- 1996-0607-001 Beloved and holy and only Child of our Heavenly Father, Child of the one Source, Child of Light divine, that is who you are. I am the one known as Jeshua ben Joseph -- Jesus, you have called me -- and it is in great joy that I come to abide with you this evening in your timing as you have chosen to call me forth. For indeed always I am one with you for in Truth I cannot be apart from you. But I come in this manner when you are willing to turn the focus of your attention unto me and to consciously invite me to be with you.
- 1996-0607-002 Great joy beloved one, great joy for this is indeed a meeting of old friends. As you have looked upon the various ones gathered in this room, you have felt a familiarity. You have known many of these ones as being family members. And if you have looked this evening upon the visage of one that you have felt that you did not see yet in this lifetime, know that in truth you have known that one many, many times.
- 1996-0607-003 You have all been together as family throughout the ages. Even if you will receive it, from before time began and this a gathering of old friends. For in truth you have invited me as I have invited you. You have answered the invitation of your own soul, of the one soul that we are to come past boundaries of self-image, boundaries of what society has said that you are, boundaries of belief to what is possible and you have responded to the call of your heart knowing that yes, even though there would be the trek of many miles, you wanted to be here. There was no question that you would be here, all of you. And even to the one who has provided the dwelling place.
- 1996-0607-004 You have made mighty trek for indeed what has transpired in what you would see as the last day in your timing has been a grand journey. I salute you beloved brother for indeed that is what you are, for opening your heart and your home to this gathering once again as you have done in the ages long past.
- 1996-0607-005 There have been many times that you have been so gathered together. This is not the first time that you have been together in such a way. There have been many times that you have shared love, you have shared laughter, you have shared the tones of the voice in praise and in joy and you have shared of the food that nourished the body and shared of the food that nourished the soul.
- 1996-0607-006 Many times you have come together for the sheer happiness of just being together for the fun of it. For indeed you do not have to have seriousness or even what you would see as special reason. The reason that you are is reason enough.

1996-06-07 Oakbridge University Channeled by Judith Coates

It is to share the Father's Love and the Mother's Love, for indeed that is all you are asked to do.

- 1996-0607-007 The world would put many questions to you. The world would give you many "shoulds" of how you should look upon everything, how you should go about, how you should come in, how you should think, and yet all that your Heavenly Father asks of you is to be the Light and the Love that you are. To be that in joy. That is why I say to you in my opening greeting, "It is in great joy that I come to abide with you." For in truth, that is who and what you are. You are the joy of the Father.
- 1996-0607-008 And if there are times in your daily living that you do not feel joy, allow yourself the pause that refreshes. Allow yourself the pause of a deep breath and to connect once again with the love and the joy of the Father and to look light-heartedly upon whatever transpires.
- 1996-0607-009 If there be one standing right in your face who would be asking of you certain decisions that need to be made, deadlines that have to be met, and indeed they are dead lines as you would feel yourself tied to them. If there are ones who come right in your face, a certain seriousness, you have choice either to meet them in that space which you know well for indeed you have reacted many times habitually and found yourself in that space. Or you have choice to breathe and to smile and to allow yourself the pause that refreshes. It is not only your commercials as they are called, that have a corner on the refreshments.
- 1996-0607-010 I would speak to you this evening about who you are. All of you have asked of me, I have heard you in your times of meditation, your times of trouble, your times of turmoil, your times of confusion, your times of being analytical. When you have asked of me and of the Father and of anyone who would listen, "Who am I? Why am I here?" Have you not said that? Have you not wondered, what is this all about? Why am I here, and who am I?
- 1996-0607-012 Well beloved ones I have a great message to give to you because you have asked me to give it to you. For indeed I cannot give you anything that you do not already have. But I can bring and place right in front of the consciousness what you asked me to bring out and to share with you in awareness. That is what I do.
- 1996-0607-013 For indeed I cannot share with you anything that you do not already know for all wisdom is yours and I cannot gift you anything that you do not already have for being the one Child of the Father. You have and are everything.
- 1996-0607-014 But in this point of focus that you do so well, this lifetime, this reality you have temporarily forgotten the Allness of you and now there is a great wave that is reaching across the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth, a wave of awakening, a wave of consciousness because the holy Child has decreed that she will know who she is.

