

Time, The Days to Come, Questions & Answers

1994-10-15

Friends Meeting House

Beloved and holy and only Child of the Heavenly Father, Child of Light divine. I am the one known as Jeshua ben Joseph, Jesus you have called me and it is in great joy that I come to abide with you this evening in your timing as you have chosen to turn the focus of your attention unto me.

It is, as my beloved friend and teacher has said, I want to get on with it as you do. To get on with the business of coming Home. To come unto that place of knowing your unlimited Self and all of you have answered my invitation. And yet, it is not my invitation as a separate entity from you. It is the invitation of your Self. Your wake up call to come Home.

Many of you were wondering why there was a small gathering this evening. It is because I have invited you to be here in what you would see as an intimate sharing. We will call this, in your terminology we will call this the advanced seminar, for we will deal with specific questions and we will take them to the place of the higher Truth as you would judge Truth to be. We will take it to the question that is being asked, the eternal question, "Who am I?"

Not by a name that you have chosen, but the holy Child that you are. It is a grand name that you have chosen. It is one that you have had in what you would see as other lifetimes, as well. Lifetimes where you were expressing in grand simplicity, the Light that you are and it is time in what you would see as this lifetime, to claim that again. That is why it has come knocking upon the door of your heart. That is why you have felt an attunement with the very sound thereof.

All of you have a sound, a vibration, a tone that is your own. A tone that has been before time began. The vibration of the Light that you are, and all of you as you allow yourself to sit in quietness, in meditation as you would call it, and to take off what would be the limitations of the rational analytical mind that is intensely focus upon this time and this space. As you allow yourself to imagine and to wander into what you would see as other realms, other dimensions, other times even, you connect with the Allness that you are and you may hear a vibration, a tone, a sound that is yours. You may hear a word or several syllables that express the tone that you are. It is fun to play with.

The value of it is that it brings you beyond the narrow focus of this time and space for you are much more than the body that sits upon the chair and the personality with which you identify in this time. You are a great ray of Light created before time was. For you are the creator of time.

Allow yourself to play as this one has, and others of you, with your name, with changing the name. All of you have played with that idea in this lifetime and have said, "I will play with another name. I will pretend that I am someone else." And you have taken to yourself other syllables of sound. Some of you have rebelled as children against the name that was given to you. You have wondered where your mother or father, your parents have come up with a name that was given unto you and you have said at times, "It does not feel like me. I want to express another me, another aspect," and you are perfectly free to do that. Also to play with the name that feels in attunement with you and to know that is but part of the vibrational tone that you are.

That is the most dominant part but there is more. There is, as you would see, a part before and a part after. It is fun to play with.

I have been called Jesus, as it has been recorded in your Scripture that you now have. That is the Greek form of the name that I prefer, Yeshua, not even Jeshua. That is the Anglicized version, easier in this day and time to say and to identify with but I prefer the Aramaic Yeshua. But you may call me Jesus, Jeshua. I have expressed Joshua, as Elisha, but whatever you call me allow yourself pause to understand that you are also calling yourself. We are not separate.

Whatever name you have chosen in this lifetime for indeed you have spoken unto the parents what you desired your name to be in this lifetime and sometimes they have heard. Sometimes they have heard part of it. Sometimes you have come and you have decided to change it. And it shows a shift in perception for you are allowing yourself to be no longer circumscribed by society and by what the family has said unto you and it illustrates to you in outward form what is happening in your own image of yourself for you are allowing yourself to connect with more of your unlimited Self.

All of your names in totality, are music, are tone, vibration. All of the names that you have ever expressed with and they are infinite, are beautiful. Many of you allow yourselves to connect with what is known as the tones, the very vibration of the voice and to bring forth what would be seen as ancient tones. Sing you in your shower?

And you do this to connect with the ongoingness of your own vibration and yet, the vibration that you are and that you identify with and you claim for yourself is not separate from any of the brothers and sisters that you would see. When you look with the eyes, the physical eyes you behold boundaries known as the body and you behold separation. But when you look with the eyes of the heart there is a bond that is felt, the bond of Love, and it takes you beyond what the physical eyes would see.

Even the physical eyes in what you would term the days to come, even the physical eyes will behold the Light that you are and that the brothers and sisters are. Even the physical ears will register the tone, the vibration of that Light.

That is what I wish to discuss with you this evening. What you would call the days to come, the future, and yet, if you will receive it, it is already within your knowing. Already within what you would term your experience for as I describe to you the day to come you will feel a relatedness, an understanding.

Much as it is when you watch a program upon your square box that brings you programs from what you would see as far away and yet how far away are they if they are in front of you? Right there. When you watch a program known as your science fiction, and you get very much caught up into where they are going, places where no man has yet dared to go, other universes, the adventure in other universes. What allows you to relate to the story that you behold upon your television set, as it is called? What allows you to understand what they are showing you in the program?

Remembrance, exactly, for time is not linear. There is a belief in time upon this plane that says there is a process, that there is a beginning, there is a middle part and there is the goal being achieved, the ending as you would call it, and that it is see that there is the point A, B, C, all the way to X, Y, and Z, as you would call it. I have called it alpha and omega but it matters not what you call it.

There is a belief in process that gives you from that the belief in time. But time itself, you have heard it said that all time is now and it is. Time itself is, if you will take the idea, the concept of a sphere. A rounded ball and even the boundary of that sphere is fuzzed into infinity. All time as the holy Child experiences it, is contained within that sphere. So that what you would see as a past time is at a point. Perhaps it is at this point in the sphere, and you believe yourself to be at this point over here, and it is connected.

But there is another time that you will remember and you will say, "But that is a past time," and that is perhaps at this point in the sphere. Down here, so you have now: this point, this point, this point, and then there is a future time which you believe you have not experienced yet but somehow you understand, and this point is up here. You can see where we are going with this.

As you remember and relate to what you would see as past experiences, other lifetimes, future experiences wherever they may be within the sphere, it is all contained within the now. And you are the one who is making it the now by your remembrance.

Now why it seems linear is because if you take the point that you are thinking about, say it is in the future and you feel yourself to be here in the sphere of time and you are thinking about it here. What connects that? Seemingly, a line, a linear time, as you would see it, the same with what you would behold as a past time. And yet, as you are calling that forth into your consciousness where is that past time? Or the future time? Or any other experience? Where is it? Right now, right here. All together.

But in what you have called the days to come, the future, you are calling forth a time of grand Light upon this plane. A time when you will go with a freedom in the heart, an unlimitedness which you are starting to claim even by your choice of being in this gathering this evening. A time of allowing the Light that you are to be radiated fully through the very cells of the body.

No longer will it be seen as necessary to hold constriction in the body. No longer will it be seen as necessary to feel pain, for you will see yourself as Light. You will know yourself as the fluidity of Light which you are even in this moment. But there is an identification yet, with the form, with the molecules of the dust of our Holy Mother, the Earth, the molecules known as matter.

You, in every moment, are collecting the molecules, the cells as you would call them, to you in the design pattern that you have chosen. Each moment, and when you are finished with the design pattern of the body and you lay down the body what happens to it? Indeed, it returns unto the dust of the earth. You have that saying, from dust to dust, and even the humorous story of the little one looking under the bed and seeing the dust curls and saying that either someone is coming or going.

{Laughter}

Indeed. But in the days to come and they come rapidly now, for you have decreed it, there will be a time of grand beauty upon this plane, a time of grand Light. For the Light that you are and can be even now measured by your scientists, can be seen even now by those who have the eyes to see what is termed the aura. The Light that you are will shine forth in such radiance that even the brothers and sisters who go about now, very much with the blinders on and the blindfold in front of the eyes, they will not be able to "un-behold" it. That is not a word, we have made a new word. They will not be able to deny it for they will see it. Much as you would go up and shine a very bright floodlight into one's eyes who thinks that they have a blindfold in front of the eyes.

The belief in separation will no longer be tenable for the Light that this one is as now you sit upon the chair, the Light this one is blends with the Light of this one and this one and circles the whole gathering, very much intermingling and it will be quite visible to you and to the brothers and sisters. Even the physical eyes will see it.

