

JESHUA Q&A

2015-05-09

Now, we continue. Beloved ones, your energy is most delightful; all of the laughs that were had over the food, all of the good taste buds with all of the good food that was brought, and the smiles and the very high energy that you were allowing yourself to abide in. It is very good. Now we will play with the questions. Has anyone come with a question? I see, beloved brother, you have the talking stick. Do you have a question or an answer? How about an answer? You give me an answer; I'll give you the question.

Don: I've had one running around in my mind for a couple weeks. You said wait and see for my Buddhist friend coming here. I want to know how long the wait is.

Jeshua: Ah, this is a bit slippery (I don't like slippery stuff) Well, you are the one who is making the world and making the time of it (I don't think so; I'm going to disagree) You are. You are the one who believes in time; therefore, you want it to speed up a bit (Okay, you got me) That is the crux of the question; it has to do with a belief. In truth, as you have discerned, this one has been thinking about making a visit here, but it has not been a pressing thought; in other words, there are many other thoughts that are claiming her attention. So it will be, as I have said earlier, a wait and see type of thing. However, if you want to have a more definite answer to it, you could use your mechanical means of contacting this one. You don't have to be specific about why you are calling, but you could just touch base.

Don: Oh, I could, very easily; a good friend. Okay, thank you; that's the answer for that one. I want to thank you for the sterling message tonight (I was hoping that it would be golden) Well, it shines like the light of gold (Very good; thank you) Recognizing the great Allness of what we live in all the time.

Jeshua: That which cannot be defined, but it can be acknowledged. It can be felt. You can go there and feel it. Then to describe it to someone...well, as you had the most wonderful chorus last Sunday on the way home, the angelic chorus singing to you, to describe that does not do it justice (I can't describe it) Right, it is the same with God. But you can feel it, you can know it. Thank you. I accept your compliment.

Beloved brother...oh, you are awake.

Mateen: I'm awake (Of course, you are awake) This is one of the places I feel very awakened. Well, thank you for the message tonight. That helped me to make a decision, which I think I was already on the verge of making, but that made it much easier. I think also I have a great garden for my teacher, Judith. And your guidance I can feel, so we're going to go with that.

Jeshua: Very good. As I have said, there is no wrong decision. So even if you make a decision and then have second thoughts about it, you can change or you can go with the first thought. It will not be a wrong decision, no matter what you choose. The world will say to you that there can be wrong decisions and that you'd better choose wisely. Have you ever heard that? Of course, you have. But in truth, beloved brother, you never choose wrongly. And whatever you choose, be in joy with it. It is the same when you choose a mate or you make any other choice in life. If you believe that this is the best ever choice that you could make, it becomes that for you. It is easy. And yet to move into that space, the world says no, you cannot do it. You cannot jump that far. But of course you can.

Mateen: It is unbelievable how quickly this Healing Garden vision is coming (It is coming, yes) Just like you promised.

Jeshua: This is true. But you had to do some research. You have enjoyed your research, going to see the various places and how they felt. And yes, there was a bit of discouragement from time to time, because you said, "We have looked at X number of places, and surely one of them must be right, but I don't feel it has been right." Then one turned up.

Mateen: Okay, thank you. The other question I have for you is, have you seen the movie, Jesus Christ Superstar? (I have heard much about it) I haven't seen it, but I love the title. After I rediscovered your love after two thousand years, I just feel like a child who got one of the best toys, and he just wants to show it to all of his friends. You know, I want to go out screaming, "Look at this toy, how beautiful a toy I got." So I want to see Jesus Christ Superstar. When I see this gathering, you know, it's a small gathering here (In numbers, yes, but in the heart it is quite large) I think it's time that I feel I need to take this message to the masses.

Jeshua: Best of luck...yes, indeed, beloved brother.

Mateen: When I say "I", you know, I'm not using I as an ego.

Jeshua: Right. You will do your part, yes, but you will be aware, and you will keep foremost in your mind that truly ones are going to be inviting the message into their consciousness, and they may or may not. Even if you show it to them, it may resonate, or it may be something that they put on the shelf for another lifetime, and that is okay.

Because in time, everyone will come to know the Christ, the Christ of themselves. Yes, in time.

Mateen: Thank you. I love you so much, and thanks for this afternoon. I felt it. Thank you (Always and forever, thank you)

Jeshua: Beloved beautiful one, how are you in this evening?

