Volume 5, Chapter 5

“You are light coalesced into form; you are energy always ongoing.

You are loved with a divine love.

Mother Mary

Introduction

Mother Mary’s chapter is full of her loving energy! She offers an explanation of the origin of our concept of separation from the Source, based on the perceptions of vulnerability. She gives us amazing predictions of what we are capable of doing, once we realize that we are energy.

But most powerful of all is her gift of the Ritual of the Rose, both in its simple form and the more complex version with the use of crystals. The opening with the Heart chakra that happens with the use of this beautiful ritual is very healing. “It is a variation of the Ritual of Life, done as remembrance of the Truth of our being.”

Mother Mary reminds us that “Your science fiction is true. Beam me up. You are going to know that, probably in your lifetime. You are energy.”

Even more exciting is her prediction that once we realize that we are energy, we’ll be able to heal or renew any part of the body, even “grow new teeth and clear the eyesight”. I’m all for that.

Discussion Questions

- What passage in this chapter touches your heart? Your mind? Your imagination?
- Mary tells us that “You are coming to the place where you are going to know truly, not just intellectually, that you are energy; you are going to feel it. The body is going to change.” Have you experienced extraordinary or even

Affirmation for the Week:

“I have the power of healing, because I am Love and Love cannot be hurt.”

miraculous healings in your body or seen others experience them? How does that change your perception of what is possible for the human body? How do you think we will make the shift from intellectually knowing that body as energy which is instantly renewable, into the actual experience of it? It sure would make a huge impact on our medical establishment.

- I have a feeling that we relinquished our healing abilities at the same time that we stopped believing in our own power and accepted the belief in human powerlessness. What do you think brought us to that point? How are you relinquishing your own healing power now? Who do you give that power to now? How can you gain it back?

Assignments

1. Perform the Ritual of the Rose as outlined on page 37 – 38 from the rosebud to the open heart and crown chakra. Do it at least once a day. If you have the rose quartz crystals and clear quartz crystal, perform the extended ritual. How does it feel afterwards? Do you experience the “magnification of the heart chakra”? Keep a journal in the next weeks of your reactions. Consider how the rituals are adding to your power.
2. Remember the importance of choices from the last chapter and notice if the physical ritual/s make a difference in your daily choices? Are you more mindful?
3. What is the Ritual of Life that Mary mentions? I suspect that it had to do with the way that the Essenes practiced their prayer and their system under the Tree of Life metaphor that acknowledges the Law of One in the many forms. The following excerpts from the Dead Sea Scrolls about Essene practices and beliefs are beautiful and fascinating:

4. Use this affirmation daily: “I have the power of healing, because I am Love and Love cannot be hurt.” Enjoy!