Even now in your timing, you are calling forth the technology to measure the energy of the body and this will advance, as you term advancement to be. It will evolve even to the place where there will be the measurement of the frequency and intensity of the vibration of the Light that you are allowing and this changes from moment to moment.

You have experienced feeling one day, very happy about something. There has been something that has allowed you to feel lighter in the heart and you have felt very excited. Perhaps the thought of a loved one returning, a meeting with a beloved friend, something that you found the heart to be excited about, and you have even said to yourself, "I feel light today. I feel really good today."

The Light, the actual light energy that you allow to radiate through the body when you are happy is more than on days when you feel downcast and heavy. On those days you pull in your energy, your Light, and it can be seen by ones even now, and it can be measured.

But in the days to come it will be most visible and many of you will be the ones who will be so exhilarated, as you term is, you will be so alive in the joy of living that you will be walking fluidity of Light bulbs, very much turned on. It will be true for all of the brothers and sisters in varying degrees. But it will be most visible. And there will come, because you will no longer have the belief in separation, it will come where you will hear even with the physical ears the tones of the Light vibration, as it is becoming possible even now in your technology with what are known as the earphones and the amplitudes. It will be coming so that you do not even need the mechanical devices for you will hear one's tones, vibrations, hum. A hum. We will describe it as the hum.

You are calling this forth. It is not that grand masters are coming from somewhere afar off to gift this to you. For indeed, it is always yours and has been since the beginning of time. And you are the ones who are claiming it now. You are the ones who are calling it forth, because you have decreed that you desire to know who you are and you desire to live in joy and in Love.

You are the ones who are looking upon the brothers and sisters and all of life forms, even in this time with Love in your heart. You are the ones and many of your brothers and sisters are awakening unto this now, who are feeling the oneness with all life forms. Whether they be the furry ones that walk on four feet, whether they be the life forms of the trees, the plants. All life form, you are feeling a reverence and an honor and a oneness for all life forms.

It is that belief in separation that is dissolving and many of you are feeling that. You have seen this even in a wave that is spreading across the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth in what you have termed the green awareness, of knowing our oneness with our Holy Mother, Who gives to you freely the molecules of matter so that you can express in this form.

And there is coming the awareness, it has even been said, where will we live if we destroy our home? Ones are recognizing their responsibility and even more than that, the oneness with life as it is being expressed on this plane.

You will see colors that have not been seen for what you would call eons of time for you will beholding the vibration of light in its different frequencies and there will be colors upon this plane that you can only now imagine, and yet, if you imagine where does that come from? A remembrance.

There will be the life forms that will grow most abundantly and most beautifully for you will know yourself to be the vibration that speaks unto the tree, that speaks unto the flower. The trees and the flowers now speak unto you and the brothers and sisters as well, but many of the brothers and sisters pass by in their unknowingness and in their hurry to get on with what they feel to be important and have not the eyes to behold the beauty that surrounds them in every moment. And yet, they are the creators, shared creators of that beauty that surrounds them in every moment.

But you, because you are now claiming to know the Love that you are, the vibration of that Love that nurtures and allows all life to come into its own harmony and its own abundant growth. You will be encouraging, as you have already done, all of the life forms to express in fullness. And even the brothers and sisters who find themselves now so caught up in the activities and in the voice of the world, will be given time to pause as they behold a most tropical plant right in front of them in a place where they did not expect it to be, because you of your Love, have nurtured and have encouraged that life form to grow to its fullest. Even in places now which are called your inner cities, there will be lush tropical plants as you call them forth. Many of the brothers and sisters are calling from the depth of their soul to know the Love. To see it in tangible form. To behold a miracle as they will call a tropical plant that grows in the inner city. Many are wanting to remember the life and the Light that they are and wanting to come Home.

And yet, it will take for them a tangible reminder. Something that they can reach out and touch. Something that they will see and that will be as catalyst for them to remember who they are.

As you allow the believe in separation to be dissolved and released, as you allow the Light that you are to be radiated in its fullness so that you see not separation even of the bodies, you will behold what you already now accept. You will see loved ones who have laid down the body and have gone on and yet have gone on nowhere apart from you, you will see them expressing as the Light that they are.

You will see this room as it is now full of Light beings, friends, companions, masters, you might call them, guides, angels. Why think you there is such interest right now in angels? It is the holy Child calling forth a tangible example to remember that you are the angel upon this plane and that there are many angels. Many, many angels that can sit on the head of a pin, indeed.

The world has been full of complexities, full of debate, arguing how many angels could sit on the head of a pin. They forget, the ones who would argue, they forget that they are the angels that are sitting upon the head of a pin. That is how intensely they have focused upon just this, the matter.

Now, the intense focus upon matter and the identification with matter has not been a sin. It has been by design. It has been the desire of the holy Child to experience his/her creation. For the holy Child, being the Child of the One Creator is creative. That is why you even now feel creativity. Even now while you feel the urge to create, to cook a new dish, to sew, to embroider, to do the paintings, to write a book, to write a poem, to sing. Creativity is your nature.

The holy Child desired to create and having created desired to experience the creations. And when we first came to this plane, and this is not the only plane of experience, but when we first came upon our Holy Mother, the Earth to what you would call and see as this plane, we remembered, and I include myself in this for I have expressed with you upon this plane. Many different times. I did not have just one lifetime. I am not limited. I enjoy expressing as I do now even in this form which would push the minds of many of the brothers and sisters and that is well and good.

But when we came to this plane we knew ourselves to be the Light and we expressed as Light upon this plane taking a form, a very fluid form. There was form, to experience with, to be amongst our creations. And in what you would see as the evolution of time, again this linear time, there was a closer and closer identification with the creation, with the form, and there has been a focus that has brought us into what has been called density, a lowering of Light vibration that is acknowledged.

Now the vibration of Light that you are is a constant, for you are much more than what your focus is right now. But the focus of attention and intention has been so narrowed to this place and this time, as you would see it, and this form of expression that there has been identification with the form. But what you are now doing is remembering. Remembering that you are the Light that activates all of matter.

Think how unlimited you are. How powerful you are. Not in terms of the world's power, for that as you have seen, comes and goes. But how powerful you are in your creativity. So that you will see in the days to come, the Light beings that are all around you right now. Many sitting upon the laps, upon the shoulders, upon the very chair you are sitting upon one's lap.

{Laughter}

There is much sharing of space as you would see it to be. You are never alone. It is only the perception of the body that would say that you are ever alone and even in those times of aloneness there has been the still small voice that has spoken and has said, "There is more than this." And has beckoned unto you to come up higher. In other words, come up into the unlimited Mind, the unlimited way of seeing.

So there will be much communication with your brothers and sisters in what you see as the Light forms, which of course you are as well. And there will be much travel that you will do into other dimensions as you now see them to be, into other dimensions that you feel now are just possibilities. Ideas to play with, and yet, where do those ideas come from? They are a reality - with a small "r". A reality of experience.

So that you will find yourself focusing upon what you feel reality to be here and now, and then as easily as you switch now on your television set to another station, you will experience, tune in to what you would term now as an alternate reality of where you are living and expressing right now for you are. You are not limited to this time and space.

But you will go and you will travel unto other dimensions and you will meet this one expressing in another dimension and this one, and you will share again, you will say, "Didn't I just see you in 1995," or whatever, "and here you are expressing in 2,000 and whatever?" As you would reckon time to be, or you will find yourself to be far off into another universe as you will imagine it to be expressing as the Light that you are.

Grand adventure. All of you at heart are the grand adventurer otherwise you would not be here. You have chosen the adventure. But what you are choosing now to do is to bring this adventure into the happy dream. Not the dream of sorrow and constriction and confusion. Not the dream that has been so heavy and has been seen in such a limited form. But you are choosing now the happy dream.

Yes, you will still be expressing with the molecules of the dust of our Holy Mother. It is not necessary that you lay down the body and ascend unto another realm before you can know who you are and know that wholeness. But you will be expressing with the molecules of matter and knowing yourself to be unlimited and it will be, yes, what you have called Heaven on earth.