1996-06-07 Oakbridge University Channeled by Judith Coates

- 1996-0607-015 For the children who have lived in darkness have seen a great light. You have been the children who have lived in darkness. For indeed even as you would look upon this lifetime, the activities of this lifetime there has been times when you could not see where you were going and you felt that you were in what has been called the dark night of the soul. The dark place, the questioning place. You have lived moments of darkness. Not of evil, but moments where the light somehow would be perhaps as a slight glimmer and you because you are the child of the one Father, you have perceived even that glimmer and you have held on to it even in the moments of despair when all of the world was crashing around you and all that you knew and understood to be security was changing.
- 1996-0607-016 You held on to that glimmer of light and you said, "I know that there must be more than just what is going on in front of me. I feel that I am in a dark place, a cave perhaps, but I also know that there has to be light at the end of the tunnel." You have that saying, "There is light at the end of the tunnel." Why would you have such a saying? Because you know that you are light and that there is light at the end of the tunnel. At the end of every experience that has seemed to be dark, oppressive. You have lived, if you will receive it, you have lived many lifetimes in darkness for this is not the only lifetime, not the only point of focus that you have known and if you will receive it, this is not the only life experience that you are living even now as there is attention, point of focus, right here in what you would call this time.
- 1996-0607-017 For you are unlimited, and even as we speak within this time frame, this reality of this evening, you are most busy in other realms experiencing, expressing the energy that goes beyond anything physical of the Father.
- 1996-0607-018 Now this is, this point of focus, this reality is a reality of physicality, physicalness -- if that is a word. Everything that you interact with and understand within this point of focus has physical basis. There are laws that you have created and believing that govern physicality and all of your terminology has to do with and is based upon the belief in physicalness. And yet that glimmer of light that we have spoken of is the spirit of you that activates all of matter, that has brought all of creation into form, whatever form it be and there are many, many types of form. This is but one of them, this realm. And you are most busy.
- 1996-0607-019 For in my Father's house are many mansions, many realms of experience and of expression. This is but one of them. And when you release the body, when you release the very close identification with the body in this realm, you go to experience because of your own choice, another room within the mansion.
- 1996-0607-020 Now, it has been a belief up to this point, put forward throughout the ages by your men of religion, philosophy, theology that it is necessary to deny the body. Either to take yourself off to a remote mountain, cave somewhere and to deny all physicalness to go beyond it in order to know other realms. Or that you must debase the body, in other words, release it.

- 1996-0607-021 But I share with you in this evening that already you have gone into other realms and experienced other realms even while keeping the pilot light going with the physicality, the body. You have done this in meditation. You have gone beyond what has been known to be reality and you have traveled somewhere. You have been in a state, an exalted state perhaps a place of joy, a place of great peace where you have communed with the Father and you have come then from that space most happy, joyous, uplifted and you have wanted to share that with another one and you have tried to put it into words and you could not quite find the words to describe it and yet it was most real and one looking upon you could see that indeed you had allowed your light to be expanded. For the light within the eyes and around the physical form is expanded. Turned on. Again you have that saying in your world, being turned on, coming alive.
- 1996-0607-022 In what you will see as the next few years in your timing, you are going to know more and more expanded experience of your Self, of the one true Self, and you and others such as you are going to prove it to the brothers and sisters in a language that they will accept.
- 1996-0607-023 For the brothers and sisters are ready, there are many who are calling out to you because they remember at a very deep level that there is much more to life than just the place of employment, just the family, just the three score years and ten or whatever time you call a lifetime to be. They are hungry for messages from beyond to know that there is a beyond, beyond just the point of focus that is right here at the end of the nose.
- 1996-0607-024 But they want to know in a certain way that they can believe this, that it is true and they want to know it from ones such as you because they know that you question.
- 1996-0607-025 All of you are teachers of God. All of you by example, teach what you live, what you are willing to share with the brothers and sisters. They see your courage. They see your persistence. They see your belief and your hope and that speaks much more loudly than if you were to pull out the soapbox and to stand upon it with your holy Scriptures in the hand and to beat against the holy Scriptures and to say, "This is the Truth." This is the truth. This is the truth. Everyone of you is the living walking truth and you are God in expression.
- 1996-0607-026 And each one of you brings a beautiful aspect of the Father into expression. Each one of you speaks to the brothers and sisters in a way that they can understand. Some will want proof. "Prove it to me. And the laws, the logical ways, take me step by step and show me." Others will say, "I do not want to follow that ladder. I want to know and I look deeply within your eyes and I find the Christ in your - eyes." Other will leap immediately to the heart for they know that is where you live.

