

Jeshua: The Personal Christ Vol. 5 Chapter 14 - The Value of a Life

January 23, 2019

Volume 5, Chapter 14

“For God so loves this world that He gives you to know your value and to be the Light. Go forth now as the Light, the sunshine of everyone’s life.”

Jeshua

Introduction

Very plainly Jeshua answers the question “What is my purpose?” with a three-fold statement:

1. Remember the value of life.
2. Be a friend who recognizes the Christ in everyone.
3. Love unconditionally.

He assures us that we are on the “threshold of making a shift into Light” whenever we recognize challenges as gifts. “Your world is of your making. All kinds of possibilities exist around you at any moment, and you are as a magnet that attracts to itself that which you believe to be possible. You can influence the leaders because of your consciousness, because what you believe can happen.”

He makes a strong case for how powerful we are with the magnet of our consciousness and how creative we can be with it. But we have to nurture the positive belief system, the magnet and then we will see the miracles happening all around us. “You send out an energy wave of welcome, of attraction, of knowing, of belief, of expectation. You do have impact, even on what you see to be distant from you.”

The last paragraph of this chapter is so very loving and that it moves my heart “Each and every one of you is more valuable than ever you have contemplated, and each and every one of you is so needed at this time and so love at this time that God has given you to this world.”

Affirmation for the Week:

“My life has great value. I attract only the highest and best to me.”

Discussion Questions

- What passage in this chapter touches your heart? Your mind? Your imagination?
- Have you ever noticed how some people are accident-prone, seem to have ongoing drama and chaos, while others always seem to have “good luck”? Could it be that their “consciousness magnet” attracts the people and circumstances of their realities? What do you attract with your magnet in your world – prosperity, good health, great community? Do you sense that people like being around you? Are you satisfied with what you attract to yourself? If not, can you let go of judging and “stand in the place of the Beholder and play with possibilities”?
- What do you think of Jeshua’s statement that despite what the media presents to us as the truth of what is happening “your consciousness can be as you would like it to be, your world, everything you perceive, begins to change. As you keep on working with the magnet, nurturing it, then everything that come to your consciousness has to change. You are the master of your consciousness. You are the master of your magnet. You are the master of your world.”?

Assignments

1. Jeshua reminds us to nurture our magnet. In the next few days expand the practice of nurturing the magnet “with the quiet times, nurturing it with the grateful thoughts, nurturing it with the uplifting reading and the talking that you do with other ones who support you”. So as you do so “the magnet changes”. What shifts do you experience as a result?
2. If you have a physical magnet, play with it and discover its properties. What does it attract? What does it repel?
3. Daily affirmation “My life has great value. I attract only the highest and best to me.”