It will be the Second Coming. Not the Second Coming of one Jeshua ben Joseph. That is not important, for I come, all the time I come. But it will be the Second Coming of the holy Child upon this plane in wholeness and in remembrance and it is a time of grand celebration. You will go as the Light that you are.

You will, yes, still be hosting/hostessing the meetings. You will still be facilitating ones coming together to share from heart to heart if you so desire. Or you may be off on a starship somewhere going wherever the heart desires. Checking in on the spaceship and then checking in on the meeting that is going on here for you will know yourself to be able to do that. The focus will not be limited to one time and space.

Even as now you are getting glimpses of that as you allow yourself to go other places in your imagination, in your times of meditation. In your times of reading. All of you as you experience getting into a book and reading of another place, another experience and you identify with the hero or the heroine. You have forgotten your focus in this time and space and you are way off in Tibet somewhere or back in what you would see as an ancient time and at that moment, that is where you are.

And then, in an instant, the telephone will ring and you are back here. You will be doing that in your days to come very easily, and you will know that that spaceship, that ancient time as you would see it is as much a reality as this is. For it is all within the dream of the holy Child. The design and the desire to experience the creations and to keep on creating.

For you are not done. This is not all there is. You are no done. The holy Child will never be, what you would see, as finished. Never come to a place of saying, "This is all there is and I stop." For even at that moment the still small voice says, "There is more," and then you go on creating.

That is what Heaven is. That is why it has been called and known as expansion for it is ever ongoing. And why is Heaven ongoing? Because the holy Child is forever creating, experiencing, expressing on what you would see as this plane and on all other dimensions, planes that you can imagine and even more. For you are infinite.

So yes, I come and I share with you on an evening such as this and at what you would see as the same time of now, for I and you are outside of time. Our true nature is outside of time. I am conversing with many others in what you would see as another time, another place on our Holy Mother, the Earth, yes, as you would see all of time to be in this place of expression and in other universes in other dimensions.

When you lay down the body and you go through what has been termed the tunnel of light, the tunnel to your Light. It is your Light that you experience for you are Light and the focus of your attention has been expanded to behold the Light that you are.

In those times according to what you have allowed yourself to believe in your image of yourself up to that point, you experience - it has been termed a review - of what you have done. Experienced in that lifetime, yes, that is part of it, and then according to your belief, you either go to a place that is a school, it has been termed, or in some people's belief systems you are judged. You may go unto the Pearly Gates and my beloved brother may ask you what you have done that makes you worthy to be admitted into Heaven, or you may be sent somewhere else. And all of you know very well the stories of somewhere else.

All of you have experienced lifetimes when you have been told that you are no more than the dust of the earth and that no matter what you did you would be damned to hell. Or if you paid enough money unto the church there might be a glimmer of hope.

{Laughter}

All of you have experience those lifetimes. All of you have experienced being the priest or the sister, the nun as it is called, who has promulgated that belief and has said unto others, "This is what is going to happen to you. You better shape up." Or whatever.

So according to your belief when you choose to lay down the body, you feel yourself going somewhere, doing something because it is your habit to be experiencing some thing somewhere. And this changes in what you would see as the interval between the focus upon the matter each time that you would see yourself to be laying down the body.

What is evolving now for you are allowing yourselves to accept and to claim this, is a feeling of oneness, a feeling of the grand Love that you are. A connection with that, as you loosen the identification with the body and you may choose to raise up another body to experience again, in what you would see as another time. Or you may choose to go as the angel and to serve someone else who has a focus upon the molecules of physicality and you call unto them.

Many of the loved ones serve you in this capacity. They are nowhere afar off. They are very much speaking to you. That is why sometimes they come to your mind and you will think upon one who has laid down the body and you feel, for an instant, you feel they are right there and then you remind yourself, "Oh, no. They have laid down the body and I can't see them any longer. They must be gone." They are not gone and you know that for they are very real, very present with you.

You may choose any of the infinite ways of expression. You may choose to identify yourself as my beloved brother who goes as the wind you may choose to identify yourself with the wind. With the stars in the heavens. To go unto other expressions, other levels as it would be judged and yet there is not a gradation of levels for it is all one. Whatever you choose.

But what is coming upon this plane and it comes rapidly now because you are asking for it. You are calling it forth, is a time when you will be very much expressing with your creation, the body and knowing yourself to be unlimited.

And as you release the limitations of image of who you think yourself to be and who you think the brothers and sisters are, as you know your oneness with the ones who stands in front of you there is a miracle that happens. For you transform your world even as it stands in front of you. For the Love that you are pours forth so freely that it is felt and registered, yes, by the one who sees himself to be a separate being from you and the Love that you are transforms even in your eyes and in the eyes of the heart, transforms what you see before you. And in that, you bring Home all of creation. You remember the beauty of the first creation.

That is what you are all about. That is why you are here this evening because you have the courage to entertain new ideas, new possibilities and because you remember they are not so much new as they are your roots, as you would see roots to be, they are who you are from before time began.

So I would ask of all of you this evening, where are you going? And I would ask all of you to remember, where have you been? For indeed, the tree does not just express as the limbs and the leaves that are on top of the tree. The tree expresses with the roots in the ground as well. You are very much the tree. You have your roots grounded in matter and you are the life process that evolves and unfolds and expresses in every moment.

You are very much, a term that you are fond of using, you are very much bridge people. Bringing together in full awareness Spirit and matter. Coming together one hundred percent incarnate.

For many lifetimes you have not been one hundred percent incarnate and many of the brothers and sisters who express even in this day and time are not one hundred percent incarnate. They are but a pilot light expressing. A percentage. But you are coming to the place where you are claiming the whole life that you are and it is a time of grand radiance. A time of grand beauty.

It is what all of you have desired and have longed for. And why? Because you have known it. You know it to be the Truth of your being. All of you have felt Home sickness, a longing. All of you have asked, "Where are my brothers and sisters? Where are the ones that I can speak freely with? The ones who know my heart and I can share my heart freely with them. I want to go Home. I want to be connected with my family." And what you see happening now all over the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth, are the hearts that are being awakened. The Lights that are being turned on.

It is not accident that one of your presidents used that terminology of the points of light. He did not know what he was saying, but it is a grand Truth. The points of Light are being turned on and there is a grand family reunion that is being planned and the dishes for the reunion, the picnic, are being prepared. The picnic baskets, yes. The tablecloths, the picnic tables are prepared and waiting and there is a grand time of reunion.

All of you have desired and all of you are calling forth. And I do not have to wait long in order to celebrate this with you for I know who you are and I know how much you desire to come Home.

Now in this evening there will be a time of sharing with each other. A time of questions. We will entertain questions and a time of what you would call the advanced seminar for you are all advanced and you are remembering and a time of simplicity as well, for you will speak from the heart. You will speak what is deeply within your heart for what you see gathered here in this evening are members of your family. They would not be here otherwise.

You have called forth each and every one that you see sitting in this circle. From your heart you have issued an invitation. Some of you would sit and say, "Well I only came because...." Whatever. But at a very deep level you are here because you are bonded with all others who are here. You are bonded in the Love that you are. You are bonded in the awakening that you desire to know and that you are calling forth. It is not an accident that any of you are here. You have answered an invitation. My invitation, yes, but it is the invitation of your Self for I am not separate from you.

Do you desire to take a break and to stretch the body? Or do you desire to just keep on? Whatever. What would you like?

A break.

Indeed, let us have a short break to stretch the bodies then we will come back and we will play with the questions.

So be it.

{Break}

And now we begin. We will play with the questions. It is as you see a small elite gathering and as it is seen now there will be time now for at least one question from each one of you, each one that we are. If you desire to ask, it is not necessary that you ask a question, but if you desire to, we will play with them.

Beloved one, have you come with a question?

No.

Very good, very good, you are beholding a miracle.

I read the pamphlet and I know that you are supposed to....

Oh, my there we are into the supposed to's, and the images. Indeed, we will come back. Yes, we will see. There will be something else for you.