Joan: In joy (Good; it shows) Beautiful energy, and I so resonated with what you were speaking of tonight. I would just like to say thank you so much, because when you talked about decision making and it's not really the be all and the end all for whatever decision you make, it's such a relief to be able to go here or there and just know it. There is no need to justify, no need to have to explain it to anybody. If I make decision and I want to do "C", and I think I know the feeling of if that's my decision, then I'm going to enjoy it and see where it leads me (Very good) So anyway, thanks for the confirmation (Yes, you have it) I appreciate it.

Jeshua: Very good, beloved one, thank you. You have found a secret of being happy no matter where you are or what decision you make, and that is a pearl of great price.

Beloved beautiful one, how are you in this evening?

Pat: I'm wonderful (Yes, you are a wonder) I have no questions (That is a wonder) I just want to say I love you (And I you; thank you)

Jeshua: Beloved wise one, how are you?

Charles: I am doing quite well. I enjoyed your talk, and I will give you a double surprise, because I don't have any questions either.

Jeshua: Wow, what an evening. I know that my beloved friend and teacher, the one that you call Judith, is looking forward to your words of wisdom on the morrow [Speaking at Unity Church].

Charles: Well, it was interesting that earlier talk is very much on the mark of what I'm going to be talking about tomorrow (Strange how that happens) Jeshua probably got it all from me!

Jeshua: Beloved one, it is good to behold you in this manner. And yes, you do flit in and out, but that is okay. How are you in this evening?

Teresa: I am wonderful, thank you (Yes, you are very good. Do you have a question for me, or do you have an answer?) I had an adventure this week. It was at Seattle: a simulation sky diving, which was quite interesting. I had the best time I have had in ages.

I couldn't believe it. I had a little anxiety before I went. And I did it. It was like better than yoga. My joints and all this stuff, it felt so good afterwards, and my face didn't hurt. That's what I want you to remark about. I can't figure out what in the world could happen with the pressure and all of that to cause all of these wonderful things to happen. I'm so intrigued about that. I was in wonderful joy. I was ecstatic (Yes, that could make a difference) but the joints were, like, oh my gosh, this is wonderful, plus the face was wonderful. And I was like, oh my gosh, I wish I owned one of these.

Jeshua: Well, you can go back again.

Teresa: Well, yes I can, for many coins.

Jeshua: Well, you will save up, and then you will go back again. But as you have discerned, you were in a simulation of what was happening, and there were physical changes that happened with the pressure that was happening; also with the joy that you were in, the feeling of freedom and the feeling of excitement.

All of you have had times when you've been in a place of excitement. It may be tinged with a little bit of fear, of wondering, but that is okay. Excitement raises the vibration of the body. Even if it is tinged a bit with fear, it does raise the vibration. And this is what was happening, because the body...for most of you, a good bit of the time, you live in a certain routine of vibration, that which feels "normal" for you. And when you go to a new situation, there is a bit of the excitement, the wonder of what is this going to be like? Is it going to be okay? And the vibration of the body is raised; that is what was happening, along with some pressure changes in the body that gave you the feeling of what was happening and what you were seeing and understanding, believing what was happening, even though you "knew" that it was a simulation, that it wasn't really real, but yes, for the body it was real. So you have gained the benefits of it. And as it is seen for the future, you will go back again.

Teresa: Oh, I'm ready to go up in an airplane (Yes, you're going to do the whole nine yards, the whole enchilada) Okay, do you have any other advice for me?

Jeshua: No, the whole enchilada is enough (Laughter)(I love you) And I you. You have a most infectious laugh. It is contagious. Others feel it, and it tickles right here in the solar plexus. And all of you feel the tickling; you feel the good vibrations.

Teresa: I had cousins that tickled me a lot when I was a child; it made me laugh.

Jeshua: There is something wonderful about the tickling if ones feel it in love.

Ah, beloved son, may I borrow the chapeau? Thank you. It is my style. Ah, yes, very stylish; one side or the other side, or down this way. That's very good actually, because then you have to raise the head up to see beyond. What would you speak of in this evening?

Rob: Well, first off, I love you and thank you for everything, and the message tonight was very wonderful (Do you know where I got that message? Where did I go to get that message?) Within.

Jeshua: Yes, and I drew forth from the One that we are to give you the answer that you have been asking, because all of you have been asking, "What is this God I hear about? What is this love I hear about?" So we went a little bit deeper with it. Thank you.