- 1996-0607-027 Everyone of the brothers and sisters in this time now are calling out to know who they are. They, as you, are the ones who have lived in the darkness and now have seen a great light. It is the light that you are willing to share with them and then they will see that that light is also within them.
- 1996-0607-028 For indeed you cannot behold that which you are not. It is as your computer programs. If it isn't put in there in the program it is not going to read it. I learned that from Beloved Elder. He sometimes gets funny things that come out of that box and then he wonders why, how does it come out? Well it depends on what he has put in I suppose.
- 1996-0607-029 It is true in your experience as well. For what will come to the consciousness, the awareness is what you have put into it and have focused upon. And all of you are teachers by your example, by your willingness.
- 1996-0607-030 For indeed it has taken great courage to come to this point of reality. To say that I will focus upon this point of reality that believes in duality, that believes that there could be good and evil.
- 1996-0607-031 Everything you look upon there seems to be two sides to it. For there is a great belief within this focus, this reality that there is a duality, that there is God and perhaps something that is not God. You have heard this in your religious circles, your teachings.
- 1996-0607-032 Religious teaching that have been passed down generation to generation that you have to be wary, that there might be something that could trip you up. That there is an energy, a personality, an entity somewhere you don't quite see him. I don't know why it is identified as a him. Could just as well be a her I suppose. And yes, yes that has in your lineage to have that belief, that there could be a, I suppose it was called a Jezebel. Anyway, that could tempt. And then there was Eve. I digress.
- 1996-0607-033 But there has been a belief in duality and it has taken great courage for you to say once again, "I will bring my light, my awareness, my consciousness and focus it so specifically within this reality and speak a language that the brothers and sisters can understand. I will assume a form that is like everyone else's form, a body, a physical body and I will come through challenges. I will hear the voice of the world and the questions of the world so that when I speak others will know that I have come through what they come through and they can relate to me because I am seemingly as they are." It has taken great courage.
- 1996-0607-034 You are the children of Light. You are the ones who have lived in darkness and you are now seeing the light, the great light that you are. For some of you, you behold a great physical light. You will see it because you have decreed that is what it takes. You want to experience that.