I feel a lot of constriction in the body. I'm not happy about that but I am working through it.

We are not happy about that.

We are not, no.

That is very true.

We are not just trying to work through it we are working through it. We are not getting as far as we would like to get with it and we are not dealing with it correcting because we are going up hill. We need to have some prayers. If nothing else put your hands behind my shoulders and with the Light, I will just be as happy with that.

Indeed, beloved one, you have discerned already the remedy as you would see it with the constriction. It is the Light. Allow yourself to do what you did very briefly in describing this, allow yourself to breathe. Whenever you feel a constriction anywhere in the body, stop and breathe. Take into the body the golden white Light that you are. Visualize it, yes, for it will help you see in the mind's eye, the Light that you are taking in. Breathe it in deeply to every cell of the body. Begin with the whole, take in as you would see from the crown chakra, for indeed the Light that you are extends far beyond the crown chakra. But take in the Light, breathe it in through the nostrils, through the mouth. All the way deep within to the lungs and allow that breath, the Light that is carried on that breath to extend even unto what you would see as the toes, to the fingertips. Begin with the whole.

Do this several times and it will allow you to come unto a place of more centeredness, as it is called, a place of more peace. Then breathe in and direct the Light to the place of constriction. If there are more than one places, then do this in turn. Focus upon an area and send the Light that you are to that area with the breath. Visualize, as you are taking in the Light, visualize space in between the cells of that part of the body that is most constricted. Allow the cells to know that they are space and Light as well.

Allow them in your visualization and they will respond to know the space between for all of matter is vibration held together seemingly in a form, but there is much space in between all of what you would call molecules, all of what you would call cells.

Visualize the space in between every cell as expanded. And to aid that expansion fill it with Light, for this is the Truth of your being and the Truth of the cells. This is what they desire to express, but there has been through habit not a conscious habit, but through a gradual habit built up in what you would see as this lifetime and remembered from what you would call other lifetimes, a constriction.

What will reverse that is to breathe in the Light and to send it into the spaces in between the cells and to give permission to the cells to do what they are designed to do which is to radiate the Light, to allow the Light to flow. Not just to hold the Light, but to allow it to flow, to radiate.

Does it help to have the understanding constrictions?

I would ask you beloved one, what happens when you sit and ask for the understanding of the constriction? Where is your focus at that time?

Well I have been and I see the freedom of the Holy Spirit and I ask for the leaving of the constriction so that I will be able to change it. Which I am willing to see when it does happen ... it's helping me to know the knowing. {not clearly recorded}

It is as the daughter decrees. If this is your pathway to saying this is truth, that I must know the reason and have the understanding of it, then that is truth for you. That is your pathway of releasing it and that is well and good.

It is also possible to take a shortcut and to say, "I do not need to abide with the cause of the pain. I do not even have to know what it comes from." For indeed, I will share with you, beloved one, that it comes from many painful, as you would judge them to be, lifetimes. Many times of holding an image of yourself that was less than the wholeness that you are. Many times of not feeling your connection which is why you are at the place you are now of demanding and declaring that you will know who you are.

So it is possible to go as you would make a journey even in geographical terms, unto a certain part of the city. You may go in all of the scenic route to it or you may go directly to it as the crow flies. Each will get you there and you may choose sometimes to go by the scenic route and some other time you may choose to go as the crow flies and there is no judgment in that.

It is as you choose, it is as the daughter of God decrees. But if you desire to get there quickly allow yourself to breathe the Light in and to say, "I release whatever the cause has been," for indeed it is released. It is over and done and past as each moment is for you. It is over and done and past except as you bring it forward with you.

It is my understanding my mind to do it may way is okay, I understand that, however to do it my way in thinking of it a little differently is I want to go back and keep churning through stuff that causes the constriction and I keep the constriction here also.

For indeed, the focus of attention is upon the problem, as you would call it, and you are bringing it always with you as it would be the baggage.

That's to be passed?

Yes, and you may do that. For some will decree that that is how they come to clarity about what it is all about and for them, that is how they come to clarity and to the point of saying, "Okay, enough now. I'm done with it." It just depends on how much you will decide to endure, until you come to the place of saying, "Okay, I think I've had enough of that." And indeed you have, for you have been through many lifetimes with it. But if you desire to linger a bit longer with it, that is okay, too.

There is no judgment in this. The only thing that you would even see as judgment is the feeling of the pain in the body that speaks out to you and says, "It is past time to let this go." And do not judge yourself if you find that the pain goes for one instant and then is back again. Do not say, "Oh, I failed. I'm no good at this. I knew I couldn't do this." No, focus upon the fact that the pain for a moment dissolved. Allow yourself to focus on the expansion of the space between the cells and the expansion of what you are allowing your perception now to be. That is where your truth lies.

And you will find some day that you will go through an hour, a half a day in freedom all day and all of sudden you will say, "Gee, I haven't felt that. Where did it go?" or whatever, and then it may come back. That is okay too.

It has been as a companion to you, a friend in many lifetimes. This is not the only lifetime that you have felt pain in the back and you have felt pain in the movement of going forward. It has been your companion in many lifetimes. It is very much a messenger that comes with a telegram and it rings your doorbell very loudly and it says, "Hey, I have a telegram for you. Pay attention. Be vigilant." You have been looking at the telegram and saying, "Okay, what is the message that we are understanding here?" Where the message of it is, is the fact that there is a telegram being delivered and you may say, "Yes, over and done with. Over and out," I guess the phrase is. "Okay." And allow it to be gone.

But there is no judgment in any of this. In the days to come that we have just spoken of, you will find that you go with a grand freedom. It is not something that you even need force or will to happen. The path that you have set your foot upon is true and will lead you Home, and it is very much as the rose is that unfold petal by petal. You do not even need to put that rose in a hot house, it will unfold in its process as you are unfolding.

And you will find in the days to come that you will feel most joyous upon this plane. You will feel most happy to be expressing with the molecules of the dust of our Mother. Many lifetimes you have not wanted to be here. This lifetime you have said, "I don't want to be here. It is heavy here. It is painful here. My brothers and sisters they do not show me love. There is much of hatred that I see going on in the world. I don't want to be here." And why that comes is because you remember your angelic nature. You remember the Truth of your being.

But what you are focusing upon is the untruth of this expression in times when you feel this world to be painful and heavy. Let yourself focus upon the beauty that you are. Let yourself focus upon the fluidity of expression that you are. Let yourself focus on the Love that you are and that the Heavenly Father loves you with and you are loved in every moment with the Love that is beyond comprehension of the mortal mind.

Connect with that Love. Send that Love into the pain. Send it along with the Light that you are sending because sometimes Light can be a concept that is rather cold and distant. Send Love into the space. It is the same. Send the Love and feel. You are loved, beloved one and you have grand courage for you have chosen to come back to what you see as a painful place. Because you desire to know the wholeness of this expression, and it took grand courage on your part to say, "Yes, I will go one more time. I do not want to go. I know what I have experienced in other lifetimes and I don't want that again." And there lies your salvation, as it would be termed, for you will not experience what you have experienced before. For you are in a new place. You are seeing with new eyes.

And in the days to come you will see even more beauty, even more freedom. That is what you deserve. You are a grand Light upon this plane. Many of your brothers and sisters see that and I see it. Congratulate yourself, beloved one, in every moment for the courage that it has taken. Courage is of the heart. You are a grand heart. Send that heart into the pain and the pain will be gone.

In the days to come and it will not be long, you will go with a great freedom. Even in the expression with the body for you will know your freedom. I honor you, beloved one, for what you are doing. For what you have decreed that you will do. For you have said, "I want to know my holiness. I want to know my wholeness." and it takes a grand courage to decree that.

Not only to desire it but to say, "I will do whatever it takes." It takes a grand courage and I honor you for what you are doing. Know that I go with you always. You do know this, yes. Allow me to be the cloak that you put on around you and I am even closer than a cloak that you would put on, for I am you and we express as the One that we are.

Thank you, Jeshua.

Thank you, beloved one.

And you, what would you ask? Lover of all life, yes.

