

The New Jerusalem

1/5/2002

Beloved and holy and only child of our Heavenly Father, child of the One Source, Child of Light Divine. That is who you are. Take it deeply within the consciousness and contemplate what that means. Beloved, always beloved and holy, complete, not lacking for anything and only child of the One Source. The only child, the extension of the one Divine Source, that is who you are.

I am the one known as Jeshua ben Joseph — Jesus, you have called me — and it is in great joy that I come to abide with you this evening in your timing as you have chosen once again to call me forth. Great joy. I say that to you every time for it is indeed your divine nature, joy. Not to suffer the slings and arrows of the world, but to be in joy. To celebrate everything you bring into manifestation. To celebrate the body. To celebrate the relationships. To celebrate the events and circumstances that you see in your world, to be in joy. Wholly joy with everything and everyone.

Now I know that the world does not speak to you of joy. The world speaks to you of deadlines, of shoulds, of oughts, of things that have to be, must be done, judgments. Every time there is a thought there is a question, an opportunity for judgment. Either this way or that.

But that is the world and it is passing. Your divine nature is that of joy. The innocence of the child. Remember you a time when you felt free? A time when you ran in the meadow? Either with the physical body or the imagination and/or? Remember you a time of innocence before the world began to teach you what was valued in the world.

Claim once again that innocence. Claim the joy of the child. Practice, for it will take some practice as it has taken practice to take upon yourself the value of the world. Practice being the innocent child. Spontaneous, joyful, once in a while. Or, all of the time. As often as you can.

Now I know that you feel responsibilities . That is part of what you have agreed that you will do in this journey, human journey. I know that you face decisions. I know that there are questions, doubts that come up and you have to look at them and you have to make some discernment. But choose you always for joy, for love, for openness of heart. It will see you in good stead.

Now, I know that it is customary at the first meeting of the year, of the new year as you have your linear history here. It is customary to speak what this year will hold. You have asked every time we have met in this way in the beginning of a new year, you have asked, "But Jeshua, what about the future? What will this year hold for me? What will this year be like for the world? For my brothers and sisters? Jeshua, will it be a good year? Will it be better than last year?" Even if last year was perfect you always ask for a better one.

Indeed in the past year there was perfection. There was much that occurred that allows you to look upon events, choices, behaviors and to rearrange priorities in your mind, rearrange the listing of value as to what is important in a life. There was much in the collective consciousness not only in the geopolitical grouping of a certain country, but there was much in the collective consciousness around the face of our Holy Mother, the earth. Not only as you would see one geographical area but all over the face of our Holy Mother, the earth. There was much of trauma, shake up if you will. All of you had to face old beliefs, old issues. Some looked at the issues and felt them to be much more disastrous than others. In other words, they felt it much more in the immediate, personal.

But all of you have had to look upon the events of the past year and to deal with what is physical life all about? To deal with old beliefs about yourself, about the body, about life — with the lower case "l" and Life with the capital "L". And to deal with questions of how, how do I feel about myself, my family, my brothers and sisters of the extended family around the face of our Holy Mother, the earth?

It has been a year that has been with clarity, a shake up, if you will. A time when your news media, your brothers and sisters in the news business, brought to you right in front of the face so that you couldn't miss it twenty-four hours of each day if you want it, to know what was going on giving you some interpretation that you could either accept or to form your own interpretation.

For truly you called forth all of the events that came to your consciousness and you called forth all of the events so that you could know your own truth. What your truth was — small "t" — about the events and what the Truth of your being — capital "T" — is and always will be and always has been.

The past year in your timing brought to you many gifts. Brought to you a time as we spoke to you one year ago hence, a time of assessment. For we spoke to you one year ago and said that in your counting, the year 2001 would be a year of assessment and truly it has been.

Now you are moving into what you call arbitrarily, but it is a beautiful way of looking at events and putting them into certain categories, you are moving into a new year of 2002. And I will say to you that this is going to be a year of balance. I hear you breathing a collective sigh of relief. For you feel that with balance there will be a certain peace and harmony and there will be, but the balance only comes when you are standing in the middle of the — you know the seesaw — where is the balance? It is in the center, the center. As there is collective belief in duality within this reality, there are going to be two sides to every issues, every event and they are going to be even because you have decreed that life is eventful.

You, as the creative ones, as the courageous ones, have chosen a journey of adventure. I say to you that there are other entities, other beings, who have said, "That adventure, that journey of adventure is not for me. I will stand by and watch it. You go if you want to go. See what is out there, what you want to create. See how it feels, but for me, I am going to just watch. I am going to just be."