- 1996-0607-035 As my beloved brother Paul on the road to Damascus. There will be experience such as that. For all of you, you have had your experience of light that has been as a turning point for you could not go back after that happened for you have seen your own light.
- 1996-0607-036 But first perhaps you thought it was attributable to something outside of yourself. But you would not have known it such as the computer, if you were not already that light.
- 1996-0607-037 Now the belief in duality is a belief that is shared, a collective belief in this point of reality, this point of focus. It comes from a truth but as so often in a certain experiencing, there has been focus upon the other side of something where the focus has been upon separation, from all that you are, from the Father. Separation from the kingdom of heaven which is no great mystery. The kingdom of heaven is you. It is the peace that you are. It is that place of creativity that comes forth from the peace, from the love that would expand for that is the nature of love, to expand.
- 1996-0607-038 And the truth upon which the belief in duality is based is creation, is the creation that you have brought forth, the created form. For you as the child of the one Creator are creative by nature. It could not be otherwise and you desire to create. You see this even in everyday living, you create in everyday situation for yourself and if a day is going along really well sometimes you get a bit bored with it and you see what you can create that will stir it up a bit. All of you have done this, perhaps subtly, perhaps not so subtly for yourself and you have thought, "Let's put a little bit of spice into this." And you have said something to someone you knew perhaps were going to be as a button to them and sure enough it pushed a button and you have gotten right in there with a lot of energy and the day no longer was boring.
- 1996-0607-039 You have brought forth form. You are the Spirit, the energy that brings forth form and from this there has been a belief that there would be the duality, the separation of Spirit and form and yet as you look upon the beloved pet, in truth what is walking is love, energy. You would characterize it as light. It is walking love on the four feet and the energy that it is expands far beyond the boundaries of that form the same as with you.
- 1996-0607-040 For indeed you have all looked upon the lifeless form and you have seen that the activating force, the spirit of that has left. In truth what this is is the Father in expression the same as you.
- 1996-0607-041 In being creative in bringing forth form, bringing forth physicality you have become so immersed in your creation that there has been a temporary forgetting of the spirit that activates all form. But now the light that you are seeing is the light of Spirit and you are coming from the place of darkness to the place of knowing allness, the place of heaven upon earth even while if you so choose, activating the form that you know so well.

- 1996-0607-042 It is not necessary to lay down the body before you will know heaven. You have felt times of communion. You have felt times of oneness with the Father where you have been so translated and transfigured that you have gone beyond the form into the space of love and you have known yourself to be one with me and with the Father.
- 1996-0607-043 And this will be for you and for many of the brothers and sisters a grand reality. It is most contagious. It spreads. For as you have witnessed depression to be contagious, as you have witnessed worry, doom, rumors of war, rumors of gloom to be contagious, also rumors of truth are most contagious. And that is what you are willing now to spread, the grand truth.
- 1996-0607-044 For as you are willing to be uplifted to come into that state of exalted awareness into the Father's Love, it reaches out and it touches everyone. For in truth there is no separation. What you think goes out upon the ethers and it is received by brothers and sisters upon whom you may not lay the physical eyes in what you call this lifetime, and yet it is felt to the farthest point across the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth.
- 1996-0607-045 There is a great wave, that is why I have called it a wave, for it is spreading from one to another to another to another. The light is dawning. Not because I or other great masters that you would see to be above you have decreed that it is time, but because you have decreed that it is time. You have said that in this lifetime I will be happy. I will know love. I will give love. I will receive love. I will see beauty and joy in everything. It will be a time of great peace. That is what you are bringing forth now.
- 1996-0607-046 For everyone who beholds you see the innocence of love. They have opportunity to look within their own soul as they look upon you. Did you know how powerful you are? No, but as you smile that wondrous smile you allow other hearts to be lighter and it is contagious.
- 1996-0607-047 That is why when you are with someone and they begin laughing and they are so caught up in laughter even if you do not know what the joke is about, you find yourself beginning to laugh and you may at first say, "Well, this is crazy. Why am I laughing? I don't know what he's laughing at, but it feels good." And you find yourself caught up in it. It is most contagious and that is how the light dawns. It is spreading.
- 1996-0607-048 Teachers of God there is a great light and you are it. All of you. Each one of you has chosen a certain beautiful role that you will play in interaction with the brothers and sisters. Each one of you has said, "I will bring a certain aspect of the Father into prominence, into visibility for others to see and for myself to experience. I will bring forth beauty of form. I will bring forth beauty of soul. Great courage. Great courage. I will bring it forth as the Son that I am." It matters not if you are activating the physical form that seems to be female. You are a great Son. You are as the sunlight, as the smile. Yes, great sunlight.