Rob: It felt like we expanded (And you did, yes) That brings me to one of my two things I wanted to ask you (Oh, you have two; well, heavens to Betsy. Okay, speak) Expanding; it always feels like whenever I come here, it raises my consciousness and awareness (This is true) And seeing both the Amma's, being in their presence. Because to me, like, they're fully realized divine saints (Right) so doesn't just being in their presence raise...

Jeshua: Yes, for you who is open to it and wanting to receive. Now, there are others who can be in that presence, and they are so focused upon what they think they have to be doing or thinking, that they do not feel it. But you are open, and you want it, and so therefore you receive it. Very good.

Rob: So I look forward to that at the end of the month as well as getting out here more often (Very good, yes) I say that to you so it will be a reminder for myself, because now I've said it, and now I have to follow up (You have to follow up. So be it) So be it.

The other thing I wanted to ask about, is the coworker, Anna, the young lady. Past life connection? And what was it?

Jeshua: Truly, yes, you have discerned well that this was what you would call the playmate, one that you played with, and you understood each other. There were times that you went and spent many hours talking with each other, sharing with each other, feeling and the reactions to what the rest of the world was doing and how you felt that it was going, or not going in some cases. Yes, you shared the confidences. You shared the feelings with each other very closely (More than one life?) Yes, you have—as many of you do—you have felt such an affinity with another soul that you have agreed that you would come back many times and find each other, seemingly randomly, but not randomly.

Rob: That's why I feel the comfort in sharing what a lot of coworkers might consider crazy stuff like this.

Jeshua: Right. Because both of you have been open with each other, the other lifetimes of saying this is what is important to me, this is what I am wrestling with, and the other one would not judge, would not put the thinking down and say, "Oh, well that's just foolishness." It is because you have developed a closeness. You are of the same soul family, and you have found each other many lifetimes. And when times have been kind of in the place of questioning, you have found each other to share with.

Rob: So how many lifetimes? (Ah, beloved one, pick a number, and I'll tell you whether you're close or not) Ten (Oh, good heavens, try again) More or less? (More) 35? (Keep going) 105? (Keep going) Well, that brings up another question. I've never known for sure, how many lifetimes have I had?

Jeshua: Keep going...very many, because you have enjoyed being here and being amongst your friends. You have counted everyone as friend at a very deep level. Sometimes they didn't always act friendly, but you counted them as friends at a very deep level. So you have come many times and found each other to play with. 327 (How many?) 327 (For me) No, for your lifetimes with her, where you have shared.

Rob: So I swear for tonight it'll be the last one (Don't have to swear; I jest with you) And I got a laugh (Yes, you did) And how many for me? (Keep going) 1300? (Keep going) 2300? (Keep going) 3500? (Keep going) 5300?

Jeshua: Now, you have to remember that not all of the lifetimes were of three score and ten, not of 70 years. Some of the lifetimes were five years, 25 years, or perhaps you lived to the place of the gray hair, but not all lifetimes. So you are at a place where truly it is beyond measure. Now, there is a finite number, but it is vast (Well, I was just getting to 5300) Well, that's good; keep going (9500?) Keep going (Oh, my goodness; 13,000?) Good; yes, we will settle for that.

Rob: Now, is this human or just...(Ah, well, you see, you didn't say) Well, some of them could have been like that caterpillar guy that I moved out to the rocks (Exactly) Okay (Very good discernment, yes) I'll have to come back next month and be more specific about it (Laughter)

Jeshua: This is true. You may cogitate on it for a month (I'll do it. Again, all my love and light to you and gratitude) And to you also, thank you (Namaste) Namaste.

Beautiful one, how are you in this evening?

Rose: I'm very happy, and I love you so much (And I love you also. What would you speak of?) I don't have any question to ask, but I would like to share one thing. Since I started talking to you and feeling your energy around me so much, I learned this very deeply. I must know that, but I don't, you know, realize it so much or feel it around me. But I do feel that the things, whatever I pray or want to have them happen, now I start seeing them, because they have their own natural plan, the way they take place and happen. And I like to watch them, the way God planned them to happen. So since I learned that, I don't feel that I have to force things to happen, and I enjoy seeing them as God's plan when they take place, and I love that (And then you are in joy) Yes, and it doesn't look like so long to have them happen. Because I'm seeing like I'm watching something, you know, and the time passes right away (And there it is right in front of you) Thank you so much for teaching me all of that to learn and apply that in my life (Very good; thank you for being open to it) Thank you so much. Could I have a hug? (Yes; bless you) Thank you so much.