But you have said, "But that is boring. I have tried just being and that is good, but I want to see what I can do, what I can manifest, what I can experience and express." So here you are in this reality — small "r" — an adventure, a journey of adventure and you have said, "In order to be on a journey there are going to be certain things to see, events." So this year yet will bring for you events. And there will be the opportunity to view from one side or from the other side and judge whether it is tragedy or comedy, whether it is good or not so good. But it will be a year of balance and for you I entreat you to stay in the center, your center. Not denying either side for that is part of what you have agreed to with the collective paradigm, belief that there is going to be some duality, but to stay in the center, look at both sides, love, bless, allow both sides. And as often as you can, return to your center.

For the two sides are going to be in balance whether one is high and the other is low, or the other is low and the other one is high, there is going to be balance as you see the seesaw. You will discern during this year the holy balance, the divine balance.

You have already been practicing asking for holy vision, asking when you have had before you a question that was troublesome and you didn't know quite what the answer could be, should be, might be, what any possibility could be.

I have seen you asking. I have heard you asking for holy vision. "How can I see this anew?" I have watched you as you have taken the deep breath, the physical deep breath and the spiritual deep breath. And come to that place of peace within and ask for holy vision. And sometimes it has been immediate that there has been a new perception, a new way of looking. Other times it has alluded you for another breath, another day, perhaps even another week or month. But you have worked with it and I give to you my respect for what I have seen you practicing and doing.

For you have struggled long enough. We spoke of this in previous months, long enough have you struggled with the judgments of the world and you have come to that place where you have said, "Enough, already. I will know peace within and hopefully I will know peace without."

Your assignment, your task in this year should you choose to accept it, is to be the presence of peace, the presence of balance. Not to deny the world. Do not say, "No, it does not exist. I am not going to listen to the news. I'm not going to know any. Don't tell me any of that stuff I don't want to know it." You do want to know it and it is important that you know it so that you can come back to the center and bless it. To see both sides. Not only what is being presented, first presenting, but to say, "Hey, what is around on the other side? How can I see this anew?" And then to speak the new perception to others.

It is no small task and yet it is simple enough. It is to be the presence of balance and to speak it in the world. Not to take your holy scriptures and to stand on the street corner and to speak with the words that sound most holy, yet to hold judgment in the heart. But it is to be in the heart, to be in balance in the center of your own heart and to love, to be openhearted. That is all that is asked for you.

Sometimes you feel, "Why am I here? Why did I choose this path? Why did I choose this life? Surely there must be an easier existence somewhere, less challenging." Well there is. We have just spoken of that. But you chose out of great courage to walk this path and to speak from the center of light, to bring light to a reality that yet believes in the possibility of darkness.

Your task in this year, should you choose to accept it, and I know that you have already otherwise you would not be here in this room, you would not be within the sound of my voice listening to these words — is to be the presence of balance, of peace and to speak it soothingly, healingly, to others.

For there will be occasions in this coming year where ones will need to have a new perception. That is one of the things you have written into human life, that there will be events, adventure, things that happen. And within this reality that yet believes in duality, there is always opportunity to judge for tragedy. It is the most common reaction to judge first tragedy, for loss, rejection, abandonment, for what could be seen as wrong.

You have practiced that. You individually and collectively for eons of time. But you also have within you the most wonderful balancing of the still small voice that even when you deal with the most seemingly tragic events there is a still small voice within that speaks to you of hope, that speaks to you of light. It say, "Perhaps there is another way to look upon what is happening or what has happened."

It is most wonderful that you have put that within yourself, in the center. Most wonderful that you have brought it with you for truly you cannot leave it anywhere, it is you, the still small voice that speaks to you of love, of hope. For that is your divine nature. Call upon it. Remember, abide at Home in the center.

You see in your world now much of conflict. You see it in your workplace, you see it in your geopolitical groupings, you see it in relationship between geopolitical groupings, countries. You see it between cultures and philosophies, brother against brother, sister against sister for a myriad of reason which seem of value and of truth — small "t" — to whoever holds that value or that truth.

You have ones who are playing most courageous enactment of the collective belief in duality who lives in a geographical area close to each other and find it most convenient, most easy to be at war with each other. A place that truly has been known as a holy place for a long time in history. The areas that you call Afghanistan, Pakistan, the areas that you call Palestine, Jerusalem. Areas that now brothers and sisters war with each other to bring for you a clarity of what you have been experiencing within yourself, judgment. Judgment that than leads to a certain decision sometimes instantaneous judgment without thought that brings behavior then of hatred, of violence.

