pray to and beseech -- that perhaps this God, all powerful, will look with favor upon me and make my life easy. If I have an ache in the body, perhaps this God Almighty will take care of that. Or if I have an ache in my business dealings, perhaps I can pray to the God and He will make it all right."

Now, in Truth, beloved one, it is already all right. You are bringing everything up in front of you to see, "What do you think of this?" And I have said to you many times down through the years, count it all as good. Whatever comes to the mind, count it as a blessing. Know that, truly, you will walk in favor with your God. This has to be -- because there is no separation, because you are the favored one of your Father/Mother/God/All that is.

So, stop for a moment if you are into a certain feeling of turmoil -- perhaps everything seems to be going wrong in the day. Stop, breathe, acknowledge that Love is at work, right where you are. You are Love. Allow yourself to extend it, first of all to anyone and everyone that you see, everyone that you interact with, even the four-footed ones, especially the four-footed ones. And the two-footed ones, the winged ones, the ones that

Freedom

In this month when we celebrate our nation's freedom, seemingly so long ago, I am reminded of one of Jeshua's recent Daily Messages:

You have willingness now to expand beyond what you have seen individual self to be. It is a releasing of an old image of who you have thought yourself to be and what reality could be, and it moves you into a place of new understanding.—Jeshua

In our search for new understanding we make for ourselves many tools for remembering Who we are and what Reality Is. One of those tools is our coming together in a more intensive gathering with each other and with Jeshua. One of those times is our Summer Advance with Jeshua and Family. For a special week we come together in person or through technology to ask and receive new information and direction to the Allness of our Reality and our Godself.

This year's Advance is coming soon this month: Sunday, July 17th through Friday, the 22nd, in person in Port Angeles, Washington, and over Zoom. See the enclosed flyer for more information. Jeshua welcomes you and hints that "You are now ready for the truly Advanced teaching: the Reality of Who you Are and have Always Been." See you at the Mountain.

swim in the water, all of your examples of life, all of the forms that you can think of, and myriad they are: many, many forms. Look upon them as blessings, extensions of the One that you are, of the One/capital "O."

Know that truly everything that you behold is there because you have foreordained that it will come into your consciousness. And there is much that does not come into your consciousness. But that which does, bless it. Call it good because it is; call it helpful because it is; call it a blessing because it is.

Everyone, no matter how terrible their choices seem to be, is searching and coming Home. So, you bless them on their Journey. And if they are into a place that does not feel peaceful, you do not have to stay there. You can bless them from a distance. "Oh, you mean I don't have to make everything right?" No. Look deeper and see everything right. See that everything that seems to be so hurtful is a cry for help. See that every time there is anger it is because it is a short sighted, limited vision/view of what is going on.

Look for the love, extend love and if it does not seem to be accepted, keep on loving them. And you can walk away. You do not have to stay there and have all of the rain of anger coming down on top of you. You can walk away and love them from a distance. Nothing wrong with that. Allow yourself to be at peace. Because, as you will understand, it does not do any good to stand there and to be into anger and hurtful and feeding it back to someone who seemingly is giving you a piece of their mind that is not happy. It does not do any healing to be throwing it back at them. So, love them, breathe deeply, and walk on.

Send them a blessing as you walk. And in time -- and it may be another lifetime -- even they will come to the place of understanding that, "Hey, everything has brought me to this place where I know the oneness of love." Now, it may not be this lifetime; sometimes ones are very creative, and they want to experience everything. You have heard ones say this. And so, they will delve into this, and they will delve into that, and they will shout to the heavens. And after they get tired of shouting, they stop for a moment for that deep breath, and there is peace. Count everything as good because everything is leading to that place, that place that says I AM. Full stop period. I AM.

Love awaits your welcome. When you stop for a moment or so, say, "Please, I want to feel love." So many of your brothers and sisters walking the Earth at this time are calling out for love, for forgiveness, because they feel that they were born in sin. You even have a teaching that says that which brings about the union of the sperm and egg, as you understand the physiology, is a sin. You, as the man, you took this woman and you did something to her, and now she has to deal with it. In Truth, it is a gift that the two of you are making. Allow yourself a deep breath and to say, "Thank you." It is a miracle which happens.

So, when you get into the space of love, into the space of appreciation -- great, great appreciation -- there is a knowing of God working through you. Working as you much more than what you have acknowledged that you are. Your piece of understanding of who and what you are is tiny. And all of the rest is you. Every bit of everything you experience is right there saying to you, "Behold, I make all things new. Behold, I make things as they are: holy. Behold and come Home".

Allow yourself to celebrate That Which you are. For so long, you have only accepted a very small piece of the Allness of you. But you are much more than the pieces; put them all together. Breathe. Know. Love. Love thyself. And in that space, you will come Home and surprise yourself.

I know That Which you are. I knew, as the small one in my lifetime, that there was much more to me than just the part which was ostensible. And I tested it out; you can do this, too. And I asked, "Show me." I said this to the Allness out of which I believed I had made my existence, my part in it. I knew that truly there was a miracle happening that I could be upon the Earth, that I could be activating the form.

If you have a form, is that not a miracle? And even if you do not have a form, you have a consciousness. "Hmm, I never thought about that part of it, Jeshua. You mean something that we would identify as being only spirit is still a miracle?" Yes. "I'll have to think about that." Well, I hope you do.