Jeshua: Beloved beautiful one, how are you doing?

Kathleen: Well, I'm fine; how are you? (Excellent, thank you for asking) I have a question about a teacher of mine that I had when I first got into this. His name was Jim Gore in this lifetime. I have a feeling that he had connections to this group (Yes) Okay, can you tell me what kind of connection?

Jeshua: It is truly what you would call the soul connection, the soul family. This one has perhaps not interacted with the seeming individualities in this group, but there has been a soul connection from other lifetimes. For this is truly what you do. There are some lifetimes where you come and you are in the vicinity with other ones, and then you interact in a very visible way. Other lifetimes there is an affinity by which ones are connected, and that is how this one has been connected. There has been what you see as...a good way to understand this, a very deep stream, a flow of consciousness, if you will, a flow of energy where ones who are wanting to know more, they are seeking to realize more of their Godhood, and they drink of this stream.

And there may be others upstream or downstream who are also drinking of this consciousness, and they are connected, one to another, and yet they may not lay the physical eyes upon the other one in a certain incarnation. But they are joined because of the underground stream, the very deep consciousness. This one has been very much tuned in to the stream of consciousness of the Godhood, of knowing the peace that passes the understanding of the world, and to be able to share this with other ones. You have known that with him (Is he back?) He is contemplating. He has not chosen yet, but yes, he is contemplating, waiting for just the right situation.

Kathleen: Okay, well, he was the one who introduced us to the concept of UFO's and coming from other planets (Of course) and actually had some experiences at his place there with UFO's that actually came in. I too have had some experiences with these, and I'm wondering, where are they coming from? I mean, these were beings with elongated heads, so where are they coming from, and who are these people?

Jeshua: They are your brothers and sisters, in truth. They have assumed a different form. They have assumed a different locality where they would call home, but they are also the adventurers, and so they are seeking out to find others of their own kind, others who are open—whether they know it or not. Now, there are some who are open to having the adventure of interacting with brothers and sisters not of holy Mother Earth, but of other places. And there are many other areas where there is intelligent life; maybe not of the same form that you recognize; maybe somewhat different, maybe very much different, the same as what you have seen earlier in this evening with the lifeform of the caterpillar. That is a life form that you can truly be in touch with. You can tune mind to mind with this one. And this one did not want to be squashed. This one wanted to be put out somewhere relatively safe and to continue the life existence.

Well, it is the same for brothers and sisters of intelligence anywhere in the universe. And there are ones who are putting together the way to come and be amongst you and hope to find welcome. Now, they do understand the psyche of the beings upon holy Mother Earth that there has been for millennia, the fear-based belief. So they understand that they are not going to be accepted right off, because they seem to be a bit different. But as you see the melting pot even in this geo-political grouping, where you have the shadings of the skin color and the facial distinguishment and so forth, different with each other, you are coming to a place of understanding that not all life looks the same.

So you are making an open window; maybe not the open door yet, but an open window to understanding these ones. And you, beloved one, because you have known lifetimes on other planetary locations, you are playing with welcoming the brothers and sisters. You have not come to the place yet where you are open arms and saying okay, come, but you are getting close. In the mind you are quite welcoming. On the day to day being, it's not quite there, but almost.

Kathleen: Is there more than one universe?

Jeshua: Yes. Very good question, because as we have spoken earlier in this evening about the Allness of God and about the Light of manifestation of energy of the Allness, there are many, many universes. Anything that you can imagine, and more, does exist. But you do not have to blow the mind with it (Mmm, I like to have it in my mind) You like to have it wide open, yes (I do like to have it wide open. Okay, thank you) That would be enough to chew on (Yes, that's pretty good. Thank you)

Beloved one, beautiful one, such a wonderful smile.

Eleena: Thank you (How are you in this evening?) I'm good. How are you? (Excellent, especially when I am speaking with you; excellent. Do you have a question for me this evening?) No (You don't need to. Keep smiling. It is a blessing to many. There are many in your world who would value a smile from you) Thank you.

Jeshua: Beloved brother, how are you in this evening?