- 1996-0607-049 Each one of you has talent, ability, certain expertise that you are willing to share with others. You would look back upon this lifetime and I will share with you that it goes back beyond this lifetime, of certain areas of interest where you have studied, where you have put time, awareness into. You have gained certain credentials, believability in the world, that you would share with the brothers and sisters.
- 1996-0607-050 All of these talents and abilities, expertise will be called into play in the next few years of your timing. It is not by accident that you have a various collection of certain interests, certain ways of going about the life and the life experience for it will all be called into play in the next few years of our timing, because you have decreed that you are going to know who you are.
- 1996-0607-051 Now I say this not as a warning. I say this as a message of great joy. For indeed you have all called out to be done with the constriction, to be done with the sorrow, to be done with all of the limitations that you have felt yourself bound by. You have railed against them.
- 1996-0607-052 You are bringing forth a new order and yes, it has its threads that go way back as you would see linear time to be. Farther back than this lifetime for indeed as you would count lifetimes there was a choice point, a lifetime, an experience where you as the prodigal son decided to rise up in consciousness and return Home once again.
- 1996-0607-053 You have repeated that decision again in this lifetime in your awareness, but in truth it is not new in this lifetime. It goes back in what you would see as linear time, far back to a place where you have said, "Surely there must be more than darkness. There must be more than just the table scraps. I want to and will arise up and return to my Father, to my Father's Home."
- 1996-0607-054 So you will yes, still know physicality for indeed physical creation is beautiful but you will see it in a new light, the light of a new understanding. The light of a new perception. The light of the Father Who is your light and that great light will not be hidden from any of the brothers and sisters.
- 1996-0607-055 There is much that you see transpiring in your world now that does not seem to be of light. Everyday you read in your news bulletins, you see upon the square box that allows you the visual from afar, you hear it given to you over the airwaves, I think it is called, the news which is not new. It repeats itself does it not?

- 1996-0607-056 Not only in what you would see as your geographical location, in geographical locations all over the face of our Holy Mother, the Earth. There is much of polarity that is happening. Again the belief in duality coming to a place of oneness but seemingly approaching it through the back door which is the way that humankind often enjoys coming to revelation.
- 1996-0607-057 I know this from my own experience. For I was a man and I knew human life and human experience. I knew time of doubt. I knew times of questioning. I knew times of asking, "Why?" For when I was a lad and I studied at the monastery with my teachers I would ask, "Why? But why? Why?" Until finally they sent me out to sit by flowing water, to come again to the peace of the heart where all wisdom abides. They said to me, "Jeshua, go. Peace brother. Be still."
- 1996-0607-058 They said this from their great wisdom and they said it from their humanhood as well. For in my wanting to remember I was as some others have been, very persistent in asking. I know human experience and I know human love and I know beyond human love.
- 1996-0607-059 All of the brothers and sisters even as they are engaged now in a great polarity of experience are coming Home. Some will choose the gentle route for they remember that they have already done the route that was of the rocks and boulders, the hard route.
- 1996-0607-060 All of you have known your pathways that were strewn with the rocks and boulders even in this lifetime you have known challenge. You have known completion with many changes.
- 1996-0607-061 Other of the brothers and sisters may choose a harsher route as you would look upon it and judge until they come to the place of saying, "There must be another way."
- 1996-0607-062 So even as you would look upon brothers and sisters who are making choices that perhaps you would not wish for them, know that they are arising in completion, issues that they do not yet feel complete with and bless them on their way. Always you will share with them that you are there for them. They know that. They know that you are the rock of love upon which they can always put their firm foundation. They know that you are there, but they have to try out to know completion with various issues in order to know their own strength and their own completion. To finally say, "I am complete with that. I know that to the place of satiation, fulfillment. I want to know more of it." And that is what brothers and sisters, ones that you look upon now who may be making choices that come from a place of non-love, seemingly. They are making choices for completion until finally they arrive as you have done, that place where you say, "I am the prodigal son who will rise up and return unto my Father."