To be your hand, to be your feet. Part of me yearns to be that, to be of service like that. Other times, that's why I appreciate all the points of reference that I'm getting and trying to draw the wisdom.... sometimes I call the Unity prayer line or something and they say, "Absolutely not. You are not his hands or his feet." And then other people say, "Of course you are his hands and his feet." So I believe in serving and giving and giving and helping each other. I believe in that. I need to understand that.... am make them aware... you have helped me so much every time I see you and you are with me all the time.

Indeed.

Could you direct that about being your hands and feet and heart?

Indeed, it is as we have just spoken unto this one: I am you. There is no separation. We are the one holy Child expressing, ever expressing and ever ongoing. And there is a focus, a point of focus, an identification that is seen as individuality. It is very much as you would draw an analogy of the drop of water within the vast ocean. That drop of water knows its individuality. Even more than that it knows its composition in physical matter and it has come together in what it would see as an individual expression and it may be taken and separated at one point to see a drop of water. And yet, even as it is taken and seen as one drop of water it is still part of the vast ocean and this is seen even more readily as it is put back into the ocean.

You and the brothers and sisters upon this plane in the belief and understanding now, see many drops of water as individuals and yet, there is no the separation. So as you express upon this plane, you are my hands and my feet. You are the language that speaks to the brothers and sisters for me as me and allow what you would see as me. Not Jeshua ben Joseph as the personality, but the Christ, the One Mind, the whole Mind that we are, to speak through you.

There are times when you have been so full of heart and wanted to help one who was in sorrow or in confusion that you have said, in your self you have said, "I don't know what to say to this one, but there must be something to say." And you have started and the Christ has come forth in words to that one and has helped lift them up to a higher vision.

Yes, in that sense, you are my hand and my feet and my voice. But it is not to be even seen in the separation of claiming the personality of one Jeshua ben Joseph. It is to be seen as the Christ that we all are at the One Mind that is speaking words of comfort, words of grander vision, the whole vision to that one who so much is asking to know. That one who feels so much to be a hole somewhere that there is only a tiny glimmer of light at the top of that hole and you are there extending what would be seen as the rope so they can pull themselves up on to get to the top of the hole.

That is the Christ coming forth. So there are ones in their belief system who will say unto you, "There is no way you can be the hands and the feet of one Jesus, one Jeshua," and in that belief they are focusing upon the separation and the identification of a personality that they see to be far removed and far gone. To have lived in another time interval, as you would see it, to have experienced the resurrection and the ascension that took him somewhere, they are not quite sure where, but afar off somewhere and that they can pray to, but they may or may not hear an answer. And according to their belief they either hear or do not hear an answer.

But what comes through you is the Christ. When you are abiding in the heart and your intention is pure to express Love and you allow the shutters of the heart to be flung wide open in your caring for another, then the Christ speaks through you. Then the Christ takes the hand and touches, reaches out and physically touches for one who needs the tangible touch. Then the feet move forward to go as the guidance of the heart directs, to go and to supply what needs to be supplied. To go and do what needs to be done. Then you are my hands and feet, but not the narrow identification of just one Jesus. It is the whole Mind, the Christ that we are.

That very much ties in with what we have spoke of earlier of the days to come when ones will know that Christ, the Light, the Love upon this plane. For they will be calling forth what they see as tangible proof of the Light extending into this one's bubble of Light. There is no boundary and they will see and the belief, not only will they see with the eyes, but that will be the first but then they will see with the heart and then the belief in separation will be dissolved as the petals of the rose unfold, effortlessly. And it comes to pass quickly for you have decreed.

So allow others their belief, their terminology. Understand that where they speak from, is a box. A contained ordered belief. One that they are comfortable with because it is ordered and they see it as being contained.

You are one, beloved one, that says, "Hey, those walls of the box they aren't even there." Much like the story you have of the emperor's new clothes. You look upon that box that one thinks that he sits in and you say, "You aren't surrounded by a box at all." But that one feels the containment and that is okay, too, for in time that one will get tired of his identification with what he sees as the box and he will get up and he will walk to what he thinks is the edge of that box. He will walk through it. He will turn around and he will say, "I thought there was a box here." In time. It is not your responsibility. You do not need to worry about it.

But allow yourself to understand that is their truth - with a small "t". It is not the Truth with a capital "T". The Truth with a capital "T" is that you are Christ expressing upon this plane, the same as has been ascribed unto me.

What I did in that lifetime you are doing even now, grander things. You will do all that I have done and even grander things will you do. For indeed, as we sit here and we speak of one crucifixion, supposedly the crucifixion of one Jeshua ben Joseph upon the cross. How does that feel? Can you feel the nails, the spikes for they were not tiny nails? The spikes in the hands? Can you identify with that?

Can you identify with the feeling of being crucified upside down with the head toward the ground?

Know you why you can identify with that? You have experienced it. You have experienced being physically crucified, yes, there is a relatedness. It is not that you look upon a picture and you think, "Hm, I don't know what that's all about." You do know what that's all about. You know what that feels like. You also know what it feels like to find yourself very much alive, to resurrect the body for you have done that. It is not just a history of one Jeshua ben Joseph. That is what has been taught unto you. That is what you have taught others, but it is beyond that and you also have a relatedness when we speak of ascension, of how it would feel to ascend the very molecules of the body and you say unto yourself, "Well, sometime if I'm really lucky and I'm worthy enough and I fulfilled all of whatever. I don't even know what it is, somewhere in the future I will ascend as Jeshua has ascended."

How can you even imagine what ascension is if you hadn't already somewhere within the sphere of time, experienced it? And you are calling it now back into your conscious awareness. It is not necessary now that you go and allow yourself to be nailed to the cross, to go through that process. You have already done that.

Not only that, but you have experienced your own crucifixions in relationships. Many times when you felt crucified by the brothers and sisters because they did not understand where you were coming from. They did not understand the vision that you held. Many times there was judgment and it felt as a crucifixion and you have resurrected yourself after a period of mourning, after a period of self pity, after a period of saying, "Oh, my God. Are they right?" And you come to a place of saying, "No, I know my truth," and you have resurrected yourself and then you have come with a shift in perception to an ascension for you have ascended the image that you have held of yourself and of the brothers and sisters as well. You have ascended that so there has been the crucifixion that you have felt and experienced even on the emotional plane, even on the plane of perceptions and you have resurrected the Truth of your being and ascended into that Truth, many times.

It happens every week in your timing. Sometimes every day in your timing until you are coming to the place of staying in that ascension and then all of your world is transformed in front of you. Does this answer your question, beloved one? Yes, even that and even more, right? Indeed.

Beloved daughter and servant of our Heavenly Father, who has provide this place for our meeting this evening, would you have a question?

It is not necessary for there is much Love in your heart and much radiance of the being that shines forth in simplicity. For as you serve others, the Love that you are is shown in tangible form. It is felt and received and understood whether there are the words or whether it is spoken from the eyes. There is much of Love and understanding that is extended silently and I thank you.

And beloved daughter who has changed her name and claimed an ancient remembrance, how are you this evening?

Great.

You are indeed, great. Would you have a question?

I don't know where to begin. I guess I desire so much to grow. The last six months of this year have been so fabulous. I experienced so much. When I visit with certain people that have been as ancient family I {not clear}

Indeed, everyone in this circle understands exactly what you are describing.

I always felt, I really feel my husband and I ... we learned all the lessons that are there to learn but ... I want to leave. It would break my whole family apart.....

Ah, beloved one, the responsibility upon the shoulders, yes. There is yet but one lesson to be learned. It is the lesson of allowing and Loving. Of being at peace even though you would see the brothers and sisters, the mate, the family in other belief systems and even if you would perceive them as judging you, it is to be in the place of knowing so fully the Love that you are that it matters not where they are and what choices they make.

Where they are in their belief system, as you would see it, and also where they are even in geographical location, for you will know that you are very much heart connected, very much bonded with these ones for it is not by accident that you are again together in what you would see as the family unit. For you have done that in other lifetimes and you have contracted and agreed that you would come together again in this time in order to share with each other differing beliefs.

