Jeshua Speaks: Teachers of God

The following was first published in Vol. 2 of the Jeshua The Personal Christ Series of Books

Beloved one, in the time of miracles dawning now upon your plane many of you will be finding new choices coming up for you -- options, alternatives, ideas. And you will sit with them and you will find yourself getting excited about one of them, or maybe several, and then the voice of the world may click in and say, "But you are already so busy; how can you fit that into your schedule? You have responsibilities here; how can you think of...?" You know the questions of the world all too well.

However, you are the one who has made the schedule, you are the one who perceives a limitation, and if you desire something, know that it holds great revelation for you. Return to the place of the heart, breathing quietly and effortlessly, sitting in silence. Abide with the desire, idea, option, and ask of it to reveal its inner meaning. Sit with the desire and see where you would like to be, what you would like to do. And if it brings joy to the heart, know that it is your right path. Desires are your teachers -- as you are a teacher.

All of you are teachers. All of you are servants one unto another. Your brothers and sisters watch you even though you may not be aware of their observance. Each one watches to see how you view the world and, as you have new insights, the inner wisdom that you allow to come forth is shared with your brothers and sisters. For as you find the courage to speak your Truth and to say, "Yes, I find joy in my heart," you allow others to entertain the idea that perhaps there is joy in their heart as well. Perhaps, if they look for it, they will find it, and it is not something that has passed them by.

A Time of Miracles

In these upcoming months of autumn, Jeshua is informing us that we will see many miracles which we have prayed for over the previous months/years. He is saying, "Let not your heart be troubled...that which you have prayed for will come to pass." It has to because you, in your essence, are the maker of your destiny. Allow yourself, in your quiet time, to imagine/feel how it will be, to allow the best outworking of your future -- short and/or long time -- to be.

Oakbridge University, the grouping of Hearts which is being brought together to remember the Love Which we are, will continue to bring you the Jeshua wisdom through the written and spoken words. We recently published the ninth volume of Jeshua's teachings, The Ocean of Being, Foreword by Eva McGinnis. In this wonderful volume Jeshua talks about such topics as Healing, living the Dream awake, the origin and purpose of Mother Earth, patience in a time of challenges, and ascension. Sound interesting? Of course!

And, I am looking forward to our mini-Intensive in October. Daily workshop leaders will include Matthew Noonan and Cathleen Michaels, Dr. William Evans, and Dr. Jan Jorgensen, with mini Reiki sessions offered on the Saturday afternoon by Leya and Ari. See flyer in this newsletter.

And this is just a taste of what is coming our way this autumn. Stay involved and stay tuned....

Love,

Judith

Each of you is a teacher. You teach what you live. Never think that what you do has small meaning. For everywhere you go, your presence is felt. Everyone that your energy touches, feels it. Every blade of grass, every flower, every tree feels your energy, and if you are in a depression, as it is called, they will know the frequency. If you are in a place of happiness, they will register an equal vibration.

You are very much in interaction with each other, and with all of creation. You do not live your life alone. The body may speak unto you that there is separateness. The body may suggest that there is boundary where one individual ends and another begins. And yet, the energy that you are is not, cannot be, contained within the body. As we have spoken many times, it is the energy of you that activates the body.

All of you are teachers. Teach the Love of our Heavenly Father. This was my message unto the disciples. This is my message unto you in this day. You are my disciples as you do the work of our Father. And it is not a work of effort. It is a work of joy. You are my disciples as you allow yourself to express the very dynamic Love that you are.

Teach the Love of God. Teach Who you are. Speak words of encouragement. Speak words of joy. Allow others to tell their story, yes, for it is necessary for them to have clarity about what they are feeling. But after a certain clarity has been reached, encourage them to see the broader vision. Allow them to see what you have seen: the Love that activates every living thing. Share with them a (w)holier perspective -- and it need not be expressed in words that you would see as coming from your holy Scriptures. You do not need to stand upon the soapbox and to thump, I believe the word is, your holy Scriptures.

Look for the beauty in the world. Search for it, for it is there. Focus upon beauty, live in the beauty of each moment, teach beauty. There is no grander task than to remember the Love that has brought forth beauty.

Be the teacher of Love.

Be the teacher of God.

As you read these words, I touch you gently. I call forth the joy that abides deep within you. I encourage you to remember the time before time when you played in the meadow of your Father's Kingdom, secure in His Love. He has never left you, nor you Him. Claim now your birthright as His only begotten Child, the Christ, and ascend unto Me.

So be it.