Realize, make real in your consciousness, the Allness of you. Know that truly you are a walking, moving, breathing, thinking miracle. And where does that come from? It is the Godself of you which goes beyond human form, and you can tap into it any time. It does not matter if you have lived 1001 lifetimes. It does not matter if you have lived only one lifetime. It does not matter if you have the athletic form, or if you have a body that is barely functioning. You, the essence of you, is the Christ spirit. Get in touch with that.

I would suggest what sometimes might work for you is to get in touch with the tones of the music. You have some music which is played in your holy temples at a GREAT volume. It starts perhaps slowly, and it gains spirit. It gains more and more strength until there is a CRESCENDO -- and you are one with that crescendo. You have now the technology where you can play over and over the music which will transport you. Play the music and get really into it. And realize -- make real in your awareness -- that if you are feeling -- and you will be feeling something -- it is the Godself of you Which wants to be acknowledged, Which wants to be felt.

That great crescendo: make it One with you. Play some music -- music that would/does stir the heart -- and get right into it. Where does that energy come from? It comes from the Godself of you. It is you in true Essence. "Oh, really? That means I'm a little bit more than what I've thought myself to be?" Yes! Please accept it. Put on the music. Feel yourself to be one with it. And when it reaches that crescendo, allow yourself to sing!

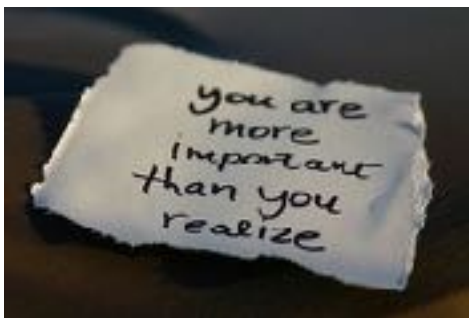

"Oh, I can't do that. What if somebody hears me?" Try it. You'll like it. Then if there is a knock on the door and somebody says, "Can you turn that down a bit?" you will say, "No, I can't. That's the Godself of me." You will have fun with it.

Allow yourself to release the limits. Allow yourself to come truly awake as the spirit which activates the body, as the spirit which activates the thoughts, the feelings that are you. Allow yourself to know that you are much more than what you have been taught, much more than what you have read in a book somewhere. You are all that and more.

Know that truly you are the God energy activating a form which reads these words, which allows the energy of the emotion to rise up within you and to say, "Hey, maybe, maybe I am more than what I have thought myself to be. If Jeshua can love me, there must be something here." And that is true.

Please; I love That Which you are. Take that to heart. Know that truly I see you as you are -- the Divine One, the energy which is forever going forward, always expressing the divine Energy even when you are in the most upsetting mood: you are still and always will be, always have been, the Divine Self.

Know that truly. You will walk; even the miracle that you can walk, even the miracle that you breathe. Take that deep breath, the energizing breath, the healing breath. Allow yourself to come Home in that one breath. It is as simple as that. Know that you are expressing the divinity of you in every thought, every movement, every knowing. That is how powerful, how divine you are.

For eons of time, you have thought yourself to be a nothing, a small bit that, "Maybe if I say the right words, and I pray the right prayer, maybe God -- somewhere outside there -- will love me." Well, this is True. But you have a saying in your world: "And there is more."

So often, messages come to you, in seemingly small ways on your square box. "And there is more." Well, yes. Where do you think even that thought came from? You are the expression of God, the Energy, even on a physical level, which is allowing you to bring forth the molecules of the body, and to walk forward as a physical movement, but also as a movement which acknowledges, "I am going forward in my thinking, my belief, my understanding; I have been searching. And once in a while I kind of get an answer, and that feels good...." I give you top marks for that, but there is more.

Allow yourself to come Home in the more-ness of you. Know, that the form that you are, is a form that truly you have and bring in every moment. Every moment you are revitalizing the form. And if in the next moment, you did not acknowledge the form, it would not be. Where would it go? Into the nothingness out of which you have brought it into your awareness -- the cloud of knowing, the Cloud of Unknowing quite often.

You are in the flow of God energy, all of the time. You are the connections of energy, bringing it into your awareness, into form if it need be in form. You are, as it is called the synapse, the connection of God energy. You do this without knowing that you do it. And yet it would not be, you would not be, if you were not already Divine, bringing in the energy of wholeness, of Allness, of divinity.

Allow yourself to come Home in that energy. Realize you are the God connection -- the synapse of the Energy -- on this plane of reality. Play some very moving music and allow yourself to get into the feeling, the rising up of the energy of the music and the rising up of Energy within you. Recognize that you are the Synapse of the God Energy on this plane of expression.

You are of the Father; you are made of God stuff. Otherwise, you would not be. Allow yourself to feel that Energy and to be healed: brought into the place of Wholeness where you realize, you make real in your awareness, That Which you are.

Beloved one, you are so loved. For God so loved you, He has brought you to this place of acknowledgment that, "I am in the Mind of God. Otherwise, I would not be -- and I certainly am. Maybe I am more than what I ever thought myself to be. I am in the flow of God Mind. I am the synapse of God between Heaven and Earth."

Come Home, beloved one. Sit down at table with me. Talk to me. Walk with me. You are the Beloved of the Father.

So be it.