These ones are enacting for you a certain scripting that they have agreed they will play for the collective consciousness to bring it into clarity with some intensity that it cannot be swept under the carpet any longer. And your technology brings forth the possibility, opportunity for you to know what is going on halfway around the face of our Holy Mother, the earth at the same time it is going on there. One more "proof" of non-separation. How you are not separate from the brothers and sisters who have agreed to this enactment of drama. And it is life and death to them.

The ones who find themselves so closely dwelling with each other and yet so far apart as they feel their hearts to be are doing a most wonderful holy enactment for you.

The area known as Jerusalem, you have known it well. You have all been there. Some in this lifetime. All of you in other lifetimes. The area known as Jerusalem has meaning for you deep within your heart for you have lived lifetimes there, holy lifetimes.

Lifetimes where once again you had agreed as you have done in this lifetime, to be the presence of light within the reality that yet could believe and did believe and does believe in the possibility of darkness.

Jerusalem. It is a word that has undergone a bit of change in pronunciation. It comes from an ancient combination of heiro-salemna. Translated as sacred peace. Jerusalem hierosalem. Salem. You have Salem as a certain town named in certain places of your country. It comes from a very ancient word meaning peace. Sacred holy, holy peace, divine peace. Hieroglyphics, holy sacred writing. You know that word, glyphs, the writing. The same for Jerusalem that has undergone some changes in the pronunciation but it is a holy place, a sacred place, an area where you have walked in other lifetimes. A place you have revered and a place where you have been revered.

There is a piece of music I would ask Beloved Elder to play for you now and then we will speak more.

(The Holy City sung by The Three Irish Tenors)

Allow, allow the emotions to be felt. One of the reasons that I requested Beloved Elder to play that most wonderful piece of music for you was to arouse emotion within you. And to allow you to feel, to feel the heaviness and then to feel the opening. To feel the darkness and then to feel the light.

For long enough you have carried burden with you of darkness. Long enough have you felt the heaviness of war, of conflict, brother against brother, sister against sister. Allow the emotions to be felt, released. For many lifetimes it has not been safe for you as you discerned it, to allow the emotions to arise up. This lifetime it is safe. Now it is safe.

The New Jerusalem, it is not a place as you have discerned. Even the geographic location known as Jerusalem is as a symbol for you. You individually and collectively, all of the brothers and sisters walking the face of our Holy Mother, the earth, it is a symbol to you of a remembrance that you are the sacred peace. You are the New Jerusalem. You who remember the still small voice within and respond to it, you are awakening and you are the New Jerusalem and you take it with you wherever you go as you, a new dawning. Openhearted where others can come unto you and be received and loved and healed. You are the New Jerusalem. Feel that deeply within you. Take it with you wherever you go in this year. Take it with you for all of you are on a journey this year, a journey that is going to be full of events. Most wonderful events. Events you have planned for, not only in this lifetime but other lifetimes you have planted the seed that is now growing and blossoming and you have the courage to act upon it in this lifetime now.

Everyone of you is on a most wonderful journey, an adventure. Remember that you are the New Jerusalem. Allow the gates to be flung wide open, the gates of the heart, wide open. Keep your center. Know where your center is and allow it open for whoever would want to enter. To allow them in to be blessed by you, the sacred you, the New Jerusalem.

Long enough have you warred with yourself. "Should I do this? Should I do that? Have I chosen rightly? Have I chosen wrongly? Should I have said that? Should I have not said that? Should I go there or should I not go there? What is best to do? And oh my goodness, I guess I didn't do or choose or say rightly." Long enough you have warred within yourself and long enough you have been projecting that out and seen it manifest between bodies, between groupings, long enough. Time to remember now the New Jerusalem which is you, the sacred peace, the holy peace.

This year of balance, it is a most wonderful year because you have set for yourself eons of time ago as you understand your linear time to be, you have set for yourself a most wonderful integration, completion, coming together of revelation.

For when we first brought forth manifest creation, when we first brought forth our Holy Mother, the earth, the universes, the other stars, the constellations, all of the divine energy that we coalesced into form, there was a knowing of oneness, a knowing of creative energy. But as time as you understand process and as you did understand and set into the value system, process, there has been a forgetting of the divinity and power of who is creating and you have set up for yourself many examples where you have felt power to be. And as there was identification with small self – lower case "s" – as there was identification with the creations, with the body itself and the supposed need to protect, preserve the body in order to preserve life, you have felt your power diminished. You have forgotten Jerusalem.

