Volume 6, Chapter 1

“You are the temple of the Sun. Even as you are walking through the darkness of the valley of the world, you are the Light of this world. That is what you said you would do in this lifetime.” Jeshua

Introduction

The book begins with Jeshua referring to the concept of Oneness with the familiar “Once upon a Time”. But he ends that sentence with a zinger “before there was time.” That is the kind of mind-expanding pace that we can expect to experience throughout this book, beginning with this chapter.

Jeshua really challenges us to go beyond the physical senses of our earthly experience and to claim our Divinity at its most expansive. The Divine attributes include instant manifestation, extreme creativity and divine radiance.

Our challenge to fully realizing this divinity is the separated ego, which does its part to keep us insecure and in doubt of our abilities. But we have the choice to prove it wrong.

He tells us that our “sun in the heavens is no comparison to the sun within you, that divine essence within you, out of which you create everything.” Wow! What an amazing statement. Our challenge is to believe it and act on it.

I love the example that Jeshua gives of our collective creativity – that of us birthing many constellations and sending ourselves into this lifetime to receive the light of those constellations. Perhaps that is why we are in such awe of starlight! We created these lights many eons ago. He truly wants us to expand our capacity to think BIG!

Then he blesses us with the descriptions of the Temple of the Sun within ourselves as the place of our power, where we cannot be threatened or diminished. He urges us to “Live in the space of light”!

Discussion Questions

- What passage in this chapter touches your heart? Your mind? Your imagination?
- “The Light played with the density, and we brought forth many, many constellations in form.” What does it mean to you as you contemplate being a part of the kind of power which “brings forth constellations”? How does that feel in your body?
- Do you have any memories or feelings of living as amorphous densities? How does it affect you now to think of that state of being?
- Jeshua likens the Temple of the Sun to the “Christ of you, the brilliance, the divine radiance.” He also tells us to make our choices from that “place of the Sun within yourself”. How would it affect your choices if you made your decisions and choices from that perspective? Give an example.

Affirmation for the Week:

“Nothing can challenge or change the divine Light that is within me.”

Assignments

1. Jeshua gives us examples of the kind of statements that the separated ego makes which undermines our belief in our Divinity. In fact Jeshua says that the ego crucifies us emotionally if we believe it. If you can identify any of these statements (page 11 & 12) regarding your powerlessness over prosperity, positive relationships, ability to have an impact on the world or ability to communicate with loved ones who have released the body, do the practice that he suggests on page 15. Go to your Temple of the Sun and bring your problems into the Light, until it is dissolved.

2. Take five to fifteen minutes every day to breathe deeply in the early morning sun (outside, if possible) or visualize a candle flame and see it expanding to fill all of your mind's eye. (bottom of page 15 and 16) Wait silently for guidance, inspiration or just a sense of knowing that you are "Loved in that Light". Be aware of what you are experiencing? Keep a notebook of the kinds of inspirations that you receive during this time. Look them over at the end of the week and see how your choices were impacted by the guidance that you received. Make this a part of your spiritual practice from now on.

 3. If you wish to gain even more benefit, take the time to do the meditation that Jeshua suggests on page 15, second paragraph. "Visualize the Sun filling every part of your being. Abide there in the security of the divine essence, the divine radiance that you are. And if there is something that has been troubling you, bring it into light, knowing yourself always to be taken care of, always in the Light."

 4. Use the following affirmation daily for at least a week "Nothing can threaten or change the divine Light that is within me."
