

Jeshua: The Personal Christ Vol. 5 Chapter 16 - The Year 2012

February 6, 2019

Volume 5, Chapter 16

“There is going to be, and is already, a new perception with ones who are willing and wanting to see with holy eyes that which is truly happening. As you have the desire to move into a place of joy, that affects all others to some degree.”

Jeshua

Introduction

It is well past the year 2012 and we have all survived it – at least in this reality. Jeshua reassured us, well in advance, that the doomsday prophecies were not going to be overwhelming us and we did not have to worry about them. He did explain why the Mayan calendar ended on that year and it made a lot of sense, in that they realized “that all is Now” and so had no need for counting the years.

He told us that the shift that was predicted would be that of a consciousness evolution – a gradual process. The challenge that he extended then and still holds today is that of “seeing the good in everything that happens”.

Jeshua’s analogy of the mattress box springs is certainly one of his more unique ones, in trying to explain to us our Oneness and the various rates of movement that they have, depending on what layer we live in.

It is often a stretch to our minds to live in the paradox of what he presents us “a gradual and yet speeded-up process of awakening and evolution.”

But the most powerful message for me was that “You are not pawns and there is not a power outside of you. You are masters. In every moment you have choice. It is not the power of the world, but the power of thought, the power of the creative One. Let us, as the gods that we are, acknowledge the shift that is happening and call it good.”

Affirmation for the Week:

“I am a divine extension of the one Creator. I have the power of choice in every moment.”

Discussion Questions

- What passage in this chapter touches your heart? Your mind? Your imagination?
- What do you think about Jeshua’s description of what could also be said of today “There are going to be events where ones who are in power are going to feel their foundation a bit shaky. And some of you want to see changes, and you know that these changes are going to be widespread changes, because if you change just a small part of it, it changes the whole picture. There is the ripple effect that goes out.” What are the ripple effects that you perceive in your life as you make changes in your consciousness? How do you feel or experience life when you call it all good? What do you feel when you think of yourself or others as pawns?
- What do you remember of 2012? Where there any shifts in your life then? Did you have any fears or hopes associated with the prophecies?

Assignments

1. Jeshua tantalizes us with statements like “Allow yourself to know that you do not have to wait until later when everything is turned right. It is already right. It is just that sometimes you do not see the whole picture of how everything fits together.” Apply this directive of Jeshua’s to some area of your life where you are have a judgement of “this is not right”. How can you see it as “already right”? Discuss with a trusted partner or friend, especially if you need another perspective to see it right.
2. Read the book by Pema Chodron, The Places that Scare You: A Guide to Fearlessness in Difficult Times. Do you hear any similarities to Jeshua’s message?
3. Daily affirmation “I am a divine extension of the one Creator. I have the power of choice in every moment.”