So that each one will come unto a place of knowing and comprehending and allowing the whole. It is very much as you would look upon the gemstone that is cut with the facets. There are the different aspects, the different facets that catch and radiate the light. Each one of the facets would see itself as being different, distinct from the others, and yet, they are very much part of the one gemstone. It is the same with your family.

What you behold there is the holy Child in expression in unique qualities of expression. In the days to come, beginning even with this moment, appreciate each one's unique expression of what they see their truth to be. Appreciate each one as the actor, the actress upon the stage for they do their script very well, as you do.

Allow yourself to applaud the individual abilities and expressions and then look beyond that to who they truly are. Know that they are the holy Child, the same as you, searching to come Home. Searching with their own choices and their own path, as you would call it, bringing together the very events, circumstances, challenges, issues that will bring them to that place of choosing anew. That place of saying, "I've had enough. There must be another way. I have seen ones in great challenge somewhat similar to what I feel myself doing and then I'm happy." How did she do that? What does she know?" You will find member of the family coming unto you. Not immediately, but in the days to come and asking, for they have seen, already they have seen. Already they have seen at a very deep level, the message that you have changed. You are coming into a place of more surety about yourself. More of a knowing that you know where you are going.

You did not know exactly the path. You take some of the detours. That is okay, too. The holy Child does that. It is part of the adventure. But they are perceiving a change in you, a certainty about you that says, "I will know who I am. I will come Home. And I will express even now in joy. Even though I see challenges. Even though I perceive judgments. Even though sometimes I allow those judgments, as I see them, to come into my dwelling place for a moment or so and perhaps rock my boat." Even in those time the still small voice calls out to you. You response even more quickly every time to that still small voice.

They see that. They do not consciously yet, respond to it but they will. For they are searching as well. They are looking. They have been looking to their peers and to society and to other family members for what they thought to be role models. For ones that they thought to behold the truth for them. But they will find after they have tried some of the tangents, they will come back. They need to try the tangents. They feel they need to try the tangents. In truth they don't, but feel that they do and they would feel if they went farther along the highway and did not go off on the side road there would be that question about, "What's off on that side road that I didn't go?"

You've done the same thing yourself. You have gone down the side road in order to, "Just see what is at the end of that side road? For I want to experience it." It is the same with them.

You have agreed that you would come together and you would push the buttons of various issues for each other so that those issues can come up and be acknowledged and be seen in wholeness. Not just as they come up and appear to be and are responded to in a habitual way. That is the first reaction, is to come in the habitual feeling, reaction to it, that is the first, but now you are saying, "There must be more to this. I want to know the holiness of this. I want to know my holiness, and in order to know that I want to know the holiness of everything that comes unto my consciousness, my doorstep."

And so there will be the issues, yes. There will be the issues that come and challenge who you think you are and you are asking for these. You have grand strength and you are asking to see the wholeness of each issue so that it may be healed. That is what healing is, is to know the wholeness of it.

So you have said, "Yes, bring it on. I'm ready for it. I want to come Home. And I will do whatever it takes." But allow yourself the final, as you would see it, lesson and yet it is not even a lesson. It is a remembrance. Allow yourself to remember the wholeness of each one who stands before you and to applaud how well they are doing with their script. Even when they come and stand before you and judge what you are doing and saying, "You fool. How can you believe that? Why do you spend so much time off in whatever, in an area that I do not even understand." And part of them at that moment is calling to you and saying, "Please, I want to go with you but I don't where you have gone." They are calling out to know, but they do not yet know how to voice that desire.

So allow yourself to be at peace with them for there will come a time in the days to come when you will find yourself taking the physical vehicle, the body, unto a new place. But you will go in a peacefulness. In a place where you know that you are bonded with them and they will know that you are bonded with them and that no matter if you take the body unto a new place to express it is not that you take your Love away from them. It is not that you leave them with a loss. It will be very much an added unto that they will experience. Not a loss.

For they will know that yet, you have gone unto what you see as another geographical location but they can always call you up. They can always make trek to where you are and they will be welcome. Or, and this will happen to, you will make trek to where they are for the family reunions, for you value them, and you will thank them even as you do now, for what they are doing for you as the servants that they are unto you.

Comments & Questions not clear]

Indeed. This one has, as you have already discerned, contemplated going unto another dimension. But that is where it lies. It is in contemplation. But what it brings up for you are feelings, very deep feelings of what you have experience in what you would see as other lifetimes where this one has left you. Has physically laid down the body and has gone on and you felt a great loss for you did not know his telephone number and you could not call him up. You did not even believe that there was such a thing as the spiritual telephone and you felt devastated.

There have been lifetimes when he left you with the family members, the little ones and you felt the responsibility and you took that upon yourself and you were mother unto the little ones that were born of your body, and the ones that were of the extended family as well. You have often been, as what you would see, as mother to an extended family. So it does not come as a new role to you in this lifetime. It is one that you have taken to yourself many times.

But what comes up for you is a very deep memory of the feeling of loss and devastation because of the perceived loss. The cut off of the communication with this one. That is what surfaces and why it surfaces? Is to be released. It is much as you would see the pot of water that is put upon the burner and the heat is turned on and the little bubbles simmer on the bottom and then they come up as a rolling boil at the top. You have seen that. To be released. This is much as the feelings that you are allowing now to come up for you. They are coming up to be released. To be seen in wholeness.

You, beloved one, are now in a different place in your understanding where you have come unto a place of peace about this and have said, "Okay. It is not my druthers, perhaps, that we do this. But if that be his choice, okay, and I bless you on your way."

You are very much in a different place with this than you have been in other lifetimes. But do not let yourself be, what you would see as, feeling responsible for any of the choices, any of the family and especially not for the mate. For he is a master, the same as you. He is your equal as are all of your brothers and sisters. Whether they see themselves to be that or not. Everyone expressing upon this plane is a master who is desiring to know his or her mastery. That is what this is all about.

So, as you have seen, it is as the water that goes off of the duck's back. You allow, you Love, you know the wholeness in every moment. This is why it has been said, "Not my will, but Thine be done," and the true meaning of that is, "Not my will, as the small self, with the limited vision that can see only what is right in front of me. But Thy will, the will of the whole Self." Not the will of a God that is far off somewhere, for truly our Heavenly Father is not afar off. I and the Father are one. You and the Father are one. The Father is very much you, always. Thy will be done.

In other words, "Let me see with the whole eyes of the whole Self. Thy will be done." In that there is a grand peace and all of the days of your life are then lived in that peace.

There are many adventures. Much of excitement that will allow the heart to be lifted up for you in the days to come. For you have shed much of the responsibility, much of the burden that you have carried from other lifetimes as you saw it to be necessary in those lifetimes.

Now you are saying, "No, perhaps they can do okay," and they can. For in time they will come Home as well. Perhaps they will use route 81 and you use route 56 or whatever, but they come Home. Do not trouble yourself. Always in every moment extend Love. Allow the heart to be wide open. For as you extend the Love in a grand flow and you smile, even in the midst of other's ranting and raving, other's depression because they do not understand where you are with it. Allow the angelic smile to come forth. In time they will understand.

And I do not mean by that that you will have to lay down the body and go unto what is termed Heaven. I mean in time upon this plane, they will understand as well.

Thank you, beloved one. You are a grand Light upon this plane. There are many who watch your adventure, your journey. Enjoy.

1994-10-15

And you, beloved daughter, what would you ask this evening?

{Not clearly recorded}

Your spiritual comes into tangible form in what you see as the service, the shops. Allow yourself to go with the heart's desire. For as you have discerned, the shops are a grand place to meet and to love people. It is a grand excuse for bringing the seemingly individual expressions of the brothers and sisters together. They think they have a need. They come and they receive more than the food. More than the mechanical contraptions. They receive the interchange of energy. They receive remembrances with a smile, with the eyes, the word that is exchanged, the support that they know is there. They receive much more than what the object is.

You have a desire of your heart that you would like to see manifest. It has been knocking, as you would see, around the edges of your heart. It is something that you have desired that someone else would provide for you in your area. A place where you could go and have the books that you desire. A place where you will have the food that nourishes and sustains the body and is an enjoyment to ingest.