- 1996-0607-063 Everyone that you look upon in this lifetime is making choice to come Home and you may bless them on their route. It does not mean that you have to stand in front of them and get run over by their route. But you may bless them as the Father does. For indeed the Father does not judge. He looks upon His holy Child playing and awaits the holy Child to awaken and to come Home in conscious awareness.
- 1996-0607-064 For indeed you are always Home. You have never left the Father, but you have chosen momentarily to turn the focus of attention unto certain realities of your creation -- realities with the small "r". The true Reality of who you are does not change. You are the great light that is now being seen. It is a time for rejoicing.
- 1996-0607-065 It is a time where you will find many reunions such as this. Times of great joy. Times of finding each other once again. You have felt that. You have gone to a gathering and perhaps you did not know ones who were there, according to what the little tag, the name tags would say, and yet you have looked into the eyes of that one and you have said, "I know you from somewhere." Many have said, "Did you go to that thing in...? Or did you go to that workshop? Or perhaps you were somewhere else." You have known that one throughout much association many lifetimes and it matters not what the appearance is, the form looks like. You know the bond in the heart. There has been a spark that has come alive and you have said, "I know that one." And truly you do. Many times.
- 1996-0607-066 Those who have dwelt in darkness have seen a great light. That is in truth what is happening now. That is in truth what you will be doing in the next few years of your timing. You will be showing forth the light of the truth of your being. For you will not be able to hide it. It does not need to be hidden. And indeed, you cannot.
- 1996-0607-067 There is a grand radiance about you. There is a grand radiance about you. There is a grand radiance about all of you and it is beautiful to behold. There is a sincerity of heart that is awakening. It is the light that is coming alive once again in the awareness, the consciousness, the conscious awareness of the holy Child, and the Father stands with arms outstretched ready to welcome you Home once again.
- 1996-0607-068 Know you this. Yes, it is the open arms of the hug. It is the open arms that would embrace. Know you that is even the message of the cross. It was the beginning of the embracement of Love. It was not to be seen as destruction, evil, sorrowful, for indeed there was great rejoicing that came forth from it. It was the beginning of the universal, cosmic, infinite hug.

1996-06-07 Oakbridge University Channeled by Judith Coates

- 1996-0607-069 No longer look you upon the cross as a symbol of sorrow and of death. When you see the outstretched arms run into them and embrace. That is the great light that you are, and beautiful you are. Do you know how many lifetimes you have been a great beauty upon this plane? Many lifetimes you have been the beauty that has been sought after by the kings, by the ones who had the golden coins. Who would shower upon you all of the wealth of the world for the smile in the eyes. Many lifetimes.
- 1996-0607-070 Those who have dwelt in darkness have seen a great light. Allow yourselves in the next few years of your timing for indeed as you stand here in a reckoning of timing, you have what is left now until the turning of the century. What do you have left? Yes, three years and a bit. Three and a half, I guess. Know you that my recorded ministry -- recorded -- was of three years, a bit more than three years duration. Allow you now to bring into conscious awareness for yourself your ministry. Set about your ministry to the one Self, to the Light in the next three and a half years of your timing.
- 1996-0607-071 Not with great seriousness that perhaps if you do not fulfill everything you will have failed. You cannot fail. Already you have chosen in the heart. Already you know guidance. Otherwise you would not be here in this gathering this evening. You have heard your own guidance. But allow yourself to come consciously aware of service unto yourself, ministry to the one Self. Nurture the Self that you are. Love the Self that you are. Be as the fish that swims in the great ocean. Be as the one who supports others and nurture that Self of you. In every day before you lay the head upon the pillow, gift unto yourself the thing of beauty as a gift from your Father to you. A flower perhaps. Something that is beautiful of color. Something that is beautiful of texture.
- 1996-0607-072 It need not cost what you would see as many golden coins, or it may if you want. But gift unto yourself in every day before you lay the head upon the pillow, a gift from your Father for indeed He would give it to you, but you must choose it.
- 1996-0607-073 In other words, He lays forth before you a great store. Know you your great stores? Your shopping malls? Many great objects of beauty and the Father provides for you even more everywhere around you there is beauty.