And you set for yourself powers outside of you and you called them gods. You set for yourself one Jehovah, powerful god over you who could command from the heavenly skies whatever was to be on earth. Most wonderful to watch your reaction right now. Most wonderful to see the truth that you have worked back to as would be full circle. You set for yourself war in the heavens. You set for yourself another god known as Yahweh, that would be a god warring against Jehovah. And there has been said in this time that the Jehovah god is now walking this earth and creating havoc. That it is the Jehovah energy that is creating all of the conflicts and I will say unto you, this is true in so far as there is belief that there could be power other than divine holiness, the Christ.

The Jehovah energy you have that there is a recording of that in your holy scriptures of the Jehovah god, a vengeful god. A god that would exact payment from you. A god which would judge and find you lacking.

But I say unto you that god is an anthropomorphic god. You have given the qualities of human to that god. And the Jehovah god is you. And the Yahweh god is you. And the Jehovah energy is you and the Yahweh energy is you. And I will say to you that the belief in separate gods predates the recording, the written of any of these beliefs and yet when it was recorded of Jehovah and when it was recorded of Yahweh, both were written W-h-w-h. Does that not tell you something? The two are one.

Yes, there is Jehovah energy that is walking the face of our Holy Mother, the earth now. Yes. It is as it has been for eons of time. Not all of time but eons of time. And yes, there is the energy of light. The other side I suppose of the coin. The other side of the Y-H-W-H, Yahweh, Jehovah. Sometimes written with the "J" as you have seen with my name. It is written as Jeshua and yet it is Yeshua. The two are one.

Most wonderful to see that you have been struggling with, thinking about, coming to realization, integration of all of the various complexities that bring you full circle back to the realization of oneness. Only one. Beloved and holy and only child of our Heavenly Father. Oneness as you.

This year in your timing is going to be a most wonderful year. Breathe deeply. Take that deeply within you to know that it is going to be a most wonderful year, a year of wonder. A year that you have desired, prayed for, asked for. It is now here, this year. A year of balance. It will require of you the discipline to see both sides and to come to that place of the center and to know that both sides are balancing out each other. Always it is so.

This year you in your awakening will see it in clarity and in peace. It will not be something that you have to struggle with. It is not something that, "Oh, oh, I'd better be prepared. I have to get all of my sacred books out. Read them. I have to get all of my instructional tapes and listen to them once again. And I have to remember the prayers and rituals. I have to get out my toning bowl and get in resonance with the right resonance." Those are all beautiful things to do but it is not what you have to do for this year. This year all you have to do is be. Be who you are and be openhearted. Allow the gates to be flung wide open. Long enough have you and the brothers and sisters and the world consciousness struggled with complexity born of duality.

This year seek ye the balance. Find the balance in the center.

Now I would have Beloved Elder play you one more piece and we will speak.

{This recording was downloaded from the Internet anonymously.}

(Silent Night background music)

You say you'll never forget where you were when you heard the news on September 11th, 2001. Neither will I. I was one the 110th floor in a smoke filled room with a man who called his wife to say goodbye. I held his fingers steady as he dialed. I gave him the peace to say, "Honey, I'm not going to make it. But it's okay. I'm ready to go."

I was with his wife when he called as she fed breakfast to their children. I held her up as she tried to understand his words and as she realized he wasn't coming home that night.

I was in the stairwell of 23rd floor when a woman cried out to me for help. I've been knocking on the door of your heart for 50 years. I said, "Of course I'll show you the way home." Only believe in me now.

I was at the base of the building when the priest ministered to the injured and devastated souls. I took him home to tend his flock in heaven. He heard my voice and answered.

I was on all four of the planes. In every seat with every prayer. I was with the crew as they were overtaken. I was in the very hearts of the believers there. Comforting and assuring them that their faith has saved them.

I was in Texas, Kansas, London. I was standing next to you when you heard the terrible news. Did you sense me?

I want to you to know that I saw every face. I knew every name though not all know me. Some met me for the first time on the 86th floor. Some sought me with their last breath. Some couldn't hear me calling to them through the smoke and flames, "Come to me. This way. Take my hand."

Some chose for the final time to ignore me. But, I was there. I did not place you in the tower that day. You may not know why but I do.

However, if you were there in that explosive moment in time, would you have reached for me?

September 11th, 2001 was not the end of the journey for you. But someday your journey will end and I'll be there for you as well.

Seek me now while I may be found. Then, at any moment you know you are ready to go. I will be in the stairwell of your final moments.

Remember, I love you.

This year, a year of balance. This year as always, I am with you. Go now in peace.

So be it.