Mark: I'm well; well-adjusted (Well-adjusted; oh, I don't know. Perhaps the mate would question that; but she would be jesting with you. She loves you dearly) She has a pretty smile too (She does have, yes. Many times I have noticed. And she is very free with her smiles. Something will tickle her, and the smile comes to the face) I sometimes wonder why these people are smiling at us—because she's smiling (Exactly. What would you speak of?)

Well, I'm curious. I have a crop circle question. There is a gentleman in Holland who seems to be the only person in Holland who finds out about crop circles that happen in Holland. In England it's totally different; it's wide open; all kinds of people find out about crop circles, and they get reported in different ways. But in Holland there's this one person. He has premonitions, evidently, that one is about to happen in the fields nearby, and then he has a vision of where they're going to land, where they're going to be made in a field. Then he goes out in the middle of the night and finds them. He has an American collaborator who writes up his stories in English, and it goes out and is posted on the internet. But I just wonder about this individual. His name is Robert Vandenbroeke, in his late 20's, I think. I'm just wondering what you may know about why this is happening with just one person like this.

Jeshua: You have upon the surface of your holy Mother Earth many places that are still evolving in consciousness to the place of welcoming something beyond the usual, and so you will find places where there may be one person or there may be groupings of people, such as you have in England, ones who are open and searching out such phenomena, and other places where you would not find anyone who would understand what you are talking about if you started to explain it. So it is not truly unusual that there would be just one person.

This one has a history of other lifetimes of encouraging the conversation between different life forms. And this lifetime, yes, he does have premonitions. Yes, he does tune in to what is going to be happening so that he can be there when it does happen or right shortly after. And he knows because of other lifetimes—the 13,000+ lifetimes that he has had. So there is already a familiarity with the topic, because he has been one who has been on the spaceships and traveled to other places, so it is not strange to him.

And he is interpreting for other brothers and sisters here who are deeply rooted in...well, they were the ones who said that the Earth was flat to begin with and believed it completely, and would give you arguments as to why it had to be flat. Well, now they are coming to understanding that the world is a bit different than just flat. It's round, and maybe there are other intelligent beings—my goodness, what a thought—that can make visitation here and can leave their signature. So it is happening that there is a shift in consciousness, of expansion, and ones are teaming up with other ones that they have known in other times and bringing that forth for brothers and sisters who have lived a very cloistered caveman mentality.

Mark: So do the Dutch need a little extra help in some regard?

Jeshua: Yes, they have been as a collection of consciousness pretty much tending to their fields and to the wind power and not thinking too much beyond that yet. And that is not as a judgment. That is just as it has been.

Mark: Okay, I'll continue to watch Robert Vanderbroeke (Very good; he will be pleased) Thank you.

Jeshua: Beloved beautiful one, how are you in this evening?

ZuVuYah: Hello, dear heart. Well, I'm less grouchy than when I first arrived, because I am very grouchy. I wasn't very grouchy, and I'm not actually, because of this gigglehead. I felt lightened by your giggles. It's very sweet. My heart is lighter after listening to you. It's hard to stay grouchy listening to you giggle. I feel mad and bad about my stuffy nose after everything I've been through for the last month. So I'm just going to keep moving forward and keep exploring.

Jeshua: And being patient. I know. This is something that you have oftentimes wanted to put behind you. "I'm not going to deal with patience. Right now I'm not dealing with it." Does that sound familiar? (Very) Very. But it is one of the gifts that you have brought into this incarnation, and you are starting to accept it more easily; not completely easily. You want it right now. You don't want to have it later (Yes, I want to be done) But it is going to be here very soon, as I see time. Now, ones will say, "Oh my, oh my." But in truth, for you, in the next six weeks you will see a difference. In the next eight weeks you will see a big difference. I think you can breathe through that.

ZuVuYah: Yes, I can. One thing I was going to ask is if you had any suggestions of a particular herb or...because I really want to be done with the allopathics. Any herbs or crystals, in particular, that would be crystalline helpers that would be useful for me?

Jeshua: You will meet up with one who does have this information for you in this day and time. It varies. The information you would say, "Well, it would be the same all the time," but it is not, because of the collective consciousness. So you will meet up with one who has what is called the intuition and the training for this in this day and time.