But also a place where you can ingest the ideas. Play with them, sometimes regurgitate them in a cleanly fashion and play with those in interchange with the brothers and sisters. Ideas and concept that allow the mind to expand beyond what the boundaries have seemed to be.

Allow yourself to play with that idea, for there are many in your area who are now awakening. They would not term it that, but they are searching. They want to know. They get excited with ideas that are a bit beyond what they would see the norm to be and you can allow them a place to gather where they will give you the golden coins for the tangible form of the food, for the tangible form of the books, for the tangible form of attending a workshop. Much of that. And you have many who will assist you in this.

That will bring into your awareness a network of ones who seem to be right now, underground. They are not quite obvious. They haven't quite surfaced, but they are very much there and they are waiting for someone to build it so they can come.

So, yes, allow yourself to expand into another shop that will provide the golden coins for you as well, but do it from the heart's desire. You may have it all. You may have the food, the fishing tackle, yes, all of those things. The books, the workshops, everything.

You will find yourself doing a grand service unto your brothers and sisters and you will find yourself being most rewarded because you will say, "There you are. I had a hunch there might be others out there who thought like I do." And you will start your bookstore. Not with what other ones will look at and term to be, so far out that they will not relate to it. But you will have other books in there that will kind of gently lead them into it.

But you will have also the books that excite your heart and you will find more and more of the brothers and sisters being drawn to those books as well, for you have created an atmosphere of safety. An atmosphere of welcome for them to come and to find what they are searching for.

But you will have some of the tangible forms of things where people can come and buy what they feel is nonthreatening. The candles, the books of inspiration, something that is of beauty but does not seem to be labeled as too far out. And gently they will be led to what they are really searching for.

Have fun with it, beloved one. It has already been knocking upon the door of your heart.

Okay. Thank you.

It is my pleasure.

Beloved one, who has much wisdom. Gained not only in what you would see as the years of this lifetime, but many other lifetimes as well. One who goes with a serenity in her heart. Would you have a question this evening?

It is not necessary. There is much communion that you and I have. Many times you have prayed unto me and have spoken to me. I am not afar off and you know that. I have answered what you have called your prayer. Miraculously sometimes. Most surprising. Sometimes even quicker than you thought possible. Yes, it has been my grand pleasure. I Love you with the Love of the Heavenly Father.

Beloved Maria who claims a name that she has had often. What would you ask this evening? Here we go.

Now, I'm curious about this. Now when we talk about the lifetime as one life, isn't that when we, do we repeat things that... Gosh, I have trouble with English.

You may put it in another language if you want to.

{Laughter}

I've been dreaming in French lately. Say there is something that we are struggling with to be constriction. Is it such that we repeat the same processes until we have figured out the lesson or how to overcome what it is that we have been trying to learn? And then we can move on from it? Okay, so it's a continuum then?

It is seen to be that way within the experience of time, and it is not so much a learning of the lesson as it is the releasing, the forgetting of what has not been true. It is a remembrance of the wholeness that you are.

It has been termed learning lessons, but the only lesson that is to be learned is one of remembrance. So your question is, is it a continuum? And it would be seen as an evolvment, an evolution, an unfolding. It has been termed that, yes. As you would see a child awakening. A child that has been dreaming and has been in a very deep sleep. There is what you would see within time, a gradual awakening.

One child will toss and turn and be most active in the bed while still asleep. Finding himself or herself when they awaken very much caught up in the bed clothes, all wrapped up in the bed clothes because of the tossing and turning. Others lie very peaceful and awaken very gently so that in one moment they are asleep and the next moment the eyes are open and seen.

Others, take what are called the nightmares and awaken like that out of a nightmare and say, "Oh my God. I'm so glad I'm awake." Indeed, and all of you have scripted that for yourselves in what you would see the continuum to be. It is an awakening. It is a remembrance and it has been seen as a process because there is the belief in process.

Now, your brothers and sisters who express as the Light beings that we are, who see themselves in an experience of no time or in altered time, for there is that as well. Look upon a process that is deeply held and believed in on this plane and will see what is happening here very much in slow motion as you would take a recording and play it very slowly. And they will see the vision that you have within the mind and within the heart and then they will see you going in what would be very slow motion to the attainment, manifestation of that vision.

Others, because there experience of time, altered time, is different. They will look and they will say, "This one has a vision," and that fast it manifests. It very much relative.

So to answer your question, yes, within the concept of time as it is understood upon this plane, there is a gradual continuum, a gradual awakening, a process. I have another question.

Indeed, I could see there was another.

We talked about this the other day, with my upcoming tour and being an actor and I want to express in this way on the stage and I want to earn a living. I feel that I can.

Indeed, for you have done so many times.

And, but I'm also, I feel as though with doing this in this form of creativity there is also a part of me that not only expresses artistically, but so much joy that I get from it in touching the people that if I'm performing in front of, to have them touched emotionally. ... One of my performances was of Mary Magdalene. I was her. I was there. I could feel this and I saw an old man cry in front of me. They don't do this all that often in public.

Indeed.

It was a wonderful feeling. You were there. I made them remember. I made them feel and it touches a wonderful give and take for me that I want to do this as a means of survival. Monetarily speaking. Anyway, not the survival, but to get by and I guess my question is, how do we know? If mean if you heart says go. Go and do this, but yet, there is no monetary reward so often. How do you know that this is the place that you are supposed to go or if there is another path that you are supposed to somehow related?

Indeed, as you have discerned it is most healing for you and for others. For you allow them the opportunity to connect with their remembrance. To allow the tears to be released. To come unto that place of connecting with the heart through what they see as another time, another expression. They relate, yes, as you do. There is a oneness. A touching and a healing that happens.

That is why you desire to do this so much, for it allows you the opportunity to know your wholeness and to be the facilitator as it is seen, for others to connect with their wholeness. But as the creative Child that you are, you will create for yourself much as the juggler that you have been in other lifetimes, a way of having what is necessary for the flow of the golden coins to sustain the physical design and also to follow the heart's desire.

You will be most creative for there are ways, other ways while you are nurturing what the heart wants to be doing all the time. There are ways called an avocation, that you can bring in the golden coins and allow your heart to be open in that aspect as well. It may even mean that you will do two or three creative ways. You are very much the juggler. You know how to do that. You will do it again.

Follow your vision. Follow where your heart leads. It is a true vision, but allow yourself as the bridge person that we spoke of earlier, the tree that grows with its roots firmly grounded. Allow yourself to be creative in some of these branches that will sustain the roots and the roots sustain the branches. As you allow new branches to sprout and to find the sun in expression.

You are most beautiful, beloved one.

Indeed, and I thank you for having the eyes to see that. It is the Love that shines forth. Allow yourself to be the Child that you are, the holy Child.

Indeed, and sometimes has been a challenge to what you would see as the boundaries, yes. But this one is doing very well. Her heart is true as you know, and this one because she has the courage to express the Child, to express the Love that comes forth in grand freedom, she gives unto other the opportunity to see, "Perhaps I can allow my Child to play as well." Maybe not in such grand exuberance, but they will put the toe in the water and they will say, "That feels okay. I'll try the whole foot," and after awhile they connect with the joy that they are as well. Thank you, beloved one.

And now, beloved daughter, would you have a question?

You know I do.

Indeed. Indeed, you do.

When we were talking last night about the two or three, we've had that competition, was that in our Arthurian time?

Indeed, it was.

Is that why that? And everybody is, really?

Indeed, and do you know why this is?

No, I don't. Tell me.

There is a magic that is felt of that time. The time of King Arthur and his knights to believed so much in a vision. They were caught up in the vision. And yes, it was translated into temporal terms, but there was a Truth beyond what was interpreted upon this plane in temporal terms. There was a magic that is felt even now. It was the magic of knowing the unlimited Child, the holy Child, and connecting with that.

That is why you are calling it forth even now in your books that come to hand, in your videos, as they are called and your movies. That is why there is a fascination with that time. For many of you who would see yourselves to be of the new way of thinking, the way of remembrance, are ones who expressed in that time, and knew yourself to be connected with the Allness that you are.

