Chapter 17 Your Lineage

Study Guide

February 19, 2020

Volume 6, Chapter 17

“Beloved one,
when I look upon
you, what I see
is the light of
you, the aura of you, the
radiance of you,
the true heart
that beats in remembrance of
your divinity,
the true heart
that wants to know the awakening of the collective consciousness.”

Introduction

This chapter focuses on our ancient origins and lineage. Our lineage, Jeshua assures us, holds the remembrance of our Divinity through countless incarnations. He tells us that we have worshiped the sun in some of these incarnations as a symbol of our Divinity. There certainly was a period of sun worship in ancient Egypt under the rule of Nefertiti and Akhenaton.

He offers intriguing hints that there are pyramids and carvings from other long-ago civilizations that are under water, “yet quite visible”. And again he tells us that “All life on holy Mother Earth is made up of the star seeds from other constellations.”

When we have temporarily forgotten our divinity, it was with the reason that we wanted to “walk with the brothers and sisters, the other vibrations of the rainbow, in a place of love, where they can feel comfortable with you”. But at our core we are sensitive beings with loving hearts that want to see Peace on Earth and people loving each other.

The power principles of “Your Lineage” are:

- Remember that we are star seeds from other constellations, who have come to walk with our brothers and sisters to remind them of living in Peace, Harmony and Love and awaken the collective consciousness.
- Be curious about the origins of our lineage. Enjoy friendships those with whom we feel an affinity, a resonance.
- Wake up to the remembrance of our compassionate hearts which point to our own Divinity.
- Breathe the breath of remembrance of our connection to the divinity of All.
- Spread positive energy everywhere we go.

Discussion Questions

- What passage in this chapter touches your heart? Your mind? Your imagination?
- Do you remember other lifetimes where you lived fully with the knowledge of your Divinity? Have you had any “flashbacks” since we have been studying these Jeshua messages?
- Jeshua tells us that we are standing on the threshold of a change in consciousness and with “one snap” we can realize the thought “I Am divine. I Am from that one creative Source.” Have you experienced that? What was it like? How are you living differently since then?

Affirmation for the Week:

“I Am divine. I Am from the one creative Source; otherwise I would not be.”

Assignments

- Jeshua gives us an assignment “Allow yourself at least five minutes of your valuable time in every day to contemplate why you are here. Set aside five minutes to breathe deeply. And as you are doing the deep breathing, remember your lineage, bring forth through the breath the remembrance of your connection to the divinity of All.” Journal about it.
- Viewing some of these videos might trigger a remembrance of the past lives that Jeshua hints at. Pick as many as you have time to watch and notice your reactions and make notes on which feel significant to you.

- Have you been fascinated with a particular historical culture or perhaps one that has no historical record in our time now, but which stirs your dreams or remembrance? Do some research and follow the “bread crumbs” of your intuition. Try doing automatic writing and/or meditations, see what comes up.