ZuVuYah: Well, I'm working with an acupuncturist who is amazing, is very intuitive, and I believe very knowledgeable about herbal things. I'm not sure...I haven't discussed crystals with her, crystalline beings, but I do resonate with the crystalline beings, as you know, and find them to be very helpful and great allies. I think because I'm so much in it and being so identified that I'm not able to just be clear and settle down and receive the information myself, so that's why I asked.

Jeshua: Right, but you can go to another one who will share with you, and you do have a friend in this one who will share with you. Because as you have intuited with her, she does have that intuition to know what is going to work for you. Good. It will be worthwhile. And it will not be long. A little bit of patience, a little bit (Thank you) Thank you.

Beloved holy scribe, do you have a question in this evening?

Ted: One short one. Does the St Germain Trust exist? (Yes) Will money from the St Germain Trust be available to us for establishment of the Healing Garden?

Jeshua: As it is seen now, no, because it will not be necessary (Okay) Right. You do not have to look further afield than this grouping right here. It will be happening (Thank you) Thank you for asking. It is good to have clarity on certain points. Yes, it is one of the things that you very much desire. "I want clarity, and I want it right now." I know the human life very well.

Let's see. You have a question now?

Pat: This is pretty far out, but it just came to me as you were talking to others. If Rob could be a caterpillar in a lifetime, I could have been a snail (Oh, definitely, yes) and in the evolution of things, a snail could be eaten by a seagull who then could drown and be eaten by a dolphin, and that could all happen in one day (Oh, yes) and so you could have three lifetimes in what we call our time in one day (Yes; therefore, it adds up to a very enormous number) We could have an enormous number of lifetimes if many things can happen in one day.

Jeshua: Exactly; very good; most expansive thought. Because truly, you have not limited yourself to just one form. You have wanted to know everything. That is part of the Allness of God, to know Itself in every form that you can imagine and more.

Mateen: I meant to ask this question for some time, but I somehow keep forgetting (Oh, yes; it was not time) I want to ask you a question about my late father. He was a saintly person (Right) and he absolutely didn't belong to the world he was in (Right) I always wondered who he was, and what was he doing in that part of the world in that time? Can you tell me a little bit about him?

Jeshua: He was, as you have understood, one who came through many lifetimes of seeking. And he came to the place where he did not feel that he was fitting in to the world as it is now, or as it has been, and there was a knowledge within him of the peace that the world does not know. He was at the very core of his being very much tuned in to the Allness that you are. He agreed that he would have the incarnation in which you have known him to be as friend, as confidante, as teacher to other ones who would have the eyes to see and the ears to hear what he had to share.

Not everyone wanted to know what he had to share, and not everyone would stop long enough to see the wealth of the consciousness of this one. But some did. And he was, as you have called him, very saintly in that he has been other lifetimes the saint. He is truly a saint in a certain religious order, and if you are wondering, you will go through a list of saints and see which one seems to fit. You do not have to know. You can just say that you recognize that quality in him.

But he has had many lifetimes upon holy Mother Earth and beyond, and he knew the goodness of life; not the way the world would define it, but in his soul, in his being he knew the goodness of the Allness of life. He agreed that he would have relationship with you. You have come into this lifetime pretty much fully open to understanding spirit, of being able to work in the world and yet be beyond the world. And this was something that he chose to know as well, and he gave that to you. Now you are giving it back to him in your life. You are doing well. Thank you.

Don: I've been thinking a lot about surrendering in the last couple weeks, and I never thought it would be like leaning into the spirit that I am. It seems to be over-the-top wonderful in the way that it works (It is, yes) It's like a brand new experience of giving up control.

Jeshua: Right. It is simplicity itself, which is not to say that it is easy, but it is simple, and it is giving up all that the world has been screaming at you, all of the choices, all of the shoulds, and just leaning into the spirit that knows it is okay.

Don: I pretty much wrote that on my birthday letter to my friend. I'm wondering if that will have any cause maybe to let her think about greater possibilities within herself (It is possible, yes; it is possible. There may be the initial reaction that, "I already know this," but then there may be the pondering that takes it deeper (Okay, thank you) Thank you.

Jeshua: Thank all of you for this most wonderful evening of sharing. I will say to you that you are no longer the person you were when you walked in the door this evening. You are a person with a more expanded consciousness that has allowed yourself to move beyond the boundaries and to enjoy every moment truly as I do. I enjoy every moment with you. Go now in love. Come back again in love. So be it.