You knew that magic is real. Not the magic that the world believes in, but the magic of the Truth of your being. The unlimitedness of who you are and you were truly alive in that time. That is what that time symbolizes for you. A time of bringing magic, possibilities, unlimitedness into expression upon this plane and you did that in what you would see as a far off time. And again, it is right here. Right with us in this room now as we speak of it. The magic is alive and well. The magic is carried as an ember deep within your heart and the ember now flickers and come alive.

That is what you feel inside of you as the Light. That is why there is so much interest in light. Why you have so many books that come to hand that speak of the Light now. That is why you even speak of being lighthearted, of being Light workers, bearers. Yes, there is a magic that you knew in those times and that you know in this time. That is why you are calling it forth now, to be your companion. When you read of those times, you are transported to that reality and it allows the heart to come open, to be excited, to go in feeling, in unlimitedness.

To know the Brotherhood of the Knights of the round table and they were not all of male gender. There were the ones who expressed with the female design, as you would see it, as well. But the ones again that have now in your belief system in the recorded stories, the history, as you call it, the ones in your history are the ones of the male expression.

Know you that there are others of your brothers and sisters, Light beings who express with form who have another belief and all of the knights of the round table, wear knight tresses. However you would make that feminine. We need a fresh term for knight in the feminine form.

{Laughter}

Awaken, beloved one. Well we will call the Day. As Knight is, we will call the feminine form Day.

I like that.

Indeed. That was as a remembrance of the Brotherhood that has been termed the Brotherhood of Light, which is all of the holy Child. All, as you see yourself to be, seemingly expressing as individual drops of the water, the ocean. All of you are of the Brotherhood. The Brotherhood is not separate from you. It has served a purpose to see the Brotherhood as beyond, more wise, as masters but they are not separate from you either. They are very much who you are. You speak unto them. They speak unto you.

They knock upon the door of your mind and say, "Entertain this thought. Perhaps we are not so far off. We are not dead and gone. We are not of in what you would see as a far realm for you are the Brotherhood." As you allow yourself to express the Christ that you are, you express the Brotherhood of Light.

It has served a purpose in what you would see as the continuum of unfoldment. It has served the purpose of allowing the brothers and sisters and you, to awaken. It has said that there is something more to be sought after. There is a higher knowing. "There are ones, maybe I don't know it," but you do, "and there are ones and they know more than I do and if I am lucky, sometime I will connect with them." And that is very much that you have put the blindfold in front of you, the eyes, and the ears. Covered the ears, and all the time the Brotherhood is very much expressing in your presence as you and as the brothers and sisters that you even see in utilizing this form. The Brotherhood is alive and well and expressing right now.

But why you feel the magic of King Arthur, and that time of Merlin who was able to do the magic and yes, yes, he knew magic. He know himself not to be limited to this point of focus and there were many others who expressed in that time as well. They were in alignment with the unlimitedness.

Why you are bringing that forth now is to reconnect with the magic that is you. That is, beloved ones, what we have spoken of in this evening when we spoke of the days to come. The magic that you are coming alive and visible upon this plane. In remembrance and in the reality of expression and anchoring upon this plane in total awareness.

There will be in the days to come, it has been prophesied that there will be the upheavals. There will be doom and gloom, catastrophic events in order to get unto the days of redemption and there will be the upheavals. But they are not so much the upheavals of our Holy Mother, the Earth that you will be seeing, they are the upheavals within the holy Child herself coming unto the place of saying, "I will allow this shift in perception," and some of the shifts in perception that you make are as grand earthquakes within yourself. You will even feel, you can even feel physically a shifting as you allow the restructuring of your image of who you are and what the world is for.

So there will be the upheavals. Some of the brothers and sisters will need the physical evidence of the upheavals known as earthquakes and volcanoes and whatever, in order to bring themselves to a place of saying, "Okay. That's really enough, all right? Now, now I've had enough." Some will ask for that, but if you will if you will receive it, in all of what you see as history are Holy Mother, the Earth has shifted and changed. There have always been the earthquakes as the shifting has happened. There have been the volcanoes as the shifting has happened and there has been the pressure from within that has been released, much as the pot that boils.

And where are you right now? You are right here. You have lived through countless upheavals of our Holy Mother, the Earth. Times in which you saw the necessity and made the choice to lay down the body. It was not a necessity but you perceived it that way and in what you would see as recycling, you raised up another body and are expressing again.

So when you hear the beloved brothers and sisters speaking of prophecies, of the upheavals, calamities, traumatic events, days of doom and gloom, allow yourself to go one step further with this and to see that the only upheavals that are of what you would see as importance, are the changes that happen in the perception of who you are and why you are here and what is happening upon this plane.

Know that you are always guided to be where you have chosen to be for your own awakening. If you find yourself in the midst of the shaking earth that is doing its thing with the zipper opening, know that you can stand upon that ground that is shaking and quaking and opening and if it is your decree and your desire to keep on expressing with the molecules of the dust of the earth, you will keep on expressing.

There will be as it would be seen, a cloud of Light around you and where does this cloud come from? Not outside of you, but you. If it is your choice and you are standing upon the zipper when it opens, you may see the necessity which is not a necessity, to lay down the body that way and you will ascend the body as my beloved brother Mafu has done in a time interval as it is measured upon this plane, at a later time interval. For he knew himself to be one with the expression even in physical form and he knew the body was his energy, the collection of molecules, because of his energy and he ascended the body even after what you would see as the volcano had come over him.

Ones of you would call that a miracle and yet, miracles are a natural order of things. When miracles do not occur there is something out of balance. All of you are wanting miracles in every moment.

Allow yourselves to be at peace with the miracle that you are. Allow yourselves to drink in the golden white Light that you are and to go with a fluidity of that Light. For you are loved and you are Love. Allow yourself to express the Christ that you are. Even if others would speak from their belief and tell you that they can interpret what you are doing. Allow yourself to speak from the whole Mind. For it is very much being called for upon this plane.

The brothers and sisters are calling out in grand intensity to know that there is Love, that there is harmony, that there is hope and they are asking you to be strong enough to come from the heart and to offer them what they only dare think might be.

Allow yourself to live in joy for that is your divine birthright. Be at peace wherever you are. For all of you in this room will find yourselves making trek unto new lands, as you would call them, and yet they are not new. For as you go unto what is seen as a new land you will feel a remembrance, an attunement, and a familiarity.

All of you desire to travel. All of you desire to see new lands. It is because you desire to connect in remembrances, yes, and to connect with the Allness of expression. And as you travel unto different places, as you exchange with others your ideas, as you allow the heart to open and to be excited, so excited that it is contagious, you transform the very world that you see in front of you.

Allow yourself to go forth with grand excitement for you are the beloved daughter upon this plane. Follow your heart for it is true. Allow yourself to abide in joy in a feeling of contentment and a feeling of fulfillment. For you have done what was asked of you and now you reap the rewards of it. You can claim your reward and to live in peace with it. And the Heavenly Father sees you as His only Child and loves you.

Go forth upon the plane and upon the stage of this plane. The stage as your brothers and sisters would acknowledge it to be and the stage that is the grand stage that one of your playwrights has written about, "That all the world is a stage." This one was and is a grand playwright, for he played with writing and still does.

He is very much alive and well. Still expressing, still playing. He is with you from time to time.

And you, beloved one, allow yourself the excitement of what is just beyond, seeming, the grasp. For as you allow yourself the excitement of knowing that it is to come, guess what? You are already there.

Yes, it is very much as you have a saying in your world, that the journey is the importance. It is not the getting there, not the destination for the destination is the journey and it is a grand journey and a grand time of celebration.

The days to come are a time of grand beauty. A time when you connect with the Allness that you are. A time when you know that the expression of one Jeshua ben Joseph has been your expression, for indeed you have lived my life and I live yours in every moment for there is no separation.

The great ray of Light that we are created before time was, is forever ongoing and forever expressing. And in that, beloved ones, you are One.

So be it.
