Volume 6, Chapter 9

“Since there is no separation, as you give to another, you are giving to yourself, and it has to come, as you see it, back to you.” Jeshua

Introduction

Jeshua’s sense of humor comes out in this chapter, teasing us about giving us a secret. But he has told us this before, especially in this volume. As a master teacher, he is helping us to understand manifestation more clearly. And knowing “how to receive” plays a vital part in it.

It seems that it is simple to “know that truly you already have it”. But when it comes to intangibles like good health or prosperity, it’s often a slippery concept to hold on to. The part that has inspired me, is that in giving we receive abundantly what we are giving. I love the example of how to hasten our own healing by “visualizing health for another friend who perhaps is thinking that they need help or healing. Put yourself in a place of envisioning them healthy and whole, the Christ of them manifesting wholly through the body. And any part of you which has been calling out for healing is going to receive healing tenfold, because as you give, so it is given unto you tenfold.” This is why being a Prayer Chaplain at the Unity Church, as well as praying for the Heart Family is so important in my life. And I reap so much good health from it.

The power principles of Receiving are:

- Awareness. The secret to receiving it to know that you already have it.
- Turn inward and visualize what you want to see in the outer.
- Pray believing that “you are bringing it forth even as you think to manifest”.
- Express Gratitude for “being in the midst of receiving”.
- Give! Let everything flow through you and share them with others. Since there is no separation, as you give to another, you are giving to yourself and it comes back to you.

Discussion Questions

- What passage in this chapter touches your heart? Your mind? Your imagination?
- Have you seen how this principle of giving precipitates receiving in your life? Give some examples of how you have manifested in this way.
- The world speaks to us mostly of lack and limitation. Can you imagine what the world would be like if instead of envying one another, we were happy to see everyone be in good health, be successful and loved? How does that feel to you?

Assignments

- Another “easy” Jeshua assignment. “Take stock of what you have. You will be surprised, because you will fill pages of the notebook with what you do have, even down to the smallest little thing. You will start out with the big things first, and then you will add more to it, and more. Before you know it, you are going to be living in great gratitude. Everything you desire, you are already creating for yourself.” Start making that list and add to it daily in your journal.
- Pray for a friend who is in need of healing in the way that Jeshua suggests by seeing them already whole and well. Journal about the situation and the process. Note any healing that occurs in you as well.
- “As you wake up in the morning every day, think about what you want to give away in that day, be it tangible or intangible.” Begin the practice of giving something every day. It can be a physical object, a phone call, an errand or service that you give. Add it to your list.
- Affirmation: “I am unlimited; I have everything I desire and I share my abundance with others.”

Affirmation for the Week:

“I am unlimited; I have everything I desire and I share my abundance with others.”
